Old Clock Shipped
Recently there was shipped on a long journey of nearly 100 miles, across the line, the 7 foot tall Regulator, which for 63 years ticked the correct time in the store of the late R. J. Dale, Mt. Forest. It has now arrived at Kenosha, Wis. and will be set up in a prominent place in the store of his son, Mr. Thos. J. Dale, where the immense pendulum will again swing to and fro.

I.O.D.E. Held Court Whist
Can. Greys' Chapter, I.O.D.E. held another of their popular court whist evenings in the Town Hall Thursday evening last. There were 33 tables in use, hence $33 were receipts. At close of play, Messrs I. Steinacher and W. McDonnell were the high scorers for gents, and were handed each a deck of cards. Mrs. Jas. McLachlan and Miss Winnie Blyth were high lady scorers and received a pitcher and cup and saucer respectively. Light refreshments were served, followed by dancing for a couple of hours.

Miss Middleton Laid to Rest
The funeral of the late Miss M. Middleton was held on Thursday last, in Markdale, from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rusk, Queen St., to Markdale Chapel, thence to Pleasant Valley cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. Wakefield, of Holland Centre, assisted by Rev. Mills, Markdale. Pall bearers were Messrs C. King, D. Robinson, W. Wiley, A. Griffith, G. Haslam, J. Scott. Relatives present from a distance were Mrs. F. R. Oliver, Toronto; Mrs. H. Middleton, Toronto; Joe, Will and James Crutchley, Durham. Miss Jas. Crutchley having gone over to Markdale Monday, remained with Mrs. Rusk. Floral offerings were donated by Annesley Church, Mrs. A. Crutchley and son Will, Durham; Neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rusk, Mr. and Mrs. H. Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crutchley and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crutchley.

HIGH SCHOOL HEAR LITERARY PROGRAM
The second literary meeting of Durham High School was held on Friday afternoon at 3. The meeting was opened with a selection by the Glee Club, "My Old Kentucky Home". The minutes of last meeting were read by the secretary, Allan McLean. Business session over, the main feature of program took place in the form of a debate: "Resolved that movies do more harm than good." The affirmative was upheld by Clara Thompson and Jean Rowe; the negative side championed by Ollie Hahn and Margaret Firth. The judges decided in favor of the negative side. The next number on program was a quartet by Donald Knight, G. McGirr, Victor Goodchild and Ronald Rudl, "Old Black Joe." Rev. Mr. Almack was then called on to address the pupils and visitors with a few appropriate remarks. There was a duet by Marjory Noble and Elizabeth Ries, "Pickaninny Lullaby." Mr. Sharpe, the critic for the meeting, added his comments. The last number was a Glee Club selection, "Old Folks at Home." "God Save the King" and the school yell closed the "Lit."

PRES. LADIES' AID TEA WELL ATTENDED
The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church, staged a successful afternoon "Hostess Tea" on Tuesday of this week, when nearly $40 was realized. Each hostess was responsible for three small tables, the linen and china thereon. In all there were 35 tables scattered throughout the schoolroom of the church. Tea was poured by four ladies, Mrs. J. Burgess, Mrs. J. McGowan, Mrs. A. Derby and Mrs. H. J. McPadyen, while there were many assistants. The refreshments were dainty and palatable. During the tea hour, a short program was heard, consisting of piano duets by Misses Kathleen Milne and Isabel McCormack, Mrs. J. H. Harding and daughter Jean; recitation by Mrs. J. Alexander; solos by Miss Jean Harding and Mrs. T. M. McFadden.

Durham and Walkerton Tied, Bruce League Hockey

When most of the town thought hockey was about over in Durham this winter, Durham's Bruce League entry staged a surprising victory in Walkerton arena by 3 to 2, on Friday evening last and pulled even to a tie with Walkerton in their Bruce League scheduled games, each team having won two and lost two games. Home and home games will now be played to decide the district, the first game being arranged for Monday night in Durham and second in Walkerton on Wednesday.

At the finish of the regular time of game Friday night, these two teams were faced with a 2-2 score, and were forced into overtime to decide a winner. They continued tied until last minute of play when a Durham sniper drove in the winning counter on a long shot from centre ice. Both sextettes opened play, setting a fast pace, and the front lines engineering some thrusts. A Becker and Johnston scored as a result of one of these, the only one in the first session. Durham evened it up in the second. Walkerton again took the lead when Ellinghausen bulged the twine when close in. A deflection of Klein's stick gave Durham the tieing score in the last minutes of play in third. Their winning goal came at end of overtime. The line-ups were: Durham: Goal—McKechnie; Defense—Ries and Black; Centre, Bobs; Wings, Tucker, Goodchild; Subs, McComb, Kress, McDonald, Falkingham. Walkerton: goal, Beninger; Defense, Wallace and Klein; Centre, Lobinger; wings, Johnston, Mullin, Geister, Schmidt.

Referee, Red Dean, Durham
PLAY-OFF WED. IN WALKERTON MONDAY IN DURHAM
The first of Bruce League play-offs, arranged for Durham Monday night, had to be postponed as Walkerton team were unable to get here owing to blocked roads. The best game will now be in Walkerton and the game here Monday night, Feb. 26, goals to count. It is hoped that a snow plough will have No. 4 highway opened by Wednesday night and thus avoid further postponements.

FIRST PLAY-OFF 2-1 FOR DURHAM
In Walkerton Wednesday night, Durham won 2-1, which gives them bright prospects for district honors.

H. S. HOCKEY TEAMS PLAYED IN HANOVER
Both hockey teams from Durham High School were entertained in Hanover by their high school on Friday evening.
The ladies' game ended in a one all draw. Anna Ritchie put Durham one up early in the game, only to have Helen Switzer tie it up on an end to end rush. Both teams tried hard for the winning goal but could not break the tie. For the visitors, Margaret and Elizabeth Ries and M. Noble in goal, were outstanding, while Marion Leifso, Helen Switzer and Marion Huber of the Hanover sextette were the most prominent. Referee, Fred Brown.
Durham—M. Noble, E. Ries, Alma Kress, J. Rowe, M. Ries, A. Ritchie, C. Thompson and Mona McDonald.
In the second contest which was very fast, Hanover sextette swamped the Durham team by 10-2.
Hanover jumped into the lead in the opening frame when they ran in five goals before Durham counted.
For the visitors, Jack Lauder was outstanding and perhaps best man on the ice.
Durham—G. Grant, E. Hunt, R. Rudd, C. Noble, J. Lauder, G. McKechnie, G. Almack.
Referee, Fred Brown.
Following the hockey games a social evening was spent in the High school with dancing, progressive games, etc. Many guests were present from Durham, Mt Forest and other high schools.

Trying to Make us Envious
The Macs are a great — and numerous people. One, a Macdonald, has just been elected a Warden of the County of Bruce. Another, also a Macdonald, was Warden of Grey Co. last year. And that is not the whole story: almost every Canadian cabinet, federal and provincial, have representatives. In the Bennett cabinet, a Macdonald has a seat in Nova Scotia, the Premier is a Macdonald, while in British Columbia one of the clan is Attorney General. In Prince Edward Island the Macs have a majority in the cabinet and in Manitoba they split even as to the number of ministers. Good men cannot be kept down. —Chesley Enterprise.

At last we have got rid of the address in reply to the speech from the Throne. The debate on it provides one of the two occasions in the session on which a member can discuss any subject in which he or his constituency are interested. When dissatisfaction is widespread, the debate is bound to be long. Not until the Liberal amendment was defeated was our group allowed to move an amendment to the address. Almost all of us voted in favor of the Liberal "non-confidence" motion, after which Mr. Woodsworth moved as follows: "We respectfully regret that Your Excellency's present advisers have not taken such steps as are necessary to deal adequately with unemployment, to reduce the burden imposed by the public debt and to put the agricultural industry on a basis that will ensure to the farmer a decent standard of living."

I thought Mr. Woodsworth's speech in support of the motion was exceptionally good and he was followed by Mr. Euler, who always makes speeches very well worth listening to. For instance this sentence: "It seems to me a reflection on civilization, to say nothing about Christianity, that in a country such as this, which produces all the food that is necessary for the people, which is dotted with industrial plants, that can produce, in excess of what we need, everything the people of Canada need, there should be in this twentieth century, a million and a half people on public relief." He went on to say that the main trouble with the Prime Minister's speeches was that they considered everything as basically sound, with prosperity bound to return if people would work and save. Mr. Euler asked how they could work if they could not find work. He advocated a reduction of debt by lowering interest rates on Canadian bonds and the elimination of railway deficits through amalgamation under public ownership.

A rather amusing incident occurred during Mr. Lapointe's address in reply to the speech from the Throne. The Prime Minister interrupted Mr. Lapointe several times at the beginning of his address. Mr. Bennett claimed that a remark made by Mr. Lapointe was an insult to the chair and the latter retorted with: "Mr. Speaker, the Rt. Hon. gentleman (the Prime Minister) has developed a habit of considering as an insult every opinion we have held which differed from his own." Following further interruption, Mr. Lapointe said: "I am always pleased to follow the remarks of the Rt. Hon. gentleman in complete silence and even with admiration, though with disapproval most of the time. I only ask him to reciprocate and if he cannot approve of what I say, at least he might remain silent." And the Prime Minister agreed, with "as long as the rules of the House are not disobeyed."

It will be interesting to see what the Government will do with the resolution which is now before the House, asking consideration for a large scale program of public works, to be financed by direct issue of non-interest bearing Dominion notes (money) Mr. Coote, in presenting it, argued that the unemployed are producing nothing, that they are living on the tax-payers and consuming real wealth, and worse than all, they are losing their morale and ambition. As Mr. Coote saw it, there were two great problems: first, to give an income to our farmers and, second, to give employment with income to those now unemployed. He too asked the Prime Minister how people could work if there is no work and quoted one of his soldier friends as having said "unemployment with money is leisure, but unemployment without money is hell."

Mr. Coote referred to the United States' gigantic plans for recovery, which will entail an expenditure of thirteen billion dollars, more than half the amount spent by the United States in the prosecution of the Great War from the time of its entry until June 1921. He said the United States was engaged in a war to end poverty and unemployment and that they already had allocated three and a half billion for expenditure under Public Works Administration. Canada, he said, had imitated United States in its deflationary policy and we might now well afford to imitate our great neighbor in its attempt to climb out of the hole.

Professor Stephen Laycock, who cannot be accused of being radical, has said in "The Unsolved Riddle of Social Justice": "The Government of every country ought to supply work and pay for the unemployed. . . Society owes to every citizen the opportunity of work." (Continued on Page 2.)

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. Thos. Milligan, Jr. visited in Toronto last week, and attended the Leaf-Canadian hockey game on the 10th inst.

Mrs. Hope, Toronto, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Vic. Blyth.

MacArthur of town, will learn with pleasure that she is now on the staff of nurses at St. Marys-on-the-Lake Sanatorium, Haileybury, and commenced duties at this institution on the 10th inst. Miss MacArthur is to be complimented on securing this position in one of our Northern Ontario mining towns.

DURHAM CLUB IN LONDON HOLD SOCIAL EVENING
The Durham Students' Club of London held one of their most successful meetings Saturday evening, Feb. 17, at 1085 Richmond St. on the kind invitation of Misses Inez Twamley and E. Walker.

The meeting was entirely of a social nature and at times enthusiasm ran high. During the evening President Burnett entertained the assembly with innumerable card tricks, performed in his own inimitable manner. As a matter of fact the jovial executive head was the recipient of a deafening applause at the conclusion of his display of skill. Mr. Jas. Henderson delighted the club with a few well-selected piano offerings, which were given a splendid audience. Among the various selections, "the Kangaroo" was possibly the one best received.

Some time during the evening, Socy Treas. Inez Twamley saw fit to read the financial statement. The Club has not yet realized its financial objective, which when reached, will allow them and their numerous admirers to hold a banquet at Wcag's in April. Though not official we feel safe in saying that the native of the old home town who made a satisfactory contribution (which would assure such a function aforementioned) would most certainly have the Club named after him. This however does not bear the stamp of authenticity and probably the donor would be only created Honorary Vice-President or something.

The Club was pleased to accept the gracious invitation of Mrs. N. Harding (nee Minnie Limin) to gather at her home, Saturday evening, Feb. 24th.
A lunch was served.
The D. S. C. of London was happy to welcome back Miss G. Glass, of the London Life, as a member. It also welcomed Miss Marion Green of St. Joseph's Hospital, as a new member. Miss Elizabeth Duff, St. Catharines, was a guest of the evening.
At the conclusion, President Burnett offered a few words of thanks to the Misses Twamley and Walker.

The I.O.D.E. Oratorical Contest for High School pupils, will take place in the Town Hall, Friday, Feb. 23, at 8 p.m. It is an open evening, free of charge to the public.
Mr. Henry stated that when he accepted the position of County Crown Attorney for Grey at the request of the Attorney-General, he did so on three conditions, which were stipulated and agreed on at the time. He was to be permitted to continue his legal practise in the county; he was to be permitted to retain his residence at Markdale and he could delegate someone else to handle minor affairs in the court should he so desire. He intimated however, that it was his intention to take up residence in Owen Sound in the course of a few months and that he would have a branch office in Durham, so that the objection of his residing in Markdale, which had been quite pronounced, would be removed.
At the present time there are the 1933 accounts to be inspected and

THAWING OUT FROZEN PIPES

The weekly cold snap, after a comparatively mild day Sunday, again was with us Sunday evening. Monday was quite cold and that night the mercury dropped to 24 below. Tuesday was also cold but today, Wednesday's mildness is a welcome relief.

The protracted cold waves of February has resulted in the waterworks pipes and taps being frozen up in many of the homes throughout the town and on Wednesday an electrical machine which is attached to a transformer, was loaned by Hanover to the local Commission and put to good use thawing out the pipes. However only two homes were finished when Hanover wanted it back for the afternoon. There are yet 30 to 40 services frozen up, and Durham Public Utilities Commission have bought a machine of their own at cost of $274.00, which is to arrive Friday. It will be in use day and night for some days.

ONCE PLAYED WITH LATE KING

There died in Toronto on Friday last, James Coult, who was known to many residents of Crawford section, where he lived for a few years, realizing pioneer difficulties on his arrival from his homeland, Scotland. He was in his 81st year and an uncle to Mr. Ben Coult and Mrs. Elijah Armstrong of Bentinck Tp.
The late Mr. Coult was born on the Balmoral estate in the highlands of Scotland and in youth was a playmate of the late King Edward VII. The son of a retainer on the estate, he and his brothers used to play marbles and other games with the then Prince of Wales.

He attended St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Toronto, and was a member of Ashlar Lodge A. F. and A. M., the I.O.O.F. and St. Andrew's Society. He was one of the first to join the 48th Highlanders.

DR. C. P. PARK
