QUITE A CHANGE OF TUNE

What a difference just a few days make! Speaking at the Conservative convention in Durham, on May 1st, Hon. Leopold Macaulay justified Ontario's immense debt compared to Quebec's, by asserting Ontario had been progressive in Hydro development, Good Roads, etc., which fully compensated for the burden of it. In contrast, the Liberal Gov't of Quebec province was pictured as being stagnant: that province had no such highways as ours, no waterpowers, nothing to show for what debt they had.

But in different surroundings what a change of tune! Saturday's Daily Star reports: "Quebec was praised by Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Ontario Min. of Highways, at a eulchre held last night by St. Thomas Roman Catholic Church, Eglinton Ave., Toronto. "The province of Quebec is rising from the depression quicker than any other province in Canada. In Quebec, we have none of the chaos which is present in Ontario", said Mr. Macaulay."

MISLEADING INFORMATION

Last week's Chronicle assured its readers that "South Grey Liberals will have a candidate in the Provincial contest. That much is definite." Then "the majority favored getting into the political arena in earnest, rather than allow the riding to go by default to Conservatives and U. F. party."

The facts proved to be just the opposite. No candidate was nominated. What was definite, was that the Chronicle editor and other Tories were definitely eager to have a Liberal in the field, to thus practically ensure the election of the Tory candidate, by splitting the opposition vote.

THE POLITICAL POT

John W. Sinclair, ex-Warden of the County of Bruce, is the newly nominated Liberal candidate for Bruce County. 449 liberal delegates from all parts of the Riding, met at Southampton last Friday, and in no uncertain tone, said who they wanted to represent them in the next legislature.

SPRING SONG

(Spring stirs the heart and prompts what is musical in many minds. Here is a sample of a Spring song by one of our own boys.—Ed.)

Where late old hoary winter Held undisputed sway, A crown of verdant glory Doth Mother Earth array. Deep in the heart of all things A magic impulse yearns To burst anew in splendour, When balmy Spring returns. Where crystal brooks meander Through mazes of silver green, The quietly pussy willows Unfold their silvery sheen. In fairy dell and woodland, A million bits of bloom Are pouring forth their fragrance Fresh from their winter's tomb. The coy, sweet buds are bursting In April's amber sun; Birds pipe their ravished music From dawn till day is done. Resplendent in their verdure Fresh from the Hand Divine, The greening hills and meadows In gorgeous beauty shine. From rosy dawn till gloaming, Earth's myriad voices sing That Life is all ascendant And Love is lord and king. —D. A. Macintosh, Dornoch

J. S. Woodworth, M. P., urges abolition of the Senate. The C.C.F. leader has the endorsement of 90% of the electorate but just try to shove this idea over to the other 10 per cent who are M. P.'s or ambitious politicians.

Our idea of a terrible bore is a man who insists on talking about himself, when we want to talk about ourself.

An Artemesia man thought himself lucky when the last of a large family of daughters were married off. Then he had to start putting his sons-in-law on their feet.

H. W. Kernahan, conservative candidate, may expect the returned soldier vote because he was in the army. The ex-khaki boys might have "formed-fours" with him, had he given some of his old pals a census job in 1931, when he was commissioner for South Grey. Returned men were to get the preference. Did they?

MISS MCKESSOCK'S FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED

The funeral services of the late Miss Polly McKessock at Massie, where deceased was born and raised, was a remarkable tribute to her worth and character. Five clergymen took part in the service. Rev. W. H. Smith conducted services at Durham from home of her brother-in-law, Mr. J. N. Perdue, from where the cortege proceeded to Massie.

The floral tribute was eloquent of deceased and came from Ward 6, Women's Lib.-Cons. Association, Toronto: Alpha Delta Class, Westmoreland Church; Westmoreland Evening Auxiliary, Toronto: Rhoda and Gladys Shute, Mrs. H. Cooke, H. G. Menzies, National Council Alma College Alumnae, Grace Heagens and family, Mr and Mrs W. J. McKessock and family, Miss Janet Robertson, Ontario Provincial Police, Mr. and Mrs J. N. AMONG THE CHURCHES BAPTIST MISSION CIRCLE

A goodly number of members of the Mission Circle and Ladies' Aid, gathered at the home of Mrs Wm Moffet. Mrs. Priest opened the meeting. Miss Eva Redford read the scripture lesson from Matt. 28, followed by a season of prayer and the roll call, answered with a verse containing word 'Long Suffering.' A duet by Mrs Giles and Miss Redford was much appreciated. Mrs. Priest, with the aid of map of South America, ably and instructively outlined our work in the mission stations of Le Pas, Oruro, Cocobanba and Penual Hall Farm, Bolivia. Several families home on furlough may never be able to return to Bolivia, on account of poor health caused by the climate and altitude, which is very trying to all but the natives. But many more are faithfully laboring to win these people for Christ and their labours are not in vain. Therefore we at home who have God's work in Bolivia on our hearts, must not become discouraged, but continue our support in prayer and giving.

The Ladies' Aid meeting was opened with singing and prayer by Mrs. Giles. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted and several items of business discussed. Prayer closed the meeting, after which Mrs. Moffet and helpers served lunch and a social time was enjoyed together.

KNOX UNITED W. M. S.

The Knox United Missionary Society held their May meeting in the church school-room with Mrs. Jas. Mather presiding. The devotional service was taken by Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. Allan, Mrs. Mather and Mrs. T. Whitmore, the latter reading the story of Jesus and His friends.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES' AID

The above organization were entertained recently at home of Mrs. Pearl McCormick. The copper cent test closed at this meeting and the group captains, Mrs. Burgess and Mrs. J. McGowan found that each side had contributed an equal amount. Plans were made for the anniversary tea, to be served in the church on May 28. A social hour followed the business session.

PRESBYTERIAN W.M.S.

The May study meeting of the Pres. Missionary Society was held at home of Mrs John McGowan on Thursday last. Mrs J. M. Burgess gave an excellent report of the provincial convention at Hamilton. Mrs B. D. Armstrong spoke on work in India: Mrs F. McPherson read the Gleanings: Mrs A. Derby, Miss Renwick, Mrs Armstrong took part in the devotional service. Mrs Sam Patterson presided. Mrs McGowan served tea at close.

CRAWFORD

The C.Y.P.S. met Sunday evening, with a large number present. After opening exercises, the scripture was read by Earl Livingstone and explanation given by Florence McDonald. Miss Irene Klages gave a good paper on "Shakespeare—his life and work." Synopsis of his play "The Tempest" was given by Mrs George Hastie. Alma Anderson read an article "The theatre in Shakespeare's time." Mrs Heeneey gave a splendid address. A comic reading "Apples" in negro dialect was given by Wm. Campbell. A duet by Mrs A. Hastie and daughter Edith and solos by Mrs D. J. MacDonald and Miss Fisher were sung. At the close of meeting, the members of cast of play "The Path across the Hill" and the director Mrs Boyce, were called to the front, by Rev. Mr. Heeneey. Mrs Copp read to them an address of appreciation and each was presented with a gift. Mrs. Boyce, on behalf of caste, expressed their thanks.

Mr and Mrs D. Hastie visited over Sunday with Mrs H's parents, Mr and Mrs McDuffy, Collingwood Tp. Miss Alma Anderson is spending some time with her grandmother Mrs McMullen, Feversham.

But who wants to Go?

(Goldendale, Wash., Sentinel) Services at 7.30 Sunday night. Subject: "Hell, a Place of Eternal Punishment." All are welcome. Walter O'Hara, Pastor.

WELBECK

Sunday's rain was cause for general rejoicing as the land was very dry. The hay fields are in a sad condition this spring as much of the alfalfa is killed out, and the nightly frosts and cold winds are not helping any.

Somebody owns a dog whose lust for blood has got the better of him. On Friday night, Hugh Riddell had 4 sheep and 1 lamb killed and John Walsh had 8 sheep killed. Neighbors would be well advised to close their digs up at night and stop this havoc.

Miss Myrtle Lawrence, Durham, was the guest of her sister, Mrs P. Ledingham last week.

Mr D. A. McDonald and family of Crawford, were recent guests of his sister, Mrs J. Corlett.

Mrs D. A. Campbell and daughter Edie, attended the Bruce, O. Sound Presbyterian, held in Knox Presbyterian Church, Owen Sound, Tuesday and report interesting sessions.

Miss Jean Clark, Toronto, is holidaying with her parents, Mr and Mrs Walter Clark.

MULOCK

After an illness of six months' duration, part of time in Hanover Hospital, Mrs R. B. Hopkins passed away at her daughter's home, Mrs. Walter Bailey, May 4th. Deceased was formerly Miss Jennie Hopkins, and at death was 68 years, 10 mos. She was married to Mr John Roseborough, Owen Sound, who died a number of years later. One son, Mr. Wes. Roseborough, Durham, survives. On her marriage to Richard B. Hopkins 40 years ago on 1st of March, they took up residence on lot 22, con 4, Bentnick. Here their family were born and raised and were ever held in highest respect. Mr. Hopkins survives with one daughter, Mrs W. Bailey. A son, W. J. Hopkins was killed in action Oct 26, 1917, and the eldest daughter Etta died in infancy. She also leaves two brothers James and Richard and one sister, Mrs Robt. Caudle.

Rev. Mr Galloway had charge of the funeral services, assisted by Rev Mr Cooper, Hanover. The pall bearers were old neighbors: Mark Mervyn, Wm Adlam, Sam Vickers, Frank Smith, Jack Redford, Geo. Mervyn, Joe Porter. The B.Y.F.U. in charge of Group No 2, was held May 8th. All mothers and fathers were invited, as the topic was "Mother." The topic "Our Mother," was given by Rev and Mrs. Galloway, who also rendered a duet beautifully. Florence McLean gave a reading, "Mother's way": a dialogue entitled "The Best Mother," was given by several of the young men and women. A trio by Florence MacDonald, Erma Mighton and Vera Stewart, was given, followed by a reading by Mary Hopkins.

Born, on Saturday, to Mr and Mrs Robert Mighton, a daughter.

DORNOCH

The Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs E. McIntosh, May 10th, with 13 members and one visitor present. Roll call was answered by naming a member of the Ontario Legislative Assembly. Mrs. Lamb and Mrs A. McIntosh gave readings, the latter on 'depression.' The election of officers took place. It was decided that the four who took lunch would be the waiters and each pass their own cake and sandwiches. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Florence Robertson. Mr and Mrs E. B. Dargavel spent Saturday with Owen Sound friends. Mr and Mrs Edward Lang left on Sunday for Bowmanville, where they will take up work again after six weeks with his parents, owing to his father's illness.

Mrs E. McIntosh has been under the weather for a while but we are pleased to see she is much improved. Sunday was Mothers' Day. The Mothers' Day program was followed. Mrs. R. Mortley took the organ. Rev. Mr Greig spoke of the mother's love, and how Pharaoh's daughter hid her baby for three months to save his life. Many mothers have laid down their lives to save their children. Mr. Greig read a letter, giving him a call elsewhere, but we hope he will not accept. The congregation is entirely in favor of him remaining.

Mr C. R. Macintosh M.P., spent a day with his brother and sisters, and returned to Ottawa. Mr and Mrs J. O. Dargavel, Flesherton, Sundayed with the Dargavels. Mr and Mrs Wilfred Brown, Goderich, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr and Mrs. W. Smith. Mr and Mrs Hodgson of Durham, and Miss Hodgson, were recent visitors with Mr and Mrs J. Lang.

Not forgetting the wonderful rain we had on Sunday, which will do all kinds of good for the country.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

Mrs Chas. Male and small son Ronny, of Hamilton, are spending a few weeks visiting at home of her parents, Mr and Mrs Joe McCrae.

Everything looks nice and green, after the grand rain we had Sunday. Mr and Mrs Rumble and son Bob, Toronto, were week end guests with their parents, Mr and Mrs Lawson.

Mr and Mrs Art McIntosh, Dornoch, were guests Sunday of latter's parents, Mr and Mrs L. McLean.

Mrs Chas Mighton and three sons, with Miss Hopkins, Toronto, were guests with Rocky friends Sunday.

Mr Arch McLean spent a couple of days recently with Mr and Mrs. Gordon McCracken.

Mrs Wm Weir was hostess to the U.F.W.O. Club, at home of Mrs T. Turnbull last Friday, when an interesting time was uppermost. Mrs R. Lawson, Pres., presided. The sec'y read the correspondence from head office. The ladies of the English group staged the program. Mrs J.W. McKechnie gave a well prepared paper on England: Mrs Murray Ritchie and Mrs Herb Atkinson sang a duet: Mrs Mal. McKechnie, Mrs M. Ritchie and Mrs N. McLean each gave good readings. The four ladies then sang an English song. Mrs M. McKechnie staged a contest, after which an English lunch was served. The next meeting will be at Mrs. N. McLean's, the grandmothers to put on the program.

EDGE HILL

Miss Reta Glencross of Angus, spent over the week end at her home Mr J. W. Firth B. A., of the Toronto Normal School and son Jack, spent the week end at their summer cottage.

Mr Marshall Dean, Hamilton, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs H. Dean. Edge Hill beef ring have engaged Mr Harry Watts as butcher for the coming year. The first beef is to be killed on June 6th.

We welcome Mr and Mrs McLellan and family to Edge Hill community.

The young people of Edge Hill and Zion enjoyed themselves at a dance in the Grange hall Friday night.

Miss Christine Anderson is spending some time in Toronto.

CENA A MILE RATE TO AND FROM WEST

Toronto, May 15 Thousands of Canadians wishing to visit relatives or friends either in Eastern or Western Canada will benefit greatly from the announcement just made by both the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways at the headquarters here, that from June 10 and 30 inclusive, a round trip fare on both Canadian Railways of one cent per mile will be effective to Western Canada, from all points East of and including Windsor, Sault Ste. Marie, Sudbury, Capreol and Cochran in Ontario and from all stations in Quebec, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia. The cent a mile coach excursion tickets will be good to all points in Ontario west of and including Port Arthur and Armstrong and to all stations in Manitoba, Sask., Alberta and British Columbia. On the other hand, an equal opportunity is presented residents in Western Canada by the announcement that cent a mile rates to all points in Eastern Canada will be placed on sale June 8th to 30th. A very generous return limit of 45 days is granted on these excursion tickets which however provides that the going and returning journeys must be made over the same railways, except where the interchangeability of tickets is permitted in the existing pool zones. Tickets will be good in coaches, but will be honored in tourist sleeping cars on payment of a slight additional passage fare charge for each passenger in addition to tourist car berth rates. The usual baggage allowance will be made on regular tickets. The impressive saving in these Excursion rates will give many a chance to visit such famous beauty spots as Banff, Lake Louise, Jasper and Minaki. (Signed) F. E. McDowell, Publicity agent C.N.R. E. H. Banks, Press Repres., C.P.R.
