

Ontario Hydro has very low Operating Cost

In 1932, the last year for which comparative figures are available, all the domestic consumers served by Hydro municipalities used an aggregate of 740,000,000 kilowatt-hours for which they paid the aggregate sum of $111,676,000, or an average cost, inclusive of all charges, of only 1.57 cents per kilowatt-hour.

It is a simple matter to compute that, if Ontario Hydro domestic consumers had had to pay, for the 740,000,000 kilowatt-hours they used in 1932, as much per kilowatt-hour as United States consumers paid, their bills would have aggregated the vast sum of $41,450,000, or nearly $30,000,000 more than the amount their electricity actually cost them under Hydro service.

A similar computation for the years 1914 to 1932 inclusive, based on actual Hydro records, as contrasted with costs per kilowatt-hour in the United States as set forth in the Congressional Record and in the American Year Book, indicates a difference between the result of applying United States costs per kilowatt-hour to quantities of electrical energy used by Ontario Hydro, domestic consumers and the actual Hydro charges paid by the Hydro consumers of more than $250,000,000.

Such figures serve to emphasize the real achievement that the Hydro undertaking has accomplished in reducing costs per kilowatt-hour to the consumer as compared to costs paid elsewhere, and show that very large sums of money result from applying the difference in costs per kilowatt-hour to the tremendous quantities of electrical energy used by Ontario's Hydro domestic consumers. Even if it be recognized that the probable effect of attempting to charge in Ontario at the rates prevalent elsewhere would have been to prevent Ontario consumers from using as much electricity as they actually did under old Hydro rates in force: the fact nevertheless remains that Hydro has probably saved in actual cash to Ontario consumers many tens of millions of dollars, and it has, in addition, made possible the enjoyment of comfort-giving and labor-saving appliances on a scale that but for low Hydro rates would have been beyond the reach of a large proportion of Ontario consumers.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

A Cantata - "Love Triumphant", will be given by the choir of St. Columba Sunday morning next, in the absence of Rev. J. A. Moir.

The school here, under the tutelage of Mr. Shackleton, principal, and Miss McHugh put on a pageant of their own. The boys and girls dressed and acted the part of the early discoverers of Canada, from John Cabot down: the early missionaries, - the travels of them all were shown on the map and described graphically by Mr. Shackleton, which was not only interesting but instructive and educative to all. The Governor Generals were also there, Simcoe down: warriors Wolfe and Brock; Statesmen Sir John A. Macdonald, Alexander McKenzie and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Some 23 notables altogether, very well represented and accomplishments recited.

The scholars also put on a play, portraying the banishment of the Acadians from the land of Evangeline. Not having boys enough, the girls made splendid representations in both events. Rev's J. A. Moir and N. McDonald made commendatory remarks, and noted the value of such events as that given to the young mind. This being the last day of school before Easter vacation, the teachers hid themselves to their respective homes next day.

A special Good Friday service was held on the evening of that day in the church basement.

The service on Easter Sunday, was largely attended. The choir of a dozen voices sang as an offertory, "He did not die in vain". At the evening service lantern views were given on "Korea", of their people, their work, mode of living, their houses, and their mode of travel. The orchestra played at this service.

We were delighted to listen over the radio, to an address on Sunday, by Rabbi Maurice Esendracht of Holy Blossom Synagogue, "The Christian and the Jew." A splendid effort.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Miss Flora Campbell, who passed away at her home, Sunday night from heart trouble. Deceased had been bedfast since January and was in her 76th year. She was the eldest daughter of John and Christina Campbell, born on the old homestead, north of Priceville, where she has always resided with her brother and his wife.

She was of a kind and cheerful disposition and will be greatly missed by a host of friends. Surviving are two sisters, Katie and Lizzie in Montreal; one brother, Donald, on the old homestead. Mary, Mrs. Donald Stewart, predeceased her last December, and a sister Belle, died 2 years ago last October. The funeral will be held from the home Wednesday at 2 p.m. Sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing ones in their time of bereavement.

Mrs. Alex. Knox, Toronto, spent the week end at her home. Mr. C. E. Hincks and sister Beth, spent the Easter vacation in city.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Black and Helen, of Swinton Park, visited last week at Andrew Hincks'. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed on Easter Sunday. Miss Jean Hincks, Toronto, spent the week end at home. Misses Doris McLean and Sadie McKinnon, Toronto, spent the week end at their homes.

SPRINGTIME

The sun shone through the window-pane. Says Spring is drawing near. The winter seems to say good-bye. For I shall disappear. We say good-bye without a sigh. We welcome you, O Spring! And other voices welcome you. The happy birds that sing. Come with your gentle flowing streams. Come with your pastures green. The animal will welcome you. Roused from their winter's dream. Come with your budding flowers and leaves. And clothe those stately trees. Another voice still welcomes you. The soft and gentle breeze. We welcome you, O gladness Spring. Freed from ill days and hours. Till everlasting Spring abide. And never withering flowers. Miss Isabel Mays, Guelph, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mays. Miss McCullough, Toronto, is visiting with her friend, Mrs. J. C. Cook. Mrs. R. T. Edwards, who has been ill for some time, and confined to bed, was taken to Toronto on Sunday where she will receive treatment. We hope she may return much improved. Master Charlie Atkinson is visiting with his cousin, Raymond Edwards, for the holidays. Mr. John McNally, Durham, spent a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Hugh McArthur. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brodie and family, of Townsend's Lake, spent the first of week with the Paylor family. A number of people in the vicinity have tapped, but have made little syrup as yet. Mr. Wm. Gray, Durham, assisted

McCRAKEN - McLEAN

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Chatsworth, on Wednesday, March 28 of Margaret Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nell McLean, Rocky Saugeen, and Gordon Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCracken of Sullivan. Rev. J. R. Greig, was the officiating minister. The bride was attractively attired in a blue and grey costume. The young couple after ceremony drove to home of the bride's parents, where dinner was served to about 30 guests. On Friday night a neighborhood shower of miscellaneous gifts was tendered the bride and groom at the home of Mr and Mrs L. McLean. A pretty decorated basket laden with gifts was presented the bride by Layman Ritchie and Joan McKechnie. Mrs. M. Ritchie assisted in opening the parcels. In a few words the bride and groom expressed their appreciation of the evening tendered them. Previous to coming home from the city, the bride-elect was well remembered with a shower of gifts from girl friends. The young couple begin home-making this week on the Scott farm in Glenelg.

Special music, sermons and Easter lilies all proclaimed the joyful theme of the risen Christ in our local churches Sunday.

Several farmers had a good boiling of syrup on Monday. An enjoyable croquet social was held in Stewart's Hall last Thursday evening. Mr. Walter Stewart won the prize. A short program preceded the games: song by Marjory and R. Stewart; a couple of songs by Allan Sinclair, accompanied on guitar by Mrs. Geo. Shand; good step-dancing by Miss Laura Lyons, S. Park. Mr. Wm. McCachnie provided violin music for this number. Popcorn was a novelty lunch and finished up the evening's proceedings. This will likely be the last of the winter's social activities of the club, as the busy season is at hand.
