PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Keep in mind the Gaelic sermon of the pastor, Rev. Norman McDonald. The Willing Helpers are putting on a concert the night of Nov. 10 in the church, when a debate will be given by a team from Priceville and Clifford. Resolved that Nationalism, rather than Internationalism, would tend to solve the economic situation in Canada. Mr. Arch Clark of Dromore, is expected to be present. Music, recitation and song will also be on the program and lunch will be served.

Mr and Mrs Stanley Harrison, Mr and Mrs Chas Tucker and Gerald, visited Sunday with the Hincks families. Miss Lamont, field sec'y from Toronto, gave a splendid address on Tuesday last in the church. Owing to disagreeable weather and condition of the roads, there were few out.

Mr and Mrs C. Anderson and baby, returned Sunday to Niagara, after visiting the past week at A. B. McArthur's and Wilfrid Watson's homes. Mr Bert Somers and Ilene, Donald Burrell and Mrs Stephenson, Markdale; Mr and Mrs R. Fettes, Owen Sound, spent Sunday at Wm Hincks'.

On Tuesday a miscellaneous show was held in Hall, in honor of Miss Annie McLeod and Mr Bill McKeechne, who were recently married.

A meeting of the members of the program com. for Nov. 10, was held Monday, at home of Mr A. Hincks, to arrange for program.

On Thursday night the Presbyterian Church held their annual fowl supper in church and despite the roads, which were in a bad condition, a good crowd came to enjoy a good supper. Dr Inkster, Toronto, gave a splendid lecture on his trip to Palestine and also showed slides of the same. Rev J. A. Moir and Rev. N. McDonald gave brief addresses. Proceeds were nearly $55.00.

attended service at St Columba on Sunday morning. The evening service next Sunday, will be a missionary one, when lantern views will be given of Japan and her people, the descriptions being given by the resident minister, Rev. J. A. Moir, of St. Columba United.

The young people's United Presbyterian of South Grey, meets Wednesday in the church here, when a good turn-out is expected.

Rev. Norman McDonald (Pres.) promises a sermon in Gaelic next Sunday morning, to the men and women of the heathery hills. Our own early education has been sadly neglected on this score. But Camerashin-dhu.

The masquerade Halloween social put on by the Y.P.S. of St Columba on Monday, passed off very successfully with a large attendance. Some wonderful creations were on parade, from Queen Elizabeth, a bride and groom, Queen of Gypsies, Sambo and Chloe and a host of court followers, with varying degrees of importance. Refreshments were served cafeteria a-la-mode, fortunes told and the picture of your future husband or wife were shown for a trifling outlay. Games and contests finished off a hilarious time.

We are pleased to note that several pupils of the school, were successful in taking many of the prizes at the Co. fair held at O. Sound; Jack McArthur, 1st for singing and drawing; Anna McVicar, 1st for Cosmos; 3rd, for towels, 4th for pie, cake and gladiolas.

HOPEVILLE

The United Church Mission Band are having their annual Halloween masquerade social Tuesday evening, when all sorts of funny looking objects parade round about, quite unconcerned that there never was to be a gain. The social will be held this year at home of Mrs Robt. Crawford. Rev. A. E. Elliot, Mrs Elliot and children, spent the week end with Brantford relatives.

On Sunday, Nov. 5th, Rev. A. E. Bentham, Caledon, a former pastor of Hopeville United, will be present to have charge of the annual W. M. S. Thankoffering service.

The weather has been rather a poor sample the past week. By all press reports, we seem to be the lucky ones in not being snowed under, like many sections of the Dominion.

Mrs Gilbert Christie, Turners, a recent guest with her daughter, Mrs Geo. Shand, and daughter, Toronto, were visitors last week of Mrs Geo. Gilkes.

Mrs Geo. Christie, Misses Lena Christie, Helen Gow, Bessie and F. Pallister and Mr Geo Pallister, attended a Young People's Rally in the Missionary Alliance Tabernacle in Toronto last Saturday.

Mesdames J. Mitchell, Walton, R. Crawford, C. Fowler, J. Sinclair, H. Jack and R. S. Fraser, of United W. M. S., attended a splendid Sectional Conference at Inistogie last Monday.

The Women's Institute will meet Nov. 5th, at home of Mrs Wm Dingwall. Roll call: Hymn writers: duet, Mrs. Geo. Christie and Mrs. J. Sinclair; Paper, on "Girls' preparation for life", by Mrs W. Moody; Address, by Mr. Mountain, Dromore; Address, Mr Herb. Corbett, Proton Station.

SWINTON PARK

The morning of 31st October is very foggy, looks as if the spooks might be out to-night. We hope they have a lot of sport with no worse results than rousing the ire of a few old cranks.

We are sorry to say that Hugh McLean, con 14, is lying in bed with a sore leg for several days. Dr Mountain is attending him. We hope that very soon you will be out again Hugh.

Mrs Hugh McMillan is on an extended visit with daughters, son, sister and brother in Toronto at present.

Mrs Alfred Bowden and small son are spending a couple of weeks in the city. Garfield Anthony was home from the city over the week end.

Miss Marjorie McLeod, R.N. is on duty in Durham hospital at present. There is some extra scratching of heads, also of hawbees going on, on account of the Grey and Bruce Ins. Company making an extra call.

Timber Dan is again in this locality taking out rockelm in the round. John Haw and sons are busy this week and have teams hauling and loading several cars of lumber at Proton.

At R. J. McNaulty's sale last week the usual crowd of farmers were present but bidding was not brisk as in times past.

The weather last week was discouraging with snow and cold but we are looking for a few fine days yet. Geo. Watson, Wes. and Kitchener Flood, of the Park, are in Beaver Valley for three weeks picking apples.

Howard Watson is going on his usual hunting trip to the north the end of this week.

The W. M. S. are meeting in the church, Wednesday at 2 p.m. Miss Lamont, field sec'y, is expected to address the ladies.

Bible class meets next Sunday at 2 p.m. Rev. Mr McDonald as leader. Church services for the winter months, will meet at 2.30 instead of 3 o'clock.

In the school this p.m. Miss Heard and pupils are going to stage a Halloween show.

Mrs Dick Hardy is entertaining a few friends to Halloween amusements to-night.

We noticed in Saturday's papers, that Tom Sutherland, Dep. Minister of mines for Ontario, had just returned from a hunting trip up north and reports having seen 10,000 wild geese in one flock, also a flight of ducks two miles long and quarter mile wide.

Also two other Tories from Toronto, Coulter McLean and Thos. Bell. It is wonderful how these practical men can count wild geese and measure a flight of ducks. But we like the old Scotch lady say they had been tasting, which at times will help your vision. There is a story in the Park of some hound pups, but for fuller information inquire of Delbert Haw at the school.
