THE ROLL CALL
JOHN H. HUNTER
For over fifty years one of Durham's prominent merchants, John Hill Hunter died early Saturday last after an attack of influenza, in his eighty-second year. For the last 3 years he has been in failing health, but up until a week ago he had improved considerably, and had good hopes of regaining strength.
The deceased has been a lifelong resident of Durham except for a few years when a youth. He was born in upper town, the third son of the late Mr and Mrs William Hunter, his father dying when the family were quite young. The family moved to Bentinck township, north of Vickers, and John attended school there. After completing his schooling, he commenced mercantile life as a clerk in the store of his uncle, the late James H. Hunter, ex-M.P.P. When a young man, over 55 years ago, he started business for himself as a general merchant in lower town. A few years later, his brother James P. was taken into partnership, under the firm name of J. & J. Hunter and this well-known store was one of Durham's leading and most reliable business houses until three years ago, the firm sold out, and gave up business.
The late Mr Hunter was a staunch Liberal in politics and for forty years or more, has been a Vice-President or a member of Executive, of South Grey Liberal Association, holding office until his death. He was a well known campaigner with the late Dr. Landerkin and the late H. Miller, and the last election in which he took an active part was in 1921 in support of the late Walter Hastie.
He took an active interest in various sports, taking a keen enjoyment especially in curling and bowling. He was a member of the all-Canadian bowling team which toured Australia and New Zealand in 1929-1930.
He was a life member of Durham Lodge A.F. & A.M., also a member of Durham Royal Arch Chapter and of the Canadian Order of Foresters. Deceased was unmarried, and leaves as chief mourners, his only surviving brother, James P. and his family: Wm. S. reeve of Durham; Mrs. C. McKinnon, Mrs. D. Pickering, Mrs. H. Cross, Mrs. G. McDonald; also the family of his oldest brother Archibald S., who died 13 years ago; Dr. Arch. Oliver and Miss Margaret Hunter.
For many years he resided at the Hahn House here, and of recent years, at the home of his niece, Mrs. H. Cross, who has given him every care and attention.
On Monday afternoon the funeral was held from the home of his brother James P. Hunter, and the service was conducted by Rev. David Gowdy who took for his subject, "The Worth of a Man." Interment took place in Durham cemetery.
The floral tributes were given by nieces and nephews, Col. F. F. Hunter, Toronto; Oliver and Margaret Hunter; Mrs. Lorne Somerville, Toronto; grand-nieces; grand-nephews; Masonic Lodge; Durham chapter Royal Arch Masons; Canadian Order of Foresters; Durham Furniture Co.; The Liberal Association; The Bowling Club; Judge and Mrs. Widdelst. Toronto; Mr and Mrs G. C. whole narrative is faith in the future of the country and a determination to overcome all obstacles. For nearly twenty years he was a partner of Mr. Angus McKelvie, another northern stalwart, in the lumbering business. From this he turned to mining development in earnest, his first venture being with the Hudson Bay and Temiskaming mine, which sold for $900,000. His next interest was just north of Theswey where a rich silver vein was discovered on the property. Mr. McCamus tells how this vein yielded a million and a half dollars in three years' time and then disappeared completely at the feet. Mr. McCamus is now interested in the Kirkland Hudson Bay property at Kirkland Lake.

for some years with the late Thos. Smith, who valued her services highly. Later she was employed with friends in Guelph and Stratford. The family were all well and favorably known at Rocky Saugeen, where Alexander Ferguson managed the Rocky grist mills for many years. Thirteen years ago Miss Ferguson with her brother John, purchased the former Blackburn home and have since been respected residents of the community. One sister, Helen Margaret, Mrs. George McKeechie, of town also survives.
The burial service was conducted by Rev. David Gowdy, burial taking place to Rocky Saugeen cemetery.
Those who laid the remains to rest in the family plot, were Messrs Roy Lamb, Lauchie McLean, Harold McKechnie, Charles Moffat, Malcolm McCallum, William Crutcheley.

Tied Up Round by 2-1 Via From Clinton
Losing to Clinton there by 5-4 last Wednesday night, Durham's O.H.A. title aspirants remained in the running by defeating Clinton 2-1 here on Friday night, thereby tying up the round 6-6, and necessitating a play-off sudden death game in Galt, Tuesday.
Under ordinary circumstances overtime would have been played here in ten minute sessions, up to half an hour, until one or the other was ahead, but Friday's brand of near-summer weather wrecked havoc with the ice. Covered with slush and water, it made very difficult going, and both teams were completely tuckered out after the three periods without attempting any overtime. Galt is said to have the second largest rink in Canada with artificial ice and being about equal distance from the two towns, it was decided to reach a decision there, rather than take another chance on natural ice at this late season.
With team play next to impossible on the sticky surface, no definite line on the comparative merits of the contestants was obtainable. It was usually a case of lift the puck up the ice, and check, check, check, mainly inside the blue lines. Lines were frequently shifted, but there should have been 3 or 4 forward lines instead of 2 to give the players sufficient relief.
Durham was handicapped by the absence through illness of E. Schutz ace right winger, who was bedfast with tonsillitis. "Fanny" Bolger took his place and turned in a good game. Raybould in both Clinton games has been under the weather fighting an attack of the flu, and has been playing on his nerve. Three hard games all on soft ice in one week, is tough going for the boys, and under the circumstances with goals so difficult to secure on Friday, Durham was fortunate to pull ahead here and avoid elimination.
Again a packed rink saw the contest, 1100 to 1200 being present. Doors were not opened till 7.45 to save ice as much as possible, and the crowd meantime was lined down the sidewalk two abreast, as far as Trinity church rectory. Hundreds came from Clinton, Hanover, Walkerton and other surrounding towns.
Gibbs of Clinton, after 15 min. of play scored the only goal of 1st period on Pickett's pass, and things looked blue for Durham now 2 down on round. A penalty to Gibbs in 2nd frame paved the way for Durham's first goal, Currie at back boards, passing out to Dean in front, whose drive bulged the nets. 3 min. later in a scramble in front of nets, Dean again made the red light flash when he banged in Raybould's pass, and Durham was again strongly in the running with round tied.
Gibbs and Raybould drew the only penalties in first; Gibbs, Waters and McGirr were penalized in second. In last frame Durham was hard pressed at times, thrice being a man short, when Tucker, Wilson and Kies drew rests to 1 for Clinton. However Durham held the fort, and were slightly stronger at the finish.

Clinton Won Play-off And Enter Finals
Well, it's all over. Galt's big artificial ice arena on Tuesday night saw Clinton Colts defeat Durham 3-2 in a strenuously fought contest. After a valiant struggle to reach the top, Durham succumbed to too much hockey on heavy ice, when within sight of the finals, in Int. O. H.A.
It was a hard game to lose. With Durham having the advantage on the night's play, it was Clinton that got the odd goal and they can credit their victory largely to Elliott's stellar goal tending during the last half of the game. Time and again he blocked Durham's drives from all angles, usually flopping on puck after the stop to prevent rebounds. The first period was very even in play, but Clinton scored 2 to 1; in second, each team scored once, with Durham having an edge the last half, the last half of the period was decidedly Durham's, but the locals could do anything but score.
About 2200 fans witnessed the game, 200 of them from Durham and a large delegation from Clinton also. Supporters of Durham team were there from Mt. Forest right down the line, as well as from Toronto Hamilton, Simcoe, St. Marys, Milverton, Elmira and elsewhere. In Galt's spacious rink, with 4500 capacity and seating for 2650, a clear view of the ice is obtainable from any seat.
It was 8.50 before referee Oliver of Galt, called the contest. As in Durham, Clinton first counted when Streets shot from boards across to front of nets. The puck hit Raybould's skate and was deflected past Schutz to give Clinton a soft goal. Kennedy drew the Colts first penalty and Durham tied up the count when Dean forged in on the nets and passed to Raybould who scored. Raybould made another great try right after but couldn't beat Elliott. Currie drew a penalty for slashing, and in his absence, R. McEwan stickhandled in to beat Schutz and put the Colts one up.
The real blow to Durham's hopes came early in 2nd. Gibbs drew a rest for boarding McGirr, and Durham staged a 5 man attack. With everyone up, Pickett broke away and McGirr gave chase. He checked sufficiently to deflect Pickett's shot above the nets, but the latter banged a rebound which Schutz blocked and fell, then in the melee Streets slammed in Clinton's 2nd goal. Durham now down 2 goals, forced the pace, and scored from a scramble, but the goal was disallowed as it was shot from inside crease. Kennedy drew a rest for tripping Raybould and Durham converted Raybould's pass. Durham, the remaining 7 minutes kept the play mainly around Clinton nets, but failed to produce the tying goal.
Kies and Waters drew penalties in last stanza and Durham had about 15 shots to 3 on the nets. The Colt defence was too strong to pierce, however, Rath and Kennedy smashing most frontal attacks while Elliott took care of everything else, frequently holding the puck too long but referee Oliver let him away with it.
For Durham, the Raybould-Elvidge and Dean line was most effective, and McGirr performed Trojan service on defence. All the boys gave their best however, and considering that two, E. Schutz and Raybould were in action just after recuperating in hospital, the team made a bright showing after a surfeit of hockey.
After the first round with Rangers Durham was forced to play three hard series in order to get to the finals—Olympics, Acton and Clinton, —four play-off rounds in all, and it was too much. Clinton has reached the finals after two rounds only, and but one hard opponent — Durham. Whitty reached the finals after three play-off rounds — none of them stern opposition.
Clinton and Whitty now meet in Oshawa on Friday night and in Galt Monday night for the championship, and we fancy Clinton's youthful and speedy aggregation, now that Durham is out, will make it.

C. N. R. CO-OPERATING
Even the railways are co-operating to make Durham's first Old Home Week success. Last week a representative of the Canadian National Railway called on Town Clerk Widdis with a view to coming to understanding rates to Durham for this function in August. Just how far the C.N.R. will go is not yet revealed, but the Company's representative took down the names of all westerners on the invitation list and will, in all likelihood, get in touch with them.

HIGH SCHOOL "LIT" FEATURED BY DEBATE
Durham High School Literary Society presented an open "Lit" in the Town Hall Friday afternoon, which was enjoyed by a capacity audience. The feature was a well-rehearsed debate by four of the students, "Resolved that co-operation has done more for the world than competition." Allan MacLean and Murray Smith presented the affirmative side of the argument while Jean Moffat and Kathleen McFadden upheld the negative. The judges who were Miss J. M. Weir, Rev. J. R. Thompson and Ben Firth, gave the decision to the negative by a close margin. Rev. Mr. Thompson who gave the verdict, highly complimented all the participants and discussed each address in detail, giving many helpful suggestions.
A farce entitled "An embarrassing Moment in History" was a scream, modernizing the famed Napoleon Bonaparte into a present day home scene, as he prepared for battle. R. Radd was "Napoleon," Clara Thompson, "Mrs. Napoleon," Clyde McCallum, a newsboy, Allan MacLean a photographer, and Jack Gagnon his valet.
Five girls in costume: Mary Town Betty Daniels, Betty McIntyre, G. Vollett, Helen Gagnon, danced the Sellers' hornpipe, with Margaret Spurling as accompanist. Ross Wilson gave two fine harmonica solos, and Lorraine MacArthur an oral composition, "Gossip." Opening choruses were rendered by the Glee Club with Ollieda Hahn as accompanist, and Jean Rowe, soloist. Margaret Ries, president of the Literary Society, was in the chair.

DURHAM'S DEATH RATE EXCEEDS BIRTH RATE IN 1935
Since the New Year, the "Review" has not published an issue wherein were not two or more in the death list. While the winter has been less severe than that of 1934, the death rate among the aged class has been heavy, and very few residents in the eighties remain in town. Clerk Widdis has the official records of births and deaths for the town in 1935, which show the death rate exceeding that of births.

ISABELLA FERGUSON
There died at her home on George St., on Saturday morning last, Miss Isabella Ferguson, daughter of the late Alexander and Mrs. Ferguson, of Rocky Saugeen, at the good age of 80 years. Three years ago, she was stricken with a paralytic stroke. She recovered from this sufficient to get around her home, until Sunday last, when she became seriously ill.
Miss Ferguson was one of a family of five, and was born in Guelph in young womanhood she was employed

STALWART MEN OF THE NORTH
The New Liskeard "Speaker" gives space last week to an article appearing in the Canadian Telephone Journal, about Mr. Thomas McCamus, President of the Northern Telephone Co. Mr. McCamus has been one of the builders of Northern Ontario. The dominating theme of the whole narrative is faith in the future of the country and a determination to overcome all obstacles. For nearly twenty years he was a partner of Mr. Angus McKelvie, another northern stalwart, in the lumbering business. From this he turned to mining development in earnest, his first venture being with the Hudson Bay and Temiskaming mine, which sold for $900,000. NOTES
Durham's two star centre men were both injured during the contest. Raybould got a butt end in the stomach which laid him out for several minutes in 1st, while in 3rd, Currie was cut above and below the right eye by a skate during a melee. The optic became swollen, but fortunately was uninjured. The game was held up 5 minutes while his wounds were dressed.
An outsider who motored over 50 miles here and had seen neither team in action before, picked Currie as the best man on the ice.
A slip by either goalie would have meant disaster to his team's advancement, but neither "blew."
The game here was Clinton's first loss in O.H.A., this season. They had lost only one game previously — to Kincardine in W.O.H.A.
