

HERE IT IS! THE REVIEW'S Unique Name-the-Picture Contest

COMMENCING THIS WEEK, and continuing until May, a series of pictures of men, more or less prominent in the public eye, (locally, provincially, nationally or world-wide) will be published by "The REVIEW." The pictures will be published without names being attached, and here is where the publishers invite "REVIEW" readers (old or new), to participate in this unique "Name-the-Picture" contest. Can you name the pictures? With correct initials and title (if any) of each man? Looks easy, you say! Maybe it will be! Maybe your answers to the various groups of pictures will win you the first cash prize of $7.00 being given for the best-arranged and correct solution. Second and third cash prizes of $4.00 and $2.00 are also being awarded. Prizes will be split among the entrants if "tied."

THERE IS ONLY ONE CONDITION to entering this unique contest. Just one. Entrant must qualify sometime during the contest, his or her entry with a cash subscription of $2.00 or more, (new or renewal) to "The REVIEW" office and before bringing in or mailing in, any set of pictures with names attached. (If subscription is already paid for 1934, this condition does not apply, and such subscriber is eligible to compete.) Any member of subscriber's family may qualify to name the pictures. Get started with this issue and test your picture knowledge of individuals who have been prominent, more or less, at one time or another, in the foregoing fields of endeavor. YOUR solution may win one of the above cash prizes. The winter evenings are still with us—draw up a chair and start Now!!!

FINAL GROUP of pictures will appear in May 2nd issue. Readers of "The REVIEW" residing anywhere are invited to participate. YOU may win one of the prizes in this event! Join in—it costs you nothing extra to try! DO YOU KNOW THE NAMES OF THE FOUR MEN IN THIS ISSUE?

SEEKS TO ABOLISH OWNER'S LIABILITY

Motorists who give rides to their friends would no longer be held liable for civic actions as a result of automobile accidents, if a bill to amend the Highway Traffic Act, introduced in the legislature last week meets with the government's approval. Chas. A. Robertson, liberal member for North Huron and party whip, is fathering the proposed measure.

As the act stands to-day a motorist may be sued for damages by a person riding in his car, in the event of an automobile accident. According to Mr Robertson this is neither fair nor equitable and should be wiped out. Numerous cases have occurred in the courts of the province in which the owners of motor cars have been sued by persons to whom they gave transportation.

The news that the Henry government is going to give us more "control" of beer and promote temperance caused the liquor stocks on Wednesday last to jump upward $2 a share.

WILL CELEBRATE GOLDEN JUBILEE THIS SUMMER

This is truly a year of anniversaries. From that far gone date in 1534, when Jacques Cartier sailed up the St. Lawrence River, to the organization of church life in Knox section, north-East Normanby, seems a comparison a bit overdrawn, but each have their own special significance. Jacques Cartier's anniversary is being celebrated to mark the opening of a great country; Knox Church congregation are celebrating to mark the beginnings of church life in their community. Of the former explorer, we have only history as our guide. In the case of Knox Church, Normanby, there are yet a few living who can remember the stepping into a new church home. But how many too, in the intervening years have been called to higher service!

Fifty years ago, Rev. D. P. Niven was the shepherd feeding the souls of this little flock with the Bread of Life. The early church, we understand, was on the corner of the Marshall farm, where the present edifice stands. In 1884, the present brick church was opened for public worship and their new home was entered in praise and thankfulness. However it is much to be regretted that there are no records or minutes extant, to show the present generation the actual feelings of the people on this occasion, or who were the "corner stone" builders of this temple. Following Rev. Mr Niven to the pastorate, was Rev. Donald McVicar, still living we understand, in Western Canada. In succession came Rev. D. L. Campbell, now of Guelph; Rev. G. Kendall, in Toronto; Rev. Ben. Smith (deceased); Rev. W. J. Burnett (deceased); Rev. F. G. Purnell, Thornton, and the present pastor, Rev. R. Honeyman.

There has been no break in church services all these years and to-day, the congregation that worship here from Sunday to Sunday, feel that to mark the 50th anniversary of the occupancy of this church is the right and proper thing to do.

not possibly have at her elbow when nursing in a home. Of course, the big hospital doctors have an arm to grind through it all. One of them has the gall—and the ignorance—to state at a nurses' convention in Toronto not so long ago, that no major operation should be done outside a large city hospital. We do them in Fergus all the time and are going to keep on doing them. We have heard of nothing in the air of large cities that is likely to hasten nature's recuperative powers on the part of patients or develop brain power and surgical ingenuity in doctors any better than that which I am, breathing at the moment. Moreover, we put more soul into our work, so our results are apt to be better though our fees are smaller.

To the smart Aleck who some time ago asked who Parkhouse is—in your columns I think—let me say he is a member of Fergus council these 3 years, was a candidate in South Wellington (and no mean one either) in the week as does the writer, and is a generally useful citizen because he is thinking all the time and giving people the benefit therefrom. They tell me he still believes in prohibition, but then so does the Globe, does it not? Oh, well, the writer once did himself."

DR. GROVES ON HIS DIGNITY

The Daily Globe carried the following letter recently from Fergus' famous medico, Dr. A. Groves, in defence of the small town hospital as a competent training school for nurses. The Doctor has plenty of ginger in him yet when he gets roused. As the letter so exactly fits Durham's hospital situation, we are publishing it without further comment:

"He was perfectly right. I have been a Conservative for more years than I care to remember, but I would like to say to Hon. Dr. Robb—a friend and classmate by the way—that a lot of people in country places have memories that may last till next election and may tell him that his kowtowing to the big hospital people and their allies in the Ontario Graduate Nurses' Association has left a sore spot that will take a bit of healing. I wonder if he will take warning.

As it happens our hospital in Fergus has received a cruel blow from the absurd and cramping regulations imposed. An energetic women's hospital aid has saved the situation till we get our hospital training school huck, which we intend to do.

We do not find that big hospitals can tell us very much except the art of spending money on elaborate equipment, which the graduate nurse can-

WHAT IS THE REASON?

Several of the local exchanges that visit this office, have been conducting a friendly chat, as to who are the twelve best known people in Grey County. They all recognize S. Grey's lady M. P., and T. Stewart Cooper, Ag'l representative at Markdale as two outstanding members. After that the papers differ as to who is important to rank among the first twelve. But why eleven men and no ladies but one in the list? Surely all the prominent personages in Grey are not men. The hand that rocks the cradle may rule the world, was a good axiom for fifty years ago but in the day of the woman M. P. and Senator and a woman assigned as "a person", there should be a better apportionment.

MAY GO TO THE SENATE

W. G. Weichel, former M. P. and M.L.A. for North Waterloo, is prominently mentioned in Ottawa dispatches as a possible successor in the Senate of the late Senator John Fisher. Mr Weichel has been in public life since 1911. Mrs A. Stauffer of Durham, is a daughter of Mr. Weichel.

CRAWFORD

Mr. and Mrs Frank Twamley and children, spent a day recently with Mr and Mrs Geo. H. Torry, Vickers. Miss Lois Mighton, Mulock, is holidaying a few days with her grandparents, Mr and Mrs Thos. Stinson. Mr. D. J. MacDonald attended the Good Roads Assoc., held in Toronto last week.

Mrs Valentine Kaufman has gone to Detroit, to see her sister, Miss Bertha Weidendorf, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The ladies of Mulock, Lamlash and Crawford congregations, met on the Crawford United Church, Feb 16th, to observe the World's Day of Prayer. The programs supplied were followed, the service in charge of Mrs Galloway. During service prayer was offered by Misses Boyd, Miss M. Watson, Mrs Fulton, Mrs A. C. McDonald, Rev. J. Galloway, Mrs. Copp, Miss Fisher and Mrs Jas. McDougall. Mr Galloway also gave a short address. A lovely duet "The Saviour for me" was sung by Mrs A. Hastie, Jr. and Miss L. Fisher.

IN MEMORIAM

(Written on the death of Thomas Ledingham)

Dear loved one, thou art no more Upon this dear old sod; I fancy now I see so well Where we so often trod.

We realize the sad, sad truth That grieves us to the core; To think that we no more shall meet, Where was our happy home before.

'Tis scarce a month ago, Since last we were together, I little thought when on that day, That parting was forever.

Dear wife and children left behind, No more on earth to meet, But in the world of endless bliss, Their loved one again they'll greet.

His sisters, brothers and friends Do mourn for him full sore, But he is in a better home Where peace reigns evermore.

His body in the grave may lie And moulder in the clay, But far above the starry sky His soul hath soared away.

To none on earth he bade adieu, His Saviour bid him come; Dear loved ones, weep not, He is just gone, Unto his heavenly home.

—Sodily missed by wife and family of Colgate, Saskatchewan.

MULOCK

The regular meeting of the B.Y.P. U., was held on Tuesday, with 20 members present. Scripture reading was taken by Elsie Bieman and prayer by Alma Anderson. Interesting readings were given by Hugh McLean and Mrs Galloway; solo by Mrs Lolita Mighton; a missionary dialogue by Misses Ulva McDonald, Alma Anderson, Lenora Reay, Lolita and Erma Mighton. The Lord's Prayer in unison closed the meeting.

Mr Wm. Adiam, assessor for Bentinck, is busy at his job these days.

The World's Day of Prayer was held in the United Church at Crawford. Considering the severity of the weather and condition of roads, the attendance was not as large as last year. The program supplied was used throughout with Mrs Galloway in charge and Rev. Mr Galloway giving an address. Those leading in prayer were Mrs Fulton, Mrs A. C. McDonald, Miss Watson, Mr Galloway, Mrs McDougall, Mrs Copp and Miss Fisher. A duet was beautifully rendered by Mrs Hastie and Miss Fisher.

Farewell Gathering ere moving to Dornoch

A pleasant time was spent Friday evening last at the home of Mr and Mrs Jno. Corlett when neighbors gathered to spend a few social hours with them before their departure for their new home at Dornoch. On behalf of the gathering Mr Irvin Brown presented them with a beautiful clock. Mr. and Mrs Corlett made neat replies, thanking them for their kindness. The address below was read by Miss Lolita Mighton.

Dear Friends:

We, your friends and neighbors have assembled here to-night to spend a few social hours with you, before your departure from our immediate midst. We felt we could not let you leave without expressing our appreciation of you. You have proven yourselves to be kind and obliging neighbors and as a slight token of our respect and esteem, we desire to present you with this clock, and extend an earnest and sincere invitation to return at an early date. May fate always smile on you. Signed on behalf of friends and neighbors Irvin Brown, Robert Mighton

ROCKY SAUGEEN

The cold weather still continues, very often below zero.

Miss Margaret McLean, Toronto, arrived home on Monday and will spend some time at her home here.

Mrs. Alf. Hincks of Toronto was a welcome week-end guest with her parents, Mr and Mrs J. W. McKechnie. Mrs Duncan McQuarrie and son, Peter of Aberdeen, were visitors this week with Mr and Mrs L. McLean and family.

Master Hughie Yake, Egremont, is spending a few weeks with his grandparents, Mr and Mrs Fred Kelsey. Mr. and Mrs Clarence Thompson, Crawford, visited friends here the first of the week.

Mrs Mal. McKechnie and daughter Joan, spent an evening this week at home of her sister, Mrs Geo McKechnie, Durham. Her sister, Miss Beatrice Grasby and uncle, John Grasby of home, were also guests at same home.

Mr. Fraser, a student in Toronto, very acceptably filled the pulpit on Sunday. He expects to be here next Sunday also.

Mr Geo Scheurman, Jr. was assisting G. A. Turnbull, S. Bent., in cutting wood last week.

Mr John Brown visited a day the first of the week with Wm. Hill, who is spending a few weeks with his sister, Mrs Geo. A. Turnbull; South Bentinck.

ABERDEEN

The annual 'At Home' of the Aberdeen Women's Institute, was held in the school house on Friday evening with a good attendance despite the cold. A varied program in the hands of Mr D. McCormick, was carried out in his usual cheery manner. As the opening number, all joined in singing 'Auld Lang Syne'. A recitation "Caleb's Courtship" and what came of it" was well given by Mrs. March 1934, their names and addresses, and a full description of their claims, in writing, and the nature of the security, if any held by them.

AND TAKE NOTICE that after such last mentioned date, the Executors shall proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have notice, and the said Executors will not be liable for the said assets, or any part thereof, to any person or persons of whose claim notice shall not have been received by him at the time of such distribution.

and weiners, pie and a cup of tea, provided by the ladies. Mrs D. Lamb and son Roy visited Thursday with Mr and Mrs T. Torry.

Welbeck Tenders Evening to Mrs. Corlett

Neighbors and friends from far and near gathered at the Corlett home on Monday night to bid farewell to Mrs. Corlett, who is leaving our midst to reside with her daughter, Mrs Proctor, Owen Sound, and present her with a token to mark the esteem in which she is held. After a short time spent in social chat and games, Mr Wm Smith, Dornoch, was called to the chair and in his hands the program was disposed of. Mr Smith, in his address, spoke feelingly of his long and intimate association with the Corlett family in both church and home. Mrs Corlett was then called forward and Mrs H. Riddell, read to her the following address:

To Mrs R. J. Corlett,

Dear Friend:

We realize with regret that the divergent ways of life are about to bring about a severance of the pleasant relations that have existed between you and us as neighbors and friends.

Ere we are deprived of your society, we desire to spend an evening with you in your home and leave with you these mementoes that may serve to keep in remembrance the sincere friends you leave behind.

The sacred writer uttered a profound truth when he compared this life to the sea that is never at rest, always in motion and casting up mire and debris, a things typical of the troubles and sorrows that come to us with the passing of time.

We trust that good fortune may attend you; all riches is not gold. May the future have in store for you a wealth of joy and happiness. Signed on behalf of friends.

Dan Sweeney, F. Riddell, Howard Smith, A. D. McIntyre

Howard Smith and A. D. McIntyre made the presentation which consisted of an occasional chair, end table and electric reading lamp. Mrs Corlett in a few well-chosen words, thanked all present for their kindness and expressed her regret at leaving the old home, friends and neighbors. Mr Jas Lister was then called on and in a few well-timed remarks, expressed feeling of the community to the excellent neighbors the Corlett's had been.

Mrs F. W. Heift read a short address from the members of the W.M. S. of Latona church, Dornoch, in which was expressed affection and regret at parting from so valued and loyal a member of the society. Vocal solos were contributed by Jas Robertson, Wm Smith, Dornoch; Harold Morton, Durham; Mr and Mrs J. Lister and daughter Patricia, Mich-ael Casey and all were enjoyed. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies, after which singing of 'Beat be the tie that binds' brought to a close an evening that was both pleasant and sad as we shall greatly miss Mrs Corlett in our church and community.
