Activity period followed. The meeting closed with the singing of "Taps."

OBITUARY

DAVID BRUCE

There passed away on Wednesday morning Oct. 10th a little after six o'clock, at his home in Holstein, David Bruce in his 72 year.

The late Mr. Bruce was the second son of the late James and Jane Bruce formerly of the 16th con. of Egremont. He married Margaret Aberdeen a little over 30 years ago and resided on the Bruce homestead where he was born until he moved to Holstein 2 years ago. He was of a quiet disposition, a good neighbor always ready to give a helping hand to those in need.

Presbyterian in religion, faithful to his church, seldom was his place vacant until weakness overcame him. He had been in failing health some months but was always able to be around and was only 3 weeks confined to bed before his death. He bore his suffering with patience to the end.

Those left to mourn his loss are his widow and 2 brothers, Wm. who resided in the home and James of Kamloops, B. C.

The funeral was held on Friday, Oct. 12 from the Presbyterian church. Services conducted by his pastor Rev. Mr. McElroy. Interment in the family plot in Reid's cemetery. The pall bearers were six of his old neighbors of the 16th con. namely T. Reid, D. Eccles, A. Merchant, C. Schenk, G. Alles and T. Ellis.

JAMES MYERS

A well-known and respected citizen of Holstein passed away in Mt. Forest hospital, early Sunday morning last, in the person of James Myers. While not the same man as previous to a paralytic stroke five years ago, Mr Myers recovered sufficiently to go about the village and call upon friends. Early Thursday morning last on arising he went to his woodshed for wood to build the fire. It will never be known how he came to drop on the floor, but it is thought he must have stumbled and fallen between two boxes. A weak spell may have overtaken him, for deceased lay in this condition until discovered early Sunday morning. He was rushed to Mt. Forest hospital, but too late for saving a life. He was 69 years of age.

Mr Myers was a native of Dromore vicinity, born on the farm now owned by Alex Milne. In early youth, he apprenticed himself to Robert Renwick at his saw mill. From here he went to work in Wm. Petrie's flour mill, where he stayed many years. Later he was overseer and manager for a fishing club from Toronto and as well for a time conducted a flour and feed store in Holstein. The past few years he has sold lightning rods and fire extinguishers to many in the district.

He was married to Agnes Hamilton of 12th con., Egremont who went West 17 years ago. Of the union there survive two daughters: Nellie Mrs Holmes, Massachusetts; and Jean, Mrs Smith, in the West. A daughter Mary died some years ago. Also there mourn three brothers and one sister; George, Durham; Charles of Collingwood; Peter of Mt. Forest; and Mrs Nell McPayden, (Nellie) of Owen Sound. All were in attendance at the funeral on Tuesday which took place from the Presbyterian church, interment being in Amos cemetery, Dromore. Rev. Mr. McElroy had charge of the service.

PROVINCIAL PLOWING MATCH

Grey County was represented at the Provincial Plowing Match held last week on Mary Vale Farms, by the following boys: Arnold Shaw, of Tara, R. R. 2 Derby Tp.; Jack Coulter, O. Sound, R. R. 3, Derby Tp.; Alex Reid, Woodford, Sydenham Tp.; Elmer Minke, Sullivan Tp. was spare.

In competition with fourteen other counties the Grey Boys stood 7th, A. Shaw winning the fifteenth prize.

Accompanying these boys as coaches were Messrs Vernon Barber, O. Sound; Peter McCallum, O. Sound; Harry Breen, Tara; and James Reid, Woodford.

The boys did well and Grey County certainly appreciates their efforts.

FEEDEE LAMBS FROM THE WEST

While at the Provincial Plowing Match, Mr A. A. McMillan, chief of the Sheep Division, Ottawa, intimated that their Branch was very desirous of having Grey County farmers put in a number of lambs for feeding purposes this winter. The lambs are brought in from the Western ranches and are fed on a profit basis by Ontario farmers. The lambs are disposed of during January and February and the returns divided with the rancher and feeder.

NARROWLY ESCAPED

The two sons of Clayton Hallman of Hanover were returning home one night recently at 9.30, along south line, Bentinck, when a large deer, with a wide spread of horns sprang over a fence in front of car. The driver jammed on brakes and narrowly missed crushing into animal.

KNOX CORNERS

The rally day service which was postponed for two weeks was held on Sunday. The program prepared for the day was followed. Miss Ila Barber read one of the scripture readings and Douglas Halliday the other. Our pastor gave an address on "Our all for God." Our strength and talents and all that we have must be consecrated to God, but first of all we must give our hearts to Jesus; with out it, all our giving will profit us nothing. The scripture says "Not everyone who saith unto me Lord, Lord shall be saved, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven," and our God will accept nothing but our whole-hearted service.

Mr and Mrs Wm. Wallace of town visited Sunday at the Wallace, home and attended service at Knox.

Miss Barbara Marshall, town, spent last week at Mr Albert Marshall's and visited with friends in the neighborhood.

The W.M.S., the Y.W.A. and the Mission Band met in the church on Thursday afternoon of last week with a fair attendance. Mrs. Mearns presided. Mr Milton Aitkens, Holstein spent an evening recently with Mr Bert Watson.

Mrs Jno. Marshall and Mrs. T. Wallace visited on Friday with Rev. Mr. and Mrs Honeyman and attended the W.M.S. Thankoffering meeting in the church. Mrs Marshall addressed the meeting.

Mr and Mrs C. McAllister and Miss T. E. Byers spent Sunday evening at Mr and Mrs A. Marshall's.

IN MEMORIAM

ADAMS—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, John Adams, who passed away Oct. 13, 1929.

October brings sad memories
Of a loved one gone to rest,
Who will always be remembered
By the ones who loved him best.
Sadly missed by wife, son and daughter.

WIN SCHOLARSHIPS

Sons of Canadian Pacific Railway employees in Montreal, Winnipeg and Lethbridge have been awarded C. P. R. scholarships entitling them to tuition at McGill University and L'Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales, commencing with the current session at both educational institutions.
