BROWN—GORDON

A wedding of interest took place on Thursday at St. Stephen's-Broadway church, when Gretta, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gordon, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Bradwyn Brown, of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hurst Brown, of Holstein, Ont.

Artistic bouquets of lovely summer blooms decorated the pulpit, which was banked with palms and ferns and tall standard of varicolored gladioli which added a summery color effect against the dark greenery.

Dr. Gordon, well-known under the pen name of "Ralph Connor," officiated at the wedding ceremony, assisted by Dr. G. A. Woodside and Mr. J. R. Mutchmore, as well as giving his daughter in marriage. A similar ceremony took place two years ago, when his eldest daughter, Mary, became the bride of Mr. Humphrey Carter, of Toronto. The attractive bride wore a wedding dress of dull white tree bark crepe, made on long simple lines. The neckline, which gave a cowl effect to the front, was finished at the back with a row of tiny buttons ending at the waistline. The softly draped floor length skirt formed a fishtail train at the back and her veil of white bridal net, which fell the full length of the train, was made in cape effect and caught across the back with a band of orange blooms. She carried a shower bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Ruth Gordon was her sister's only attendant and she chose for the occasion a becoming gown of glacier green dull crepe. The high waisted bodice, made with a coatee effect, was trimmed at the neckline with niger brown chepe and the sleeves were long and close fitting. The skirt which was fitted at the hipline was flared slightly below the knees. Her hat was a wide brimmed model of niger brown felt and she wore matching brown accessories. Her flowers Tallman roses and white sweet peas.

Dr. Ross Cooper attended the groom as best man. Throughout the ceremony appropriate music was played by the organist and at the close of the service, Miss Ruth Matheson sang "The Hebrew Benediction."

Later Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for a canoe trip at the Lake of the Woods. For travelling the bride wore a becoming swaggar suit of schooner blue basket weave wool. The full length coat was made on semi-fitted lines and a high neckline was finished with cravat of blue fox kid. With this she wore an antique blue crepe Romaine blouse and a small brimmed schooner blue felt hat, turned up across the back. Her accessories were in matching shade. On their return from the Lake of the Woods, Mr. and Mrs.

REEVES—McARTHUR

At the United Church parsonage in Dundalk on Thursday, August 9, Rev. Edward Baker performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Mary Margaret McArthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur to Walter Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reeves, all of Egremont Township.

McEACHERN—SPRUNG

High Park United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, August 18, at 2.30 p.m., when Rev. Dr. H. W. Alston married Florence Aileen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sprung, 147 Humbercrest Boulevard, Toronto, to Archibald H. McEachern, son of Mr. and Mrs. McEachern, Holstein. The church was prettily decorated with many coloured gladioli, ferns and palms. Mr. Roy Grass played the wedding march and accompanied Mr. George Little, Brighton, who sang during the signing of the register. The bride given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin, fashioned on princess lines, with high cowl neckline and a coronet of white braided satin, and carried a shower bouquet of white Killarney roses and baby's-breath. She was attended by Miss Alma McGreggor, who was gowned in pink tulle d'esprit and wore a large pink hat and accessories to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby's-breath. The groom was attended by Mr. Donald Bain, and the ushers were Mr. Alfred Sprung, brother of the bride, and Mr. George Sprung, cousin of the bride. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride's mother received wearing a gown of grey crepe with white crepe hat to match with a corsage of red roses and cornflowers. The groom's mother wore a gown of black and white crepe and a hat to match with a corsage of red roses and cornflowers. The house was profusely and artistically decorated with baskets of gladioli, asters and ferns, and the tables were beautifully decorated with flowers arranged by Mrs. Geo. of Wandemere Ave. After a delightful buffet luncheon, the bride and groom left on a trip to New York and Atlantic City, the bride travelling in a blue crepe with lace, and a hat of blue felt. On their return they will reside at Toronto at 7 Waller Ave.

Mr. Frank Smallman, son and daughter, Toronto, were visitors at his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smallman.

Miss Margaret Marshall spent the week end with Miss Pearl Watson, Egremont.

Our pastor took for his subject on Sunday: "The garden of the church" in the beginning God put Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, not to be idle, but to look after the garden.

No one can estimate what the true church of God has meant to the world. Many of the most beautiful gardens are protected by walls, and every faithful member of the true church is protected by the mighty power of God. A well kept garden is a thing of beauty, and so the Church ought to be. The garden shows variety, and is it not so in the Church, for every class and color of man may be members of the Living Church if they will. The garden is a place of peace, and all who belong to the Church may find the peace that passeth understanding. The real garden should show growth, and so should every member of the Church of Christ. We may attain to these blessings only by faith in Jesus Christ as our Saviour, and in obedience to His will.

There will be no church service or Sunday School at Knox next Sunday on account of anniversary services at Amos.
