Erects Handsome Memorial.

Mr. John R. MacNicol, M.P., North Toronto, has been in Ayton recently, superintending the erection of a memorial shaft to his late wife, formerly Malsie McKinnon of South Normanby, who passed away nearly two years ago. The remains of Mrs. MacNicol lie in Ayton cemetery and at her resting place stands a memorial shaft thirty feet in height, surmounted by a figure symbolic of an angel. We understand some of the workmanship was done in Italy, and in every way Mr. MacNicol has spared no thought or expense in placing this tribute of respect to his departed wife.

New Traffic Officer

Highway Traffic Officer Clifford Hood has resigned from the service, after five years on the Mount Forest to Chatsworth beat, and is succeeded by Mr. Brown of Dunville, who is now on the job, and is boarding at Mrs. Alex McCormick's in Upper Town. Mr. Hood is removing this month to Kincardine, where he and his brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. Torrance, will go into partnership in the business and have a number of orders already on hand. They have secured a good shop there, and leased the Hunter residence, next to Hon. James Macleod's in Kincardine.

Durham Baptist Church observed Children's Day on Sunday morning, June 12. There was a good attendance. The main feature was a children's choir which filled the choir loft to capacity. Their special numbers were "Spelling Love" by C. H. Gabriel; and "G. double o. d. Good" by L. H. Meredith. "The Rainy Day Brigade" grouped under umbrellas lustily sang that they could be counted on to attend S. S. and worship on rainy days. The brigade consisted of Misses Myrtle Hodgson, Jean Erwin, Jean Herrington, Audrey Herrington, Edith Hodgson, Mae Levi, Doris Herrington, Louise McLean, Lucille Trafford, Margaret McNeill, Mae Thomson, Ina McLean, Jean LeV. The pastor gave a cartoon talk on "Inside Eyes", which interested the grown up children as well as little-folk. Mrs. Priest presided at piano.

OBITUARY

THOMAS H. McCLOCKLIN

There passed away in Whitby, on Sunday, June 10th, Thomas Herbert McClocklin, in his 50th year. For some time, deceased has been in poor health and in 1932 was stricken with a paralytic stroke. This incapacitated him for a time but eventually he recovered partial use of his limbs. However, two succeeding attacks since overtook him, the last proving fatal.

Tom, or "Larry", as he was affectionately called by his family and intimate friends, was a native of Durham and lived here continuously until 1917, when with his wife he removed to Toronto. Here for many years, Tom was employed in the Clothing Dept. of the Robert Simpson Co. In 1914, he was happily married to Miss Ethel Mooney, of Toronto. With his wife, there mourn his passing three brothers, and two sisters: Edward D., of Durham; Albert and Alfred of Toronto; Cora, Mrs. Nicolls and Miss Minnie, of Toronto.

The funeral was held on Tuesday from his late home at Swansea, Toronto, to Park Lawn cemetery, a detachment of brother Oddfellows attending the funeral service, as well as a number of old Durham friends. Deceased's brother, Ed., attended the funeral from here on Tuesday.

MINNIE MCFADDEN

The last call came for Miss M. A. (Minnie) McFadden, on Wednesday night last, at her home on Bruce St., after an illness of some ten months. But two weeks of this time was she confined to bed.

Deceased was born in Egremont, the third oldest of a family of seven daughters and one son. Thirty two years ago, she came to town with her parents to reside. Two of the family members have predeceased her: Eliza, Mrs. McChesney, Owen Sound and Margaret Jane at home. Surviving are: Nancy, Mrs. Bailey of "Vickers"; Vina, Mrs. W. Ryan, Durham; Martha and Victoria at home, and William Mackin, of Glenora.

Miss McFadden's kind and unassuming manner won for her many friends. She was a faithful attendant of the services at Queen St. Church, her pastor, Rev. W. C. Atmack having charge of the funeral services from her late home on Friday last, to Durham cemetery.

JOHN CAMPBELL

John Campbell, a former well-known Proton resident, for some years a resident of Owen Sound, died at the General Hospital there, on Friday, last. While there was no ultimate hope for recovery, death came most unexpected.

The late Mr. Campbell was in his 80th year, born near Toronto, the son of the late John and Mrs. Campbell, pioneers of Proton Twp. He farmed in Egremont for a number of years and then moved to Arthur in 1905, living there until 1931, when he retired to Owen Sound.

He was married 52 years ago to Harriet Dingwall, who survives him with five children: Mrs. Samuel Batchelor, Proton Station; Mrs. Stephen McMurdo, Weyburn, Sask.; George, of Arthur; Robert at home; Mrs. W. Vance, Springwood.

Deceased also leaves two sisters: Henrietta, Mrs. Dougald Macphail, of Caylon (mother of A. C. Macphail, M.P.) and Maggie, Mrs. Daniel McGregor, Gables, Ont. and three brothers: Wm. and Robert of Hopeville and George, of Ericville.

In religion, the late Mr. Campbell was a member of the Latter Day Saints Church, Owen Sound.

Historical Night at Presbyterian Anniversary

A unique evening of the Presbyterian Anniversary Services was "Historical Night" last Monday, when a history of the church was read, and a biography of each of its various ministers. After each sketch the favorite hymn of that minister was sung by the gathering. Mrs. J. H. McFadyen read the life story of the first pastor, Rev. Wm. Park; Mrs. T. Turnbull that of Rev. Wm. Forcut; Miss J. Weir that of Rev. R. McNair; with a letter of greeting from him in Australia; Mrs. J. McGowan, that of Rev. A. G. Jansen; Mrs. (Dr.) Grant, that of Rev. Dr. Farquharson; Mrs. W. G. Firth, that of Rev. S. M. Whaley; Mr. J. Morrison prepared the sketch of Rev. W. H. Smith; Mr. J. McGowan that of Rev. B. D. Armstrong; Mr. Gordon Geddes that of Rev. W. J. Burnett, and finally the new pastor, Rev. D. Gowdy, gave a racy outline of his life and college career.

Tea was served from a buffet table, beautifully decorated with red peonies and white snowballs. Mrs. J. H. McFadyen and Mrs. McDonald pooled tea. Mrs. Arrowsmith cut the 75th Anniversary cake and the ladies who recalled the first minister, passed the cake. The event was largely attended by the congregation. It was a happy idea and provided a most enjoyable night.

Oliver and Kernahan Institute Summer Speaker Nominated on Tuesday Left Good Impression

The Town Hall was packed to capacity, and over two hundred disappointed electors turned away at the official nominations for South Grey, Tuesday afternoon. The only nominees were Farquhar R. Oliver, U.F.O. or Independent candidate and H.W. Kernahan, Conservative.

Returning Officer W. L. Taylor acted as chairman, and Mr. Oliver was first allowed 50 minutes, Mr. Kernahan an hour and Mr. Oliver 10 min. for reply. Mr. Oliver made a convincing and forcible address, replying to Premier Henry's statements at Hanover meeting, and severely attacked the Henry gov's record. He asserted he was the first member to reveal conditions at Toronto stock market, and the combine among the meat packers.

Mr. Kernahan also spoke well, claiming no great political issues now exist, and believed that some unemployment insurance bill was necessary. Mr. Oliver, he said, had nothing constructive to offer and S. Grey electors would be better served by an old party member.

The meeting passed off calmly and quietly, good attention was paid and very little heckling.

Bad Motor Accident near Shelburne.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goheen and two sons, Mr. Bob Black and Mrs. Nell McLeod, all of Proton, were in Toronto on Saturday last, along with several other cars of Swinton Park Golf attending the Old Boys' and Girls' Swinton Park picnic in High Park, Toronto. The car containing the above party met with a bad accident while returning home Sunday night.

They were on this side of Shelburne, motoring along at a speed of thirty miles per hour, when suddenly, without any warning whatever, another car from a sideroad ran head on into them. It was driven by a Whitby man who was badly hurt and unconscious for ten hours after the crash. The Goheen party had the right of way and did not even see the other car approaching at right angles until too late. Mr. Goheen, who was driving, suffered several facial cuts. Mrs. Goheen who sat in the rear, had her scalp partially torn loose, which required about thirty stitches in all to close, while Mrs. McLeod and the children escaped without cuts. All were severely bruised.

They were first treated by a Shelburne medic, and later brought to their homes. Both cars are sorry wrecks, and both were insured.

BRIGHAM - SHARP

An early June wedding was solemnized at Knox Manse, Durham, on June 6, by Rev. W. H. Smith, when Mary Elizabeth (Mae), elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brampden, and Howard Clayton Brigham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Brigham, Allan Park, were united in marriage. Miss Myrtle Sharp and Mr. Leonard Brigham, sister and brother respectively of bride and groom, were the attendants.

The bride was attractively attired in white crepe satin, with lace in white and white hat and shoes and jacket, also white hat and shoes and gloves to match. The bridesmaid was gowned in pink organza, carry-white snowballs, while the bride's bouquet was carnations and maiden hair fern. The groom's gift to the bride was a white gold pendant, to the bridesmaid a white gold bracelet to the groomsmen white gold links.

After the ceremony they returned to the home of the bride, where a supper was served to the immediate relatives of bride and groom. In the evening a reception was held with upwards of two hundred guests present. The gifts were both useful and beautiful and included several checks. Friends from a distance were from Shallow Lake, Lamah, Ericville, Durham, Hanover, Ayton, Stratford and Toronto. After the reception the bride and groom left by motor for Toronto, Niagara and other points, the bride travelling in blue wool suit coat with grey fur cape, blue canton crepe dress and accessories to match.

Upon their return they will commence home-making on the John Sharp farm.

Institute Summer Speaker Left Good Impression

Miss Edith M. Collins, of the Dept. of Agriculture, Toronto, was the speaker at the Women's Institute meeting Friday afternoon in Queen Street Church. Zion and Aberdeen branches met with Durham branch. Miss Collins spoke in a very interesting manner on a number of subjects allotted for study in Institute Branches.

Development in efficiency in every phase of work was stressed and was illustrated by a story from the speaker's experiences at a little place in Ontario where it was necessary to have an interpreter. This person had made herself an effective speaker in French and English and had added to this, perfection in tone qualities, which gave the touch of sympathetic understanding. It is the insistent, dominant things that hold attention, hence the need of guarding our speech and tone of voice.

Department in manners and mode of living is to a great extent controlled by women. In one home where there was abundance of possessions and a growing family, there was the lack of table manners, courtesy and refinement. In another home which was a little shack, there was only improved furniture, few utensils and scanty fare, yet there was refinement expressed in manners, in courtesy and in a womanliness that maintained a high degree.

Health is determined by the women of our land. One woman was left a widow with two children both mutes owing to deafness. This woman had only $100. She went to the school of instruction for the deaf, and asked to have her children educated, and stated she wished to stay with them and earn their way at any kind of work. Also she wished to learn. The mother and two children are to-day earning their living, and are busy happy people. Another woman had a son that was blind and she decided to keep him at home and love him. She couldn't part with him to have him educated in the school for the blind. That boy grew into a useless man for want of training. In the first instance the weakness was changed to strength, in the second the weakness became a burden. It is a sad fact that today in our country, 1400 children are awaiting admission to Orilla mental hospitals.

In speaking of Legislation, the speaker said there was a great need to maintain and develop a better attitude toward the laws of the country. To every law there is some way a person can get around it for their own special interest, but this is a wrong attitude. The ballot today is in the hands of women has a balance of power as 50% of voters are women. She compared the ballot to a gun with a bullet in it, it required in the discriminating care needed in handling it. The need of organized women was shown in the power of the law, munity without any organization.

There was a sore spot in the community that needed clearing away and was not done until the women organized and used the power at their disposal.

Historical Research is in need of study. There is the need for developing an eye for beauty in old things and in common things.

Home Economics has an unlimited scope for study. It is a big job to learn how to get the most from money to meet the needs of the home in providing the best for the physical, mental and spiritual requirements of the members of family. The power discrimination needs developing. Some homes are entirely lacking in food for mental and spiritual needs. In one home the speaker visited the only reading material that could be found was a public school arithmetic.

Miss Collins closed her address with a beautiful word picture of Niagara Falls, which she compared to life. She stressed the need of each one relating and acknowledging the great moments in their lives when strength was given and this to be related for the encouragement of youth. We are all making a contribution to life. Was it such that it would be remembered 100 years from now?

Miss Winnie Blyth, president of Durham Branch, presided. Miss Annie Smith of Aberdeen branch, read the poem "The House by the Side of the Road" and the answer to it. Miss Mary Anderson of Zion branch, recited "The Last Hymn." Miss Charlton rendered a delightful piano selection.

At close of the address the audience was arranged into groups and enjoyed a social half hour, when refreshments were served.

Mrs. Nech will hold a Nu-Bone demonstration, June 20 and 21, at home of Mrs. A. B. Nichol, resident corseteer.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Leeson, Beloit, Wisconsin, were welcome visitors at the review home Friday last. They are nicely home after a winter in Florida and the Doctor leaves in a short time to spend the summer in Western Canada. From here, the couple left for Toronto, where they were Kivans attending the international Convention.

Mrs. Bert Stonehouse is looking forward to the pleasure of entertaining her brother, James Brown, his wife, two daughters and son, all of Alpena, Mich., whom she has not seen for many years. They are taking an extensive motor trip, and are now at another brother's, Adam Brown, of Parry Sound.

Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Cole, of Kenilworth, announce the engagement of their younger daughter, Gertrude Myra, to Edgar William Rahn, son of Mrs. L. Rahn and the late Mr. Rahn Elmira, Ont., the marriage to take place in the United Church, Kenilworth, on July 5th, at 4.30 o'clock. Miss Cole is a former well-known and popular Durham girl, who taught for a few years on the Public School staff.

Mr. John A. Campbell, President of the Campbell Construction Co., with headquarters on Wellington St., Toronto, was in town Tuesday and called on old friends at the Review Office, where it was his lot to stick type. Will we tell?—thirty odd years ago. Since leaving type and ink, he has had a varied career in Western Canada and early showed an aptitude for contracting work. John has now been in Toronto for some years, and while financial success has come to him, it has not robbed him of his fondness for early days and associations in and around his early home at Swinton Park. Perhaps the grey shows up a little around the temples but the spirit appears just as young and vigorous, as the day he had his fingers jammed in the small job press.

I.O.D.E. Birthday Tea.
The annual Birthday Tea of Can. Greys Chapter, I.O.D.E., was held in the lower Town Hall, Tuesday, while the flow of oratory in the nomination speeches went on unabated in the upper hall. Miss Hunter, regent, received the guests, of which there were many, considering the damp afternoon. The large room was attractively decorated with floral bloom and the tea table, presided over by Mrs. Alder and Mrs. Kearney, was a thing of beauty. A bright musical program was heard during the afternoon, under Mrs. Town's convener-ship. Nearly $25 were the receipts of the tea.
