PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

We spent a pleasant time last week end from the 21st to 24th visiting our old friends at Mt. Forest. Mr and Mrs Wm Groat and others there, and Holstein and Dromore. Our trip thither was by way of Ceylon, Proton, Swinton, Hopeville, Cedarville, Conn. It was a most enjoyable ride, with that sociable and careful handler of cars, as well as eggs, Mr S. J. Short, Mt Forest.

We express our pleasure too, in meeting with old-time friends at Amos Church anniversary and concert, where everything passed off so successfully and pleasantly.

Mrs Malby, nee Jean Buckham, is spending her vacation with her mother here accompanied by an equally charming affable young lady, Miss Bell, Toronto.

Rev. N. Macdonald is home from his holiday and took the service in St. Columba Sunday, in friendly exchange.

Mr Duncan McRae, with an assistant from Owen Sound, is raising up the floor and sleepers of the old residence, with a view to putting in a new one, for occupation this winter.

Mr Wm Aldcorn and his stalwart boys, are making good progress with the foundation of their new house. The old one, a many years landmark, was successfully taken down without mishap.

Mrs Donaldson is at present on a visit to her brother, John Stothart.

Visitors to the C.N.E. at Toronto last week, were Mr Angus McVicar and four daughters and John, the latter venturing the swim for amateurs: Mr Innis McLean, Mr and Mrs Fred Karstedt, Mr H. B. McLean, Donald Aldcorn and possibly others.

Mr J. C. Harrison had the misfortune to lose his shingle sawmill on Thursday last. They had gone home for dinner and were not 5 minutes in the house, when informed it was a mass of flames. There was no insurance. The greatest loss is the machinery, about one bunch of unpacked shingles and 20 cords of culled blocks for kindling was destroyed. Some 20 or 30 squares of first class shingles escaped, probably due to the wind's direction. With characteristic energy, he purposes building again.

We here, of the upper town anyway, have escaped the recent prevailing frosts, as far as damaging vegetables is concerned.

We were favored with a moving picture entertainment by our Agr'l representative, Mr T. Stewart Cooper, beginning with views of student life in football and pillow fights and the buildings and live-stock of the O.A.C. College, finishes with an illustrated story, entitled 'Hope, full of thrilling adventure. In reply to vote of thanks tendered, he expressed desire to establish a class in Agriculture here this winter if sufficient interest is shown by men and boys.

Mr and Mrs W. Ramage journeyed last week end to Wasaga Beach and viewed with hundreds of others, the beauties and wonders of nature there and on the way. While there we had the great pleasure of meeting Rev. Mr McCarten and his estimable wife, who have a nice cottage there. They look the same as ever, though we failed to name them,—our usual failing. Mr F. McIntyre, Editor of Dundalk Herald, was also a holidayer, together with his winsome wife, mother, and aunt, Mrs Lucas. Our nephew, from Thornbury, was also to the fore, accompanied by his friend, Miss McCallum, a teacher of taking personality and grace.

Next Sunday our two resident ministers will preach in their own church. Rev. Mr Johnston arrived home Monday, to allow children to go to school next day.

A car driver Sunday night failed to make the sharp turn on the overhead bridge, east of town, and ran into the fence. The lady in car had her face badly cut with glass, we are told.

Mr Herb Watson after a lengthy visit with relatives here, left for his home in the West Friday. His nephew drove him to the city and took in the great Exhibition. Before going, he will visit for a short time with Toronto friends.

A fine congregation turned out to Union service, Sunday, when the Pres. minister preached in the United Church. Maybe there are worse places than Priceville.

Mr Don. Stewart is holidaying in Toronto.

Little Betty Green of Caledon, is visiting at Wilfred Watson's.

On Tuesday night a presentation was held in the hall in honor of Mr. and Mrs Gordon McLean. The evening was spent in dancing. Good music was supplied by Angus and Colin McMillan, Jack and Bill McKechnie, Donald and Miss Alice Reiley. At midnight the young couple were asked to come to the front when an address was read by Mrs Donald Campbell and the presentation made by Mr Earl McLean of Proton. A purse of $25 was the gift. Gordon in a few well-chosen words thanked all, on behalf of himself and wife. All joined in "for they are jolly good fellows." Lunch was served and a most enjoyable time was had. About 200 attended the reception.

Mrs Alex. Carson and Bernice, who spent the past two months in Toronto, returned home on Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs Harvey Farrow and two sons Jimmie and Elvin of Chatsworth; Miss M. McDonald, Mrs Angus McCannell, Mrs Harry Crowell and Miss Annie Christie of Tonawabha, N. Y., were visitors Sunday at Andrew Hincks.

Miss Almada Hincks who is training in Grace Hospital, Toronto, came home Tuesday for three weeks vacation.

SWINTON PARK

This Tuesday, Mr Oswald Dingwall of Hopeville, has opened school in the Park. The school is properly cleaned and aired, the children all expectancy, wondering what this new man teacher will be like. We hope for teacher and pupils best of health and happy relations through the year.

Master Ivan Porter and Myrtle and Stella Corbett are going to Dundalk High School. Leslie Watson has returned to Owen Sound Business College.

These days the natives are coming and going to the C.N.E. Sixty years ago Toronto was a long way, but now with the auto and cement road, we are all neighbors.

The frost played a trick on late corn, buckwheat and potatoes last week and good it did not come earlier. Most crops are well saved and abundant.

I woke up this morning before six o'clock and looked out the window, and there was my near neighbor, Mr Flood digging potatoes, as if he was afraid I would go out and do it. It seems early to take up the murphys, but they are very good and fairly ripe. Mr. Flood does not put off till tomorrow what he can do today.

Oliver Milliner and Jimmie McLean have started out to do a big season's threshing with the little machine for the company, on con. 14; first job at G. W. Parslow's.

The ladies and some of the men are manufacturing apples these days. Jam, jellies, sauce, or cider? What will you have?

PETER—In loving memory of our dear father James Peter, who passed away on Sept. 6, 1933. A sudden change in a moment fell. Without a chance to say farewell. The blow was great, the shock severe.
