YEOVIL

1934 is with us and all its opportunities for good or evil. The majority of the people hope and pray that it may bring good to us. This is a mere suggestion as a New Year resolution, that we aid in the answer of our own prayers by being and doing the things we ask for. "Providence helps those who help themselves."
 Yevovil club held their annual meeting on Jan. 3rd, when the following officers were elected for 1934: Pres. Arch. Clarke; 1st Vice Pres. Gladstone Melness; Rec. Sec'y, Robt. Haas; Sec'y Treas. Clarence Ross.

HOLSTEIN LEADER

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

NORTH EGREMONT

Miss Margaret Leith returned to Stratford Normal on Monday of this week.
 Miss Beulah McKenzie came up from Toronto this week to see what North Egremont looked like.
 Master Clarence Young, son of Mr and Mrs Joseph Young, at the Lake, fell and hurt his head badly while playing at school last week and is under the doctor's care. We are pleased to state he is getting better.
 Mr Thos. Moore has been quite ill the past week, and under the doctor's care.
 Messrs Martin and George Wilson were in Milverton a day or two last week.
 While in Holstein this Wednesday evening, we noticed a car go down main street with some old pallets and boots tied on the rear. On enquiring about it, we were informed that Mr. Harry Pinder and Miss Marion Hamilton were the newly-weds.
 Monday night when Joe Wilson was coming home from Durham, he overtook a team and sleigh on the 2nd com. with no driver. Joe tied them up to Wm. Jacques' gate, and had him come out to see who owned them, but as no one knew, Mr. Jacques put them in his stable for the night.

KNOX CORNERS

A good congregation was out to the service Sunday and though scarcely able to be out our pastor gave a fine message and very suitable for the beginning of the new year. He took for his subject "Refusing to go back" and gave as his own resolve for the new year, that he would live closer to God than in the year that has gone. Would it not be well for each of us to do likewise? Jesus set a very high standard for His disciples, when He said "Be ye perfect, even as my Father in heaven is perfect." The same standard is for us to-day. The way may sometimes be dark and the clouds intervene, but if we follow the leading of the Master, we shall one day hear His "well done, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."
 Mr. and Mrs Wm. Marshall, Egremont, visited on Sunday at Mr D. Marshall's.
 Little Milton Caldwell who has been in delicate health so long, has been quite ill and under the doctor's care for the past week. We hope he may soon show some improvement.
 Quite a number from the surrounding neighborhood, gathered at home of Mr Wm. Carson on Thursday evening of last week. The evening was planned as a surprise for Norman, while on his vacation at his home here. Those who were present report a pleasant time.

ALBERT HAW, OF PROTON STILL DOES A FULL DAY'S WORK

Despite his 84 years, Albert Haw, Proton Township, is still hale and hearty and able to do a good day's work. Besides managing his farm on which he originally settled, Mr Haw also runs a saw, lathe, shingle and planing and grain mill. On chopping days in the grain mill, Mr Haw rises at 5 a. m., winter and summer, and fires the wood-burning boilers. He considers it a good day if he is through before 8 p. m.
 Although he still does work around his 200 acre farm, he has never been able to master a tractor. He explains that he was brought up with horses and oxen, but believes in keeping up with the times and so uses tractors and modern farm machinery.
 He recalls cradling grain and hand raking and tying from early morning until late in evening in the days when the wolves, bears and deer far outnumbered the human residents of his section of the country.
 During the years of hard work which he has put on his farm, Mr. Haw has formulated a philosophy. Hard work and patience, he believes will carry one through even the roughest places, providing one is not a quitter.
 Mr. Haw's hobby is dogs. He breeds and trains them.

Life Saving Efforts

Fighting for the lives of men, women and children, is a never ceasing struggle at the Muskoka, Hospitals, where nearly a thousand patients are now being treated for tuberculosis.
 "Perhaps you do not fully realize the predicament of this dreaded disease, the majority of whom came from the families of the very poor.
 Living in cramped quarters, where sunshine and fresh air are often as scarce as nourishing food, is it any wonder that consumption finds them out?
 "Fragile and weak and tired, their plight is pitiful, but a heaven awaits them with your help. Most of them may be restored to health.
 Will you please send what you can to assist in this great work. Please address George A. Reid, Treasurer, 222 College Street, Toronto 2.

That Printing Job

Frequently we hear about people trading out of town. The complaint is made that they do not help to build up the community; they spend their money where they will never see it again, with people who contribute nothing to local taxes and local institutions. And very often the person who buys out of town pays more than if he had investigated first and bought at home.

These things are true of the printing trade also, although the very persons who do most of the complaining are often the ones who never think of it that way. Too frequently the home printer is passed up for the outside solicitor who comes here making big promises and offering jobs at small prices on big quantities, thus misleading the buyer into thinking he is getting a bargain. Prices per thousand are always less on large quantities, no matter where you buy printing.

THE DURHAM REVIEW would appreciate a chance to supply your printing needs. You will find our work satisfactory in every way. We have latest types of equipment. Samples of our work will be gladly shown at any time.
