SWINTON PARK

We in the Park and district still have something to be thankful for; there is no unemployment though many are on pleasure bent. But pleasure and work mixed in right proportions is good for everyone. The hay crop is being quickly gathered in. There will be few stacks to build this year, yet much of it is a fair crop.

Mrs. Jas. Wilson of Boothville, we are sorry to hear, is in Toronto consulting a specialist at present, regarding a very painful nerve trouble. We hope she may soon be better.

Mrs. Neil McLeod is this week visiting friends at Bolton and Toronto.

Mrs. Tressler and daughter Miss Dorothy, are motoring to Toronto on Wednesday for the funeral of a friend. Mrs. Walter Knox will go with them to visit her sisters, Mrs. G. Anthony and Mrs. Ambrose in the city. Mrs. Henry Hamilton and children, Mt. Forest, are spending the week at the old home, Mr. Geo. Haw's.

Mrs. Neil McMillan visited last week with her friends at Stayner, Collingwood and Wasaga Beach.

Mrs. Heslip (nee Jennie Hardy) and daughter, Winnipeg, are visitors with the Martin and Hardy families in the Park.

Wm. Knox and Thos. Hardy, Owen Sound, spent a day last week with their friends here. Mr. and Mrs. W. Aldorn, Woodland, were Sunday evening guests of the Alcorn's and Heard's here. The Misses Hutton, Toronto, are enjoying a holiday at Ed. Heard's.

Mr. W. Sackett is this week wearing a new top hat. He has worn a Bennett hat for 3 years and it was getting shabby for his business.

We were very pleased to have a short call from Mrs. Agnes McMurdo of Brampton, one evening lately. Though in her 84th year, she is still happy and thoughtful or all her old neighbors.

We also enjoyed very much a chat with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moore. They also hail from Brampton and were visitors at Hugh McMillan's. Charlie is still a real Tory, but has a good word for the Hon. Duncan Marshall. The W. M. S. are this Tuesday quilting a quilt for the mission sale

IN DAYS OF YORE
15 YEARS AGO

From Review file July, 24, 1919

In honor of the gallant soldier sons of Priceville and district, who fell in the Great War, the citizens of that district, at a meeting Friday night, decided to build a monument in their memory. It will be placed in front of the Presbyterian Church.

The funeral service of the late Mrs. J. N. Grieve, of Spokane, Wash., was held from the Pres. Church here on Monday.

Chas. Havens and Norman McDonald of the 147th Bn. have arrived home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lloyd were pleased to welcome home last week their daughter, Nursing Sister Edith Lloyd after an extended and varied experience in England and in the Western front. She volunteered early in the war, was overseas in 1916, and is the second member of the four in their family to return home.

At a regular meeting of Durham Public School trustees, the salary of Principal Morton, was raised from $1000 to $1100 and that of the assistants $50 each.

OLD FRIENDS

We just shake hands at meeting with many that come night. We nod the head in greeting. To many that go by. But we welcome through the gateway Our few old friends and true; Then hearts leap up straightway There's open house for you, old friends, Wide-open house for you. The surface will be sparkling, Let but a sunbeam shine; But in the deep lies darkening The true life of the wine. The froth is for the many, The wine is for the few; Unseen, untouched of any, old friends, The very best for you. The many cannot know us, They only pace the strand, Where at our worst we show us, The waters thick with sand; But out the leaping Dim surge, 'tis clear and blue, And these old friends, we're keeping A waiting calm for you, old friends, A sacred calm for you. G. Massey.
