VARNEY

Mr and Mrs Wilbert Blyth are in Toronto today attending the funeral of Mr. Hope, Mrs. Victor Blyth's father.

Miss M. McNeice spent Wednesday last with Mr and Mrs J. Leeson.

The infant daughter of Mr and Mrs Elmer Fee, (Kathleen), was baptized in United church, Sunday.

Rev. R. F. Mercer was the guest on Sunday, of Mr and Mrs R. J. Eden. Mrs. Morice and son Edgar spent Saturday with Ferguson and Guelph friends.

Mrs Wilbert Blyth spent a day recently with friends in Port Elgin.

Mr. McCabe and son Arthur, also Mr. William Gordon spent last week in Toronto with Mr and Mrs G. Flewellyn.

Miss Iva Saunders and friend of Durham, were Sunday evening visitors of Mr and Mrs Jas. Leeson.

Miss Pearl Gordon spent a few days last week with Mrs A. McCabe.

Mr Wm. Bogle had an electric chopper installed in his barn recently.

Mr. W. L. Kerr, of Grand Rapids, Mich. who is a brother of Mr. John Kerr, Varney and the late Jas. Kerr, spoke in last week's paper what became of the Varney news and why there wasn't more of it? The chief reason is the disconnection of the telephones along our line owing to the stringent times. The Bell Telephone Co. still kept up their rates up as high as ever, despite the hard times, and the farmers in this community felt the telephone was something they could do without. Practically all farmers own cars and with the highway open winter and summer are only a few minutes drive to Durham or Mt. Forest. On our line where there were formerly 13 or 14 telephones, only 2 phones remain. With the telephones disconnected, happenings do not circulate so quickly, and by the time it reaches your correspondent it is often too stale to record as news. The disconnecting of telephones, are taking place in many communities where the Bell Co. lines are and some are going on independent lines which come much lower. We don't mean to make Mr. Kerr believe the farmers are any harder up in this community than any other during this depression, but they know when they are overcharged according to the times and therefore had their phones disconnected in the meantime. Thus fresh news is not so plentiful.

Mr and Mrs Cecil Barber and Mr and Mrs Wm. Allen spent a few days last week at the Royal Winter Fair.

It has been rumored that Mr and Mrs Albert Morrison, Sask., have purchased the former Philip Lawrence's farm near Jamieson's Lake. They will take possession next spring and the community will welcome them back East.

Mr and Mrs John Kerr visited a day recently with their daughter Jeanette, Mr and Mrs Andrew Marshall, Knox.

Mrs Bert Barber accompanied her mother and brother, Mrs G. A. Turnbull and Archie, South Bentinck, and visited a few days last week with Mrs Turnbull's sister, Mrs G. Searle, Guelph. This week, Mr and Mrs Bert Barber and brother Archie spent Wednesday at the Royal Winter Fair, Guelph.

Miss Dorothy Caldwell, daughter of Mrs James Wilton and the late Samuel Caldwell, intends going to Toronto General Hospital shortly, to train as a nurse.

Miss Irene Grasy, Toronto, spent the week end recently with her mother Mrs Fred Noble.

Alleging false and fraudulent misrepresentations, Claire M. Foster, Frank W. Foster and Clarence N. Foster, Mount Forest farmers, brought suit, before Mr. Justice Kelly in assize court at Toronto last week, against John M. Childerhose, stock salesman, in a claim for $5,000 damages resulting from stock transactions in 1929-30.

The Foster family allege that Childerhose wrongfully sold them stock in the Hudson Realty Co. Ltd. and Power and Industrial Securities Ltd., in both of which he was president. This included certain oil stock held in the companies. He allegedly obtained $3,890 from them for this oil and other stocks after visits to the Foster farm. Plaintiffs allege he told them it would be a "good safe, sound investment."

They state the stocks had "no marketable value" and the defendant did not return their money on request.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our beloved aunt Miss Janet Johnston who died, Dec. 6th 1926.

We miss her still as we journey on
Amid life's trails, day by day,

When the mists have cleared away.

OLD HOME WEEK JOTTINGS

BY OLD-TIMER

The first batch of invitations for Durham's Old Home Week—Aug. 4 to 7, 1935—were sent out recently, nearly a thousand of them. Quite a number of replies are already in, and these are enthusiastic over the event. Sandy Moodie, Lead City, S. Dakota, sends word, he's coming for sure. Old Durham looks good to Sandy yet.

Collier Struthers, Gainsborough, Man., says "Thanks for invitation. Will make a great effort to be with you, Aug. 4th to 7th."

Mr and Mrs Horace Elvidge, Godrich sends a list of names and says "Count on us. We'll be there."

Mrs W. H. Bean and Mrs Stanley Bride (nee Elizabeth Bean) say, "Count on us."

Mrs Annie Elms (nee Annie Collinson) says she's coming for sure. She sent a list of old timers she wants to meet.

The Browning family, Toronto, are coming and sent a nice list of names of others to invite.

Archie McKinnon, Winnipeg, says he will be with us and wants to see Bill Harris get an invitation. Never fear, Archie, Bill has his and I'll eat my hat if he isn't the first man in town. Old Home Week.

Mr and Mrs T. C. Morton, Leuvan, Sask., say "We are coming."

Alex Saunders, Orangeville, says "Just try and keep me away." Alright Alex we'll be seeing ya.

Duncan McFarlane, Penton, Mich., was the first to respond. He says, "I'm coming and bringing the family." Good old Dunc.

Margaret L. McDonald, New York, says, "Thanks for the invitation: will do all I can to help. I'll be there."

If you, reader, know of any former residents of town or surrounding country, whose names are not yet on list, please send in names and addresses at once to sec'y B. H. Willis, or to Review, Durham, and they will receive invitations.

IN MEMORIAM

HUNTER—In loving memory of my dear husband who passed away on Dec. 11, 1933.

Days of sadness still come o'er me,
Tears of sadness often flow,
Memory keeps my loved one near
Whom God claimed one year ago.
Though his loving voice is silent
And his true heart ceased to beat,
Yet I miss his well-known footsteps,
And the face I used to greet.
Sadly missed by wife.

DINGWALL—In loving memory of our dear mother Eliza Nelson Dingwall, who passed away, Dec. 7, 1933.

Ever remembered by sons and daughter.

KELLOGG'S ACHIEVE SCOOP WITH HISTORIC PICTURE

London, Ontario (Special from London, England) Nov. 30, 1934.

The Kellogg Company of Great Britain, Ltd., in conjunction with the London England, Daily Mail, has secured special permission to feature an exclusive photograph of the actual wedding ceremony of Prince George and Princess Marina, taken inside Westminster Abbey.

For the first time in the history of the Daily Mail the front page will be devoted to news purposes. The photograph will occupy about the entire front page, and an offer will be made of a beautiful photogravure reproduction of the wedding scene in size 15 by 12 inches. This will be sent free to anyone in Great Britain who sends in two postage tops from any of the Kellogg cereals.

The Daily Mail will rush pictures direct from the wedding scene back to their offices for Kellogg's approval and will then rush prints by aeroplane to Manchester, England, for their northern edition.

The Kellogg Company's unique offer will reach the breakfast tables of over two million British families—the daily circulation of the Daily Mail. Kellogg plants are located in London, Ontario, Sydney, Australia, and Battle Creek, Michigan.

Instead of writing that weekly letter to distant friends, why not have the Review tell them the news of the district. Save yourself the trouble of worrying over what to say each week for $2.00 for a whole year.

Mantoulin Island will contribute its share of turkeys again for the Christmas season. A survey indicates that the number of birds for market will be about the same as last year, when 60,000 pounds were marketed by the co-operative association.

"...So that Our Visitors will be Sorry to Leave"

"If we are going to invite people to this country, we must be honest with them... Courtesy costs nothing and is one of our greatest tourist assets... Let us so treat strangers within our gates that it will be easy for them to come, pleasant for them to stay, and difficult for them to leave."

Rt. Hon. K. B. BENNETT, Prime Minister of Canada, to the Canadian Association of Tourist and Publicity Bureau, November 6, 1934.

Canada's tourist activities represent more than a great industry from which everybody benefits. They provide an opportunity to create what the Prime Minister has described as "that feeling of neighbourliness" which is such a vital factor in building up cordial relations within the family of nations.

For both these reasons, may I urge upon the people of Canada the importance of showing consideration, courtesy and honesty to guests of our country? Let us all do those little acts of kindness which count for so much when one travels in a strange land.

We have a beautiful country. We must keep it so. We want our visitors to travel highways free from disfigurement, walk the streets of cities that are orderly and clean, and find at the end of every day's travel an inviting spot to rest. Canadians should turn their attention now to the important work of preparing for next year's tourist season.

As a nation, we are advertising abroad the attractions of Canada as a holiday land. We must see to it that our guests return home with only the happiest recollections—and the determination to come back again and again.

Nor should we forget, in planning our own vacations, that there are beauties to discover and friendships to be made in our neighbouring provinces. We live in one of the world's most glorious playgrounds—let us learn to know better the rich variety of its travel attractions.
