A meeting of all interested, will be held in McVicar's Hotel, Saturday, May 12, at 8.30 p. m., to discuss a donation towards electric lights for the Hall, from Civic Holiday funds, also election of new officers for 1934.

The Agricultural Hall is now expertly wired for electric lights Mr Chas. Saunders, of Durham, electrician. They, the lights, expect to be inaugurated on Friday at a dance. An energetic com. is in charge, headed by our pushing president, Wm. McBride.

In the absence of Rev J. A. Moir, M. A., who is taking a further rest for his health, his pulpit was occupied by Mr A. G. Reynolds, a recent graduate from the college, who ac quitted himself well, to the pleasure of his listeners. He will again be with us on Sunday, May 13, at St. Columba United.

After the winter spent with friends and relatives here, Mrs Amos Chislett leaves Wednesday for her home at Los Angeles, Cal.
