MARKED SILVER WEDDING IN TORONTO HOME

Mrs M. G. Morphet, 62 Kennedy Ave., Toronto, arranged a delightfully informal celebration, on the occasion of Mr and Mrs J. W. Menary's silver wedding anniversary, at her parents' residence, 35 Glendonwynne Road, which was a most happy surprise to the erstwhile citizens of Holstein, Ont.

Old-timers in Holstein will remember that Mr J. W. Menary was engaged in business there some 23 years ago, moving to Toronto with his bride in 1911, where he is now recognized as one of Toronto's most prominent realty brokers.
 Mr. Menary is also actively interested in promoting sports and athletic enterprise among the youth of West-Toronto. Mrs Menary is equally well known for her interests in the various organizations of her church, to which she devotes unselfishly of her time.

Though entirely impromptu, the evening was a decided success. Following the hearty and sincere felicitations from relatives and guests, Mr Henry and son Doward supplied the music and played a number of square dances by popular request. Mr Dixie Dean, who's heard over the radio each morning, also gave a number of brilliant solos on his piano accordion. The guests were:
 Mr R. D. Henry and son Doward; Miss Annie Keith; Mr and Mrs C. M. Bunston; Mr and Mrs W. Radkie; Mr and Mrs J. Fleming; Mr and Mrs Greenaway; Mr and Mrs F. Searle; Mr and Mrs Mackay; Mr and Mrs E. Ball and son William; Mr and Mrs Chamberlain; Mr and Mrs H. Swaine; Mr and Mrs Champion; Mr S. Krehn and Mr. Wm. Dean.

HYMENEAL

PACKHAM — CAMPBELL
 A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Church Parsonage, Durham, on March 28, by Rev. W. C. Almack, when Mary Edna, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Campbell, Holstein, was united in marriage to Allan Edwin, youngest son of Mrs. and the late James Packham of Caistor Centre, Ont.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in a monet blue satin dress with white shoes and stockings. Mrs Graydon Berry, sister of bride, was matron of honor and Mr Joseph Campbell, a brother of bride, was groomsmen. The groom's gift to bride was a white gold necklace, which she wore; to the matron of honor a silver butter dish and knife; to the best man gold cuff links.
 After the ceremony, they returned to home of the bride, where a bountiful supper was enjoyed. In the centre of table stood a four storey wedding cake prettily decorated. Owing to the death of bride's brother-in-law the reception planned for was cancelled. Many handsome and useful gifts were received from friends and relatives. The young couple spent a few days with friends of Holstein and Proton, after leaving for Toronto, before returning home to Caistor Centre, where they will reside on the groom's farm.

YEUVIL

All signs point to welcome Spring. Snow is gradually disappearing; the birds are coming back; many farmers have begun making maple syrup. And mud, and more mud.

Its hard for the mail courier to know which to take—the cutter or the buggy, for while the pavement on No. 6 Highway is bare, the backline and side roads have yet abundance of snow.

IN MEMORIAM

BULLER—In loving memory of my dear daughter Gladys and son-in-law, Alfred Buller, who passed away April 2, 1930 and Nov. 29, 1932.
 There is a mother who misses you sadly, And finds the time long since you went; And I think of you daily and hourly But try to be brave and content. But the tears that we shed in silence And we breathe a sigh of regret For you were mine, and we remember Though all the world forget.
 —Always remembered by mother and daughter Helen and sons Charles, Russell and Arthur.
