PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY PRICEVILLE J. M. MCGILLIVRAY In our case it was all for the best, if not for the ladies. Bless them! The closing social of the Ebenezer Sunday School will be held on Dec. 13th, a social of local talent. Miss Alma McLean, nurse in training in Mimico hospital spent a couple days at her home. Mr. Donald Campbell spent a few days in Toronto and took in the winter Fair. Mrs. Stephenson, Markdale is visiting her daughter Mrs. Wm. J. Hincks. Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLean and Innis Toronto spent the week end at their home. Mr. Donald Campbell has a fine new henhouse built. Mr. Jno Haw of Swinton was the carpenter, with help. Mrs. Dave Nichol returned home from Toronto, after spending a week visiting her daughter Mrs. Jno. Cook. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hincks and family visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill McKechnie. On Wednesday night a miscellaneous shower was given to Miss Marjorie McLean, before her marriage, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Aldcorn. The evening was spent in music and dancing. The bride received many and beautiful gifts. A bountiful lunch was served at midnight. Miss Annie Shortreed returned to her home after spending some time in Toronto. Mr. Dave Hincks visited Monday at Mr. Neil McLeod's, Swinton. Mr. and Mrs. Allie McLean and son Clare, spent a day in O. Sound last week. St. Columba S. S. entertainment will be held on Friday, Dec. 21st. A good program will be given.

SWINTON PARK In the Park this morning we feel like the old Scotch lady who, hungry, prayed for potatoes. She arose and looked in the pot but found nothing there. "Just what I expected," she exclaimed. So we have had such a long, nice Autumn, that we have got what we have been expecting the last few days—cold and windy, a little rain, sleet and snow, and hard frost. Very slippery outside this morning but a fine day beside the fire. We hope to enjoy it. General health is very good. Work mostly done. There was a community farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawcett last night. They expected to have moved last week but weather conditions prevented. This week they are going, and they will long be remembered by the younger folk especially, as they were socially inclined and did their bit to make life pleasant in the community. Coming events in the Park are a community dance in the hall Friday night this week and a shooting match for 25 young geese at Ed. Heard's, east of the Park, on Monday, Dec. 10. A chance to get a goose for Christmas. Then the boys and girls are thinking very often about their old friend Santa, and I believe he is on the way. I dreamt about him myself last night. His team of reindeer are in fine shape for their rounds, and will not fail. Yesterday I saw a large truck get off the gravel out to the grass and bare ground, heavily laden with wood and for a long time it stayed there. The driver carried hay from the barn and fed it to the truck, putting it under the wheels. It quickly chewed it up, but would not move. Then a farmer's team was called on, and they placed it on the way again. We thought it good that Santa did not depend on trucks.

HOPEVILLE Mr. and Mrs. Jno Sinclair and Walton attended the funeral of an old respected friend and neighbor, the late Susannah Snell, Dromore, last Monday. If roads are still passable for cars the young people of Dundalk United church will present their splendid play "Cyclone Sally" at Hopeville United church, Friday night. Lunch served to all. Admission 25 and 15c. The regular meeting of the W. I. will be held Wednesday, Dec. 12th at the home of Mr. Wm. Jack: Roll call "My favorite Christmas song"; report of Toronto convention by Mrs. J. Sinclair; Christmas carols; paper by Mrs. Doug. Mitchell, "Suggestions for small parties"; exchange of Christmas gifts not exceeding 15c. Mr. and Mrs. Will Philp, Dromore, were visitors Saturday at home of Mr. D. S. McDonald. Miss Vada Christie was out of school last week with a sprained ankle. The United W.M.S. will meet on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. J. R. Wilkinson, in Dundalk. Mr. Will McKinney with his truck had the contract of gravelling Mr. N. McEachnie's lane last week.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY (Continued) The young people connected with the two local Sunday Schools have commenced preparations for their annual Christmas entertainments. Bethany, Dec. 24, United, Dec. 21 are the dates chosen for these events. On the afternoon of Dec. 20th Miss A. M. Fettes and pupils are entertaining the section. It seems as if we will have to hustle around in this vicinity to attend all these gatherings and still have time to prepare for the home festivities. Let us not be too busy entertaining ourselves that we forget the true significance of the 'Great Gift to the world'. Sorry to hear that Mr. Harold Love has not been so well of late.

IN DAYS OF YORE 15 YEARS AGO Taken from the Review file, Dec. 4, 1919. Mr. Levine has sold the Mrs. S. Ritchie farm on the 2nd con., Glenelg to Mr. Dougald McKechnie of town. Mr. J. Levine has purchased Mr. J. Livingstone's large brick dwelling on Garafraza St., a little north of the Ford garage. We learn Mr. Livingstone and family contemplate removing to Owen Sound, which is more convenient for him as a traveller. Last Saturday night's wild wind-storm was a serious matter for photographer Kelsey, for five of the windows of his large sky light at side of gallery were blown out. Saturday night last, following a sharp thaw, accompanied by rain there was experienced in this town and district a wind of hurricane proportions which has left its mark by levelled fences, buildings unroofed, and a putting out of business of the Hydro owing to crossing of wires and broken circuits. The Cement Works are gradually closing down for winter, and operations will cease on the 16th inst. There are pessimistic rumors that they may never reopen again, but we hope next spring under the new management may see them going full blast. This week we are enjoying or enduring, one train a day each way on Grand Trunk, the lessened service being due to the shortage of soft coal. Both the incoming noon train and the outgoing train at 4.25 have been cancelled. Messrs. And. Derby and W. J. Young went to Stratford, Monday, where on that evening they attended the graduation of their daughters, Misses Margaret Derby and Mae Young. It was a brilliant function held in the Majestic theatre with about 2,000 present. The public meeting of bandmen and citizens, called together to discuss the re-organization of a good band in Durham, on Friday last was quite well attended. It was felt that the main obstacle was finances. If a well qualified bandmaster is to be obtained to lead the band, he will require a reasonable salary, and the discussion was principally over raising funds to be prepared to cover this and other legitimate and necessary. Messrs. E. A. Hay and R. E. Richardson were appointed to interview the Council, Monday to ask for a $25 monthly grant. Varney Corr, Mr. Matthew Barber's new barn and stables have been completed lately, and they are up-to-date model buildings.

25 YEARS AGO Taken from the Review file, Dec. 2, 1909. At the County Council last week Artemesia Township was taken from South Grey and added to East Grey and will in future be in Mr. Huff's jurisdiction. Mr. Campbell's work will still be large enough, it was overdone before, for he had 124 schools while East Grey had only 90. For this week at least the Furniture factory employees are spending two hours extra each evening, making a 12 hour day, while for the past 2 or 3 weeks some of the departments have been working overtime. Mr. George Arrowsmith, Glenelg, has secured the Massey-Harris agency in this town. Mr. John McGirr left for Stratford hospital last week to undergo an operation on his nose which has given him trouble ever since the time when a swift base ball found it. Boothville Corr. The death of Mrs. Dougald McCannel, Boothville, occurred Tuesday, Nov. 23rd, 1909. The deceased was Annie, fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McQueen of Boothville. Mulock Corr. In the Local Option campaign now going on none are doing better work than the pastor of Mulock Baptist church. He is secretary of the Baptist Association and is attending all the meetings possible. If victory is as looks likely, no small part of the credit will be due to Mr. Sarr.

25 YEARS AGO (Continued) FARM CONDITIONS IN GREY COUNTY Mr. T. Stewart Cooper, Grey Agricultural Representative, in his regular weekly report dealing with conditions in the farming industry in this county, states that the mild weather and freedom from snow has permitted cattle being left out in the fields, and that they are in a good, thrifty condition as a result. He says that the fall wheat is looking exceptionally good, in fact, it is generally admitted that not in a number of years has the fall wheat looked quite so good at this season of the year. The plowing is practically completed, although some farmers will keep it until the frost prevents them. Dealing with the marketing question he says that the cattle market continues to be dull, while hogs and lambs continue to be encouraging. The mild weather is saving the hay, which was not an extra good crop this year. Mr. Cooper points out that considerable cash has been realized on barley this year. Before the slump in grain prices, the returns from barley were quite satisfactory. In his general remarks he says: "Never for the past few years has so much grain been marketed. This is largely due to the fact that prices of cattle were low, grain was comparatively high and there were exceptional grain crops this year." S.S.
