On application from G. J. Kohl, a candidate for the town council in Col. Kingwood, a recount of the ballots cast in that town at the recent election was granted by Judge Holmes.

A large Family Tree Mr. Wm. McBride, Priceville, is preparing a large family genealogical tree album, of which there are 700 descendants, Mr. McBride's first ancestors coming to Canada in 1834, settling in a wilderness, near Bolton.

Southampton ratepayers voted overwhelmingly in favor of the town granting a $30,000 loan to the Bell Furniture Company when they voted on the by-law on Monday. A total of 362 voted in favor of the by-law and only 22 voted against it. Only 51 of a possible 435 failed to record a vote in the balloting.

Back to Work Dr. T. H. Sneath, Durham's popular medic, who has had an enforced rest in Durham Hospital since October last, in serving time for a leg fracture, returned to his home on Thursday last. While gradually getting stronger, he still uses a wheeled chair as a safeguard but which does not interfere with dispensing medicine. Many friends are glad to see him able to get home, and will be glad once more when he can walk to the Post Office to receive his Daily Globe.

His Grandfather's Medal Mr. George Hay was proud to receive last week the Naval Reserve silver medal,—the property of his grandfather and namesake, George Hay, for his service in this department of England's navy. It is a beautiful medal and one that any person would be proud to own. As the only grandson and also bearing the same name, the heirloom passes on to the one most entitled to have it. The late George Hay spent also many years as a whaler and his experiences on whaling expeditions off the coast of Greenland, were thrilling and daring. The old guard that manned Britain's mercantile marine were men made of stern stuff and no danger was too great for them.

Fifty-nine Years of Wedded Life. Not to many is given the privilege of travelling life's journey together for almost sixty years, but such is the rare experience of two of Durham's esteemed residents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMeekin, who on Sunday last observed their fifty-ninth anniversary at the home of their son, George, on Albert street. The day was quietly spent, with the welcome presence also of Mrs. Stagg, (Mary) of Toronto, their only daughter. Will, another son in Toronto, is the third surviving member of their family. Mrs. McMeekin was eighty years of age the following day, Monday. May their remaining years abound in comfort and happiness, beloved by family and friends.

KNOX LADIES' AID ELECT OFFICERS AT ANNUAL MEETING Knox Ladies' Aid Society held their annual meeting on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. H. Ledingham, Queen St. The day proved inclement, but there was a good attendance of members present. The Secretary, Miss Alice Ramage, gave a statement of the year's activities and Mrs. Jessie MacIntyre, treasurer, gave the yearly financial report. During the past year the meetings have been held in the homes of members and have proven most enjoyable. For election of officers, Mrs. W. H. Smith conducted proceedings, which resulted as follows: Hon. President, Mrs. W. H. Smith; President, Mrs. G. S. Kearney; 1st Vice-Pres., Mrs. D. C. Town; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. Cameron Lauder; Secretary, Miss Alice Ramage; Treasurer, Mrs. Jessie McIntyre.

Tea Committee: West Ward, Mrs. Wm. MacDonald; Mrs. R. Sparling; East Ward: Mrs. T. Brown, Mrs. J. N. Perdue, Miss M. McGill, Mrs. Thos. Whitmore. South Ward: Mrs. E. Schenk, Miss W. Blyth. North Ward: Mrs. A. Hay, Mrs. A. Jackson. The ward committees for country stand the same as last year.

The ladies plan entertaining the ladies of town to a St. Valentine Tea on 14th February, for which further notice will be given.

Harmony has prevailed throughout the past year and the year ahead promises to be equally harmonious under the presidency of Mrs. Kearney.

Mrs. Ledingham and her assistants served light refreshments at the close.

FIRST CARNIVAL OF SEASON DRAWS MANY MASKERS

On Monday evening in Durham rink there was a thoroughly cosmopolitan assemblage of characters and nationalities, ranging all the way from the grotesque clown to a courtier at royal court. Some two hundred odd skaters were in costume and while all of these did not compete for the prizes, there were sufficient entered to cause embarrassment to the judges. The Young People of Queen Street Church were responsible for the evening and they should realize something for their responsibility. The door receipts were $17.00.

To start the evening's program there was a thrilling (?) hockey game of past sprinters on the ice, known as Mack's "Semi-Professionals" and George's "Simon-Purees". (Mack Saunders and George Hahn) The butcher element of the town was well represented on the line-up, with Mark Wilson and Ezra Schenk defending the goals and Aaron Ries on defence. The game ended 7-4, in favour of Mack's "Semi Professionals".

The prizes for masquerade called for Lady, Gent, Girl and Boy Fancy and the same caste in Comic Costume. Mrs. J. B. Duffell, Miss Alice Ramage and Jim McLachlan were judges and awarded the events to the following:

- Lady, fancy, (Roumanian) — Miss Elizabeth Ries. Gent, fancy,—William Firth. Girl, fancy, (Pierott) — Miss Vera Lauder. Boy, fancy, (Spearmint Gum) — Lorne Almack. Lady, comic,—Thora Black. Gent, comic,—Bobby Neaves. Girl, comic,—Jean Town. Boy, comic,—Pat Smith.

Best Hard Time Couple—Jasper Traynor, Gordon Lyons (Chatsworth).

The third section of the carnival was devoted to races and these were won as follows:

- Girls' race under 14—Lorraine McArthur. Boys' race under 14—Archie McDougall. Couple race—Victor Goodchild and Jean Rowe. Lady and Gent Race—Harry Falingham and Ina McDonald.

There was a lucky number ticket also, which was won by Arthur Newell.

Bagging the Bunnies

About thirty Durham hunters in nine carloads, struck out for Ripley locality in Bruce Co. Monday, on their now annual jack rabbit hunt. They had a very prosperous day of it, bringing home no less than 160 of them. A mile and a quarter block is surrounded and as the hunters close in, the peppering and excitement is on.

Killed in Fall on Stairs.

Chas. Coppinger, postmaster of Hanover, was found lying dead at the foot of the cellar stairs in his home on Tuesday morning, having a fractured skull. He was going to tend the furnace and his wife discovered him, when he did not return. He was about 63 years of age and was recognized by the Government with a cup for efficient post office service.

THE ROLL CALL

MRS. WILLIAM J. BLACK Messrs Robert and George Burnett of town, were pained as well as surprised last Sunday morning, to receive a message from St. Marys, informing them of the death of their sister, Jessie, Mrs. William J. Black of that town. During the night a stroke of paralysis overtook her and about 9 a. m. Sunday, she passed away. By her death there will mourn deeply, the husband and three children viz: Miss Dorothy, teacher on staff of St. Marys Public School; Miss Isabel, a recent graduate of Victoria Hospital, London, and one son, Jack, at home. There also survive five brothers, Robert and George, of Durham; Edwin of Hanover, John, in the West, and Harry in Detroit.

Mrs. Black spent most of her girlhood days in town, where she will be always kindly remembered by a wide circle of friends. About 25 years ago she was wedded to Mr. Black, and they continued to reside in Durham. Here a son was born, who died in infancy. Since their removal to St. Marys about twenty years ago, they have made frequent trips to the deceased's home town. Only in November last were Mr and Mrs Black back visiting her brothers here and she appeared at that time particularly well. Mrs. Black was quite skilled in all forms of painting art, and on Christmas last, her brother Robert and Mrs. Burnett received from her a very fine hand-painted cushion top. This bears out the fact that her illness has been of short duration.

The funeral took place in St. Marys on Tuesday, January 16th. Her brothers from Durham and nephew, Dr. Royden Burnett, were in attendance.

Walkerton Wins 5-3 in Ten Minutes Overtime

With the old hockey game almost in the bag for Durham on Tuesday night here, Walkerton capitalized on Durham penalties, put on a 'power play finish' which produced the tying goal two minutes before full time, then added 3 more to clinch it in overtime, 5 to 2. With a 2-1 score for Durham almost to the close it was a game in Walkerton on Friday night and two more in the play-offs between the same teams, so Durham is yet strictly in the hunt.

Better condition and costly penalties to Durham gave the visitors victory, who were full value for their win. They play snappy hockey and their stars of former years—Raybould and Walker and Trushinski, are reinforced by Doughty and Goodwillie, former pros, and Benninger a smart junior. If they beat Durham out in the district race, they should go a long way.

Joey Raybould, speedy Walkerton centre, was the best man on the ice, possibly excepting Jack Schultz in the local net, who put up a whirlwind display of puck-blocking. On both goals he was beaten on in regular time he had no chance, with Raybould in close uncheeked, while on a couple of overtime scores, his view was blocked by players.

Durham was handicapped when R. McGill, centre man, had his nose broken two minutes after the start, by a crack from Raybould's stick, and the game was held up while repairs were made. He was back on in 10 minutes, but could not display his usual effectiveness, though he gave assist for the second goal.

The game was in charge of referee W. Garbutt of Owen Sound and was rather difficult for one of his experience to handle. He may have tried to be fair, but both teams were dissatisfied with his penalties, or lack of them, at times. Two unnecessary ones to Durham paved the way for Walkerton to tie it up in the final frame.

Walkerton drew first blood when Raybould tallied on Walker's pass, and had a little better of the argument for 20 minutes, in the second period. Durham soon tied it when Dean blazed one in from near the blue line which Oberle never saw. E. Schutz and Doughty threatened to mix it and were given time to cool off. Both teams were changing lines frequently, with Durham attacking steadily, but missed many grand scoring chances. Once Elvidge was right in, but Oberle fell on the disc and thwarted a score. It was sweet team play by R. McGill and Dean which produced Durham's second corner, the latter scoring.

Penalties were numerous in third with Durham drawing the lion's share but the locals held the fort, almost continuously short-handed for 18 minutes. Then with only 3 men on the ice, besides the goal tender, (C. McGill and Murdoch being off) Raybould again tallied on Walker's assist making it 2-2, and overtime was necessary.

The overtime was a nightmare. The tired Durham crew could not maintain the pace, and Raybould blazed in two more shots and Walker the third in 10 minutes. Durham: goal, J. Schutz; defence, C. McGill, E. Schutz; centre R. McGill; wings, Dean, Elvidge; subs, Rowe, Murdoch, Lauder, N. Tucker. Walkerton: goal, Oberle; defence, Trushinski, Goodwillie; centre, Raybould; wings, Walker, Doughty; subs, Benninger, McDonald, Oscar Moon, Bruder.

It was one of the fastest clashes ever seen here. Every man on Durham lineup displayed much improved hockey—and they had to, to cope with the shifty visitors.

The second lines of both teams seemed to be about as effective as the starters, and oftentimes more aggressive.

About a hundred supporters accompanied the visitors and made themselves heard. Elvidge drew an unjust penalty near the end of the game for objecting. (Continued on page 5)

SIGNED WITH CHESLEY JUNIORS

Three Durham youths, — Gordon McGill, Bert Lawrence and Orville McDonald have signed up with Chesley's Junior O.H.A. team, now leading their group and will play with them in Harrison this Wednesday night. All three are most promising prospects and should gain valuable experience, seeing Durham has no team entered this winter. McGill and Lawrence were two of the "pepper" forward line of last winter's Junior Northern champions. They have each four or five years yet in Junior ranks.

Mrs. Park's Life in Durham Spanned Many Years

Last week, the Review referred in a somewhat brief manner to the passing of one of Durham's earliest residents, Mrs. William Park. She was the wife of Durham's first Presbyterian minister and the part and influence she played and exerted in making the town it is to-day, will perhaps never be known. While first a wife and mother in the Manse, she was also a true pastor's wife and this in the struggling days of a church-building, was no easy task. It can be visualized the many times her lot was to cheer and encourage with wifely counsel a tired and weary husband of a pioneer church. The bounds of his congregation were wide and his sympathies wider, hence a deaf ear was turned to nobody.

Mrs. Park was the daughter of a British Army Captain and her memories were very vivid of a lovely home life. Miss Winnifred Park still cherishes correspondence between her grandparents, while the grandfather was stationed on military duty in India for sixteen years. They are models of letters that show the spirit of the English people. The late Mrs. Park was the eldest daughter of a family of five children, born at Connaught, Parish of Petty, Scotland, on the 8th of September, 1837. She was baptized a few months later by her maternal great grandfather, Rev. Pryse Campbell of Ardsheir, Scotland. When she was sixteen years of age, her father and family came to Canada, settling in Saugeen, Bruce Co., where is now Southampton.

It was here she met her future husband, and their ultimate marriage, which proved to be so happy. Her coming to Durham as a bride was, however, some years after 1859. Here they labored until 1886, when Rev. Mr. Park was succeeded by Rev. R. McNair. In this interval the storm over the introduction of instrumental music ensued, which led to a contention among the congregation out of which arose the new Presbyterian Church, Rev. Mr. Park remaining pastor over the Presbyterian church on the corner of Durham Road and Queen street North until 1882 when the two churches re-united and over which Rev. Robt. McNair presided. Mr. Park and his wife left for Milverton to reside for a few months and while here he passed away after a short illness of pneumonia. Hence it is seen, that Mrs. Park's work as a pastor's wife, lay all in Durham.

In the possession of Mrs. Park was a ring that has considerable history behind it. It is claimed to be one of the diamond rings of that ill-fated Mary, Queen of Scots. The evening previous to her death on the execution block, this queen passed a treasured memento on to her four Maries or maids of honor. One of these was a diamond ring in a small casket. In the course of the passing years, this ring came into the possession of a descendant of this maid of honor, who received the ring,—Lady Roddam by name. It was passed in turn to Lady Roddam's descendants, and with Mrs. Park it has remained for many, many years. Mr. J. A. Graham, when teaching the history lesson of Mary Queen of Scots procured this ring for the day to show the scholars her one-time possession. Something tangible to show in connection with any lesson, carries a longer memory for the student. Other jewels in the casket are owned by members of the family in Scotland.

The funeral was held on Saturday last to Durham cemetery, amid every token of respect and affection. Deceased's son, Dr. Campbell, was present from Hamilton and as well many valued friends of the family. Rev. B. D. Armstrong conducted the last services, Rev. W. H. Smith of Knox Church, assisting. The remains were borne to the hearse by Dr. J. F. Grant, Messrs. Oliver S. Hunter, W. S. Hunter, J. J. Smith, Moore McFadden, Campbell McLachlan, J. A. Rowland, W. H. Lauder.

Mr. P. Gagnon Home from Cleveland

Mr. Peter Gagnon returned to his home here Monday, from Cleveland, Ohio, where with his wife and daughter, he was to spend the Christmas vacation. Shortly after reaching his brother's home there, he became alarmingly ill with what is known as amoebic dysentery, an uncommon disease, and unwittingly spread by carriers. Specialists were called and his own medic, Dr. B. Jamieson sent for. Fortunately the trouble was stayed and though yet weak, is now in the convalescent stage. Dr. Jamieson went to Cleveland and accompanied him home.

The renowned Dr. Copeland writing daily in the Toronto Daily Star, writes regarding this trouble: "Most persons have the mistaken idea that amoebic dysentery is exclusively a disease of the tropics. Though an uncommon disease in this climate, it is occasionally found in the southern part of the United States. Within the past decade a good many cases have been discovered in the northern United States and Canada.

Unfortunately the victim of amoebic infection may not know he has the disease until many weeks have elapsed. In fact, symptoms may not appear for a period of two to twelve or even thirteen weeks. When the disease is recognized in its early stages, it can be cured. But the disorder is often overlooked and relief not sought until it is too late.

No one can deny the importance of careful health examinations of all food handlers. In the recent epidemic the source of infection was traced to contaminated food handlers, employees in eating establishments. All applications for food handling positions as well as those food handlers already employed, should be subjected to frequent examinations. Strict hygiene and personal cleanliness must be enforced. When these measures are properly adhered to outbreaks of dysentery will no longer occur.

ORGANIZED ATHLETIC CLUB

A number of the younger men of the town met in the Armoury last Thursday night and brought "The Durham Athletic Club" into existence. They have secured use of the armoury first four nights of each week and will promote boxing, wrestling and other sports among the members. There are several in town proficient in these sports to direct training. About 30 or 32 members are in line and all desiring to join will be welcomed. Sterling Miller was named Sec'y. Treas.: the ring committee comprises Joe Davison, Cliff Hood, Stan. Simons, Reg. Steeds; Membership com. is the same with Vic Goodchild and F. Kearns added. Officers will be elected later, and a business meeting held first Thursday each month.

PERSONAL MENTION

Misses Alethea and Edith Grant, teachers, of Toronto, were in Durham on Saturday last, attending the funeral of the late Mrs. (Rev.) William Park.

Miss Winnifred Park received a letter since her mother's death and burial from her cousin, formerly Miss Jean Elliott, now Mrs. (Rev.) J. D. McHaig, of Agincourt, stating her great regret at being unable to attend Mrs. Park's funeral. With her son, Alister, who is soloist at Deer Park Church, Toronto, and another cousin, they left Toronto in the morning and found much difficulty in making Guelph, which they did by noon. They pushed on in their car as far as Fergus, but realized they would not make Durham in time for the funeral. The son, Alister, had a church appointment also, so they deemed it wisdom to return to the city.

Mr. R. A. Farquharson, who is on the staff of the Toronto Daily Mail and Empire, was operated upon in Toronto on Monday last for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Wharton Hamilton, with the latter's sister, were week end guests with Mr. and Mrs. E. Schenk. The former couple delighted Knox congregation with their singing at Sunday morning service.

Mr. and Mrs. Moffet, Upper Town, received word Tuesday of the serious illness of their brother near Moorefield and left on Wednesday to be at his bedside. Mrs. David Nichol of Priceville is visiting a few days with Mrs. McCannel and Mrs. McPherson. Mr. John Re'chold, Mr. Jack Vincent and sister, Ruth, of London, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ritchie and family. Miss Kathryn R. McAuliffe, R. N., Toronto, is spending a week at the parental home.

Mrs. Robert Brigham, Hanover, is a guest this week with Mrs. J. Kress and daughter, Mrs. W. C. McDonald. The latter entertained at bridge Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, in her honor.

MR. AND MRS. WILLARD DONALD HONORED

Over two hundred guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Willard on Wednesday evening, Jan. 10th, and spent a very pleasant evening in cards and dancing—and the newly married couple received many beautiful and useful gifts. The U. F. W. O. presented them with a cheque and the following address: Dear Gladys:— We, the members of the Allan Park U. F. W. O. have assembled here this evening for the purpose of meeting with you and your husband ere your departure from our midst and to wish you both much joy and happiness in your new journey of life. We have always found you will help to help in our club and we feel we cannot let you leave us without some memento of our kind feelings toward you. We ask you therefore to accept this cheque as a slight token of our esteem.

Signed on behalf of the Club, Mrs. Harry Reay, Mrs. Geo. J. Turnbull.

Canadian Greys' Chapter, I.O.D.E. are holding a Court Whist party this Thursday evening in the Town Hall for the members and their friends.
