PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

On Sunday last, a memorial service was held for the late Rev. J. A. Moir, at which a letter of appreciation and thanks was read from his sister, Miss Kate E. Moir, expressive of thanks for the sympathy shown in their sad bereavement, by flowers, letters and attendance at the funeral of the congregations representatives, and also assured us that they would be with us in spirit, though unable to attend.

At the close, another memorial observance was held of the death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, a large number partook of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, dispensed by Rev. J. W. Johnston, in a fine reverential and becoming manner. In addition to the choir voluntary, "For all the saints who from their labors rest," Mrs. H. B. McLean sang in her usual fine voice, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" as a solo.

Mr. F. Shackleton, late principal of our High School here, visited here on Sunday and attended the services at St. Columba United, with his affable, charming bride, on their way home from their honeymoon, from Ottawa and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Markham, visited old friends here Saturday last. The former was one time teacher here.

Sorry our budget did not appear last week for the announcement of the services and other items.

The public are hereby reminded that the fine reputation of the soldiers memorial service at which 1500 have been competed as being in attendance, will take place Sunday Aug. 5th, at 2.30 P. M. The chief speaker was to be Lt. Col. Fraser Hunter, D.S.O., M. P. P., but a telegram states he will be unable to come. Hanover's fine Band are coming. Resident ministers here, and Rev. Father Grace, will also be on hand to join in the proceedings. A collection will be taken up to defray recurring expenses. A helping hand, or rather voice will be thankfully appreciated in the massed choir for the occasion by us.

On the Monday following, a big reunion will be held of one time citizens, on the school grounds following the Calithumpian parade and the swimming events in the dam. Bagpipe band, Highland fling and tap dancing by four fair, young and sprightly artists of the terpsichore. Supper served at usual low prices, from 6 to 8. Be sure to come to both events.

We are pleased to learn that nonagenarian Mr. J. J. McRae is recovering from his recent illness tho, slowly.

Mr. Arthur Hutton from his school in the Parry Sound district, is on a visit to his mother and aunt, Mima Wright.

A party of young people with Miss L. Paton at the wheel on Sunday, on a narrow sideroad in Proton Tp. had the adventure of upsetting in the ditch. Miss Catherine McVicar had several stitches put in her hand, and other three had minor bruises. They were lucky to escape so well. The car was eventually righted and got home with its own power.

Most of the farmers have finished haying and report a good crop. Mostly all the farmers had a load to the acre.

Miss Ella Frook has been engaged to teach school in the upper room here, and Miss Jessie Nichol in the Junior room.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Nichol and family and Mrs. Gilchrist, visited friends on Sunday at Palgrave.

Mr. Allan McInnis who is taking a Summer Course in Toronto spent the week end at home.

Mr. Gordon McLean spent the week end in Toronto.

Mr. Donald, Archie and Alex. Stewart, and Miss May motored to Paisley on Sunday to see the former's sister, Mrs. Wm Bell who is quite ill and was operated on Monday in Walkerton hospital successfully.

Miss Sarah Ferguson spent two weeks in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McEachern, of Toronto, visited friends here last week. Mrs. Hector McEachern and Florence returned home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McArthur and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Watson visited recently with Mr. Ronald McDonald's, Collingwood.

Mr. Robt. Pearson is visiting friends around Priceville.

A number from here went to the Beach Sunday at Mr. Wilfrid Black's at Salem.

Miss Catherine Campbell, Montreal, is holidaying at her brothers, Mr. Don. Campbell.

Miss Beth Hincks has accepted a school near Faversham.

PRICEVILLE

Mr. John McRae passed away on Tuesday morning.

Mr. J. E. Dobson and son, Alex, of Toronto, are spending a very enjoyable months holiday at Mr. A. B. MacArthur's "Town Line".

Mrs. J. E. Dobson, Mr. Jack MacArthur, Misses Amy and Thelma Dobson, Mr. T. Mossey and Mr. I. Howett, all of Toronto spent a very enjoyable week-end at Mr. A. B. MacArthur's "Town Line".

Master Clarence MacArthur is spending his summer vacation with his aunt, Mrs. J. E. Dobson, Toronto.

Mr. John McQuaker and probably Rev. Mr. Jewett of O. Sound, have been secured in place of Lt. Col. Hunter, who has been deputed by Premier Hepburn to represent the Gov't at the reunion of Soldiers' Corps celebration on that date. Mr. McQuaker is ever popular here.

Everything is in preparation for the big event, flags secured, platform being got in readiness, all appointments being made.

Our resident clergy are supplying services while each one alternately takes his vacation—a commendable act. The people will respond heartily, I have no doubt, to the brotherly arrangement.

(Intended for last week)

The passing of our universally beloved minister, Rev. J. A. Moir, at Peterboro, calls for many expressions of sorrow and regret. By his courteous, affable, friendly manner, he endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact. The funeral on Friday was well attended coming as it did from Peterboro to Dunnville, near Lake Erie, some 136 miles from Priceville. He was laid to rest beside his father and mother in the beautiful cemetery there. His brother Dr. Moir, Peterboro, and sisters—known here, were present and four cars from Peterboro, four of his former members of Woodbridge, and Rev. W. J. Scott, Flesherton and Rev. Peter's, Meaford, the latter taking service at grave. Rev. Mr. McLean, D.D., deceased pastor of Peterboro, and many of his old school-mates were present.

The memorial service to the soldiers will be held Sunday, Aug. 5, at 2.30 p.m. when prominent speakers are being secured. That fine, prize-taking band from Hanover who gave such good satisfaction the last two occasions are again to be here and the public may be assured of good music.

On the day following, Priceville's Picnic Association will again celebrate a day with a calithumpian parade, swimming contests, races and sports and a big dance at night.

From Priceville went Rev. J. W. Johnston, W. G. Watson for the session, J. M. McGillivray, the Y.P.S., and W. W. Ramage the choir.

The pillow presented by St. Columba Church was a beautiful creation of roses, lillies large mums and many other flowers interwoven, besides other wreaths and sprays from friends. An opportunity was given to view the remains of one so dearly beloved.

Leaving here at 8.30, good time was made arriving at the cemetery one hour and a half before the time specified and an hour off at Smithville for dinner on the way.

Mr. Norman McLeod, a teacher in Toronto, with his wife (a daughter of Rev. J. W. Johnston) and her sister, both fine affable young ladies, are at present on a visit to the Manse. Mr. McLeod has a warm friendship to Mr. Ernest McGirr, he says.

Mr. Alex McLean accompanied by a charming Miss Atchison from Dundalk, visited at home of parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McLean. The latter's daughter, Mrs. Macfarlane, is also on visit.

We were pleased to meet with our grand niece, (applicable either way you take it) and her brother James, both 'B. A.'s, from Edmonton. Jas. is High School teacher at Clyde, 50 miles from the city. Elsie teaches in the city and has as well her A.T. C.M. in music.

While at Dunnville we were successful in looking up our one-time highly valued chorister, Miss Florence Renwick in an office there. She was cheerful and jolly to a degree as usual and a choir member there. The pleasure of meeting was mutual, we are assured in our case anyway.

Who said there was no fish in the Saugeen river at Priceville? Mr. E. Dobson, Toronto, caught one just a little over 2 lbs and 15 inches long, and another 1 1/2 lbs and there are lots more, he said.

At the arranging meeting Monday, for the monster gathering here on Aug. 6, a comedian from Durham is to be secured. Value of prizes increased and a new platform ordered.

SWINTON PARK

Again we have good news, a splendid rain Sunday night when it was very much needed as all outside was drying up. There were also dry cisterns. Grain, roots and grass will be benefitted and everyone can have a clean face, also a shirt.

News is scarce. Yet we have been invited to a barn raising, this Tuesday, at Jas. Wilson's, Boothville.

While lying in bed last night we thought back 49 or 50 years ago, when we were at a barn raising on that farm and we looked over the faces and recalled the names of the men who were there. We find that only about 3 of the boys of that day will be present to-day as old men. And of the ladies who served tea on that occasion only on, I think, Mrs. Aldcorn can be present now. A very few of those people are living who moved from the locality. Most of them we have seen laid to rest in the little cemetery here. But still the barn will go up, we believe in a more scientific way. The raising is to be by hand, but we expect without the choosing of sides which does away with many of the arguments. But also the glory of the race 's' lost. Another thing we will miss, there will be no Gaelic spoken and right there in a Highland Scotch settlement. Yet the grandsons of the pioneers will put up the barn.

Next Sunday, Aug. 5, the service will be at Swinton Park church, at 11 a.m., owing to memorial services being held in Priceville that afternoon.

George Haw was in Toronto with livestock Monday. Richard Hardy went to city Sunday evening. Miss McLeod, R.N., is spending the week in Toronto with friends. Mrs. Catherine McDonald, Bentinck, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Christine Ferguson, on 14. Mrs. Tressider and daughters have two ladies from the city enjoying the holiday at their summer home at Swinton Park.

Much splashing is being done at Donald's creek, known as "Black's beach" these warm days.

We were pleased to meet Donald McQueen of Nottawasaga, also his son Rev. Donald and wife, at church Sunday. They were on a visit with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McMillan. Mr. McQueen is now in his 80th year and full of pep living on the farm where he was born 80 years ago and taking an active part in all its work. We talked but for a few moments, but we took in much territory and various subjects. We talked of Scotland over 100 years ago, when our forefathers were forced to come out on ships, much like the cattle ships of to-day and they were simply told to root hog or die. I believe had Mr. McQueen or myself been placed in the seats of Hepburn and Roebuck, we would tell the hunger marchers in Toronto to root hog or die. There is lots of room in this great country for everyone to earn a living if they will only root like the pioneers did. The ailing and the aged are all this country are able to look after.

HOPEVILLE

Mrs. Berton Duke, Toronto, is visiting this week with her cousin, Mrs. John Sinclair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McEachnie and family, Buffalo, are spending part of their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McEachnie.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Riddell and daughter, of Fergus, came up for the week end and in company with his mother, Mrs. Jas. Riddell and Helen and George Gow went on to Wasaga Beach for the day.

Mrs. Jordan, Toronto, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elliot at the Manse.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Jack and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Hutton have returned from an enjoyable trip, visiting relatives in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Spence, Lindsay, spent the week end at their respective parental homes.

Several of the local sports are practising softball two evenings each week in G. R. Scott's field.

Hopeville United Church have chosen Sunday, Sept. 9, as the date of their Anniversary service. Rev. J. Scott, Flesherton, is to be the special speaker.

The regular meeting of Women's Institute will be on Aug. 8, at home of Mrs. Paxman the program in the charge of the grandmothers. Roll call; number of grandchildren. Reminiscences of girlhood days and old-fashioned songs by the grandmothers.

Mr. Malcolm McPhail spent a few days last week with his sister, Mrs. Agnes McEachnie, Toronto.

The United Church S. S. are having their picnic, Friday, Aug. 3, at Mr. Henry Christie's, Woodland.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Stewart were visitors with the Stewart families of the village.

The annual Bible School in connection with Bethany chapel, will commence July 30.

An old landmark, Esplan church, has been all dismantled the past week and moved to Mount Forest, it being sold to the Presbyterians of that town.
