

Week of Prayer in Durham Churches

Monday, Jan. 8—In the Presbyterian Church; Rev. J. Billingsley will speak on "Worshipping God." Tuesday, Jan. 9th—In Knox Church; Rev. W. Almack will speak on "Reading the Bible." Wednesday, Jan. 10—In the Church of England; Dr. Armour, Toronto, will address the meeting in the interests of the Bible Society. Thursday, Jan. 11—In the Baptist Church, Rev. W. H. Smith will speak on "Winning Others to Christ." Friday, Jan. 12—In the Queen St. Church; Rev. B. D. Armstrong will speak on "Serving Others for Christ." The offering each night will be for the Bible Society—the helper of all the churches.

EXCHANGE OF PULPITS

The Durham ministers will exchange pulpits on Sunday morning, Jan. 14, as follows: Anglican Church—Rev. W. H. Smith; Baptist Church—Rev. J. Billingsley; Queen St. Church—Rev. J. T. Priest; Presbyterian Church—Rev. W. C. Almack; Knox Church—Rev. B. D. Armstrong.

E. W. McQuay is the new mayor of Owen Sound, winning over his opponent Walden Thomson by 878 votes.

John McEachern, a native of Egremont Tp., but a section foreman of the C.N.R. the last two years at Warton, died in that town Sunday.

GREETING!

THE "REVIEW"

DURHAM, ONT.

Some Thoughts for the New Year

HAPPINESS IS LIKE THE SUN—IT BELONGS TO EVERYBODY.

The "Review" does not pretend to be a dispenser of New Year thoughts and resolutions, for the simple reason we are better at imbibing them, even if they fall on stony ground, and bear no fruit. This old world has many whims and capers and it is hard to see at times, the justice he is supposed to dispense to all.

We ran across the following paragraphs in the notebook of Samuel Butler, on the topic "Therewith to be Content": "I imagine that life can give nothing much better or worse than what I have myself experienced. I should say I have proved pretty well the extremes of mental pleasure and pain; and so I believe, each in his own way, does almost every man. That when you come to thing about it, is wholly true. Some men have more of the luxuries of life than others, but those experiences which are richest in pleasure, are the common heritage of us all.

Charles M. Schwab, at last reports had more money than I—but just what can be buy with it?

Three meals a day—They will cost more to serve than my three, but if Charlie enjoys them any more he is going home.

A roof over his head. It will be a wider and steeper roof than mine and more rain will run off it: but the rain that comes off mine will be just wet, and underneath I shall be just as dry.

A good night's sleep—if he's lucky.

He can own more of this world's surface than I. But try as he may, he cannot breathe any more of its air; he cannot absorb any more of its sunshine; he cannot bribe the ocean to give him any more invigorating bath; nor the evening stars to shine any brighter over his estate.

The world is full of pleasant sights and sounds and smells, and his ears and eyes do not bring him any sensation a particle more sweet than mine bring to me.

Compared with the blessings we have in common the few blessings which he has and I have not are insignificant.

The habit of contentment is formed, not from without, but from within.

It is strange that contentment is not more widespread, considering how very common and close at hand are the elements that go into it.

Work is one big ingredient. Simple tastes—the power of finding great satisfaction in little things is another. St. Paul, for instance, did a good-sized job and left a shining record.

He was forever pressing forward to his goal. Yet it was he also who wrote: "For I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content."

SOME HIGHLIGHTS IN DURHAM'S HISTORY

Durham is a small place and the place it occupies in the sun is very trifling. But those who have gone forth in the world from its area, are confident there is no place in the world just like it. Every town or community, however small, has had some memorable days behind it, and some of these the Review is trying to give. There may be many more, but the ones we select have been jotted down merely from memory. It would be well if more of these "stand-out" days were kept in touch with present days, if for nothing else than jog our memory as to the part citizens now dead and gone in many instances, had in the life of Durham. Do you remember?

When the I.O.D.E. staged the Confederation Pageant in 1927 and also the "Mary Queen of Scots" enactment in 1929?

When the official opening of Durham pavement took place in 1929? When Durham Town Hall was officially opened after renovation and re-decoration?

The Last Model School Class in Durham? The long fight over procuring the new High School for Durham? The day the Armistice was signed? The first official appearance of Santa Claus in Durham streets, 1932? The disastrous conflagration in Durham in 1929, when several stores in town business section went up in flames.

When Wm. Calder and Allan Bell were elected to the Wardenship of Grey County?

The year when a Royal Arch Mason Chapter was instituted in town? That in 1932 the Oddfellow lodge procured the McKeeffe Store as their special property?

When Durham Junior Hockey Club won the League championship in 1932, when they defeated Port Egin in the finals?

ROCKY SAUGEN

We wish the Review staff and readers a happy and prosperous New year.

Miss Ross spent the holiday with her parents near Mt. Forest.

Mr. Wm. Hill was a visitor with his sister, Mrs. Geo. Turnbull, S. Bentnick, over the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Norman Thompson has been in Dr.'s care this week and improving nicely.

The annual school meeting was held on Wednesday last. Mr. Jas McCra is the new trustee. Mr. Jerry Allord is putting in the wood at $2 a cord; Mr. Earl Vessie the care-taking at $60.

Mrs. Nell Livingstone, Townsend Lake, was a guest for a few days with her sister, Mrs. L. McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas Lawrence entertained at a family dinner on New Year's Day.

The U.F.W.O. will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Murray Ritchie on Friday, Jan. 12.

Mr. Jack Lawson returned to Toronto, after spending Christmas vacation at his home here.

HAMPDEN

Two merry sleigh loads of young people from this part were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Aitken of Steel Bridge, last Wednesday, to meet and wish all happiness to Mr. David Whiteford and his bride, Miss Naomi Sprankel of Neustadt, before they left these parts for their future home in Detroit. But alas and alas—the honored guests never arrived.

The storm had played havoc with the roads. Nevertheless those who braved the storm had a merry time, as it was more than the wee sma' hours when they reached home.

Two Misses Sharp, together with Mr. Tom Fulton and sister Mae, provided the music.

Miss Jean Priest, Hamilton, visited a few days last week at 'The Maples.'

We are sorry to report Mrs. Hugh Fulton is still under the Dr.'s care. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Not often in our recollection have we witnessed such a bath as 1933 got the last day of the old year. It has started 1934 with an icy slate.

There was no church service Sunday, owing to the weather and no mail service Thursday on account of the opposite extreme in weather conditions.

A large family gathering was held at home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson in the New Year: Mr. and Mrs. A. Park, Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Park and family, Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mather, and family, Priceville; Mr. and Mrs. Reg Ranton and children, Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. G. Torry, Mulock.

Quite a number in this district are working at the wood problem as the winter we have had has not been very mild in spots.

(Intended for last week)

A very successful Christmas concert was held Dec. 21, in the school, at No. 8, when the pupils under Miss Beth Hincks tuition, displayed talent in reciting and singing. There were drills and monologues too, also a play, "Money for Jam" given by the young people, while Mr. Noah Schenk had charge of the lengthy program.

Santa Claus put in his appearance and delivered the parcels from a well laden and beautifully decorated tree. Refreshments were served at the close of an enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. Steven Heckling and sister Elvira, Walkerton, are spending the holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hickling.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Torry and son Clark, Mulock, were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fulton ate Christmas dinner with Mrs. Wm. Fulton, at Mulock.

A very enjoyable sleigh-riding party took place from the hill-top at the home of Misses Mae and Myrtle Sharp on Monday night.

Many a feathered fowl was devoured at the Christmas dinner, but as yet we have heard of no serious results.

OUR NEW YEAR WISH

Health enough to make work a pleasure;

Strength enough to support your needs and overcome them;

Grace enough to confess your sins and forsake them;

Patience enough to toil until some good is accomplished;

Charity enough to see some good in your neighbors;

Love enough to move you to be useful and helpful to others;

Faith enough to make real the things of God.

—Goethe.

STRICKEN CALIFORNIA

The horror of another catastrophe—this time by floods—in California, is before the citizens of that state. Between 8 and 15 inches of rainfall suddenly pouring down as through a trap door, had been sprung in leaden skies and has caused enormous damage in Southern California. This is the third catastrophe within nine months for that State.

CRAWFORD

One of the well-known Twamley family of Bentnick, was called to her Eternal Home, Wed., Dec. 27, in the person of Mrs. Richard Boyce of Durham, whose maiden name was Mary Jane Twamley. Death came as a relief to deceased, who had suffered patiently and with such Christian fortitude for the past four months. She was born in Bentnick Township on the Byers farm at Corktown Hill, a daughter of the late Robert and Margaret Twamley. She was in her 65th year. In 1873, the family moved to the 9th con Bent, and 32 years ago she was married to Mr. Boyce. The greater part of her married life was spent on lot 25 con 8, Bentnick. Here they successfully farmed until six years ago. By skill of industry and thrift, they were enabled to retire to town and take life easier.

Mrs. Boyce invariably made many friends and not only won her friendships but kept them.

She was a woman who lived up to her convictions, one in whom you could confide your secrets and a kindly neighbor. In sickness or trouble she was ever ready to offer a helping hand.

For two years previous to her departure for Durham, she was a valued President of the Crawford W.M.S. and was a member of the former Methodist Church and later of the United Church. Since going to town, she has been associated with Knox United Church.

However, it is in the home that she will be most missed, as she was a good homemaker, one who looked well onto the ways of her household. Her husband and one daughter (Rita), Mrs. Geo. Torry, are left to mourn the loss of a good Christian wife and mother. Two sons died in infancy. Two grand daughters, Jean and Leis Torry, to whom she was greatly devoted, also mourn. Two brothers also survive, Robert of Durham and George of Victoria, B. C.

The funeral was held from Knox Church, with a short service at the home on Friday at 2.30 p.m. The service was conducted by Rev. W.H. Smith. The entire service conformed as nearly as possible to wishes of deceased. The service opened with hymn 'Rock of Ages'. The 14th chap. of John, her favorite chapter, was read and 'Safe in the Arms of Jesus' sung. The pastor dwelt particularly on the words 'Let not your heart be troubled.' He said there is very little told in the Bible of what Heaven is like but one joy is to meet and to know again our loved ones. If we could see a glimpse of it, we would be homesick for it.

Following the service, a short committal service was held at the graveyard in Durham cemetery.

The floral tributes were beautiful and included a pillow from the family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Howell and son Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Twamley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Ledingham, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ledingham, Victoria; the McDougall family, Hamilton; Walter and Helen Boyce, Hamilton and Mr. Edward Boyce, Durham.

A very fitting verse comes to me: Two dear bright eyes, a tender smile A loving heart that knew no guile; Deep trust in God that all was right, Her joy to make some other bright. If sick or suffering one she knew, Some gentle act of love she'd do; No thought of self but of the other, I know He said, "Well done, dear Mother."

GOOD ENTERTAINMENT BY CRAWFORD S. S.

The annual Christmas entertainment of Crawford Sunday School was held in the church, Dec. 19th. A full church greeted a most splendid program of recitations, pageants, solos, Christmas plays and pantomimes. A few of the outstanding numbers on the program were a Christmas play and pageant, "Fires of Yuletide"; a play, "Christmas in Gooseberry Glen"; a pantomime "Face to Face"; the duet sung by Mrs. Kline McCaslin and Mrs. D. J. MacDonald; a candle drill by Primary Class; a welcome exercise by the Intermediate and Sr. pupils. The closing number was a beautiful pageant, "White Gifts for the King."

Thursday, Miss Irene Klages staged the annual Christmas tree and concert in S. S. No. 9. Mr. Will Campbell was chairman. The pupils showed careful training and presented an excellent program consisting of dialogues, drills and recitations and a beautiful sacred pageant. The program was interspersed with music by the Sharpe orchestra and the corn huskers from Louise. Messrs Edward Bailey and Crawford Sharpe favored the audience with solos. The last number was a humorous play by the young people of the section, "The Deacon's Honeymoon", one hour and a quarter in length. Lunch was served at close and gifts from the tree distributed by Santa.

Some of those who spent part of the holiday season with friends were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Boyce and family, with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fiddis, of North Brant; Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McDonald, Ronald and Florence with Mr. Geo. Brown; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McDougall and family with Mr. Will Henderson; Mr. A. McDonald and Myrtle with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hastie; Mr. and Mrs. Will Anderson and family and Mr. and Mrs. F. Sberk Anderson of Scone; Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell and children with Mr. and Mrs. C. McClocklin in Glenelg; Mr.

and Mrs. Harry McDougall and family of Durham and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. MacDonald and children with Mr. and Mrs. Archie McDougall, and Mr. and Mrs. Kline McCaslin with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dolphin of Tara.

Mr. and Mrs. Dougald Hastie spent the week end with friends in Collingwood township.

Mrs. Will Campbell and sons Ralph and Glen are visiting this week with her parents in Glenelg.

Friends of Mr. Alexander Brown, Owen Sound, will be pleased to learn that he is recovering nicely after a tonsil operation in the Owen Sound Hospital, Tuesday last week.

We hope to get some news from the Toronto papers once more, now that their civic elections are over.

Mayor Stewart of Toronto is in the big chair again for 1934. He had a wonderful vote, polling 40,000 more votes than did the three other contestants. Nothing like being sure.

Here and There

The Canadian Pacific Railway supply farm, Strathmore, Alta., had the best Holstein cow in the four-year-old or over (not in milk) class at the Royal Winter Fair recently held at Toronto.

Banff Winter Sports Carnival will be held from January 31 to February 4, it is announced. The carnival will be followed by a series of sports week-ends, each being devoted to one particular type of sport.

The problem of truck-rail competition was declared a national one by S. Hayes, M.A., in a recent address before the Engineering Institute. He saw regulation and restriction in areas where the truck does not belong as the only solutions.

Christmas festivities this year will be enlivened by Japanese oranges of which 38,400 boxes arrived at Victoria recently aboard the Empress of Canada, for distribution to a number of Canadian cities. 5,000 boxes were left at Victoria and the fruit will doubtless feature in the Empress Hotel Yuletide celebrations.

Since October 3, 1930, a total of 101,765 people have been settled on Canadian farms or given farm employment under the auspices of the Dominion Department of Immigration and the two great transcontinental railway companies, according to a report issued by the Department of Immigration. $9,236 of these people were settled without financial assistance.

Expression of confidence in a brighter business outlook in Canada, coupled with definite improvement in conditions throughout the Dominion, was made recently by H. J. Humphrey, general manager, Canadian Pacific Railway, eastern lines, in an interview during his trip of inspection to the Maritime prior to the opening of the winter navigation season.

Five ports hitherto not touched at by world cruises—Panama, Straits Settlements; Semarang, Java; Boeleleyn and Padang Bay, Bali; and Zambouanga in the Zula Archipelago—have been added to the 1934 itinerary of the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain, sailing from New York January 4. The cruise will cover 132 days and 39,916 miles and will return to New York May 14.

Special low fares with generous time limits for the return trip will be available on Canadian railroads for the Christmas and New Year holiday periods, it is announced by C. P. Riddell, chairman, Canadian Passengers' Association. These low rate tickets will be good between all stations in Canada and also between points in Canada and certain United States connections.
