PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Mr and Mrs Jack Parker and little Shirley; Misses Mabel and Margie Everist, also Mr Garfield Forbes, all of Toronto, spent the week end with Mr and Mrs Ed Everist.

Rev. N. McDonald at the S. S. convention at Eugenia, gave a paper on "Joy in Worship in a S. S. program." The meeting was well attended and addresses highly interesting and instructive.

The funeral of the late John McVicar of near Brampton, took place Friday a. m., to St John's R. C. cemetery. It was largely attended. Rev. Father Grace conducted Requiem high mass with becoming solemnity. Rev. Father Ferguson, Brantford, a former pastor some 19 years ago, was present and consecrated the remains to their last resting place. Father Grace testified to the liberality and kindness shown by deceased towards the church here, when a resident here. Left to mourn his demise are son Angus, Priceville; (Annie, Mrs Joe Black, Toronto; Phillippa and John, on homestead near Brampton. The pall bearers were his grandsons, Johnny McVicar, Alex Black, and four nephews, Lochie, Duncan and Frank Dunbar and Alex McCormick. Friends from a distance were Mr and Mrs Joe Black and family, Toronto; Robt Anderson and family, White Anderson and family, Brampton; the O'Connor family, of Streetsville, and friends from Markdale, Durham and vicinity. His wife predeceased him 10 years ago and a daughter Florence 2 years ago and a son Alexander in 1917, at the Great War. Father Ferguson met with many of his old parishioners with a warm glad handshake.

A number from here attended the funeral of late John McCoskey, of Durham Sunday, a sad circumstance, following so shortly after the death of his devoted wife. The writer always enjoyed when meeting, his friendly salutation.

A pleasant send-off was given to Miss Edna McHugh, successful teacher here for the past 5 years, by the townsfolk. She leaves behind on her resignation, many more than one warm heart here. She proved herself a faithful worker in Y.P.S. and other church work, and lent at times a valued help in the choir. We wish her abundant success wherever her lot may be cast.

Another event at time of writing—as is the foregoing, not yet finished, is a football match between Holstein and Priceville on Wednesday, when likely the totally innocent sphere will get badly abused and knocked around. Here's hoping—as in politics—that the best side wins. This will be celebrated by the usual dance in the Hall adjoining.

Friday evening the induction of the incoming pastor, Rev J. W. Johnson, of Keldon, will take place at 8 p. m. in St Columba United, who is taking the place of the beloved Rev. Mr Moir, retiring thro' ill health. Latest reports he is holding his own, and expresses deep regret in parting,—that is fully reciprocated here by more than his own people. The best wishes and prayers of all are with him in his retirement.

On Saturday at 8 p. m. a meeting will be held at home of Secy Ramage to make plans and preparations for the fine annual memorial service held in summer the past four years.

Thursday night we have to ourselves and seeing that straight furrow plowing is now a thing of the past, we will have lots of time to read even the ads. in Review and Globe.

Mr Bert Chapman and Jean of Toronto, were welcome guests at the cheerful home of Mr and Mrs H. B. McLean on Sunday last. His deceased wife was early associated with this village. Her sister also is expected this week on an old-time home visit.

Rev. Mr Metcalfe, Hanover, preached again acceptably on Sunday at St. Columba and at Salem. He leaves for Cochrane the first of July.

(Intended for last week)

Some 25 ladies of St. Columba United Church gathered at the home of Miss Lizzie Mather for the purpose of the two Misses Moir who unfortunately are leaving this community owing to the continued illness of their brother Rev. J. A. Moir, our popular minister here. He has been instructed by his medical advisers to rest for a year from all work, mental or physical. The meeting was informally conducted. Tea was served from 4 to 6, Mrs F. McKinnon and Miss Edith James doing the pouring. Mrs. Allie Muir made the presentation of a china cream and sugar set to Miss Kate, and a large sandwich plate, and a half dozen smaller ones to Miss Isabelle, all of the Colport qualky. Both replied appreciatively for the kindly gifts of remembrance so lovingly tendered, regretting their leaving and the circumstance leading up to the separation. A separation that is regretted by all members and other citizens.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston—the minister taking the place of Rev. Mr. Moir, visited this part on Tuesday, making a preliminary acquaintance with his people.

Rev. W. M. B. Metcalfe of Hanover, ordained one week ago, took the services at St Columba on Sunday last, and will again on Sunday next, June 24th in the morning. Miss Florence Wright, Hanover was a pleasant visitor here, and took in the services at St. Columba.

Mrs A. Clark (nee Beatrice McConey) of Vancouver) together with Dr and Mrs. Glenn B. Wheeler of Detroit, are welcome visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McConey. The former after many years since last here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ostrander of Huttonville, were visitors with W. G. Watson over the week end. They are relatives of the Watson family. He says the hay fields there, are bare as the roads here, owing to lack of rain. They have no such luck in getting rain as we have here.

Mr Alex McLean, accompanied by his sister Mrs. McFarlane of Toronto paid a visit to their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McLean. The latter remained over for a few days on finding her mother indisposed with an attack of neuralgia.

The recent excursion of the Y. P. S. here to Owen Sound and other points took place Saturday. There were 34 all told who took in the event. A pleasant time was had, we are told, in the truck load which returned here at 11 P. M.

A marked difference is already seen in the crops and garden stuff since the copious rains of Monday.

Dr. T. H. Sneath, Durham is in attendance on Mr. John Brown who is indisposed at present.

Mrs. Frank Ulrich of Chicago, and her father, John Melia, of Ceylon, were visitors at William Burnetts on the South Line, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Katherine Lavigne, of Detroit, (nee Katherine MacAulay, of Priceville,) arrived Sunday afternoon for a few days visit with her nephew, Wm. Burnet on the South Line, and was accompanied by her son Earle, and his wife and their son Charles, also from Detroit.

WM. J. YOUNG
For 45 years a member of the Session in Durham Presbyterian Church and later Knox United Church.

ZION

Mr and Mrs W. J. McPadden and Gladys and Miss Reta Douglas, of Orange Valley, visited with Mr and Mrs W. J. Cook.

Mr and Mrs Jos McNally, Mr and Mrs Geo McNally, Mr and Mrs R. Scher, Mr and Mrs R. N. Meaford, visited Saturday with Mr and Mrs. Robt. Bryan.

Mr and Mrs Chateau and family, Durham, visited with Mr and Mrs W. J. Greenwood.

Mr and Mrs Herb Allen and Miss Mary, visited with Mr and Mrs Jos. Porter, Bentinck.

Mr and Mrs Douglas Currie, Toronto, are with the Peart and Hastie families. Mrs Geo. Peart returned home with them.

(Arrived too late for last week)

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Greenwood, of Moosejaw, Sask., Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Greenwood of Aberdeen, and Mr. Gordon Greenwood, of Toronto spent Saturday with Mr and Mrs W. J. Greenwood.

Zion Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Howard Ritchie, last Thursday with 32 ladies present. The meeting opened with singing the Institute ode followed by prayer. Miss Myrtle Glencross gave a paper on "Packing a Picnic Basket." Mrs. A. Anderson had a reading from Nina Moore Jamieson's book; Mrs. W. J. Greenwood told of her recent holiday; Rev. Almaek gave an interesting address on "Walter Whitman" and read some of his poems.

Mrs Almaek gave a recitation "The Kindergarten Tot"; Mrs. Gordon Riddle gave a report of the District Convention. The meeting closed with singing the National Anthem. The hostess and assistants served a dainty lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greenwood spent the beginning of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Birks Robertson, Greenock.

Mr. Shackleton, of Priceville addressed the Young Peoples Society on Sunday evening on "Utopia Young People". His address was much enjoyed by those present.

Mr. Ivan Edwards, of Shelburne, spent the week end at the parental home, his mother, Mrs. R. T. Edwards returned home with him after spending the past week there. The previous week Mrs Edwards spent in the Toronto General Hospital, receiving treatments. We hope her health may be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook, and son Hugh, of Kitchener, spent a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook.

Mrs. M. Smith and son Charlie and Miss Rebecca Banks spent an evening recently with Mrs Rob McFadden.

The Sunday School has planned to have their Annual Picnic on June 30th in the Peart and Edwards Grove. Mrs. Geo. Peart left on Friday for a visit with her niece, Mrs Brush, at Harrow. Mr and Mrs E. R. Peart accompanied her as far as Orangeville.

Mr. Geo. Peart returned home after spending the past few weeks with his son, Robt. Peart, near Durham.

Mrs. R. T. Cook returned home after spending a couple of weeks with friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Edwards of Detroit, are visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Edwards.

Here and There

The British Columbia Chapter of the I. O. O. F. held its "coming of age" meeting at the Empress Hotel, Victoria, recently, at its twenty-first annual convocation. Premier Pattullo welcomed delegates from all over the province, and many distinguished guests were present.

The annual reduction in cost of summer railway travel under the heading of low summer fares, will be put into effect by the Canadian Pacific Railway on May 15th next, according to official announcement. The reduced fares will have extensive limits and stopovers.

Port Hope, on the south bank of the Fraser River, ninety miles from Vancouver by the Canadian Pacific, is a place where the Almighty has most lavishly set down in a land of wonderful beauty rivers and lakes abounding in game fish, writes B. Stone Kennedy, editor of Western Fishes.

Dr. Frank N. D. Buchman, leader of the Oxford Group movement, is expected to launch another campaign in western Canada this Spring, commencing at Winnipeg May 1, taking in Regina, Saskatoon, Calgary, Edmonton, Vancouver and Victoria, and culminating with a selective "house party" at the Banff Springs Hotel early in June.

The success of low cost all-expense tours in the Canadian Rockies instituted by Canadian Pacific Railway last summer has prompted the company to repeat these four, five and six-day trips during the coming summer. Each trip affords 126 miles of motor-ing, and can be made either east-bound from Field, B.C., or west-bound from Banff, Alberta, at the convenience of passengers.

A. C. Leighton, R.B.A., president of the government art college at Calgary, who will again this summer hold his summer art school for selected students from the Province of Alberta at the Kanamaske Dude Ranch, near Banff, has picked a location surrounded by the most magnificent of Rocky Mountain scenery.

The skunk is not the king of the woods, said George Corsan, naturalist, addressing the Kiwanis Club at the Royal York Hotel recently. "Hold him up by his tail," said Mr. Corsan, "and he will become innocuous." He didn't tell the Kiwanis if he had actually accomplished this feat.

Toronto got its full measure of music-makers lately when the most famous bandmasters of the continent assembled at the Royal York Hotel for their annual convention. Captain Charles O'Neill was the president and they came from all parts of the United States and Canada.
