South Grey, had an interview at the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, with Hon. T. B. McQuesten, Minister of Highways, with regard to the proposed highway from Palmerston to Shelburne. After a discussion with the minister, in which he stated that consideration would be given them, the deputation left Queen's Park very much impressed with the verdict received.

The road in question, which the deputation proposed to be taken over by the province is No. 44, commencing east of Palmerston to Harriston and continuing to Mt. Forest and Shelburne.

Mr. J. D. White, a poultry buyer at Invermay has bought tons of poultry, but had never bought chickens weighing 10 1/2 lbs. until Tuesday, when Mr. Moses Legge, of Arran township, delivered to him 46 dressed chickens, weighing from 8 to 10 1/2 lbs. each. This breaks all records for chickens in this district. The birds were Black Giants and Plymouth Rocks, says the Tara Leader.

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

The short courses being put on by the Ag'l Dept. under the management of T. Stewart Cooper, of Markdale are still going strong, especially in the ladies' section of the course. In cooking and sewing great interest is taken. What though certain dishes do not come out according to Hoyle, it is in the day's work anyhow. At a union meeting on Friday afternoon, a fine program was jointly given by each section with Mr. Chas. Aldcorn in the chair and Miss Helen McVicar, sec'y. Some fine instrumental music was given by Miss Whyte and brother on organ and violin. Young Jimmie Hill gave a synopsis of the various subjects discussed at the men's meetings. Readings, recitations and current events, were also given. Mr. McKecher, the critic on this occasion praised the music and advised louder speaking, slower reading and described too personal references in current events. A dance is to be held to-night, Monday, at the home of Mr and Mrs Wm. Aldcorn, when Mrs. Shearer hopes to inculcate a more becoming and modest manner of dancing.

A banquet is proposed to be held Thursday of this week, 28th. The reeves of the four adjoining townships are to be invited along with resident ministers, together with a prominent speaker. Admission 35c. Glad to know Mr. Andy Ford is improving nicely now.

Mr. John Whittaker, threatened with pneumonia is now up this week and Mr. Kelley is laid up with an infected knee, unable to work.

Meantime the youth and beauty of town are having fine exercise on the rink here.

The Rev. J. W. Johnston preached a fine temperance sermon on Sunday, quoting amongst other things the value of abstinence from strong drink as in Arctic or Antarctic explorations, where it is condemned. He deplored the fact that some men preferred the freedom to drink, more than their health or the good of their families and who made a god of liquor, of chance and of pleasure.

Mr and Mrs Alex McLean and sister, Mrs J. W. McFarlane (nee Anna Mary) came up on a visit to their parents here on Friday evening and returned on Sunday to Toronto, Saturday being the 37th mile of Mr and Mrs Colin McLean's married life.

The auction sale of John Burnet on the 20th, passed off very successfully, good prices being realized. The dance following on Friday evening also was duly attended, and a good time had.

The heaviest snow storm of the year was experienced this 24th and 25th of Feb. Traffic was heavily impeded around here. The skating rink is well covered with snow, owing at times to the leaky condition of the roof!

On Wednesday night neighbors and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McLean to spend a social evening with them before their departure for Flesherston. The evening was spent in music and dancing. Mr. Frances Black read an address and Mr. Dan Campbell, Jr. presented them with a purse of money. Both Mr and Mrs McLean made a suitable reply. Lunch was served at midnight.

Mr Walter Neun, Toronto is spending a few days with his brother Elmore here.

Mr. Sam Wilson spent a week in Toronto.

Mr and Mrs Hay of Swinton Park, visited Sunday at A. L. Hincks'.

Mr and Mrs Alex McLean and Mrs John McFarlane, Toronto spent the week end with friends here.

ANGUS—In loving memory of John Angus, who passed away Feb. 21st 1932.

DADDY

He has gone across the river, To the shores of evergreen,
How we long to see his dear face,
But the river flows between.
And our aching hearts are calling
To the shadows dark and grey,
For the Dear one who has left us
Just three years ago to-day.

Mrs. John Angus and Janetta.

SWINTON PARK

This February 26th is a very cold morning in the Park. On Monday morning, the 25th, we had the heaviest snowfall of the winter, then it gradually became colder. Yet we have had so much fine weather during February that we can stand a few cold days, to sit around the kitchen stove and scrap mit the wife.

Mr and Mrs. James Sturrock and three boys, we learn, are leaving the Park at beginning of March, going out north of Priceville, where Mr. Sturrock has been employed a long time with Donald Campbell. The best wishes of this community go with them to their new home.

Mr and Mrs Dick Moody and daughter have moved on to the old Jim Knox farm, lot 8, con. 18. We wish for them success in this community.

Mr and Mrs Archie McTaggart entertained their neighbors to a dance on Friday evening last.

Those Parliamentarians, both at Queen's Park and Parliament Hill, are talking their bald heads off, devising ways and means that we may live without work, and most of us receive relief or pensions. All we have to do is to take it out of one pocket and put it in the other, and thank the Government for it.

On Saturday last a hockey match, Egremont vs. Proton, was played in the Black Hawks nest. At end of time it stood 5-5: an extra 10 minutes was played and again a tie resulted, 6-6. Then a broom ball game, married men against single men. The old fellows won, they no doubt having had more practice dodging the broom.

Playing in Flesherston, Monday, Proton Station won the championship of the Grey Semi-Pro Hockey League as they defeated Flesherston 4-1 in the fourth game of the final series. Proton took the first two games of the series without any trouble, dropping the third to Flesherston and then came back with a bang in the second to win the title and the McDougall Trophy, donated by the late J. McDougall who was killed Christmas night in the Dundas train wreck.

Played before a large crowd in the Flesherston arena, the game was one of the fastest and best of the season with the two goal-tenders the outstanding players on the ice.

Proton Station: goal, Blackburn; defence, S. Lyons, Hodgins; centre, R. Acheson; wings, Bannon, White; alternates, Simms, G. Acheson, Lyons and Blackburn.

Flesherston: goal, Ferris; defence, Akitt and McKillop; centre, L. Piper wings, Dargavel and F. Patton; alternates, Smith, Welton and Johnson. Referee: Baechler, Dundalk.

Proton Stn. Wins Grey Semi-Pro League Title

That English, more than any other is the language of the world, is proven by figures showing that English is spoken by 224,995,000 people, French by 62,410,045, Spanish by 80,189,892, German by 78,233,142 and Italian by 41,364,566.

Members of the Chesley town council certainly got a jolt when Clerk Grabb presented the relief report for January, showing a grand expenditure of $1,135,115, which exceeded the previous high for any other month by almost $700. It certainly made the council sit up and take notice and it was regarded in such a serious light that not only was it thoroughly discussed but it was very noticeable that every member of the council closely scrutinized all the accounts. The total was made up of the following items: food $809.70; fuel $130.08; clothing $23.78; $116.50; lodgings $12.; household remedies $5.60; medical services and supplies $164.74—Enterprise.

IN MEMORIAM

McLEAN—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, D. G. McLean, who passed away, Feb. 28 1932.

Time takes away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf.
There is a link death cannot sever,
Love and remembrance last forever.

Ever remembered by Wife and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to tender our sincere thanks to the brethren of Durham Masonic Lodge and other friends in this locality for their kindness and sympathy at the funeral of our beloved husband and father.

IN DAYS OF YORE

15 YEARS AGO

Taken from Review file of Feb. 26/20

Late in beginning, the Durham Presbyterians are making a whirlwind finish. They are now several hundreds of dollars over their $4000 objective for the Forward Movement.

The Garafraxa Road, also the Toronto-Sydenham Road have been designated by the new government as Provincial roads and the Provincial authorities will take over the construction work on these roads and either continue the work under the provincial road building experts or let the work by contract.

The Palmerston-Listowel combination proved too strong for Durham Junior hockeyists last Friday. They won here, 3-1 and at home 3-2, making it 6-3 on the round. It was a heart breaker to lose and the banner crowd of the season was present.

Durham's newly-organized board of Trade has been an active body since it was formed a short time ago and through their efforts a creamery has been secured for the town.

A quiet but pretty wedding was performed at "Elm Grove Farm" the home of Mr and Mrs Samuel Patterson on Wednesday last when their eldest daughter, Rebecca Jane May, became the bride of Mr. Albert G. Keller of Kitchener.

Misses Armetta McKechnie and Esther McLean of Stratford Normal School, visited their homes over the week end.

Miss Marion Calder left Tuesday to visit for a month with the Russell and Findlay families in Toronto.

Mr. Robt. Farquharson of the Globe reportorial staff, Toronto, was a guest of many old town friends on Sunday and received a warm welcome on all hands. Robin has had the responsible position of covering the Provincial bye-election campaign for his paper, and while in East Wellingington, took occasion to run to Durham, his first visit since a lad at the manse.

Pricville corr.: The Forward Movement canvassers in this section belonging to Priceville Presbyterian congregation met with great success the amount asked from Pricville being $1700 and when the collectors were completed, it showed that $2148 was realized for that purpose.

Alex Allan, Earl Matthews and J. McMurdo have had the telephone installed connecting with Holstein exchange.

Yeovil corr.: A number from here attended the unveiling of the memorial tablet for the deceased soldiers at Dromore last Sunday. Clarence Ross assisted in the unveiling.

The home of Mr and Mrs Wm. Ramage, Thistle, North Egremont, was thronged last Friday evening by a congenial company of friends and relatives, who met to spend a few hours with them as testimony of respect and congratulation on having reached the quarter century of married life.

Yeovil corr.: Miss Eva Renton left on Monday for Gravenhurst to take charge of a school.

The directors of the Grey and Bruce Mutual Fire Insurance Co. gave their retiring president, Mr. D. McDougall, an oyster supper at the Queen's Hotel, Hanover, last Saturday evening.

Mayor Laidlaw last week issued a proclamation "under authority of the Dominion Government," warning all owners of dogs to attend to the orders for confinement or muzzling of dogs. Chief Carson last year collected about $140 as dog taxes at $1.00 a dog, and what on earth Durham is doing with so many dogs, it is impossible to say.

Once more they've won the district. The Durhams repeated this season, though they had much stronger opposition to contend with. It was a neck and neck race with three teams in the running till two weeks ago when Walkerton was dropped. Last Wednesday night Chesley came over for the final local game, supplanting the unfinished one of three weeks ago, and in the hardest match of the season, Durham finished ahead by 7 to 4 goals, thereby effacing all of Chesley's chances.

Startlingly sudden came the news to town last Saturday that Mr. Wm. Aljoe, South Glenelg, had been suddenly prostrated and not likely to recover. The painful news was confirmed next day for he died Sunday morning, the immediate cause of death being peritonitis.

Swinton corr.: As Flesherston is a large place, Neil and Robbie got lost, but as Neil is a good walker he managed to get home on Sunday night but Robbie has not been heard till of since.

Hampton corr.: When a young man gets too many Belles on the string there is sure to be trouble shortly. So beware young man.

Mr. Jno. A. Graham has rented and moved into Mr. J. W. McKechnie's residence near the Presbyterian manse.

Mr. James Burt has purchased the MacLean residence in Upper Town and will be moving in in a few days.

It was a grand thing for many people in this district when Durham Furniture Co. purchased the Rockvale mills property from Armstrong Bros. We are informed that upon each fortnightly pay day approximately $6,000,000 is paid out for timber. This has been an undisputed blessing to those who had timber for sale out in the east, more especially as the prices paid are said to be high.—Flesherston Advance.

A very pretty Valentine wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McAnulty, Feb. 16, when their daughter Nellie was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to the man of her choice, Mr. Wm. Prev.

A Walkerton woman on relief put in an S.O.S. call for wood claiming she was right out of fuel. Believing the case urgent, the relief chairman rushed a load to her home, but the teamster was shocked on arrival to see 1 1/2 cords of splendid firewood neatly piled there. "Why the big rush" he enquired, but the lady merely laughed at the discovery of her deception.
