

Graded As Domestic

as Woman Nearly Dimcoe — Worked

...arranged in court his arrest, and was a remand while police past. He was not ...

...of a wagger with his ... arranged with Mr. ...

...father (doing crossword puzzle) — "What is another word for strike with five letters?"

...At the conclusion of the afternoon Scripture Lesson, Teacher said, "Now then, stand up all those children who wish to go to Heaven."

...At the opening of the second day's business, Mr. Slosson reported on the results of his recent trip to Washington, where he brought the special problems of the association before authorities dealing with provisions of the NRA code.

...The gathering of bark from oak trees for use in leather tanneries is an important industry in the mountains of North Carolina.

...The facilities offered by the new door-to-door freight service in certain zones in the East and recently provided in the three prairie provinces, is making a distinct appeal to large shipping houses and the smaller shippers who for some time past have made use almost exclusively of high-

Have You Heard?
Enemy at the Manoeuvres—"You are my prisoner."
Sergeant Blinks—"Nonsense! How did you get here?"
Enemy—"Over the bridge."
Sergeant Blinks—"Then, my dear fellow, you are drowned. We blew up that bridge yesterday!"

REALISM!
Mother believed in appealing to her children rather than punishing them. One day when Tommy had been particularly fractious she said: "If you are going to be naughty, Tommy, you'll make mother poorly, and she'll die and be taken to the cemetery."
Tommy hugged her. "May I sit beside the coachman?" he asked.

GOOD ELF.
"Now," said the teacher, "what is an elf?"
The boy responded: "Please, Miss," he said, "it's what we usually ave at our 'ouse when we 'avo Christmas parties, and Uncle Jack raises his glass and says, 'Ere's 'elf!'"

Father (doing crossword puzzle) — "What is another word for strike with five letters?"
Ikey—"A viper."
"You silly! That's a handkerchief."

Sadie—Did you hear about the holo-caust in Chicago?
Susie—No, but I'm going back to the Fair this summer and see everything or know the reason why.

"Eaten it?" "Eaten it?" gasped the visitor. "No, I'm wearing it on my chest."
In England, recently, chemical experts, carrying out some interesting experiments, have solved the mystery. They selected two books — one from the royal library at Buckingham Palace, and one from the library at Windsor Castle. The Buckingham Palace selection was a volume of Disraeli's letters, while the book taken from Windsor was an edition of Lord Salisbury's letters.

"Better have your tea, young fellow."
"Look here, young man," said the playwright father, "this report does set say very nice things about your work at school."
"Coming up in the train, dad, I was reading about the play you had produced last night, and—"
"Better have your tea, young fellow."

Building Owners of U.S. Are Warned

Toronto, — Frank S. Slosson, the president of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers, warned delegates to the association's convention that they must co-operate if the industry is to continue economically in the ownership operation and development of the real estate investments.

Former London Waif is Host Of Theatre's Queen During 90's

HOLLYWOOD—Forty years ago Mrs. Patrick Campbell was the toast of London. Outside the theatre gathered the hoi polloi, to touch the hem of royalty's garment. Among the throng was a six-year-old waif from Lambeth who scampered across the Westminster bridge at night "Just to smell the perfume of the ladies as they passed into the theatre."

The Praying Mantis

In many warm countries there is a queer-looking insect which goes by the name of the praying mantis, or soothsayer. The former name was given to it because the first pair of legs which spring out of the front part of the body are generally held in such a way as to suggest that the creature is putting its hands together in prayer.

The Seeing Heart

One grand, invaluable secret there is, however, which includes all the rest, and, what is comfortable, lies clearly in every man's power: To have an open, loving heart, and what follows from the possession of such. Truly it has been said, emphatically in these days ought to be repeated: A loving Heart is the beginning of All Knowledge. This it is that opens the whole mind, quickens every faculty of the intellect to do its work, that of knowing, and therefore, by sure consequence, of visibly uttering-forth. Other secret for being "graphic" is there none, sufficient one. See, for example, what a small Boswell can do! Hereby, indeed, is the whole man made a living mirror, wherein the wonders of this ever-wonderful Universe are, in their true light (which is ever a magical mirage) reflected back on us. It has been said, "the heart sees farther than the head"; but, indeed, without the seeing heart, there is no true seeing for the head so much as possible; all is mere oversight, hallucination, and vain superficial phantasmagoria, which can permanently profit no one.—Thomas Carlyle, in "Essay on Biography."

Assignments Show Decline

Decrease in Bankruptcy Reports Shown At Ottawa
Ottawa, — A substantial decrease was shown in liabilities and also in the number of assignments under the Bankruptcy and Winding Up Acts in April, as compared with the corresponding month of last year, says a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Commercial failures in April numbered 141 with liabilities of $2,069,381 and compares with 184 assignments and liabilities of $3,022,466 in April 1933. All areas showed decreases with the exception of British Columbia where an increase of one was shown.

Assignments Show Decline

In the Maritime provinces there were eight assignments in comparison with 15 in the same month last year, while in Quebec the failures numbered 63, and in the Prairie provinces there were 13 as compared with 20 in April 1933. In British Columbia, the only area to show an increase, there were seven as compared with six in the corresponding month last year.

"Now, Henry, give me a kiss and you shall have a penny."
"No good to me," said Henry with disdain. "I can get twopence for taking castor oil!"

"Having accepted the tradition, he spends his time (except the few hours when he is asleep) in a kind of perpetual standing to attention before the country, the Cabinet and the King. Whether he is laced into uniform, covered with decorations and standing calm and straight confronting a crash of cheering with his hand motionless on the hilt of his sword, or in a plain business suit standing with the Mayor behind the potted palms of a provincial platform, confronting the same crash of cheering and fingering his tie in a little mannerism which used to betray genuine nervousness but is now only an unconscious playing up to the stirred emotions of his audience, he embodies the tradition of British monarchy with complete mastery of himself.

Moving the Nation's Freight

DOOR-TO-DOOR SERVICE

The facilities offered by the new door-to-door freight service in certain zones in the East and recently provided in the three prairie provinces, is making a distinct appeal to large shipping houses and the smaller shippers who for some time past have made use almost exclusively of high-fascinated. Charlie Chaplin was inwardly stirred. Inspired by the great lady's transparent admiration, Chaplin was at his best. He re-enacted a recent Jewish play, speaking what seemed to be Yiddish. He did imitations and impersonations, and ended by putting on a wig and playing a classic Japanese drama.

In heaven's name," said Mrs. Campbell in amazement, "where did you learn Japanese?"
"I know no foreign language, but I know the music of most of them," Charlie replied.

The Seeing Heart

One grand, invaluable secret there is, however, which includes all the rest, and, what is comfortable, lies clearly in every man's power: To have an open, loving heart, and what follows from the possession of such. Truly it has been said, emphatically in these days ought to be repeated: A loving Heart is the beginning of All Knowledge. This it is that opens the whole mind, quickens every faculty of the intellect to do its work, that of knowing, and therefore, by sure consequence, of visibly uttering-forth. Other secret for being "graphic" is there none, sufficient one. See, for example, what a small Boswell can do! Hereby, indeed, is the whole man made a living mirror, wherein the wonders of this ever-wonderful Universe are, in their true light (which is ever a magical mirage) reflected back on us. It has been said, "the heart sees farther than the head"; but, indeed, without the seeing heart, there is no true seeing for the head so much as possible; all is mere oversight, hallucination, and vain superficial phantasmagoria, which can permanently profit no one.—Thomas Carlyle, in "Essay on Biography."

Assignments Show Decline

Decrease in Bankruptcy Reports Shown At Ottawa
Ottawa, — A substantial decrease was shown in liabilities and also in the number of assignments under the Bankruptcy and Winding Up Acts in April, as compared with the corresponding month of last year, says a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Commercial failures in April numbered 141 with liabilities of $2,069,381 and compares with 184 assignments and liabilities of $3,022,466 in April 1933. All areas showed decreases with the exception of British Columbia where an increase of one was shown.

"Having accepted the tradition, he spends his time (except the few hours when he is asleep) in a kind of perpetual standing to attention before the country, the Cabinet and the King. Whether he is laced into uniform, covered with decorations and standing calm and straight confronting a crash of cheering with his hand motionless on the hilt of his sword, or in a plain business suit standing with the Mayor behind the potted palms of a provincial platform, confronting the same crash of cheering and fingering his tie in a little mannerism which used to betray genuine nervousness but is now only an unconscious playing up to the stirred emotions of his audience, he embodies the tradition of British monarchy with complete mastery of himself.

But something in him, perhaps a bit of his native obstinacy, impels him to put off the roses and thorns to the last possible moment. Even at 40, he drives himself home to York House in his own two-seater and lets himself in with his own key; and the old splendors have never come back to Marlborough House.

But something in him, perhaps a bit of his native obstinacy, impels him to put off the roses and thorns to the last possible moment. Even at 40, he drives himself home to York House in his own two-seater and lets himself in with his own key; and the old splendors have never come back to Marlborough House.

Ask Mother — She Knows

Mother took this medicine before and after the babies came. It gave her more strength and energy when she was nervous and run-down; it kept her on the job all through the Change. No wonder she recommends it.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Issue No. 27—'34

Quality that can't be Duplicated

and POKER HANDS too

It pays to "Roll Your Own" with TURRET FINE CUT CIGARETTE TOBACCO

We Recommend "CIANTELLER" or "VOGUE" Cigarette Papers

Reading in Bed Bad for Eyesight

Never Work in Twilight or Any Light But the Best
Among the hundreds of women who come to him for help, only a few really do right by their eyes, declare a famous oculist. The others, he sometimes remarks, must spend a good part of their days thinking up ways to harass and dull the orbs that should glow and sparkle with beauty.

The Prince on His 40th Birthday

On June 23rd, the Prince of Wales was 40. Clair Price, writing in the New York Times Magazine has several comments to make, one which reads: "A 40th birthday which finds the Prince still content with his bachelor existence in York House cannot help but be another of the persisting reminders of the war. If there had been no war, no doubt everything would have been very different, not only for the first of the King's 450,000,000 subjects, but for all the rest of the 450,000,000 too. No doubt, long before this, there would have been a Princess of Wales, and Marlborough House would have been a social center in brilliance only to Buckingham Palace itself."

Calf Has Three Eyes Two Mouths, Tongues

Winsted, Conn. — A freak calf, having three eyes, two mouths, two tongues and two sets of nostrils, was born on the farm of John Payne appeared strong and destined to live.
The third eye is set in the centre of the forehead. Two well-shaped mouths appeared on either side of where the mouth usually is located and the tongues and nostrils function separately.

Driving Own Car.

"More and more he puts his Peter Pan years behind him and becomes the serious citizen. More and more he takes on the sober coloring of his father." But he still sticks to York House in the west wing of the group of mellow old brick buildings known as St. James's Palace.

STOPS ITCHING In One Minute

D. D. D. Prescription Speeds Relief

For quick relief from the itching of pimples, mosquito or other insect bites, eczema, rashes and other skin eruptions, apply Dr. Dennis' pure, cooling, liquid, antiseptic D. D. D. Prescription. Forty years' world-wide success. Penetrates the skin, soothing and healing the inflamed tissues. No fumes—disappears almost immediately. Try D. D. D. Prescription. Stop the most intense itching instantly. A 35c trial bottle, at any drug store, is guaranteed to prove it—or money back. D. D. D. is made by the owners of ITALIAN BALM.

The Password Is Quality in Poultry

Canada Following Up Her Good Work in Air Exports

"Canada is going to get its share of the British trade in poultry, in bacon, in live cattle, or in any other of its agricultural products, the value and necessity of doing things better, not worse than competitors must be regarded as all-important," said Mr. W. A. Wilson, Canadian Government Animal Products Trade Commissioner in London, England, during his recent visit to the Dominion. "We made a good reputation with our first shipment of turkeys, because the quality was there and they were graded and packed according to government standards. The British trade responds to work well done. There is the market for Canadian poultry and other products and the password is Quality."

Bonus Helps South African Fruit Farmers Report Good Profits

MONTREAL—South African fruit farmers know very well indeed that theirs is a happy, happy land. C. H. Colman, citrus fruit grower of the eastern Cape Province, is satisfied of this particularly since he and Mrs. Colman have begun to realize that there are comparatively few fruit growers of other countries making round the world trips for pleasure in these arduous times.

Ottawa, — Relief operations in department of national defense camps for single unemployed men in all parts of the Dominion, cost approximately $1,521,000 for April, May and June, 1934. It was stated in an order-in-council tabled in the House of Commons.

MINARD'S LINIMENT

"KING OF PAIN"

There's nothing to equal Minard's. It "takes hold". Antiseptic, soothing, healing. Gives quick relief!