IN DAYS OF YORE 15 YEARS AGO

From Review file, July 3, 1919 Mr Vanderleer, church decorator, has completed his contract in Durham Presbyterian Church, after six weeks' exclusion, and the congregation will assemble on Sunday in the newly decorated edifice.

The Centre Glenelg fire bug is still busy. Saturday at the early hour of 3 a.m., Mr Pat Haley's barn, on the 6th con., was burned to the ground. This is the sixth barn in recent months in the vicinity—the fourth barn in less than 3 months, and still there is no trace of the much wanted incendiary.

The 52nd anniversary of Dominion Day, saw the Great War Veterans staging a large celebration here. Mr. Geo. McMeekin, Durham's only soldier in the Siberian contingent, returned home last week.

Fire destroyed the barn of Mr Peter McEachern on the 12th con of Egremont, at 12.00 noon on Wednesday. The origin of fire is unknown. Durham High School Promotion Exams, Form I to Form II: 1st class honors—Vida Ritchie, Hazel Young, 2nd Class Honors—Rhena Livingstone, Albert Kress, Katie McAuliffe, Erben Schutz, Margaret Isaac, Irene Whittaker Sadie Russell, Pass—Royden Burnett, Mary Morrison, Harold Mountain, Willie McDonald, Mary McQuarrie, Jessie Twamley, Alva Metcalfe, Ada Metcalfe, Reta Bailey.

Placed to have a call from Mr. John Aldred, of Ceylon, Sask. who has been visiting his sister, Mrs J. W. Blyth and other relatives in the district that knew him so well until 14 years ago, when he went West. He is an interesting exponent of the value of church union as it has developed in many parts of Sask. His visit now was occasioned by him being appointed a Commissioner to attend the recent General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in Hamilton, a long step from the days when he was a stand by of the little Methodist Church at Varney in which he did work perhaps not second in importance to that of his now wider field. As he sees it, the problem of ministerial supply is to have more and more union of protestant denominations.

25 YEARS AGO From Review file, July 1, 1909 It is ever a pleasant reunion when a family widely separated, are reunited, if only for a day or two. It was at the home of her sister, Mrs. Thos. Brown, south of town. All were present except two brothers, and they spent an enjoyable time at Haywards Falls and Holstein. While running the steamer at Robt Smith's sawmill outfit at Dornoch, last week, Mr Thos Ryan of town, met with a severe accident. A belt slipped off and pieces entered his arm, causing deep incisions. Mr and Mrs C. Watson, North Egremont, were in town Monday, but could not stay for the evening meeting in the church not being so young as they were 53 years ago, when he built the first Presbyterian Church. Mr Kennedy (nee Miss Porfar) of Prince Albert, Sask, planned her trip to take in the Presbyterian jubilee services. She is a guest of Miss A. C. McKenzie and has been warmly welcomed by her old pupils and friends. The home of Mr and Mrs John McNally, Eborale, was the scene of a pretty wedding on June 23, when their second daughter Katie, became the bride of Robert Wesley Summers of Willowdale. Mrs John Baird of 2nd con, Egremont, a smart young lady of 85, came to Durham Saturday from the Holstein picnic to take in the Pres. Jubilee services Sunday and Monday. She was the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs Wm McFadden, and called on other friends. She is one of the pioneers of Egremont, being here before Rev. Wm Park's time.

SWINTON PARK

There died on July 2nd, Mr Jos. Ferris, the oldest person of this section, in his 81st year. The funeral will be held on Wednesday, interment at Salem cemetery. Mr Ferris came to Proton when 2 years of age, his parents locating on lot 8 con 18.

There during all those years Joe has lived. About 50 years ago he married Bella Stewart, also of Proton. To them was born a daughter, Cepha, now Mrs Richard Parslow of Vulean, Alta, and one son Robert, who has been the constant companion of his father since the death of Mrs Ferris, some 8 or 9 years ago. The daughter arrived home last Friday just in time to be recognized by father. Mr Ferris has been a long-time sufferer from a form of rheumatism, but only 3 weeks ago, was confined to bed. Dr Sneath was called but did not give hope as the clock of life had run very low. We will all miss our old neighbor, but especially the daughter and son, who will look back in kindly remembrance on a father who did his part to make their home life pleasant.

Only a few of Mr Ferris' generation remain. We can recall with pleasure the sayings and doings of Joe Ferris, first in school and later at logging bee and barn raising and especially at threshing time. Mr Ferris for many years was a successful thresher and willing to do his best for everyone. He was for a time a member of Pres. Church and later of United Church. At this season of the year work not being so pressing, there is considerable motoring going on.

This locality has been enriched of late by some new citizens, Mr and Mrs Tressider and two daughters of Toronto, who have taken up residence in Mr Martin's house in the Park as a summer resort. With them at present are Mr and Mrs Smith, also of Toronto, old friends and are pleased to drink in our fresh air and pure water of the highland. Mr Tressider can only spend the week end here then return to city and duty. We hope they may enjoy life here also that Mrs Tressider will be benefited in health. Delbert Haw and mother also Miss Heard, teacher of Park, motored to Toronto for week end to visit sister, daughter and friends, also to help celebrate Dominion Day.

Mr and Mrs Dick Hardy spent the week end in Owen Sound. Mr and Mrs Dick Lawrence, Windsor, and Mr and Mrs Joyce, Stratford, were visitors at Hardy's for the week end. Miss Kathleen McMillan, R. N. and aunt, Mrs. Parslow, Toronto, were guests at Hugh McMillan's Sunday. Mr Wm Knox of McLeod, Alberta, is coming to his father's, Mr Robt. Knox, this Tuesday, after an absence of 23 years. There will be rejoicing.

Swinton Park On Wednesday a picnic was held at home of Andrew Hincks for the mothers and children on Cradle Roll. The day was ideal and about forty were present. The children ran races got prizes and all had their pictures taken. Community singing was enjoyed. Last but not least was a bountiful supper, and ice cream and candy were served all. There were 13 children present. Some neighbors and friends were also present. Those who attended from a distance were: Miss Catherine McMillan, R.N. Dunnville; Miss Effie McCannell, Proton Station; Mr and Mrs Chas. Tucker, and Gerald, Ebenezer; Mr and Mrs. Jack Hincks, Mr and Mrs George Hincks and son Ivan, Egremont. A lovely birthday cake was made, the work of Miss Mary McEachern.

Anniversary services were held in Presbyterian church Sunday, when large crowds attended both services. Rev. N. MacDonald delivered splendid sermons morning and evening. The church was prettily decorated with flowers. The choir contributed an anthem and Miss Nellie McLean, a solo in the morning. An anthem in evening and a solo by Mrs Dan. Campbell were enjoyed.

The garden party held on Monday evening was a decided success. There was a large crowd present. A splendid supper was served on the school grounds and fine bagpipe music given by Angus McCormick and Neil Cameron. A football game, between Priceville and Boothville proved interesting. Pricieville winning 3 to 0. The program consisted of bagpipe music and a play by Ferversham people "The end of the Lane" which was well given and much enjoyed. The Schram orchestra furnished good music between acts. The two quilts, the work of Pricieville ladies, were auctioned off by Donald Aldcorn, and were bought by Mrs. Buckham, and Mr C. E. Hincks. The money for them goes to Missionary Society and they brought $8. Proceeds were $75.

Miss Catherine McMillan R.N. of Dunnville, is spending a couple of weeks at her home. Mr. Jack Scott and sister, of Dromore, visited Sunday at H. R. McLean's. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Patterson visited Friday night at Mr. Angus McCarruths. Mr Gordon McLean and lady friend, of Fort la Pelle, Sask. motored over last week. Mrs. Thos. Macenter and daughter returned to Buffalo after spending 3 weeks with her father, Mr George Campbell.

Miss Jean Hincks, who has been attending University in Toronto, received word that she has been successful in getting all her subjects. Miss Monica Lambert, of Toronto, is spending a week with her uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs Sutherland. Miss Elda Froom is home from Toronto Normal. Mr. Murray McMillan came home from Toronto last week. C. E. Hincks returned home last Thursday from Clifford, for his vacation. Mr. and Mrs. A. Neun, of Toronto, spent the week end with their sons, Elmer and Walter and attended the funeral of her brother, the late Sam Sh'ier, on Saturday. The deceased passed away very suddenly from heart failure.

The W. M. S. and willing helpers held their monthly meeting on Tues. in the church when 25 ladies were present. Mrs. Sutherland presided over the W. M. S. After devotional exercises the bale was prepared. Mrs Hincks gave a reading. It was decided to have Rev. N. McDonald preach the thank-offering service at a later date. Mrs Wm Aldcorn presided
