Showered by Friends
On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. G. McCulloch of Toronto, who were visiting the former's parents in Ben- tinc, were surprised by the neighbors and members of the club of United Farm Women when they gathered and presented them with a clock from the club, and many personal gifts. Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch expressed their thanks. Mr. George Turnbull read the address and Mr. George Mighton presented the clock.

Held Memorial Service
The United Farm Women of Allan Park held a service in Durham Cen- tenary for the dedication of floral tributes from their club in memory of the late Robert Melville Johnston. A large number of friends and neighbors were present and Rev. David Gowdy was in charge of the service. He spoke from the text "Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place where thou standest is holy ground." He spoke very earnestly on the sacred- ness of the ground set aside for God's purposes. A beautiful basket of flow- ers had been placed on the family plot by the club before the service. The singing of "Blest be the tie that binds," closed the service.

To Ask For Full Width Paving.
A delegation headed by Mayor Bur- rows, Walkerton, is expected to visit Toronto and interview the Minister of Highways of Ontario, relative to the paving of the remaining ten feet of highway between Walkerton and Hanover. The south ten feet has been laid within a mile of the Hanover bridge, and it is expected another week will see the completion of the job. The contractors have as yet re- ceived no word as to whether the re- maining ten feet on the north will be paved. The Walkerton Town Council, with members of the Hanover Council will urge upon the Government the desirability of paving the whole 20 feet this year, while the machinery is all in position.

Presbyterians Held Successful Garden Party

Ideal weather favoured Durham Presbyterian congregation last Thurs- day night for their annual garden party, held on Robert Lawson's fine lawn. This year it was decided to re- duce admission and expenses by pro- viding a program purely of local talent, and those contributing to it well maintained the high standard set in past years. The crowd from outside the district was not present as in past years, but Durham and immediate vicinity was well represented.

Durham Band enhanced the even- ing by excellent selections at inter- vals, and the program proper was in the hands of the pastor, Rev. D. Gowdy, who remarked this was only the second such event he had ever attended. Instrumental music was furnished by Holstein orchestra; vo- cal solos by Gordon Brown, a visitor in town from Toronto; and by E. Stewart McArthur in popular Harry Lauer numbers in costume. Misses Jean and Elizabeth Harding rendered a duet; Mrs. Gowdy a piano solo; the Presbyterian choir an anthem; and Cliff Buschlen, a trombone solo, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Harding. Readings were given by Mrs. Alex- ander, Misses Ailix Tobin and Mabel Sharpe; an address by Rev. J. T. Priest of the Baptist Church; and a duet, "The Sailor's Hornpipe" by Misses Violet and Mayple Armstrong in costume.

The crowd appreciated the talent of the local artists, and doubtless en- joyed it fully as much or more so, than if given by professional enter- tainers. Refreshment, candy and lunch booths were all well patronized. The gross proceeds of the night were over

Buffalo City Clerk's Car Overturned in near Collision

On their way to the Bruce Penin- sula last Friday on a fishing trip, Jas. W. Wargin, City Clerk of Buffalo and a friend, Jas. Nadrowski of that city, were riding in a Marmon coupe owned and driven by Wargin. Coming down Corktown hill south of town, they clam they were forced to take to the ditch to avoid collision with a car meeting them, which they allege was hogging the road. A Hanover car fol- lowing got the number of the offend- ing car, which when looked up was that of Fred Noble, south of town. Mr. Noble claims he was not on the ditch and the men were shaken up, but not injured. However the body of the coupe was smashed but it was driven back to Buffalo under its own power. Prov. Constable Stor- ey, Owen Sound, is investigating the accident.

Another car mishap last week, be- fel Yank McEachnie, who became sleepy at the wheel, and ran into a guard rail, considerably damaging the front of his auto.

Thos. Turnbull Fatally Injured in Harvest-Field

Died Same Evening in Hospital.

A shocking accident befel Thomas Turnbull, prominent Glenelg township farmer, on Friday morning last, when in a field near his home, two miles north of Durham. He was operating the binder, and had got down in front of it to make some repairs, when his team ran away, knocking him down beneath the binder. He was dragged some distance, until the grain wheel ran over a large stone, which lifted the machine and released his mangled body.

David Ritchie, who was working for him, and was in another part of the same field, ran to stop the horses, while Clarence Noble working on his own farm adjoining, also ran to his aid. They could not carry the injured man to the house, so critically was he hurt. Neighbors were soon on hand and doctors were summoned and a stretch- er secured. He was then conveyed to Durham hospital suffering intense pain.

Medical examination revealed that his left leg was broken in two places near the thigh and at the ankle, it was gashed above the knee, and sev- eral ribs, were fractured, and his collar bone was broken besides in- juring his lungs, bruises and abrasions. His clothing had been partially torn off him. No injuries were apparent to his head except a bump at the back.

During the day his recovery was hop- ed for, but he gradually grew weaker, and though suffering greatly he re- tained consciousness to the last. He expired about 11 p. m. that evening. Young, from Brighton, Mich., came with his wife and relatives near his bedside in the hospital.

The deceased was born and lived all his life on his farm, where the accident occurred, lot 1 of 20, con. 1 E. G. R. Glenelg. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Turnbull, and of four children born to them, only one, Mrs. John Milligan (Mag- gie), of South Bentinck, now survives. In 1902 the late Mr. Turnbull was married to Catherine Ector, who also survives him, and has proved a loyal helpmate to him in sickness or heal- th.

The deceased though Canadian born was an ardent Scotsman, well versed in Scottish history and tradi- tions. He took pride in his ancestry, and an active interest in the welfare of his own township and community. He served nine years as a Councillor of Glenelg, and once contested the Reeveship. For two years, he was Township Road Superintendent, and for twenty years up to the time of his death, he was Secretary of Rocky Saugeen School board. In church life, he was a Presbyterian, and for many years served on the Board of Man- agers of Presbyterian Church in Dur- ham. Deceased was a man kindly in word and deed, and held in the highest respect by a wide circle of friends.

The funeral on Monday afternoon was attended by a very large crowd of friends and neighbors Rev. J. T. Priest of the Baptist Church being in charge in the absence of his pastor. The pall bearers were three nephews, Horace Moffat, Roy Alexander, and James Milligan, also five neighbors; Stewart Mc Arthur, Murray Ritchie, Clarence Noble, Jas. Vessie, and Alex. Lawson. The flower bearers were David Watson, Bert Ritchie, Jno. Mc- Fayden, Robert Lawson, Harold Mc- Kechnie, Jos. F. Crutchley, and Ear- Vessie. Interment was made in Dur- ham cemetery.

Many beautiful floral tokens sur- rounded the casket, from wife, Dur- ham Farmers' Co-operative Co., Edge Hill beef ring, Mr and Mrs Murray Ritchie and Mr. David Ham- ilton, Mr and Mrs. And. Marshall, Mr and Mrs Jno. Milligan and family, Mr and Mrs Hugh Fitch and family, Mr and Mrs Bradley, Mr and Mrs Wcir, Mr and Mrs Robert Ector, Mr and Mrs J. A. McQuarrie and Edmund and Mrs McPhee, Mt Forest; an injured hand, Durham will depend Mrs Wm. Moffat, and Mr and Mrs Horace Moffat, Pinkerton; Mr J. A.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie M. J. T. Priest, pas- tor of the bride. To the strains of the wedding music played by Miss Jean Priest, the bride wearing a beautiful gown of pale pink organdie, with a ruffled muff of same material and a matching shade in hat, and carrying Columbia roses and corn flowers came to her place on her father's arm, and stood beneath an arch of flowers and streamers on the verandah. During the signing of the register, Miss Priest sang "My Heart's Desire."

Following congratulations by the forty guests, the company gathered around the dining tables on the lawn. A four storey bridal cake entered the table, surrounded by sweet peas and larkspur.

DURHAM GIRLS WON FROM MT. FOREST

Durham 15, Mount Forest 3. was the score in a seven inning exhibition of girls soft ball here on Monday night. Jean Rowe, Durham pitcher, was at her best, and only for errors in last frame, would not have been scored upon. She struck out 12, and not a visitor reached first base till the 5th inning. The team fielded snappily be- hind her and wielded the bat effec- tively as well, getting 14 hits. Mount Forest has a much better team than last year, but could not connect with Rowe's delivery.
