NORTH EGREMONT

On closing day at S.S. No. 13, the pupils presented their teacher, Mr. Lorne Ries with an address and a cigarette case and lighter. Lorne Eccles read the address and Howard Keith presented the gift. Mr. Ries made a neat reply and invited them to come and see him sometime. We always found Mr Ries very obliging and wish him every success in future. The address:
Dear Teacher:
We, your scholars of S.S. No. 13, Egremont, learn with regret of your intended departure from among us. We cannot express our gratitude for the patience and kindness you have extended to us during the two years you have been our teacher. We ask you to accept this gift. It will be a reminder to you of S.S. No. 13 where you first learned the battle of life. Signed on behalf of the school:
Dorothy, McNauty, Ruth McKenzie, Lorne Eccles, Howard Keith
Mr John Scott visited at North Bay the first of the week.
Last Saturday forenoon Harry Skales and Clifford Adlam collided at Thos. Moore's corner. The speed cop came out from Durham, stated it was a dangerous corner, and some improvements should be made. The cars were a little damaged but both were able to travel.
We extend sympathy to Mrs W. J. Wilson, who suffered a double bereavement in the past two weeks—a sister in Edmonton, also her sister, Mrs John Wilkinson of Woodland, whose funeral was held this Wednesday. A number from here attended.
Mrs Jas. McDougall visited in Toronto the past week.

The Lure of the Lakes

Music, moonlight, glorious lake breezes with six hundred miles of sailing on the Canadian Pacific's Great Lakes vessels S.S. Assiniboia, Keewatin and Manitoba are at the disposal of passengers on the company's lines travelling from eastern to western Canadian points or as a pleasant diversion on the returning journey for the small added cost of ten dollars for berth and meals each way.
This delightful prospect follows the announcement by the Canadian Pacific that four-piece orchestras will, for a period of nine weeks, dispense music on the Assiniboia and Keewatin en route while the vessels pass through Georgian Bay, across the northern part of Lake Huron, through the Sault Ste. Marie locks and thence to Fort William on Lake Superior, a pleasant, lazy and restful, journey of 39 hours from Port McNicoll or Owen Sound.
To all those who are planning a trip to or from the west, this economical optional trip embracing dancing, cozy cabins, plenty of deck space and luxuriously-appointed dining saloons; with glimpses of ever-changing scenery or bracing stretches of blue water, is one that cannot be overlooked. It is at the disposal of every vacationist and this season promises to be immensely popular not only with Canadians but with visitors to this country as well.
