SWINTON PARK

The weather still is cold with disagreeable East wind and frost at nights, which keeps the sap running. A great deal of maple syrup has been made, and still it comes. Those with large number of trees tapped have not slept much for a month.

Quite a number from this locality took in the cheap trip to Toronto at the week end: Among them were Mary and John Wilson, Mrs Neil Mc-Leod and Marjorie, Mrs Neil Clark, Charlie and Jim Haw, Mrs. G. W. Parslow.

Mrs Hugh McMillan is a delegate to the Provincial Presbyterial meet ing this week.

Mrs Wm. Hay has gone to spend day or two with her sister, Mrs Mc-Donald in Toronto, who was so sadly bereaved of her husband 2 weeks ago Mr and Mrs Ewart McLean visited at Mrs McLean's home, Mr. Flood's;

Horse buyers are frequently to be seen, both local and city buyers. Prices are fair. There are still a few fat cattle, waiting for further rise in

We still are thankful for the good health which has prevailed in this locality all winter, but we hear several of the older folk, who are longing for those warm, balmy days, when they can get out in the sun.
