PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY IN DAYS OF YORE 25 YEARS AGO Taken from Review file, Nov. 4, 1909 A wealth of curious-looking but no doubt efficient machinery is being installed this week in the new McGowan mill. The dam too is assuming its final proportions and when on full duty will give Durham a navigable lake. Much gratification was expressed Saturday last when it became known that Rev. Mr. Newton had decided to remain in Durham. A High School Literary Society has been organized and the following officers elected: Hon. Pres. (accl.)—Principal Allan; Pres.—Foster Saunders, Vice Pres. (accl.)—Vadde Caldwell; Sec'y-Treas.—Arthur Backus Committee—Nellie Hepburn Harold Aljoe, Vivian Crawford, Eric Kelly, Nellie Burns, Fred Laidlaw. Mr. E. Limin has bought from the McKechnie firm the old British Hotel stable, and is removing it to the property he purchased from Rev. Mr. Newton. The price was $75. There are fine timbers and good lumber in the old building. Union S.S. No. 9 in Ritchie's school held their annual entertainment on Friday evening, Oct. 29th. Program consisted of speeches by Dr. Farquharson, Messrs. Wm. Allan, Wm. Glass, A. Bell and Superintendent, Mr. Wm. Young. Recitations were given by Eliza Patterson, Arthur Lindsay, Lena Ritchie, Irene Ritchie and Clara Ritchie. Two songs were admirably given by the school through the training of Miss E. Weir. Selections in singing were given by the Misses Young, a quartet by Lena and Edna Ritchie Mr. Wm. Patterson and the Bible Class. At the close the S.S. children were treated to candy. Mr. C. L. Grant of Durham, acted as chairman. "What's a man's age?" asks Brownie. We learn this week that Mr. Jas. Laidlaw, father of our Mayor has picked and packed 20 barrels of apples off his own orchard, besides 7 or 8 baskets of pears, and he verging on 86 years of age. We congratulate Dr. R. J. Gordon in securing his medical council examination for the province of Saskatchewan. Dr. Gordon obtained a very high place amongst the candidates who were successful. It is now fifty years since Mr. Duncan Campbell, the venerable clerk of Bentinck, was appointed. The first meeting he attended was in Durham at that distant period, and this year he asked the Township Council as a favor to hold another meeting in the town, as an anniversary of that occasion. The Council readily acquiesced and had arranged to hold the regular meeting at the Central Hotel when Mayor Laidlaw—learning of this had Clerk Vollett write, offering the free use of the town council chamber for this meeting and the freedom of the town. This was accepted by the Bentinck law-makers, and on Monday November 15, after a great lapse of years, and as a compliment to their clerk, Bentinck Council will again meet in our town. Saturday last Joshua Woodland passed away at the home of his son George in Toronto, at the ripe age of 86 years. Priceville Corr.—Merchant Aldcorn and his little daughter are always found at their post, while Peter McArthur has to attend to two shops sometimes wanted simultaneously in both. Mr. and Mrs. Brander are always there and if not supplied elsewhere go to Brander's. Postmaster Nell McKinnon installed a big piano in one of his upstairs rooms. It took about 20 strong men to place it there. Edge Hill Corr.—Mr. Geo. Ritchie sold a span of horses to Mr. Wm. Vessie, Jr. for the handsome sum of $450.00. Hampden Corr.—Mr. Wm. Clark of Varney is again engaged as head sawyer with Miller & Seim. Holstein Corr.—Reg. Hunt who has purchased the open air skating rink from Geo. Freeman, has been busy getting it into shape for the first cold snap. Mr. H. H. Miller, M.P., will give an address at Dromore on Friday night, November 5th at 7.30 o'clock on "A Canadian Navy."

HOPEVILLE Mr. R. N. Stewart and family have moved into their new house. Mrs. Neil McEachnie and sons, and Miss A. M. Fettes visited recently with Miss Laverne McEachnie, at Guelph. A community Armistice Service will be held in the United Church at Hopeville at 10.55 a.m. Sunday Nov. 11th. The two minute silence at 11 o'clock will be observed. Rev. E. A. Elliott and Rev. J. R. Wilkinson in charge assisted by a union choir. All are invited. The monthly meeting of Hopeville W. I. will be held Wednesday, Nov. 14th at the home of Mrs. Douglas Mitchell. Roll call, "Tasty supper dishes." Paper, "What is what, Mrs. Wm. Dingwall; Display, made from flour and sugar sacks; Paper, "As a twig is bent," Mrs. Jas Mitchell; music. Miss A. Foster, Dunedin, is spending a few weeks with her aunt Mrs. W. R. Scott. Inspector Pentland paid an official visit to our schools recently and found conditions satisfactory. Under the auspices of United Mission Band, a jolly masquerade Halloween party was held at the home of Mr. Robert Crawford last Friday evening when numerous objects, supposed to belong to Adam's race paraded about. A large crowd enjoyed the games, contests and the fortune telling in keeping with the occasion. Messrs. Walton Sinclair and John Wiltshire attended the Provincial Sunday School convention at Orangeville on Tuesday. Mrs. A. Riddell had a new set of flues put in the mill last week. Mr. George Shand and Mrs. Archie Russell attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Gilbert Christie, near Port Elgin on Monday. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Geo. Shand, Jr. in the death of her mother Mrs. Gilbert Christie, near Port Elgin. Mrs. Shand spent the past week at her old home.

SWINTON PARK Again we are enjoying fine weather in the Park. The last of the turnips are being harvested and ploughing finished up. Everyone expresses much sympathy for Mrs. George A. Black, who was taken very ill early last week. Dr. Carter of Dundalk was called, and after some days of treatment, he thought it necessary to take Mrs. Black to Orangeville hospital on Saturday. An operation was performed on Sunday afternoon, thought to be quite successful. Still Mrs. Black on this Monday is very ill, but all are hoping that very soon there will be better news. Mr. Howard Watson has gone North to hunt. During the snow storm last week, Wilfred Black and son got two fine foxes. George Haw is entertaining some old acquaintances from the city this week. They are looking after the rabbits, but find them scarce. Miss Vina E. Heard of Bayfield, who taught school in the Park last year, was a welcome caller in several homes over the week end. Miss McLeod, Reg. Nurse, of the Durham hospital staff, is enjoying a rest at her old home, Mr. Neil McLeod's. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. McLeod and little daughter of Lambton Mills, spent the week-end with their parents, G. W. Parslow's, and Neil McLeod's. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Heard, Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Heard and daughter of Guelph, spent Sunday at the old home at Salem. Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy, Shelburne, spent Sunday with Aldcorns and Heards in the Park. Mrs. Borden Bleech and children of Owen Sound, are at present visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox's.

For their "harvest home" offerings, farm members of Riverview United church congregation gave ten pounds of grain per acre to the church, and other members of the congregation contributed in various ways. Over seven tons of grain were contributed which was sold in Dundalk, the proceeds to go to the church coffers.

permanent roadway in 1920. The new County roads will shame our street's. The sincere sympathy of old Durham friends goes out to Dr. and Mrs. Farquharson, of Agincourt who have had death enter their home. Monday in Hamilton, hospital after a lengthy illness their third son James McDonald, passed away, being about 25 years of age. Mrs. John Vessie and children leave this week to join Mr. Vessie in St. Marys, where they in future will reside. A quiet wedding took place in Ayrton on Wednesday, Nov. 5th, when Miss Vera Damm of that village, became the bride of Mr. Sam Wilson of town. After a short honeymoon trip to visit friends near Wingham, the young couple will settle down in their new home on Queen St. South. The Review extends good wishes. A united meeting of the U.F.O. and Labor, elected Mr. E. C. Drury of Crown Point, Simcoe County, as leader of the new Provincial Gov't unanimously. Mulock Corr.—We feel more than thankful that Prohibition carried with such an overwhelming majority. For South Grey alone the majority was over 20,000. Holstein Corr.—Mr. W. H. Hunter has shipped a carload of potatoes from Holstein station. Mr. J. M. Matthews has purchased a farm near Ceylon, and has rented a 100 acre farm alongside. He takes possession March 1st.

THE FIRESIDE PHILOSOPHER By ALFRED BIGGS Would you have a friend? Be one. Evil shuns those who seek goodness. No satisfaction like that of work well done. Better to read nothing than to read trash. Don't speak well of others only to be well spoken of. Life's greatest possessions cannot be measured in money. It is easier to forgive those who bore us than those whom we bore. HONEY FOR SALE Clover, Goldenrod and Buckwheat mixed honey. 80c. for 10 pound pail, or 7c. a pound in your own container, till Oct. 15th. W. A. MACDONALD DURHAM
