MISSION CIRCLE GIVE GIFT

The members of the Young We men's Mission Circle or the Presbyterian Church, gathered at home of Mr and Mrs Lorne McNally, North of town, on Wednesday night of this week, to tender good wishes as a Society to them, especially Mrs McNally, on her recent marriage. At an appropriate time an address was read to the newly-weds by Miss Mary Tobin, and the presentation made to them by Miss Janet McRonald, of a half dozen crystal water goblets. Though much taken by surprise, the bride expressed her thanks in a few words. Games and light refreshments closed a pleasant evening.

Large Congregations Hear Rev. John Little

C. RAMAGE & SON, Publishers

The officials of Queen St. United church made no mistake when they selected Rev. John Little of Rockwood, as their anniversary speaker. The announcement of his presence among the residents of Dur ham is suffcient reason for filling the Gurch to overflowing. Such at least was the case at Queen St. on Sunday morning and evening last. Mr. Little was in excellent form and delivered two outstanding messages to his audiences. In the morning his tex: was the words of Jesus, "I am the door." In the evening his subject was "Repentance," taking his text from St. Peter's letter to the Jewish Christians, "The Lord is not slack concerning His promise - not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

The choir rendered good anthems both services. They had the assistance in the morning of Mr Jno. Drysdale of Hamilton, and in the evening

Mr. Hilton of the Anglicar choir Monday evening a very fine musicale was listened to under the dir ection of Mrs Thomas, Messrs, Boorman and Kellour'h, soloists of Owen Sound; also Mrs McKay, reader, was present and delighted all, Allan Rutherford, trombone soloist, Owen Sound, was a feature with his solos Piano overtures were given by Mrs. Padfield, Miss Charlton, Mrs Thomas and Mrs. W.
