

Test in Law Suit—A man Fire Chief Uses Water to Put Out Oil Fires

Blood Test in Paternity... one of the recent headlines... in question is that of... 2-year-old boy, whose... alleged to be Jacob Man... nowitz denied the impeach... hereupon. Justice Steinbrink... the blood of mother and child... in accordance with princ... were discovered by Drs... (Rockefeller Institute)...

...of people who never saw... be matched, it follows... of a mother and child... of the same process. In... came before Judge Stein... proves nothing. But... that Betty Benschel's... of type A, whereas the... and mother have blood... judge and jury will not... necessary conclusions... is an exclusion test... always negative.

...Judge Steinbrink was... the order by the stand... by the Society of Medi... which advocated a... of the Landsteiner... tion to by many of the... Thus in Denmark... Italy a murderer who... blood on his handker... is put down as a liar... of a different type... hand, he is not neces... if it matches that in...

...follow European prac... brink remarked that... must heat down the... stance of the legally... that always seeks pro... new is accepted into... ventured to say that... him he was concerned... facts already ascer...

...Out Oil Fires... of German, recently... in Magdeburg. They... out with chemical... sodium carbonate, car... and cerobon tetrach... tried and true... ad died away, out of... the hole of the home... would extinguish oil... but water, he an... did.

...supposed, Stein did... than just turn the... blaze. He is the in... nozzle which auto... and spreads it out... cloud. In a few... out dense smoky... from about three... lubricating oil and... dense heat the fire... became a cloud of...

...explain his success... cloud oxygen seems... from the burning... is absorbed by the... to his nozzle, Stein... of his spray and the... out. It is this ad... makes it possible, he... fumes, smoke and... even to take the... gas.

...Nova Lobster Trade... sighted, and now... enjoy a thrive... New England... Nickerson went... ark's Harbor, all... was a knowledge... Avery Powell's...

...married, and right... business part... importing lob... Harbor, N.S., and... Then the husband... American lobsters... thought he was... and she organized... import Nova Sco... cleared $25,000 in... convinced her hus... business partner...

...ed the way for... merger of lob... they are execu... and they profit in lobsters...

...ts a Year... of the Geolog... to its new home... months; they in... pectmens, 75,000... 90 maps, 6,000... books.

Woman's World

By Mair M. Morgan

ter luncheons en famille is found in lima beans and celery salad. Two cups lima beans (canned or carefully cooked dried ones), 1 cup diced celery, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 2 tablespoons shredded green pepper, 2 tablespoons grated cheese. French dressing.

Chinese Onion Omelet This is a tasty variation of the ever popular omelet. Ingredients—3 cups chopped raw onion, 1/4 cup salad oil, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons golden syrup, 3 tablespoons corn starch, 4 eggs. Cook the onion with the salad oil and syrup until yellow and tender, stirring often.

White Fruit Cake The proof of a good cake is in the eating and the rapidity with which it disappears. Try the following—Ingredients: 1 pound white sultana raisins, 1/2 pound candied or preserved pineapple, 1 cup salad oil, 1/4 cup corn syrup, 1/4 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup shredded citron peel, 1 cup chopped, blanched almonds, 1 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, 7 egg whites. Cream the salad oil and sugar and add syrup with lemon juice. Sift flour with salt, soda and cream of tartar.

Winter Salads Although winter time brings us a wealth of fruits and vegetables with which to compose salads, we are prone to drop into a rut and serve head lettuce with a dressing for meal after meal.

Cabbage and Raisin Salad Two cups finely shredded cabbage, 2 red apples, 1/2 cup seedless raisins, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 4 tablespoons salad oil.

Baked Beans and Bacon This makes a hearty dish for a family luncheon. Two cups baked beans, 4 thin slices of bacon, 4 tablespoons minced sour pickle, 1-3 cup tomato catsup, French dressing.

Yema Beans and Celery Another nourishing salad for winter.

ter luncheons en famille is found in lima beans and celery salad. Two cups lima beans (canned or carefully cooked dried ones), 1 cup diced celery, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 2 tablespoons shredded green pepper, 2 tablespoons grated cheese. French dressing.

A good raw vegetable salad uses equal parts of minced green pepper, finely shredded cabbage and grated raw carrot. Each vegetable is mixed with enough mayonnaise to bind, and they are then arranged in layers on a lettuce leaf, making the last layer of pepper. Serve with a French dressing to which 4 tablespoons catsup have been added.

Parsnip Patty Cakes Six parsnips, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon white pepper, 1 teaspoon sugar, 3 tablespoons butter, cracker crumbs, 1 egg. Boil parsnips in slightly salted boiling water. When tender drain and plunge into cold water. Slip skins. Mash and season with salt, pepper, sugar and butter. Make into small flat cakes and roll in cracker crumbs.

Squash Croquettes This is an excellent way to serve squash when the cook has spent an afternoon away from the house. All the preparation except the deep fat frying may be done earlier in the day.

Meat in Cabbage Leaves Take some cabbage leaves and boil them for five minutes in salted water; then take them out and drain them. Now make a mixture of minced cold meat, chopped onion, two tablespoons of allspice. Shape the mixture, moistening it if necessary with a little stock or gravy, into pieces about the size of an egg, and wrap each in a cabbage leaf. Tie these up and arrange them as closely as possible in a long fireproof dish, cover them with buttered paper and cook them in the oven for half an hour or so.

Year's Taxes Omitted By Village in Virginia Hamilton, Va.—Cities having trouble with their municipal financing might take a few lessons from the village of Hamilton.

MUTI AND JEFF— By BUD FISHER

GOSH, MUTT, I'M HUNGRY - WE HAVEN'T EATEN ANYTHING FOR TWO DAYS! HERES JOE SPIVIS HOUSE - HE GOT MARRIED NOT SO LONG AGO - HE TOLD ME TO DROP AROUND SOMETIME!

NOBODY HOME AND THE BACK DOOR IS LOCKED I'LL CLIMB IN THE KITCHEN WINDOW - JOE WON'T MIND - HE'S A GOOD SKATE!

OH, BOY! A CHICKEN!

STAND STILL, YA FOOL! DO YA WANT ME TO HIT CHA?

Sunday School Lesson

Lesson VIII. — February 25. — The Twelve Sent Forth — Matt. 9:35-10:8; 10:32, 33. Golden Text.— They were indeed in plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest.—Matt. 9:37, 38.

TIME—Winter of A.D. 29, the beginning of the third year of Christ's ministry. PLACE—Galilee. PARALLEL PASSAGES—Mark 6: 6-13; Luke 9: 1-6.

"And Jesus went about all the cities and the villages." Galilee was a very populous province, crowded with cities and villages. "Teaching in their synagogues. All of which would be open to him, the synagogue "rulers," or committee of lay managers, gladly inviting the distinguished visitor to speak his message.

"But when he saw the multitudes," He was always attended by a crowd. "Compassion is a combination of sorrow, sympathy and love. "Battered, as sheep not having a shepherd." The Jews of Christ's time were hated by religious teachers whose only gospel was dead formalism. The Good Shepherd grieved when he saw his sheep left to the wolves.

"Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few." It is the love of Christ and the love of men that alone can send us out to garner souls for him.

"Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest." It is only in the spirit of prayer, the spirit of communion with Christ, that we can really join in it.

"And he called unto him his twelve disciples." Twelve in thought of the twelve tribes of Israel. Disciples means learners; apostles, as they were called when evangelizing, means authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out.

"Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter." He was a fisherman of Bethsaida, then living in Capernaum. "And Andrew his brother."

"Philip." This apostle is seldom mentioned, but he was the one who found Nathanael and led him to Jesus. "And Bartholomew." The son of Tolmai. He was manifestly a devout Jew, a student of the written Word, a man of thoughtful disposition and prayerful habits.

"Simon the Cananaean." The Cananans or Zealots were a party of ferre Jewish nationalists, bitterly hating the Romans and striving to throw off their yoke. "And Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him." Judas of Kerioth in Judah, the only disciple, probably, who was not a Galilean. Jesus said of him the most terrible thing that could be said of any man—"He had been good for that man if he had not been born."

"These twelve Jesus sent forth." They were promoted by their act from discipleship to apostleship. "And he charged them, saying, Go not into any city of the Gentiles." They were not, for instance, to turn northward to Syria, preaching in Tyre and Sidon. The time was not ripe for it and they were not experienced enough. "And enter not into any city of the Samaritans." Not because Christ shared the common Jewish antipathy to the half-foreign people who inhabited central Palestine, or we know he was far from that, and Samaria was expressly included in the apostolic field by Christ's final instructions (Acts 1:8); but Galilee would be all they could manage at the time.

"But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Though lost, they could most easily be reclaimed. "And as we go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand." By the kingdom of heaven our Lord meant the reign of universal righteousness, love and peace, which he came to earth to establish.

"Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons." Christ gave them his own supernatural power, which they were to use as proof that they were from the Messiah. "Freely ye received, freely give." This does not mean that any of the Twelve had been miraculously healed. It means that the power to heal was given them for nothing, and that they must not take payment for healing.

"Every one therefore who shall confess me before men, I will confess him before my Father who is in heaven." "What an eternal joy if one can hear Christ say on the great day of judgment, "This soul is mine forever."

"But whosoever shall deny me before men," By repudiating Christ's spiritual authority, by denying his divine Sonship, by refusing to accept the atonement, he made for sin, by living a life contrary to his teachings. "Him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven." This is the threat, no angry condemnation, it is the sorrowful assertion of an inevitable consequence.

Husband Not Forced To Pay Rent to Wife Did Any Male Judge Ever Frown on a Wife's Generosity?

New York.—Justice Henry G. Wenzel, Jr., denied in the Supreme Court, Queens, an application by Alvin M. Dunham, receiver of rents for a dwelling, for an order directing Ralph Riccardi, whose wife owns the property, to pay $150 a month rent for the house.

"The house in which a man and wife live," said Justice Wenzel, "is, in addition to being a dwelling, a home. The house may belong to either but as long as love and amity prevail, the house belongs to both.

"I am quite aware that a similar motion has been granted by one of my learned brothers whose opinions are worthy of the deepest consideration. His determination of the matter rested upon the duty of the husband to provide food and shelter for his wife. This has been a natural law since the cave man seized a wife and carried her to his cave. In these enlightened days many wives furnish shelter for their husbands, and where they have the means and inclination to do so the law does not frown upon their generosity."

Blind Niece of Truro Woman in Movies Mrs. A. S. Murphy, of Truro, N.S., has received word that her niece, pretty Mary Flinn, aged 23, of Prescott, Arizona, blind since she was two years of age, has gone to Pasadena, California, where she has an important role in a theatrical production now being rehearsed in which the entire cast of seven is sightless. Her selection as a member of the unique cast followed a reply to a newspaper advertisement for "the prettiest blind girl in California who does not wear glasses."

All-Occasions Dress

By HELEN WILLIAMS. Illustrated Dressmaking Lesson Furnished With Every Pattern

It's an exceedingly simple little model—a moulded bodice with draped neck and a straight skirt. Inverted plaits at the front lend ample freedom to the hem. The panel effect will give you that smart height you want so much. And aren't the sleeves interesting?

Today's pattern is generally becoming. It is equally lovely carried out in silk or lightweight woolen. Huckleberry blue rough crepe silk inspired the original model. Style No. 3271 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 36, 38 and 40 inches bust.

Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 39-inch material. HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS. Write your name and address plainly, giving number and size of such patterns as you want. Enclose 15c in stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap it carefully) for each number, and address your order to Wilson Pattern Service, 73 West Adelaide St., Toronto.

Good's Motor Car Was Not So Good Williamsport, Pa.—A tire went flat on Edwin J. Good's automobile during the wee, sma' hours.

While he was inflating the tire his lights went out. "As he cranked the car the engine "kicked" and almost bowled aim over. When he closed the door the glass broke.

Men are qualified for civil liberty in exact proportion to their disposition to put moral chains upon their own appetites.—Burke.

Grouchiness In Families

Call the Members of Your Household Together for a Council and Discuss the State of Affairs

Members of the average family aren't always nice to each other. So often it happens that father, mother and children seem to be waiting for someone's hat to drop, or the chip to fall off a shoulder, or the fat to jump into the fire.

This habit of grouchiness in families grows so subtly and so swiftly that no one suspects it. If their friends, relatives or neighbors were to hint that all was not serene in their daily life they would be hurt and resentful.

Family Irritability Growing Yet if one appeared unexpectedly on the threshold at any minute of almost any day when this family is together, the chances are there would be a ruckus going on about something, or someone yelling, or someone quietly sulking to himself. If the family in question disdains such verbal tactics and considers verbal fencing a higher form of combative art than the cleaver or the broadsword of noisy quarrelling, things may be quite as uncomfortable.

Wealth, culture, or social position makes little difference. The family in which the habit of quarrelling has taken root will go about it in its own way. One may go into a house as quietly serene, seemingly, as a dewy dell on a May morning yet feel instantly the brittle strain of unfriendliness in every word and gesture.

This irritability and impatience is growing rapidly in a number of homes. It was almost inevitable for this to happen as individual interests have drifted apart with the years. Moreover, there are too few common ties. Each one comes in tired and the family meets at a time when nerves are not at their best. And there is plenty today to unnerve the best of us.

Talk the Matter Over What would be wrong with calling the family together for a council, passing the pipe of peace, and discussing the state of affairs. A mother might say, "Children, and you too, Dad, and I myself, have become careless of each other's feelings. We are short tempered and fly off without reason at the slightest thing. We offend there we don't really mean to, we accuse or get suspicious where we should know better, we are disobliging, selfish and sour. In fact we often treat each other far less courteously than we would treat complete strangers."

"Let us all try to be kinder, to help each other. We might try to smile and be merry instead of looking like thunder clouds half the time." And any family that is worth its salt will give three cheers and agree to adopt new rules for the home team in the future.

Modern Women Are Not Pioneer Type Secretary of Settlement Committee Complains of Difficulty in Placing Families on Land

Peterboro, Ont.—W. Maglady, secretary on the Ontario Land Settlement Committee, says women have been the committee's greatest difficulty in placing families on the land in Northern Ontario.

"We found," he says, "that less than 15 per cent. of the women could sew, knit, or bake their own bread. They were not the type for pioneers. We have learned our lesson and now we make certain that the woman is properly fitted to do her part before the family is permitted to go into the land in Northern Ontario."

Railways Handle 125,000 Grain Cars Fort William, Ont.—According to figures announced by the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways, enough grain poured into lake-head railway and elevator terminals in 1933 to make up a grain train whose engine would be in Montreal and whose caboose would be in West Fort William. Grain cars numbering 125,000 were unloaded, and by rough calculation they would stretch nearly 1,000 miles.

Ontario Plowmen To Hold '34 Match

Frank O'Connor Farm to be Scene 100 Years After First One

Toronto.—York County, on the 100th anniversary of its first plowing match and the centennial celebration of its biggest municipality, will be the scene of the 1934 competitions of the Ontario Plowmen's Association, it was unanimously agreed at the annual meeting of the association here.

The match will be held on the 550-acre farm, "Maryvale," of Frank P. O'Connor, following submission to the meeting of Mr. O'Connor's offer. Delegates from East York, North York and King-Vaughan associations united in presenting the invitation and received the support of delegates from Halldmand who voluntarily withdrew their invitation to aid in making York's and Toronto's anniversary a greater success.

Hundreds of entries, including plowmen with international reputations, will participate in the contests which will include every class of team and tractor plowing. In addition, it is expected, the executive of the association may inaugurate a new plan in certain classes in which straight plowing will be required and "handling" of the furrow barred.

This feature, in which a plowman is permitted to return over his furrows and build or mould into shape any sections of them which have collapsed, was a subject of much discussion at the meeting. A Norfolk delegate took the stand that all handling should be barred, pointing to recent matches in this county where younger, local plowmen, inexperienced in match work, lost to "professional tourists" who knew the tricks of handling.

On the other hand, a strong faction supported the attitude taken by J. Locke Wilson who pointed out that when he showed cattle in competition their horns were scraped, hoofs scraped, hides washed and all kinds of preparations made to have them look their best. Because city people contributed largely to the "gad" of plowing matches, he argued, furrows should be made to look their best and all plowmen learn to produce the best furrow. As an expert, he recommended trying two classes in which no handling should be permitted.

P. C. Fuller of London, Ont., was elected president of the association. Hon. Thomas L. Kennedy, minister of agriculture, and A. J. H. Eckardt of Toronto were made honorary presidents. Other officers chosen included Geo. Walde of Stratford, first vice-president; J. W. McRae, Lochiel, second vice-president; J. Locke Wilson, Toronto, secretary and managing director; Clark Young, Milton, treasurer; J. R. Harrington, Richmond Hill, auditor; William Doherty, Toronto, honorary treasurer, and a slate of executive officers composed of James McLean, W. C. Barrie, J. J. Duffus, D. D. Gray, J. J. Tierney and E. Moses.

The election of directors resulted in the following being appointed to the board: W. C. Barrie, Waterloo; J. J. Duffus, Peterboro; N. Calder, Grey; H. A. Cormack, Wellington; D. D. Gray, Carleton; J. B. Henderson, Frontenac; W. B. Lindsay, Halldmand; G. B. Little York; James McLean, York; D. A. McIntyre, Lambton; H. Goltz, Muskoka; J. W. McRae, Glengarry; J. J. Tierney, Leeds; J. Webster, Victoria; F. G. Fuller, Middlesex, and George Walde, Perth.

Bizarre Effects in Evening Clothes Paris.—Buyers are hurriedly completing orders at the final showing of 1934 spring fashion decrees, most of them wishing to start their return home as soon as possible.

Figures remain figures and the evening silhouette, which is mostly designed along form-fitting lines, features long trains, high front and low back décolletés and slit skirts, sometimes worn over ruffled petticoat foundations.

Numerous bizarre effects are displayed in evening clothes, some of which are designed as bird silhouettes having fabric wings standing out over the shoulder blades or back of the hips. The day silhouettes are more straightened with smooth fitted shoulders and long sleeves having a fullness in the upper arm, natural waists are accented by fancy belts, skirts are longer, from six to ten inches from the ground. Many of them are slit six inches on each side.

Necklines are fairly high and there is a tendency to accent the front of the day clothes with revers jutting out on coats which in some cases hang open. Jabots, frills and chin bows of organdy and taffeta accent the frocks. Many of the hats worn both during the day and in the evening are wide or medium brimmed. There are also some halo hats among the many smart accessories. Day colors are generally sober such as navy, beige, grey and black lightened with white or other bright touches. Evening colors are light blue, pinks, greens, yellows, brilliant emeralds, purples, flames, white and black. The fabrics are wools, alpaca, taffetas, pebbled crepes, satins and prints.