Miss Doreen Scott, Toronto was a holiday visitor with her mother Mrs Jas. Scott. Mrs M. Campbell, Mount Forest, spent a few days with her sister Mrs Jessie Scott. Mr Clifford Cooper who has been assisting Mr John Ferris during the summer left Monday to visit at the home of his mother in Windsor. Dr. W. L. Christie and friend of Toronto were holiday visitors with his sister Mrs George Shand. Successful anniversary services were appreciated by a large crowd at both services at Bethany Chapel on Sunday. The Merial quartet of Toronto gave a feast of excellent harmony in their various vocal numbers. Mr. Palmer delivered two fine gospel messages. Mr George Wale was home from Toronto over the holiday. The school fair held at Ventry on Oct. 2nd was well attended and contested. S.S. No. 14 were again placed first in marching. Strathcona drill etc. etc. also took their share of the individual prizes, 14 firsts, 13 seconds and 6 thirds among the pupils. The teacher, Miss Fettes deserves credit for the capable training. No. 5 Ventry secured 2nd place. Eight schools competed and 11 girls and 6 boys attempted to sing 'Danny Boy', a song with beautiful sentiment and melody, but very unsuitable and out of range for childish voices. There seemed to be many variations of the original tune.
