

NOTED POETESS DIES

Mrs. Jean Blewett, widely known woman poet, died in General hospital in Guelph on Sunday night. A semi-invalid for several years as the result of a stroke, Mrs. Blewett's condition became worse six weeks ago while visiting her brother, William McKishnie, in Guelph. Four days ago her condition became worse and she was removed to the hospital.

Under the pen-name of Katherine Kent, Mrs. Blewett, who was 72 years of age, contributed to newspapers for years. She conducted the Homemaker on the Toronto Globe until ill-health forced her retirement.

It is really funny how the Toronto Telegram puts the whole blame for the new beer policy on Premier Hepburn, and dubs it the Hepburn policy.

The Durham Review

DURHAM SHOULD HAVE AN ARCHIVES

Every day we are making history for the next generation to absorb. The present day student at school feels himself lucky he lives in the present age and not two hundred years hence, for at that time there would only be two hundred years of more facts and figures to be stored away. Some of it is of value and some not so valuable. But who is he to determine what will live and what will die? Only time will solve that mystery.

The town of Barrie is the latest centre to adopt the idea of a local historical museum. Barrie Women's Institute has fostered the project and will establish the nucleus of the collection in building formerly used as a registry office.

Durham has a full historical background and should possess such a collection, inasmuch as it depicts in graphic fashion the early history of the surrounding district and it typifies the pioneer methods which our forbears employed in laying the foundations of this prosperous province.

It should not require much of an ancillary outlay to form the nucleus of an historical museum in Durham and it would be something that would return dividends, not in the coin of the realm, but rather a proper appreciation of the pioneers of preceding years and a reflex of their activities. Durham in 1942 will be a hundred years a settlement and if we want to mark the occasion suitably, the time to begin to collect data and material for the event is now. The right material cannot be hurried.

The New Gardiner Government

On the whole, the new Liberal Government in Saskatchewan looks good, and appears of a nature to command general confidence. It is a Cabinet that combines old and new blood.

One thing we like about the new Administration already is Mr. Gardiner's instructions to all his Ministers to help get the province on a pay-as-you-go basis by not expending in excess of revenue. Another is the evident intention of the new Ministry to press for freer and wider markets for Western Canadian agricultural products.

CRAWFORD

Mr and Mrs Edgar Boyce and children, spent the week end with Mr and Mrs W. MacDonald, near Owen Sound. Mr Donald McGregor and sister, Misses Phyllis and Eonora of Secon were guests with Mr and Mrs W. Anderson and family. Masters Charles and Ralph Campbell are holidaying at present with their grandparents, Mr and Mrs C. McClockh, Glenelg. Mr and Mrs Arthur Brillinger and family, Arthur, were guests of Mr. and Mrs Geo. Hastie Sunday. Miss Nora Walker, Toronto, is spending her vacation at home. The home of Geo. and Mrs Fisher was gladdened on Sunday by the presence of sons, daughters and the grand children. It is 13 years since the family last gathered in the old home at one time. The occasion took the form of a birthday celebration for both parents. Those present were Mr and Mrs Alvin Oppenheimer, (Vena) and family; Mr and Mrs Elmer Fisher, Jackie and Mr Earl Fisher, all of Detroit; Mr and Mrs Gordon Fisher and daughters, Toronto; Mr and Mrs Nelson Christie (Elizabeth) of Windsor and Miss Lynn who is at home with her parents. Mr and Mrs Mack Heddle and son Hiltch, accompanied by Misses Annie and Margaret McKensie, of Durham, were guests at Mr Andrew Hoyt's, Saturday. Mr and Mrs Reid Hastie and their daughter Isabel, Chesley, also visited at the same home Sunday, Miss Isabel remaining for a few weeks' visit with Mrs Douglas Hastie. Miss Edith Hastie is spending a few days at Hanover with her aunt, Mrs W. Huber. Owing to illness, Mrs A. C. Murray, Fleshington, was unable to attend the W. M. S. service held in the church Sunday evening and Mrs W. D. Staples, Hanover, was the speaker. Mrs Staples based her address on John 12, and part of 21st verse, "We would see Jesus." Mrs J. McDougall read the scripture lesson and Miss M. McGillyray led in prayer. The choir and a quartet furnished music. Mrs Staples closed the meeting with the Hebrew benediction.

MULOCK

Mr and Mrs Edgar Furman and sons Fred and Harold of Hanover, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Fred Torry. Misses Mae, Isabel and Donella Hopkins are spending a week's holiday with their grandparents, Mr and Mrs David Donnelly, Durham. Mr and Mrs Mack Heddle and son Hiltch of Hamilton accompanied by Misses Annie and Margaret McKensie of Durham were recent visitors at the homes of Miss C. Livingstone and Mr A. C. MacDonald. Mr Eiton Adlam and friends of Durham, enjoyed a pleasant motor trip up North last week and called on Rev. J. and Mrs Galloway of Huntsville. Mr and Mrs Andrew Fulton of Hampden were welcome guests at the home of Mrs W. Fulton last week. Mr and Mrs Ed. Docherty, Mr and Mrs Jas. Laycock and Miss Marjorie Laycock of Meaford, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Markle. Tommy and Vera Markle returned with them for a visit. Those who read the Montreal Weekly Witness, and are acquainted with its integrity, fearlessness and independence of thought, must have been delighted at reading in its last issue a reprint of the pamphlet by Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, which is finding so many enemies for itself as well as for its author. As usual the Witness stands by what it considers right, without regard for consequences. We need more statesmen and more press reporters who put the greatest good to the greatest number first. Visitors during the week with Mr and Mrs J. Coutts were Mr and Mrs Floyd Lawrence, Detroit; Mrs E. Phipps and daughter Constance, of Mich.; Miss Lynne Bowe, Toronto. Recent guests in Mr J. A. Mathers' home were Mr and Mrs Elgin Wilton and family Knox, Mrs Smith and Mr Earl Mead and children, of Varney; Mr John Coleman of West Toronto. Mrs Swan and son Peter, Toronto, are with her parents, Mr and Mrs. P. Mutch. Mr Wm B Smith is not improving in health as rapidly as was expected. Mr and Mrs Scott Eccles, Mount Forest, were recent guests with the former's brother, Arthur Eccles. Mr and Mrs Vernon Runciman, of Chelwood, Sask., visited last week with Mrs. R's sisters, Mesdames Jas. Nicholson and Arthur Eccles. Miss Kellar spent Sunday at her home at Aytan. Mrs John Rice, Mt Forest; Mr and Mrs Clinton Rice and family, Oshawa, were recent guests in the homes of Milford Rice and W. H. Rogers. Chifton Rogers we are glad to say is improving from his recent illness. Mr and Mrs J. Weir and Mr and Mrs J. Nelson, Drumore, were Sunday guests with the Bilton family. Service will be held here on Sunday morning and evening August 2nd, and also at North Glenelg in afternoon. Rev. F. G. Radford of Clear Creek had charge of the services in the Baptist Church Sunday. In the morning he spoke on the Prodigal Son and on the Potter and His will in the evening. He is a fluent speaker and was enjoyed by all. Mr Arnold Davis, Hanover, spent the week end with his brother, Bert Davis. Miss Janet Patterson is visiting her grandparents, Mr and Mrs W. H. Patterson, Ceylon. Visitors at the home of Mr A. C. MacDonald last week were Mr and Mrs Vic. Catton and son Donald of Grimsby; Mrs. Grant and daughter Jean of Stratford, and Mrs. Charles Moore of Durham.

EDGE HILL

Miss Ethel Anderson of Toronto, spent the week-end with her parents here. Miss Kathleen McLean of Pricoville, is spending some time with the MacDonnals. Miss Beulah Robinson visited for a few days with the Robinson family. Mr Marshal Dean of Hamilton, visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. H. Dean. Mr and Mrs J. W. Firth of Toronto spent a few days this week at their summer home here. Miss Edith Edge, who for the past few weeks has been attending a summer course at Western University, London, is now visiting her sisters here. Misses M. A. and E. E. Edge, who have been ill for the past few weeks we are glad to report are improving. Mrs T. Hutton is with them at present. With harvesting well under way, threshing has begun in this neighborhood. Miss Kate MacDonald, accompanied by Miss Ada McLean, spent a day recently in Pricoville. A very enjoyable evening was spent at Mr and Mrs Geo. Ritchie's when a shower was tendered in honour of their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs W. G. Ritchie. Miss Elma McGuire is holidaying with her grandparents, Mr and Mrs. George Ritchie.

ABERDEEN

The Aberdeen branch of W. I., which was to have been held at the home of Mrs Gorman Johnston, was cancelled due to bereavement in the home. Mrs D. Lamb kindly offered her home. There was an attendance of 16 members and 31 visitors. The Pres., Mrs J. S. Davey asked the opening Ode to be sung; Miss A. C. Smith read the scripture lesson from 1 Cor. 15: 33. Mrs Davey spoke briefly but in deepest sympathy with bereaved families of our community since last meeting and asked that we bow our heads in silence for a few moments. The roll call was answered by 'How to improve our Institute.' The minutes of July meeting were read and adopted. The Treas. and Sunshine Com. gave their reports. Mrs J. Grierson then thanked the ladies on behalf of herself and husband for remembering them in time of bereavement. Mrs. Even also expressed thanks for remembering Charlie in sickness. Mrs. J. Grierson offered to take the scripture for Sept. meeting and the Grandmothers are to be entertained by members. Our regular 'At Home' coming in Oct. this year, it was decided to hold it in form of a 10c social on Oct. 19. 'O God our help in Ages Past' was sung and 'The Maple Leaf Forever.' Mrs Gilbert Noble gave a helpful paper on 'Hospitality.' Mrs Roy Hopkins gave an excellent paper on 'Literature in the Home'; Mrs Vessie contributed a lovely solo 'Roll on Silver Moon. Last but not least was a demonstration on winding yarn, by our hostess and while sitting in her easy chair, winding yarn, sweetly sang 'Traveller's Broom.' All later joined heartily in singing 'Bring back my Bonnie to me.' Collection came to $215. At close, Mrs Lamb and helpers served a dainty lunch. The next meeting will be held at home of Miss Annie Smith, Sept. 20. Everybody welcome.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

Mrs J. F. McLean and children of Alliston, were guests on Tuesday with Miss Catherine McLean. Mr and Mrs James Crutcheley accompanied by Mrs Neil McLean, were visitors this week with Mr and Mrs. Gordon McCracken. Miss Lucille Sharp spent a couple of days this week with Mrs. Alvin Noble. Mrs James Lawrence has been very ill for some time and is now a patient in General Hospital, Toronto. Sorry to hear Mr Alex. Symon had another stroke this week. We hope he will soon be able to be out again. Mr Herb Damsmore, of Owen Sound, was a week end visitor with Mr Malcolm McKeechie. The garden party in connection with the church here is to be held on the church grounds Friday evening. A ball game between Edge Hill and Hutton Hill and a good program will be given. Mr and Mrs James McCrae and Mr and Mrs Gordon McCrae and family, were visitors with friends in Collingwood this week. Mr and Mrs Myers are holidaying with their daughter, Mrs. Molson for a few days. Mrs E. Wilkie spent a day with Mrs Duncan McQuarrie the first of the week.

DOUBLE DROWING AT WASAGA BEACH

Deep water at the mouth of the Nottawasaga river claimed the lives of Wilhelmina "Billy" McGill eighteen and Hector Goltz, 28, both of Toronto when they went swimming at Wasaga beach on Sunday morning. Mrs. W. E. Taylor, sister of Miss McGill, nearly lost her life in a desperate attempt to save the two victims and was brought to shore by H. W. Steel, where resuscitation permitted her recovery. Members of a happy party, Miss McGill and Mr. Goltz had just arrived from Wasaga and were taking an early morning dip. A strong breeze was blowing when they entered the water and the waves were steadily increasing in size. They reached the first sandbar and quite suddenly Miss McGill stepped in a deep channel and dropped from sight. Goltz tried to reach her and he too went into the deep water. Neither could swim. Attracted by their cries, Mrs. Taylor plunged into the water and reached Goltz, but in his struggles he pulled her under the water. Miss McGill's body was not found for three-quarters of an hour.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

MISSIONARY HONORED Miss Marion Williamson a returned missionary from India, and her sister Agnes Williamson of Wingham, were guests of Miss Flora McPherson on Wednesday. The members of the Missionary Society of the Pres. Church were invited to meet the guests and Miss Marion gave a most interesting talk on her work in India. A delightful hour of social intercourse followed when refreshments were served by the hostess.

MISSION BAND OUTING

The Presbyterian Mission Band held a picnic at Dew-Drop Inn on the McGowan property on Friday afternoon. A special feature was the presentation of pens to Gordon and Margaret Armstrong, who are leaving town. The address was read by Isabel McCormack and Rose Cain presented gifts to Gordon and Gladys Gray to Margaret, each making a reply of appreciation. A bountiful supper was later served.

LADIES' AID PICNIC

The Queen Street United Ladies' Aid held their regular meeting as a picnic at Gagnon's cottage at Rocky Saugeen. A short business session with Mrs Gagnon presiding was followed by sightseeing and social chat, with a bountiful picnic supper. The devotional exercises were taken by Rev. R. G. and Mrs. Halbert.

The FIRESIDE PHILOSOPHER

Truth needs no alibi. Success cannot be measured in money. Go against nature and it will get you. Think straight and you'll go straight. Common honesty is uncommon in politics. Watch the man who talks of his honesty. A silent fool often gets credit for wisdom. Better to lose your shirt than your self-respect.
