The annual fowl supper was held in Presbyterian church on Friday of last week, when a good crowd attended and there was plenty of fowl and good things to eat, after which a program was given in the auditorium of the church. Rev. N. MacDonald acted as chairman. Rev. W. J. Johnston and Rev. D. Gowdy, Durham were present and gave brief addresses. Miss Elizabeth Harding, Durham rendered solos, also did Mr. Stewart McArthur, Scotch songs, and were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. D. Gowdy gave a number of instrumentals on the piano. Rev. N. MacDonald gave a recitation, solo and sang a Gaelic song. God save the King brought an enjoyable evening to a close. Proceeds were nearly $60.

The fine masquerade dance on Friday, put on by the Agricultural Society, passed off successfully with a fine, large, well-behaved crowd. Any appearance of probable misbehavior, was promptly nipped in the bud, by that adept of good management, Pres. W. G. McBride, with convincing authority. Anyone inclined to the contrary, may as well make up their mind at once, he says. It won't be tolerated. B. Sim and Mrs. I. B. Whyte won the prize for the best-dressed couple; most original dressed lady, Mrs. Sim; most original dressed man, F. Roseborough; best comic dressed lady, Miss Anna McLean; best comic dressed gent, Catherine McVicar. Lucky number dance, Anna McEachern.

The orchestra from Mildmay, known as the "Royal Nite Owl", supplied fine music. They comprise: pianist, Miss F. Sauer; violinist, Miss M. Bradley; saxophonists, Mr. F. Fruin and Robt Walker; Dick Ward, drummer. Some 40 couples were up for the lucky dance number.

Much regret is expressed over the removal of the Bank here, which has been a great convenience to many who have no facilities for travel.

Mr. J. C. Harrison with commendable promptness, has had replaced a larger and better shingle mill, than that destroyed. It is now in operation.

The Y.P.S. have had their annual reorganization meeting for the coming season and have elected popular and winsome ladies to the office of president: Miss Jewel McArthur; secretary, Miss Roberta Harrison; treasurer, Mrs. A. Ritchie; also there are group convenors and members of each group.

This Tuesday saw the largest crowd ever at the Bank, bidding an affectionate farewell to the amiable and trustworthy bank clerk, Mr. Wm. Alsop, on the occasion of the closing of the accommodating Bank branch here. An Revol! Much regret is expressed over the withdrawal Prospects of a thaw soon. Wells are still somewhat scant, but hope is still held out.

Mrs. Jno. Macfarlane is at present on a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Colin A. McLean, looking fine as usual.

At the service of a missionary character in St. Columba United on Sunday, a most appropriate quartette was given by Mrs. H. B. McLean and young daughter Anna, together with Thos. Weir and W. W. Ramage. "Over the Sea" was the theme.

SWINTON PARK

This week we have two old things renewed. Snow came on Sunday Oct. 28th, just as white and pure as ever. Some are ready for it; many are not finished with ploughing. A few turnips are yet in the ground, which still is very dry. The tax collector also came this way. He and the snow always come about the same time, but we think he will be more kindly received this year. The taxes are considerably lower in Proton, and there is yet room for improvement along that line.

Howard Watson expects to leave the end of the week for the happy hunting grounds.

Miss Mona Irwin of Owen Sound is visiting her aunt Mrs. Watson in the Park.

Delbert Haw motored to Toronto Sunday to visit his sister and others.

Messrs. Duncan and Charlie Cameron of Boothville were week end callers at Walter Knox's.

James Hardy is this week supplying the neighbors with fresh beef at moderate prices.

John Corbett is gradually moving from one of his farms to the other in his spare moments.

The young men have taken several tramps through the bush endeavouring to locate a coon, but the coons are out when called upon.

We expect the Spooks will be out this Halloween night as usual. Hope we can all treat the little beggars.

Gov't. Rebates 20 Per Cent of Beer Tax

The Ontario Government will lend financial assistance to municipalities beginning Nov. 1, by relieving them of the 20% contribution to cost of highway construction and maintenance and by permitting them to share by 20% in revenue derived from authorities granted hotels, and in profits from sale of beer and wines in hotels.

In making known the new regulations to govern sale of beverage rooms as from the beginning of the province's fiscal year, Premier Mitchell F. Heppburn said last night that all beer parlors would be forced to close at 11 p.m. instead of midnight. Clubs and dining rooms, however, will be permitted to continue sale to 12 p.m.

There was no suggestion of a bribe to the municipalities in the Government's policy of making cash contributions for the 20% share in the liquor profits, said the Premier. There was to be no departure from other phases of the present rules governing sale, he added, but he reiterated his invitation to all municipalities to make use of the local option provision.

The profit-sharing plan was to aid municipalities in their financial problems, said the Premier, and elimination of the 20% highway contribution was only granting the various centres "their just dues."

Previous governments, he added, had encroached on nearly all sources of revenue open to the municipalities and "in fairness to them they should not have to pay a share for construction of provincial highways because gasoline tax already is paid to the government for the purpose of building and maintaining roads."

The poor condition of the roads due to recent rain and snow, was somewhat improved, Monday, and Dr. Jamieson's new automobile was out on its initiatory spin, with our genial doctor at the wheel. With the exception of slight difficulty in turning, the doctor sped along as well as most of them and should soon be an excellent chauffeur.

Rev. Mr. Newton is in Hamilton this week attending a conference of his church. It is possible Durham may lose Mr. Newton, he having received an unanimous call to Carleton Place, which he may see his way to accept. Since coming here the Newtons have done a wonderful work. They have added to the aspirations as well as to the number of the Baptist flock and the handsome new church and organ will long remain a monument to their zeal. Their residence on Albert Street has been purchased by Mr. Ed. Limin, who takes possession November 15th.

The Junior Hockey Club are ambitious and alert and had the first concert of the season on Friday last. Mayor Laidlaw was chairman. There was a solo by Merle Whitmore followed by a banjo selection by the McClocklin twins and Mr. Banks. Fred Laidlaw's "Tipperary Daisy" in costume brought a rousing encore, as did the duet by Misses Caldwell and Limin in Wild West garb. Bandmaster Wright and Miss Irwin gave cornet and piano solos.

Mrs. Wm. Smith, Sr. passed away on Tuesday 19 inst., from what the doctors call progressive paralysis. She suffered much, but bore her affliction with Christian patience.

Large congregations were present at the Sunday Anniversary and Harvest Home Services at Varney Methodist church, when Rev. G. A.

IN DAYS OF YORE

15 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file Oct. 30, 1919

Mrs. N. Sinclair (nee Miss K. McCormack) and brother Alex have had a handsome monument erected in Rocky cemetery, to the memory of their brother Hugh, who died at the home of his sister, Mrs. McQuarrie, a few months ago.

Mr. Alex Bell of Glenelg, now attending Toronto University, is going strong as a three mile runner. With but little training, at the inter-faculty games in Toronto on Oct. 18, and all colleges competing, he came 2nd, leading all the way and being just nosed out of first place, after a ding-dong battle.

The advertisement in the Review last week of the Sealey farms has been ordered out as the two farms have been sold. The purchasers are Mrs. B. Hartford, a neighbor, and The Durham Furniture Co., the price being $13,000. The brothers Arthur and Joseph Sealey have been over 50 years in South Glenelg and have made good as farmers and stockmen.

We are assured on reliable authority that about $200,000 has been paid for sweet clover in S. Grey this year. Transactions are measured by thousands, not hundreds of dollars and instances not a few are found, where farmers who had poor success in cereals are now pocketing thousands from the returns of this one time "weed." Mr. Oliver Hunter, one of several buyers in the neighborhood, has shipped 12 carloads this year and the demand keeps brisk. We have heard it rumored that a special tax is to be placed on this commodity, at least while it is soaring at $15 and $16 a bushel.

Glenelg Township's memorial tablet, which is being erected in the Township Hall, arrived at Durham station and was delivered last week end.

Stock sheets are in circulation in town for the purchase of Durham Rink, over $2,000 of $25 shares now being signed up. Durham G.W.V.A. are showing the way with a handsome $500 subscription.

Percy Glass, formerly of Durham, died in Windsor on Tuesday from pneumonia. His brother Will left on Wednesday to attend the funeral.

Durham District Victory Loan Committee on Monday and Tuesday, the first two days, sold $36,000 worth of bonds or 15% of their objective.

At the Presbyterian manse, Durham, on Saturday the 25th, October, a quiet wedding was solemnized when Miss Mamie Mountain, only daughter of Mr and Mrs. Wm. Mountain, south of town, became the bride of Mr. Ernest Leeson, recently discharged from the U.S. army.

Rev. S. M. Whaley is attending a meeting of Synod in Toronto this week. Rev. Wm. Cooper of Mount Forest is the newly-elected Moderator of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston.

Mr. Alex McQueen has been transferred to the staff of the Standard Bank, Hamilton, and left Monday for his new post.

AN APPRECIATIVE HITCHHIKER

Driving from Denison, Texas, to Marven, Ark., Arthur Asmore, travelling salesman, felt sorry for an old man who asked for a ride, and took him in. The hitchhiker gave his name as Ed. Johnson. Reaching Marven, Asmore gave his passenger enough change for supper, a night's lodging and a shave. Before saying good-bye the old man pulled out a cheque book and making out a cheque, handed it to Asmore. It was for $10,000. Next morning Asmore went to the bank more out of curiosity than in the hope that he could cash the cheque. The banker pronounced it good and cashed it.
