"BLOSSOM TEA" IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH The Young Women's Auxiliary of Durham Presbyterian Church, staged a pretty event in the schoolroom of their church—a "Blossom Tea"—on Tuesday of this week. The floral family represented at this tea party, were Misses Tulip, Apple-blossom, Narcissus and Madame Buttercup, and their graceful and bright appearance in ferneries and table decoration, assisted materially in the success of the tea. The President, Mrs Howell and Vice Pres., Miss M. Pickering, B.A., received the guests at entrance, while at the blossom-laden tea table pouring tea, sat Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs Pickering, Mrs J. H. Harding, Mrs T. M. McFadden. The Auxiliary members were attentive waiters on the guests. Musical piano numbers were given in afternoon by Misses Leah McComb, A. Renwick, Kathleen Milne and Isabel McCormack; solos by Mrs McFadden and Miss Dorothy Pickering; recitations by Miss Alice Tobin. Rev. Mr Gowdy dropped in during afternoon and added a few words of greeting. An "Anniversary Visitors" booklet, was in charge of Miss Jean Harding, and to which all present were given an opportunity to register. $35 was made at this tea.

MISS FICRA BELLE NICHOL, teacher at Malvern Collegiate, Toronto, was made President of the Secondary School Physical Education Association. This is an association of Toronto women doing Physical Education work in the High Schools.

MISS NICHOL was solely responsible for an evening recently in Malvern Collegiate, school's gymnasium recently, at which some 750 parents and friends attended, taxing the capacity of the spacious gymnasium. Commenting on the night, the Daily Globe says: "Vigor, brightness and youthful enthusiasm were the outstanding characteristics of the demonstration of physical education given by Malvern Collegiate girls. The program of fourteen numbers was captivating in its variety, and nothing put on the professional stage would have held the audience's attention better than did the efforts of the youthful performers."

Large Barn Burned In Electrical Storm

JOHN McGRATH A HEAVY LOSER

Monday night's violent lightning flashes wrought destruction to the barn and contents of Mr John McGrath, Glenelg Centre, the building being struck and almost instantly enveloped in flames about 10.15 that evening. Little could be saved, and in a brief space it was a total loss. So intense and rapid was the heat and smoke, that stock could not be rescued, and a horse, 3 calves, a fat heifer ready for shipment, some hens geese and turkeys were all burned. Included also in the loss was 3 tons of hay, about 75 bus. of grain and many implements, including the wagon, cutter, democrat, all the harness, cream separator, etc.

It was a good sized barn, 40 x 56. Mr McGrath bought it three years ago, moved it from across the road, built a foundation wall under it and equipped it with good stabling accommodation. There was some insurance, but not nearly sufficient to meet the heavy loss. Mr McGrath has the sympathy of the district in his misfortune, at a busy period of the year. He will likely rebuild.

THE ROLL CALL

ADAM LITTLE

(From Lumsden News-Record) Adam Little, a former resident of Lumsden in 1899, passed away at his residence on Saturday, May 5, at Regina Beach, after an illness of several years, at the age of 73.

He was a native of Varney, near Durham, Grey Co., Ont., where he was born on 22nd May, 1861. Along with his wife, he came west in 1899, locating at Lumsden, where he carried on a blacksmithing business for five or six years, later disposing of it to follow farming northeast of Dsley. He disposed of the farm and moved to Regina Beach in 1915. As a blacksmith, he was an expert in his line and turned out some artistic metal designs in his early days, including a coat of mail of many thousands of pieces of polished metal.

Surviving are his widow and son Archie at the Beach and a daughter, Mrs John McCune and ten grandchildren. There are four sisters and one brother residents of Ontario. The funeral was held from the United Church, Regina Beach, Rev G. Barnett, of Dsley, officiating at the service. The remains were interred in the family plot at Dsley cemetery, beside those of his parents and brother Archie.

The pall bearers were Jas Irving, John Drysdale, C. Kreller, Quinten Pettigrew, John Pettigrew, Wm Pettigrew.

MRS J. J. BLACK At the home of her sister, Mrs. Lavolette, at Pefferlaw, near Sutton, Ont., the death took place of Mrs J. Black, at the age of seventy four years, on April 14th last. The remains were placed in a vault there, and brought to Glenelg for interment in St. John's cemetery on Tuesday, May 22, requiem high mass being sung by Rev. Father Grace.

The late Mrs Black was formerly Mary McMenly, and was born at Pefferlaw, residing there until her marriage to the late Mr Black 33 years ago. After marriage they took up residence on the groom's farm, 2nd con., N.D.R., Glenelg, where they lived until her husband's death in 1931. Since then she has been with her sister Mrs Lavolette, in Pefferlaw. Another sister, Mrs Kay, lives at the same place. The two sisters, four nieces and a nephew, accompanied the remains to their last resting place on Tuesday.

The pall bearers were Messrs John Black, Duncan Dunbar, Pat Haley, Alex McDonald, Murt McMillan, A. McMillan.

Who will be the Winners?

Who will be the winners? No! the query has nothing to do with the Provincial election, the Centre Grey Baseball league or the Toronto horse races; but it has everything to do with the Review "Name the Picture" Contest recently closed. Candidly we can't give any names yet as we don't know ourselves who knew the most of the 40 pictures published. We received quite a number of entries in the contest and we need a few days more to carefully examine all the lists submitted. Watch next week's Review.

Miss Jean Renwick and Miss El-Hott, pupil nurses at Toronto, are holidaying with the former's parents here, Mr and Mrs R. Renwick, Jr.

Called to Toronto Church Durham Team Entered In Centre Grey League

Local Baseball Fans to see Snappy Ball This Summer

At the annual meeting of the Centre Grey Baseball League, held in Kimberley last Thursday evening, Messrs. Peter Ramage and Alex. J. McQueen were delegates from Durham, and entered the first team from this town. There will be six teams in competition this summer—Flesherton, Dundalk, Kimberley and three new clubs—Durham, Markdale and Collingwood.

Officers elected were Matt Dillon of Thornbury, President; Vic Ellis of Collingwood, Secy-Treas. and one Vice President from each Club. Dr. Royden Burnett is the Durham Vice Pres. and Wm. Armstrong, an Hon. President.

The greater part of the night was devoted to revising the rules, to be acceptable to all Clubs. A $10 entrance fee is made, with unused balance returned at end of season. All players' names must be in hands of the secretary before June 1st. The President, Mr Dillon and Elmer Waring of Vandeleur, were appointed as two neutral umpires to handle all games at $3 per game. Mr Waring will officiate at games in Markdale, Dundalk and Durham; Mr Dillon in Collingwood, Kimberley and Flesherton.

A meeting of the Executive (two from each Club) will be held at Flesherton next Monday night, when the schedule will be drawn up.

The local diamond on the Fair grounds is being put into condition this week, and should be in fair shape for the opening games in June.

Prominent Speaker at Liberal Convention

Financial Critic Sees Danger in Henry Gov't Return

Time and space last week forbade a report of the splendid speech delivered by Dr Simpson, of Barrie, M. P. P. for East Simcoe, at the Liberal Convention.

In opening, Dr Simpson surmised something must be wrong with the cable service between London, England and Toronto, (between Howard Ferguson and Henry), when no election was yet announced! The people were demanding a return to democratic government, the present Government stands only for the rights of the Conservative party. To even obtain a job on the roads in his riding, a man must have credentials from the Tory candidate.

We have now the most clear-cut issues in any campaign for years: in other, liquor legislation obscured main issues. The Con. government are again attempting the same thing but he believed the promise of a glass of beer wouldn't fool the sensible people of Ontario. The laboring classes were not demanding beer—they were asking bread and butter.

Hon. Mr Price at Windsor, stated beer and wine was the great issue—an insult to the intelligence of the Ontario electors. Debt and taxation are the great issues. Ontario's debt is over $600,000,000 and over a third of our income is required to pay interest charges alone. If returned to power the Gov't will think they have mandate to increase the debt. Henry has boosted the debt $80,000 a day since 1930. Now under the most extravagant government in existence, Ontario is getting close to bankruptcy.

Where has the money gone? Cost of administration is far too much—too many civil servants. No government should be too long in power, because hangers on get control and dictate to the Gov't. Bad hydro deals was another snkhole. The gov't catered to private power barons or Quebec, pays large salaries, appointed 23 separate commissions and boards, and has 500,000 h. p. going to waste.

Frederic Henry has denied he made anything out of the Abitibi deal, when "he gov't guaranteed a price of $90 for bonds. If the permit didn't make anything, he saved himself a great deal of money."

The Gov't is spending 16 to 20 millions a year on Highways, but none are paid for. All our highways revenue (license fees, etc.) goes for something else. Another extravagance was the big barn at Gov't farm at Orillia. It holds 22 head of cattle and cost $37,140. 8 silos there cost $3900, three times too much.

The speaker was convinced that leader Hepburn's assertion he could reduce cost of administration (not laboratory.

PERSONAL MENTION

Messrs A. B. and Angus McArthur and Malcolm Melnes, of the Durham Road, Glenelg, attended the funeral in Toronto on Tuesday of the late Mrs Albert Leslie.

Miss Mary Belle McArthur, Toronto, spent over the week end with her parents at Buncellan.

Misses Elya and Vera Perdue, of Toronto, were week end guests at the parental home. Mrs Leary of Toronto accompanied them.

Mrs W. C. Pickering and daughters spent Saturday in Toronto. Miss Julia and Annie Weir, accompanied by Miss Alice Ramage, were in Toronto Saturday to see the historic production at the Royal Alexandra, "The Barrets of Wimpole Street."

Mr and Mrs P. E. Perrin and two boys, London, spent a few days last week with Mr and Mrs Arthur Ritchie.

Mr and Mrs T. M. McPadden and Miss Kathleen, spent the 24th with relatives at Stouffville.

Mr and Mrs J. N. Murdock visited with Hamilton relatives over the week end.

Mrs Thos. McGillivray who has been very ill with anaemia, underwent an operation Friday last, when she was given a blood transfusion at hands of a London blood specialist. Mrs McGillivray had infused into her bloodstream, the blood of her nephew, Mr George Bell and since Friday has responded well to the infusion.

Durham Boy with Fergus Norman Dean, Durham's flashy hockey star of last winter, is just as good in lacrosse, and since Durham has no team this season, he has joined up with the Fergus Thistles, in the fastest lacrosse league in the world. Playing against the champion Hamilton Tigers last week, Dean scored all three goals Fergus secured, but Hamilton won out 6 to 3. He did not go down for Tuesday's game in Hamilton, but will probably play in all home games at Fergus.

Election Date Is Finally Set

Ontario's 18th legislature was dissolved on Wednesday, May 16th, and the Henry gov't will face the people on Tuesday, June 19. Official nominations will be held June 12, and advance polls will be conducted June 16 and June 18.
