

Mr. J. and Miss Cooper Honored by Church

At a meeting of Hampden United congregation, an important feature was an address and presentation to Mr. John and Miss Jennie Cooper, on the eve of their departure from the community. Mr. John Milligan read an address, while Mrs. Jas. Byers and Mrs. Wm Henderson presented each with a leather-bound hymnary. Each recipient made a suitable reply. Several of the congregation voiced their appreciation of the work of Mr and Miss Cooper, among whom were Rev. W. H. Smith, Wm. Little, Mrs. Byers, Wilfrid Anderson, Mrs. Henderson and John Milligan. All joined in singing "Blest be the tie that binds." The address reads as follows:

To Miss Jennie and Mr John Cooper It was with mingled feelings we learned of your intentions of removing from our midst. It means the severing of relations with the church and community, we cannot but regret your going and mourn our loss. Yet we are glad for your sakes you can lay aside the cares which beset your calling and enjoy retired life and leisure which you richly deserve.

In all the religious and social activities of the church, you have always taken a prominent and leading part. The Session of which you, Mr. Cooper, have been a member for so many years, will miss your counsel and fellowship; and in the service of praise, you have long been a valued leader.

To Miss Cooper, the W.M.S. wish to express their regret in parting with such a worthy member as you have been, and extend most hearty and sincere good wishes for your future. We believe you will not soon forget the place where you have spent all your past life, yet as a slight token of remembrance from those you leave behind, we present you each with a copy of the Hymnary. It may be that you will not be far removed from us in the days to come and we will occasionally meet you and greet you as of yore. Our hearts in Christian love.

Signed on behalf of Hampden congregation, Mrs. Jas. Byers, Ferdinand Breutinger, Mrs. Wm Henderson, John Milligan.

PRESBYTERIAN Y. W. A.

The Young Women's Auxiliary met at home of Mrs Stewart McArthur, Tuesday, June 12, with 26 members present. Mrs C. Howell, president, occupied the chair. The meeting opened with hymn 41 followed by scripture reading by Mrs Derby and prayer by Mrs Howell. Miss Jean Harding told about the Rally at Holstein on June 6th to members who were unable to attend, and how much they enjoyed the guest speaker, Miss Hill, Girls' Work Secy., who spoke on "Helps to the past, debtors to the future, we live in the present." Arrangements were made to hold a picnic June 28th at Holstein. The Secretary's report showed that we had reached our allocation of $50 to be raised during the year and the President thanked all members for their help in making our "Blossom Tea" such a success, from which $35 was made. The meeting closed with hymn 562 followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. Work on the quilt followed, and lunch was served. This is the last meeting until September.

TUESDAY WILL DECIDE

Tuesday, June 19, is an important day for Ontario, possibly the beginning of a new era. The prospects of Mitchell Hepburn, fighting Liberal leader, winning a majority of the 90 seats are bright, and should he be called upon to form the new government, he will have excellent cabinet timber available. The discredited Henry govt, however, is sparing neither money, literature or efforts to hang onto office.

SALARIES AND SOLIDARITY

"Premier Henry has entered the provincial general election campaign with present Cabinet and portfolio line up unchanged." Here is comforting news for all Ontario's weary taxpayers, from a press spokesman of the Government. A united front—not a break in the salary line! Surely not a rank and file so dejected now as to croon "What's this dull town to me? Howard's not near— As for a "nest of traitors" in Queen's Park—be upon the idea. That was all attended to long ago. Eminent public service was recognized. Salaries were increased. Do $10,000 men desert their posts in an hour of danger?

A $9,000 Premier and $8000 Cabinet Ministers sufficed for the horse and buggy days of Mr Drury. But times have changed. Debts and taxes have mounted. There is a call for seasoned rhetoricians with a talent for explaining—a need for "well fed men who sleep o' night."

Only those gifted in the arts of exposition can convince Mr John Citizen, the well known tax payer, who is a bit dull of comprehension, that a $2,500,000 deficit is in reality a surplus of $476,425. Here it is that the $10,000 man shines out like a candle in a fog; whereas the $6,000 amateur would merely become obscured as he moved toward oblivion. Can it be that the Ontario tax payer will fall to understand the advantages of being served by a Premier who has voted himself a $14,000 salary and by Cabinet Ministers who value their own worth at $10,000 each, instead of the old fashioned $6,000. Public servants of this type are never down hearted in depression periods. A depression, properly handled, can be made to yield a profit.

The "bargaining principle", so popular among the modernists in tariff making, has many points of usefulness. A Cabinet that has voted its Premier a salary of $14,000 and ordinary members $10,000 each is in a position to make magnificent gestures. Percentages may be returned to the Treasury with a wave of the hand signifying large heartedness, while still there is a substantial net gain over the niggardly days of $9,000 and $6,000 emoluments.

Forward into action moves the entire cabinet—without a break in the salaried solidarity of the front line!

The familiar motto "Home Sweet Home" usually ceases to function after you have shied a brick at the neighbor's cat—and by chance hit it!

Mary Rickford cleaned up a cool $10,000 for a week's contract in a Toronto theatre last month. This may deny any rumors that Mary may be placed on relief.

The price of wheat is on the way up, but that doesn't mean a thing to the farmer whose crops are being ruined.

Premier Henry last year reduced all educational grants by 20%. He hasn't restored them yet, but he has promised to give back the 10% cut to civil servants and also launched a $20,000,000 road building campaign.

Mr Hepburn is said to be delivering two speeches per day until after the election. Well if hard work will win, he should have quite a chance.

Electors of South Grey

On Tuesday, June 19, you will decide by your ballots how you will be represented in the Legislature of Ontario during the next parliamentary term. The records and achievements, the pledges and promises of candidates and parties have been reviewed by the press, over the radio and from the platform. The issue is in your hands for a verdict. If you are interested—and you should be.—you will realize that this matter of choosing your Government and your Representative is of outstanding importance. There is nothing more important to the people of Ontario than their own welfare. It is equally true that, in large measure the activities of Government affect our welfare. The biggest business in Ontario is Ontario's business.

HOW WILL YOU VOTE?

- If you are inclined to believe that, after all, the two party system of Government is best for our Province—
- If you are prepared to admit that experience in business administration is desirable—
- If you stop to consider that no charge of maladministration has been successfully made against the present Government—
- If you would support a Government active in promoting the moral, social and economic welfare of our people—
- If you can appreciate the fact that this Government without claiming perfection, has gone far in achieving these things in these difficult times, has balanced its budget and maintained Provincial credit—
