LIBERALS SWEEP SOUTH OXFORD

A majority of over 1500 for the Liberal candidate in South Oxford Dominion bye-election on Monday — the largest ever — was a quite accurate forerunner of the fate of the Bennett Government, when, sooner or later, it goes to the polls. The whole Dominion, we believe, will show a strong trend toward Liberalism when given an opportunity. As has frequently been remarked, Canada's periods of greatest prosperity have been under Liberal rule.

IN THE REALM OF SPORT

Anyone with an ear to the ground might realize that the opening of the baseball season in Grey County, cannot be much more than a month away. With the opening of the big-time leagues this week, adieu has been said to winter sports and instead of "blue lines" and "face offs", it will be "home plates" and "Texas leaguers."

While Durham has not been inoculated with the baseball germ like most of the other Grey and Bruce centres, yet it is probable it will not be long ere some of the exponents of the game here will get together a team, which will "go places and do things."

Of course this town is quite lacrosse-minded and in recent years had a decided taste for softball, but there are numerous fans who feel there is room for a baseball entry also.

Not very much has been heard as yet from the Centre Grey folks, but doubtless last year's teams will be preparing for the fray, though last year they weren't very fussy when they started — or finished for that matter. Dundalk and Kimberley have yet to play off for first place.

The ball stage is at present very much occupied with the Grey and Bruce Leagues. Reports of all sorts are coming forth and it is even rumored that if the prospects of vastly improved ball in these quarters this autumn keep up perhaps Toronto and Montreal may be asked to join to make another Canadian League!

One development this year is the outlook for several Class A Ball teams for this neck of Ontario. The idea sprung up with Southampton winning everything in this area the past two years and recent imports to some clubs. That big mogul of Bruce League, J. C. MacDonald of Chesley, who attended the recent O.B.A.A. meet in Toronto, opines that Southampton, Owen Sound and Meaford will be found in the Senior class pending the actions of certain players. He says the O.B.A.A. boys are not asleep on conditions in these parts.

This new element in ball circles has its origin with the landing of the Clarksburg ace, Hec Goldsmith, to pitch for the Southampton Fishermen, — the outfit that our own Jack McGowan does everything for but wield a bat. Be it recalled also that this Hector played ball on a Durham line-up away back before the present crop of ten-year-olds were born.

To counteract the Goldsmith influence, the Owen Sound Millionaires will be bolstered up with a few top-notch performers according to their manager, Teddy Graham. These include a couple of American college stars. Not to be outdone, the Owen Sound Crescents have a swell new battery from the Queen City and that of course led Meaford to bring in "Warpy" Phillips from Picton, who twirled in the Intermediate finals last year. This led to action in the other two Grey League Clubs, Thornbury and Hanover. The former have secured Hawkins of Toronto, along with calling former stars in adjacent territory back to the fold. Hanover comes to bat with a home-brew outfit after having called back Gordie Boettger, who played lacrosse in Orillia in 1933 and Harold Wendorf from Walkerton. At that, Hanover should have a smart team. And we won't say what all is going on in Bruce League teams.

VARNEY

Mr Albert Marshall, patrolman for the Highway, and his gang of men, removed the snow fences recently. The iron posts which the fences were attached to, are still in the ground as the frost will not yet let go. The weather the first of this week looks more like Spring. The gentle rains we have had recently, removed the six inches of snow that fell last week and at present there is no snow to be seen, except banks around the fences. The cars are beginning to move out the side roads, but the country roads are in a bad state.

Miss Mae Fulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fulton, Hampden, is engaged with Mrs Palmer Patterson, to assist in household duties in the home.

Mr Jack Caswell is engaged with Mr Albert Kellar at present. Mr Dophie Lawrence finished cutting wood with his sawing outfit along the Highway the latter part of last week. In this neighborhood he cut for Mr Elsmere Rawn, Norman Schenk, Harold Barber, Bert Barber, Alfred McCabe and Mr Bryans. All were well pleased with the speed in which Mr Lawrence can saw a year's supply of wood in a few hours. He moved from the Highway to the 2nd of Egremont on Monday.

A few from this district were at John Cooper's sale at Hampden last week.

KNOX CORNERS

At his service on Sunday, our pastor took for his text the one word "Enough," from the scripture passage "It is enough that the servant be as his master." Jesus warns those that would follow Him, the path is not an easy one. He requires obedience and all who would be His disciples must take up the cross daily and follow Him. He was often misunderstood, even His mother and brothers did not understand Him. Some thought He was beside Himself when He preached the gospel of the Kingdom of God. What do they say about us? If we are truly His, there ought to be something in us that would show to the world that we belong to Jesus. He wept over Jerusalem and its people because they would not accept His message, and He is grieved to-day because of the many who will not enter the fold. Are we anxious about those who are still outside? Let us remember His words "It is enough that the servant be as His Master."

Mr. and Mrs Arthur Mountain and children visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs Stanley Mountain. Mrs Jas. Petty and Miss Florence spent over the week end with Durham friends.

We would offer our sympathy to Mrs Walter McAllister, in the death of her brother, Wm. Aljoe, who died recently in St Marys. Mr and Mrs Alex Aberdeth and children, visited over the week end with Mt. Forest relatives. Mr Jas. Schrieder spent over the week end with friends at Holland Centre. Mr. Howard and Miss Susie Marshall are assisting Mr Erwin Ferguson in making maple syrup.

DORNOCH

We were looking forward to spring when another winter stepped in to mar our hopes. We find we have to take things as they come, even if it is snow.

Pleased to know that little Shirley Livingstone is improving and appears to be bright and happy, tho' it will be several weeks yet before she is able to be up.

Mr and Mrs E. B. Dargavel and daughter spent Saturday in O. Sound Mrs J. E. Picard is spending a few days at her summer home, decorating and painting.

Mrs E. Dargavel returned home on Friday by bus, after spending over three months in Detroit with her two daughters. She also spent a week in Toronto visiting her family, but thinks there is no place like home after all.

Misses Maimie Dargavel and Patricia Lister visited Saturday with Mrs V. Sweeney.

CRAWFORD

Mr and Mrs Alex Anderson, Scone, are visiting at present with their son, Mr and Mrs Will Anderson. Mrs Jas. Copp spent a few days last week with Toronto friends.

Mr Elmer Fisher, Detroit, youngest son of Mr and Mrs Geo. Fisher, is in a hospital in that city suffering from blood poisoning in his hand but we are glad to learn he is improving nicely.

Born, on Tuesday, Ap. 3rd, to Mr. and Mrs Herman Kaufman, Bentinck a daughter.

There was a good attendance at the Y.P.S. meeting last Friday evening. The meeting was opened with a hymn and prayer by the president, Mrs Copp. During business final arrangements were made re the play, "The Path Across the Hill" which the young people will present in Louise Hall, Friday evening of this week. James Stinson occupied the chair for the remainder of the program. The topic "Spending Money as a Christian would" was splendidly given by Mrs Andy Hastie. Mrs Hastie pointed out that since money is a stewardship, we are not justified in spending it selfishly and that our characters are formed by the manner in which we spend it. Stephen Stinson sang a solo and a dialogue, entitled "Sympathy" describing a street scene was well enacted by Billy and Edith Hastie. Charlie and Ralph Campbell. At the close of the meeting, Mrs Hastie conducted an amusing contest.

The win in South Oxford on Monday was a great victory for the Liberal party and was the proverbial straw showing the way the wind doth blow.

WELBECK

Slush and more slush! Here's hoping we have seen the last snow-storm for the season. Even if it is good to make the sap run, we can't live on this delicious product all the year round, and the season, tho' short has been wonderful, the sap being so sweet that it has been averaging a little better than a gallon of first class syrup to a barrel of sap.

Mr Percy Ledingham was in town with a load of syrup on Saturday and had no trouble in disposing of it, as the Ledingham brand is well known for its excellent quality.

Mrs Corlett, Owen Sound, is spending a week with her son John.

We were pleased to see Mrs Dargavel Sr., Dornoch, (who has been spending the winter with daughters in Detroit) in her usual place at our church on Sunday morning. We have missed her cheery smile and cordial handclasp at every service since she left.

Mr Wm. Hodgson, Durham, is renewing his youth last week, as he walked from town to his son's here, and beyond a few stiff muscles next day, felt better for the splendid physical exercise.

MULOCK

On Tuesday night the literary meeting of our B.Y.P.U. was under the topic of Easter, given by Group No. 11. The meeting opened with music, while the President read a few lines. Hymn No. 158 was sung and prayer by Mr Galloway, followed by scripture taken from Luke 24: 1-9 by Gordon McLean. A letter was read from Danny Nuhn. Hymn 123 was sung, followed by a reading "An Easter-tide", by Lollia Mighton. A beautiful solo was rendered by Florence MacDonald, followed by a reading by V. Stewart, "The Dawn of Easter."

The topic, a beautiful one, was given by Erma Mighton on "Easter." Hugh McLean gave a reading "The Risen Christ": a well given musical number was that of Jack Coutts: a reading "Is He yours" was given by Elsie Biemann and in unison the Lord's Prayer closed the meeting. The Ladies' Aid were entertained at Mrs Arch. McLean's on Thursday last. The Pres., Mrs McLean, was in the chair and devotional exercises opened the meeting. The Sec'y and Treasurer's reports were given and approved. The roll call was answered with a verse of scripture on "resurrection." A pleasant time was spent in quilting and delicious refreshments served at the close.
