ZION

Word of the death at Findlater, Sunday, Feb. 25th, has been received here of Robert McNally, son of the late Mr. and Mrs Jno. McNally, of the 2nd con., Glenelg. He was born on 7th April, 1864, therefore in his 70th year. He was married to M'ss Annie Beaton, also of Glenelg. After marriage, they lived for some years on his father's farm, now owned by his brother, J. S. McNally.

About 30 years ago he with his family moved West, taking up land at Findlater, where he lived until his death. He leaves to mourn his loss, two sons and two daughters, John and Robert, Margaret and Kate, all married and living in vicinity of Findlater. There are also three brothers and six sisters: John, of Durham; Wm. at Lumsden, Sask.; Jos. of Glenelg; Mrs S. Putherburgh, Mrs Wm Cook, Bentinck; Mrs W. J. Cook and Mrs Geo. Ritchie, Glenelg; Mrs. Campbell, Saskatoon.

Sad was the news received here Sunday, of the death of Bruce Campbell, eldest son of Mr and Mrs Dan Campbell, living at Akron, Mich. Bruce was in his teen age and had entered High School. No further news received at time of writing. Later—the younger son, we learn, has since died. We extend sincere sympathy to sorrowing parents and little brother.

Miss Viola Neely is visiting with Mr. and Mrs O. D. Peart this week. Misses Eunice and Mary Atchison, visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs J. R. Edwards.

The members of the Women's Institute are having a "Backward Social" in Zion Church, on Friday evening, March 16.

Mrs N. McFarlane, Hamilton, is here waiting on her sister, Mrs Jno. McArthur, who, we are sorry to say, is not gaining in health as her many friends would wish.

Mr Vincent Paylor had the misfortune to lose his fine bank barn by fire Monday night, about 11 o'clock. The cause was from a lantern up setting while they were doing something in the barn. The lantern was quickly thrown out, but the flames reached the hay and in a short time, the building was burnt down. They were fortunate enough to get the live stock out, but the hens were burned, along with the machinery.

Born, on March 13, to Mr. and Mrs. Waudby Baker, a son.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

PRESBYTERIAN Y. W. A.

The March meeting of the Young Women's Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Hastie. The meeting opened with singing and a prayer by Mrs. Armstrong. Mrs. MacDonnell read the scripture and Miss J. McDonald had the paper on "God's Jewels." The roll call was answered with a verse of scripture.

The visiting com. appointed for March, were Mrs Hastie and Mrs Alexander. It was decided to hold a play on March 27. Miss Marjorie Pickering gave an interesting paper on "Chinese work in Canada." The repeating of the Lord's Prayer in unison, closed the meeting. Lunch was then served by Mrs Hastie and a pleasant social hour was spent. There were 20 members at this meeting. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs H. Silks.

KNOX W. M. S.

Knox United Missionary Society members held their March meeting in the church school-room, with Mrs Jas. Mather presiding. Mrs A. H. Jackson read a story of Jesus, showing how intimately he was acquainted with rural life. Miss M. L. Hunter spoke on economic conditions in China. Miss M. J. McGirr spoke on the Missionary Monthly and Mrs J. A. Rowland on Temperance. Mrs J. S. McIlraith reported on the collection at World's Day of Prayer. There was a discussion on plans for the Easter Thankoffering.

PRESBYTERIAN W. M. S.

Presbyterian W. M. S. members gathered in home of Mrs J. H. Harding on Thursday last for the March meeting. The subject for study was "Work in India's Mission Fields" and Mrs J. F. Grant, Mrs F. McPherson and Mrs S. Patterson gave papers. Mrs A. W. H. Lauder rendered a solo. Miss Agnes Renwick read the Missionary gleanings. The devotional exercises were taken by Mrs G. Geddes, Mrs J. Hepburn and Mrs McDonald. Supply allocations were made.

A. Y. P. A.

The A.Y.P.A. met on Monday at the home of Miss Anne Baldwin. After opening devotional exercises, Miss Alma Kress gave a paper on "Easter," and Miss Jean Webster, a paper on the origin of opening hymn "Approach my soul the mercy seat." Both proved interesting. Orlinda Hahn favored the gathering with a piano solo. Donald Knight read the A.Y.P.A. paper which was very amusing. Plans were made to hold a lecture in the near future, to be given by Rev. W. C. Allison, Hanover, on his experiences in the north as a missionary, to be accompanied by lantern slides.

REPAIRING A SPECIALTY J. S. McILRAITH

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

From Review file, March 11, 1909. Congratulations to Miss Alma Leith and Mr Sam Koenig, both of Normandy, who are entering wedlock's bonds to-day.

Mr S. F. Morlock has secured Miss Oliver as his head milliner this season, and she is now busy preparing for the Spring Opening.

We must congratulate the enterprising Tp. of Artemesia, and the Village of Fiesherston, on succeeding in forming a Continuation School District with Fiesherston as its centre. This it is claimed, is the first in the province, and the enthusiasm with which it was promoted, speaks well for the appreciation in which education is held in the district.

Miss McKinley is engaged as head trimmer in Miss Buggs' millinery parlors.

The Baptist young people are tendering a banquet this Thursday, the entire supper being supplied by the Shredded Wheat Co. The best of home talent will assist on the program, including Dr. Brown, Holstein, Miss Flo Everett, Miss Birdie Crawford, Miss Lillie Walker, Messrs W. D. McKay, and Grant McComb.

Mr Chas. Boyle, Glenelg, has sold his farm for $5000 cash to Mr Wes. Brady, son of Thos. Brady, Ephrasia. Mr Boyle bought from G. W. Armstrong, Markdale on Saturday, a half section of land in the Strongfield Dist., Sask.

Sr I A—Flossie Lawrence, Bryson Morlock, Elvin Schutz, Michael McPhee, James Rutherford.

North Egremont: Mr Wm Davis is busy moving machinery and other goods onto his new farm, recently purchased from Mr. John Sharp.

15 YEARS AGO

From Review file March 6, 1909. Mrs. Horn of the High School staff has been a severe sufferer with her arm since the end of January, when it was broken.

Misses Hazel Caldwell and Edna Patterson have leased the millinery premises, formerly occupied by Miss McDonald, and will conduct business there under the name of Patterson and Caldwell.

Mr Lorne Allan recently purchased from Jas. Welsh, the three fifty acre farms just south of town and east of Garafraxa, known as the Braithwaite and Russell farms. The price was $3000. Six days after, Lorne disposed of them to Mr J. Levine at a reasonable profit. The latter is now quite a landowner in the district as he already owns the old Gray farm at McClintock's Corners.

Mr Angus McCormick went to Toronto Monday to consult a specialist about his eyes. One, as a result of an injury some years ago, is practically gone, and while the other is affected, it will not be permanently injured.

North Egremont: A presentation is being made this Wednesday evening to Mr and Mrs Thos. E Brown, before leaving for their new home in Durham Mr Peter Daly is the purchaser in this case, Mr Thos. Harri-

Life Saving Efforts

Fighting for the lives of men, women and children, is a never ceasing struggle at the Muskoka, Ontario and the Queen Mary Hospitals, where nearly a thousand patients are now being treated for tuberculosis.

Perhaps you do not fully realize the predicament of the unfortunate majority of whom came from the families of the very poor.

Living in cramped quarters, where sunshine and fresh air are often as scanty as nourishing food, is it any wonder that consumption finds them out?

Frail and weak and tired, their plight is pitiful, but a haven awaits where, with your help, most of them may be restored to health.

Will you please send what you can to assist in this great work. Please address: George A. Reid, Treasurer, 223 College Street, Toronto 2.
