CAMPBELL GRANT ADVOCATES LADY ON COUNCIL BOARD

The Walkerton Times thus reports: "Recalling probably how lady patrons have raised the standard of our barber shops, which in some instances, used to sound like anything but a Sunday School broadcasting, but which under the influence of calico customers, have reached that plane where even the most tender-foot yokel can now visit without fear of back-sliding, Alderman Camp Grant, who was last year's Warden of Bruce, decided that a lady on the Town Council board would have an elevating influence even on that august body and in an address to the Walkerton Women's Institute, in the Town Hall, on Thursday afternoon last, stressed the importance of women's place in public affairs and suggested that the Institute make a move toward getting a woman into one of the municipal chairs."

Alderman Grant may favor electing a woman to Council, but rumor has it that he will be a strong candidate for the Conservative nomination for the Dominion House and if chosen will do his utmost to oust a woman—the only woman—from Parliament.

Editor Duncan of Warton, Has Crow to pick with Preachers.

Editor E. A. Duncan of the Canadian Echo, Warton, who is spending the winter in Delray, Florida, trying to recover from effects of a paralytic stroke, writes to his paper as follows: "Do you know that my observations on ministers of the gospel made over a period of a lifetime, is that they are a jealous lot regardless of denomination. You seldom hear one minister eulogize another. In that respect they resemble musical artists. I observed an instance of this professional feeling just the other day. Mrs Hunter, Mrs Duncan and myself are sampling the different local brands of ministerial endeavor. We have attended services in the Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist, Ch. Science and Negro churches so far, and will likely complete the rounds before we leave for home. The other day I was speaking to one minister about our attendance at the Christian Science Church and our impressions. Here is the kindly brotherly observation he made on Christian Science and its believers: "My old professor once referred to those people and their work as being a diarrhoea of words and a constipation of ideas."

Fifty men After $600 Job It's a sign of the times when fifty people apply for one job, with a salary of $600 a year. That happened in St. Marys recently, when there was a vacancy on the pump-house staff. It was quite a job for the members of the Public Utilities Commission to pick a winner out of that many entries, but they used the wisdom of Solomon and the cunning of ser-

Each commissioner put down a list of those he thought eligible. It was found that four had quite a lead over the others. Then these four were taken but everyone favored a different one, so each voted on a first, second, third and fourth choice, with so many points for the first, so many for a second, and so on, the lucky man winning by one point when the totals were counted. This reminds us of the story Herodotus told of the Persian generals after the Persian War. There were ten of them and they voted to decide which had given the most distinguished service. When the ballots were counted, says the Pergus News-Record, each one of the ten had voted for himself for first place, but nine of the ten had decided that Themistocles was the second best.

GREY COUNTY CHURCH SERVICE

An invitation has been extended by the popular pastor of Eglington United Church, Rev. W. J. Johnston, to join with him in a "Grey County Service," to be held in his church, Shellrake Blvd., six blocks north of Eglington Ave., east of Yonge, on Sunday, March 25th. All former residents of the county now residing in the city, are cordially invited to attend and brethren of Grey Lodge, are requested to get in touch with any whom this circular will not reach and extend the invitation to all. Rev. Mr. Johnston is a powerful and forceful speaker and will have a special message for this occasion. The service is being sponsored by Grey Lodge, but members of the various Grey County Old Boys' Associations in the city are heartily invited to join, and any others who desire to attend. No Masonic clothing.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

Mr and Mrs Allister Lawrence, Tilbury, are spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lawrence.

Messrs Neil McLean and Mal. McKechnie visited the first of week with Mr. Wm. Hill, at home of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Turnbull, Bent. All the neighbors are glad to hear Bill is feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher McLean and family, of Alliston, were visitors for a day or two with his mother, Mrs. McLean and children are remaining for a few days.

Miss Catherine McLean was a week end visitor with Mrs Ed. Cook in Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Simpson were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLean.

Mr Peter McQuarrie and sister, Isabel, spent Tuesday with their cousin, Mrs A. McIntosh, Dornoch.

Some of the farmers are tapping this week. Surely we will get some fine weather now, after such a steady winter.

Big bundle of old papers, only 5c. Review Office. Just the thing for heating fires, having under carpets.

TOWN NOW HOUSING. FEWER GUESTS

With the easing up of winter's cold blasts and the caw of the crow heard once again, the winter's march of the "Cameron Men" to the town's official housing quarters, is easing up also. The basement of the Town Hall fitted out as it is for the roving public, was never put to better use. Here the knights of the road have a warm place to pass the night, and if their breakfast rations are not brought on a silver tray to the side of their bunk, are at least generous and wholesome. One of the forty five guests that Constable Scott provided for last February, was an ex-service man. When his meal was brought in to him, he could not believe it was all for the one party. Of course they all are not so appreciative; in fact many want to have their legs under a regulation table when dining. To date, 11 March, twelve itinerants have been overnight guests of the town.

The officials of Walkerton have had their fill of winter transients and some have been anything but polite. The "Times" last week, tells of a transient who kicked at their bill of fare, wanting to put up at a restaurant. Not granting his request, he threatened to blackball the town among the fraternity known as the "Highway Hikers." That he made good his threat, says the Times, and has been active in bumping Walkerton, is evidenced by the fact that up to the time of going to press Wednesday, not one transient has shown up at the Town Hall for a hand-out. "Every knock", says the Times, "is a boost to our finances if they can keep these itinerants a safe distance from the free foodery."

Keeping Highways Open

One thing during the past few weeks has been quite apparent, says the Walkerton Times. Real progress is made in the business of keeping highways open for winter travel during the winter months. More and better ploughs are available and not only has the road from Fergus to Arthur been kept open, something that was severely criticized and ridiculed when it was first attempted, as new undertakings invariably are, but the highways north to Owen Sound and west to Harrison, Listowel and Walkerton have also been kept free from snow, with the exception of a couple of days now and then following a bad storm. The last word in snow-fighting equipment has not yet been spoken. More effective ploughs are being perfected and gradually put in operation. It now, however, is a certainty that highways throughout Western Ontario will soon all be kept in condition for motoring thru the entire winter with the exception of an occasional interruption following bad storms.

Ice jams threaten many parts of Ontario. After the many jams we have been in since 1929, comments the Walkerton Times, what's another one or two?

MULOCK

It is our sad duty this week to report the passing of Mrs Thomas Torry of Mulock, who slept peacefully away early Friday last, at the age of 69 years. She had been failing for some years, but was bedfast only for three weeks from a complication of troubles, which was borne with true Christian patience and appreciation for every attention shown her. She was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs Quinton Campbell and was born and brought up on the farm near Hutton Hill, now owned by Mr. Alex Hopkins.

On Dec. 4, forty four years ago, she was married to Thomas Torry, on the 4th con, N.D.R., Bentinck, where she has since lived. The funeral was held from her late residence, on Sunday, March 18, to Durham cemetery. It was conducted by Rev. R. Galloway, who spoke in fitting terms of her hospitality, her friendliness and cleanliness, her sterling character, a faithful wife and mother, a true friend, who was always ready and willing to help in time of trouble.

Mrs. Galloway sweetly sang 'There is no night there.' The pall bearers were Messrs Wm. Adlam, Jas. McDonald, Cecil Noble, George Torry, Gilbert Noble, James Hopkins, Roy Lamb, Thos. Milligan. Flower bearers were George Turnbull, Howard Hopkins and Joe Porter. Flowers were from the family, Mulock Baptist Church, Mr and Mrs D. Adlam. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and son Fred: also one brother John, of Regina. Our sympathy goes out to bereaved ones.

A Friend's Tribute

It was with feelings of deepest regret that we learned of the death of a loving friend and respected neighbor, Mrs Thos. Torry. The late Mrs. Torry was beloved by all for her quiet, unassuming disposition and for her sterling Christian qualities. Many will enjoy the memory of happy visits to her home. Her happy memory and smile will never be forgotten by those who knew her. We extend to the bereaved husband, son and daughter-in-law, most heartfelt sympathy. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tokens, bespeaking love for the dead and sympathy for the living. "Though absent for the present, she has only gone before."

A life made beautiful by kindly deeds. A helping hand for others needs. To a beautiful life there came an end. She died as she lived—everyone's friend.

CRAWFORD

The C.Y.P.S. held their meeting on March 9, with Miss Alma Anderson, in charge of program. Miss Myrtle McDonald gave a paper on the Life of Robert Burns and a recitation by Charlie Campbell was much enjoyed. A paper, "What can we do about Poverty and Wealth" was given by Gordon Krauter. A solo "In the Garden" by Miss Lyne Fisher, was well rendered. Alma Anderson conducted a couple of contests at close.

About 25 members of the Y.P.S. enjoyed a sleigh-riding party on the hill of Wm Campbell last Monday night, afterward going to the home, where a hot supper was served. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs Campbell for their kind hospitality.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.M.S. was held Wednesday last, at home of Miss Nancy Boyd, 13 ladies being present. During business committees were appointed to prepare the Easter Thank offering program and make budget form. Several donations for bale were received. The topic "Can China support support her millions?" was ably taken by Mrs Kline McCaslin, who also read a leaflet on 'Christian Stewardship. The Devotional leaflet 'Consider the Lilies' was read by Mrs. Dave Hastie. The Watch Tower was taken by M. McDonald, Mrs Copp, Mrs Wright and Mrs J. McDougall. A duet "Take the name of Jesus with you" was sung by Mrs R. McCaslin and Miss Nancy Boyd. The meeting was closed with prayer. Afterwards refreshments were served by Miss Boyd and assistants.

Miss Nellie Stinson is visiting at present with friends in Toronto. Mrs Will Campbell and sons Charles and Glenn, spent the week end with her parents in Glenelg. Mr Alex. McDonald and sister Mrs A. Hastie, spent a day recently at the home of their cousin, Mr. John McKechnie, near Durham, who is seriously ill at present. Messrs. Eric Ashton and Albert Roman recently visited with friends on the South line.

Hanover has twenty applicants for the Postmaster ship of their town, made vacant by the death of Chas. Copping in January last. It is to be hoped a more amicable settlement will be made and not the strife and hard feelings engendered as in the Simcoe and Huron cases.

CARD OF THANKS

To the friends and neighbors who performed many kindnesses and extended sympathy during the recent bereavement of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Thos. Torry, we extend sincere thanks. —Husband and family

VICKERS

We dare not say we have had a "nice" winter, but we have had an "ice" winter. Most of our roads are nothing else but ice this Monday. A large number from this burg attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Thos. Torry, on Sunday. We extend our sympathy to bereaved ones.

Mr Ben Coutts received word last week of the death of his aunt, Miss Marion Coutts, in Toronto. She was 87 years of age and is the last member of this well-known Bentinck family. Her brother James died just three weeks ago.

In last week's issue a slight error occurred, which read "Mr Thos. Coutts" from Edmonton, visiting here, instead of Mrs Thos. Coutts. The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs Almyer Reay on Wednesday last, when 37 ladies enjoyed a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs Willard McDonald, of Chatsworth, visited a few days at home of her parents, Mr and Mrs George Highton.

HAMPDEN

Quite a number from this part attended the funeral of the late Geo. Nichol, last Thursday at Durham. Mr. and Mrs Andrew Fulton attended the funeral of the late Mrs T. Torry, in Bentinck, on Sunday.

It was with regret we heard of the passing of Mr Geo. Ford on Saturday, March 17. Although an invalid the greater part of his life he made many friends in this community and with his passing, he will be sorely missed. Being seriously ill within the past two weeks, his sister Rachael was called to minister to his wants. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs Wm. Ford, of Normanby Tp. We extend our sympathy to sisters and brothers, namely: Margaret, Mrs Fuller, Toronto; William of Western Canada; Rachel, Toronto; Mrs (Matilda) of Washington Territory; Albert, Wingham; Mrs John Whiteford, (Ada) Detroit. The funeral will take place Tuesday from his late home No. 7 locality, to the Hanover vault.

KNOX CORNERS

The subject for the sermon on Sunday was Joshua's decision, from the scripture passage, "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve. As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." This being one of our pastor's favorite passages he gave a very fine message, worthy of a larger congregation. The Israelites had to make their choice between the idols of the people round about them and the one true and living God. We too must make our choice. The world comes to us with the offer of its pleasures, saying "Choose me." Satan comes to us as an angel of light as he did to Jesus, offering us wealth and popularity, saying "Choose me." Jesus comes offering peace and rest for time and eternity. What shall our choice be? God requires of us whole-hearted service and will accept nothing less. A good talk as usual was given to the young people but quite suitable for all, on the still, small voice which speaks to each of us if we will listen and take heed to it.

Mr. David Marshall had a wood-see on Monday. There were 23 present, including men, women and children. Glad to be one of the number. In referring to the gathering at Mr S. Koenig's, we omitted offering our congratulations and best wishes for many more happy years together. How time flies! It does not seem long since we were at the wedding. There have been many changes in our district since then.

There has been no school here on Monday or Tuesday, owing to the death of Miss Ford's uncle, whose funeral was on Tuesday. We would extend our sympathy to all those who mourn his passing. Also to the friends and relatives of the late Miss Jane Matthews, Egremont, who is also laid away this Tuesday. The grim reaper, Death, has been very busy lately, and many mourn the loss of loved ones.

A reception and shower was held on Friday last at Mr. James Petty's, for Mr. and Mrs Melville Petty, who were married recently. We offer congratulations and best wishes. Mr. and Mrs Palmer Patterson visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watson. It was Mrs Patterson's birthday. Mr. and Mrs D. Marshall spent Monday evening last with Mr. and Mrs. W. Porter.
