AMUSEMENT TAXATION INCREASED

In need of every cent it can get, the Hepburn Government has by order-in-Council effected a drastic revision of Ontario Amusement Tax Act rates that is expected to bring the treasury an additional $1,500,000 annually.

The former exemption on admission to all places of amusement up to and including 25cents, has also been eliminated, and amusements tax will now apply on all prices charged to places of amusement. Rates of tax, which up to the present have been of 16 different denominations, have been reduced to nine, eliminating the payment by patrons of amusement places of odd coppers in a great many of the price brackets. One and two cent denominations will be in effect to provide for a low amusements tax payable by patrons of the lesser priced places of amusement.

The revised rates, as effective on and from June 1, and announced last evening by Premier and Treasurer Hepburn, are as follows:

Admissions not more than 9 cents 1 cent tax; not more than 18c: 2 cents tax; not more than 45c: 5 cents tax; not more than 85c: 10 cents tax; not more than $1.50: 15 cents tax; not more than $2.00: 25 cents tax; not more than $3.00: 30 cents tax; not more than $3.00: 40 cents tax; more than $3.00: 50c. tax.

With the tax now applying on all prices of admission, all games, shows and rides at Summer parks, traveling carnivals, shows, fairs and exhibitions will be affected, said Mr. Hepburn.

Every person attending a race meeting where running races are held, irrespective of the price of such admission, or whether admitted free, will be required, the Premier stated to pay, as heretofore, an amusements tax of 25 cents.

Entertainments and dinner dances held at hotels, dining rooms and similar places will be required to pay the same rate of tax as theatres and halls, except where the system of charges made to patrons is such that it would be impracticable to have the tax collected in the usual way, when permission may be granted to such places to collect the amusements tax at the rate of ten per centum of the gross charge per person.

With the exception of hotels, as noted in the above paragraph, an amusements tax ticket of the proper denomination must be sold and delivered to each patron of a place of amusement, and it is a violation of the regulations passed pursuant to the act, Mr. Hepburn pointed out to attend a place of amusement to which an admission is charged, without being sold and delivered a proper tax ticket.

Certain exemptions, the Premier said were still provided, as the provisions of the act did not apply to entertainments held by church organizations where the entire gross proceeds were devoted to church work. Exemptions also applied he stated, on admission fees charged at the entrances to the grounds at the annual exhibitions held by the Canadian National Exhibition Association, the Central Canada Exhibition Association, the Western Fair Association, the Royal Winter Fair, and to annual fairs held by any society under the Agricultural Societies Act.

As we have already indicated through these columns the Department of Education, Toronto, is conducting a series of broadcasts in various school subjects, and pupils and teachers who have facilities for doing so are invited to listen in. Thus far three of the broadcasts have been given and all are reported as very distinct and of a high educational value.

The others, yet to come, are as follows: Thursday, May 9th, a lesson in History to a Senior Class. This will be conducted by Mr. W. K. F. Kendrick, B.A., of Toronto Normal School staff.

Tuesday, May 14th, a lesson in Literature to a Junior Class, Thursday, May 16th, a lesson in Literature to a Senior Class. These will be given by Mr. Thornton Mustard, M. A., also a master in the Toronto Normal School.

Tuesday, May 21st, a lesson in Geography to a Junior Class, and on Tuesday, May 23rd, a lesson in Geography to a Senior Class. These will be conducted by Inspector H. E. Cavell, of the Toronto Schools.

Each lesson will be preceded by a two minute talk on the aims and content of each lesson.

All the broadcasts will come over station C.R.C.T., Toronto, and will be held from 2.00 till 2.30 Eastern Standard time.

Drive with your head, not with your horn.

Judging by some of the spring hats we've seen, the women have cut down still more on their overheads.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE

The recent recipients of the King's Jubilee medal throughout Ontario have given pleasure to the many honored, as well as to their friends. Perhaps we are safe in saying however there is no recipient of this medal in Ontario, more worthy than Miss Fettes, Durham's only citizen thus honored.

Thirteen years in November next, she came to Durham hospital, to take over the duties of matron. These thirteen years have been years of achievement, as any citizen can testify. But few know at what labor and thought this achievement was accomplished. In the first place she was not afraid of work, and when the hospital was less firmly established than now, many hours overtime were worked every day. It was no eight hour day either. As well as her capabilities in the work-line, she carried splendid executive ability—a very necessary adjunct in an institution such as a hospital.

The Hospital Board to-day are grateful that steps were taken which led to the securing of Miss Fettes as matron. Her parents were the best of Egremont's pioneer stock William Fettes and Mary McPhail, (a relative by-the-way, of South Grey's member.) Here the honored daughter (one of several) secured her schooling in part from Alexander Gillespie at S.S. No. 11, and her religious affiliations at that time were with Fairbairn Presbyterian church. Her desire to enter the nursing profession was very real and she entered Sarnia General Hospital as a pupil. After graduation she spent some years in the nursing service in Sarnia, eventually coming to her home township, where she was doing good work, when she was sought for Durham Hospital. Thus she is a pure Grey County product.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moffat, Pinkerton, Ont. are going to be with us and so are Mrs. Margaret St. Thomas of Detroit; Chas. Burt, Elora; Alex. Kearney of Whitby; and Brock Grant and family of Welland.

"Count on me" says R. E. Laidlaw of Toronto, "for I sure will be there." Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stinson are coming if at all possible, and want to meet Sam Lawrence and Doug. McKinnon, Port Arthur; Chesney Davidson, Eldersley, Sask.; Jas Stinson, Edmonton, and Keith Newton, San Antonio, Texas.

W. J. Swinburne, St. Marys is coming. The old town still looks good to him.

W. J. Findlay of Toronto is coming and wants to meet all old friends S. M. Wilson, Lake Park, Iowa, writes he will be here and sends a list of names.

"I want to meet everybody when I come" writes Percy E. Lueck of Sundridge, Ont. Well, it looks like if everybody is going to be here Percy, so you should have your wish.

A. H. Devitt, Kitchener, is coming and so is somebody from Toronto who forgot to sign their name but who wants to meet Jack Muir, Peter Muir, and Mrs. Campbell of Ceylon, and Walter Muir and Geo. Carter of Corbetton, Ont.

From faraway North Dakota Mrs. J. A. McDonald writes to say "thanks for invitation: I am coming."

Ernest J. McGill, Niagara Falls, wants to meet all of the old Form III year 1910-11, when he comes.

Mrs. Thos. Watson, Galt, wants to meet Mrs. Dr. Coult's (nee Jean Ireland) Freeport, Ont; and Mrs. Dr. Beaven, Galt. We have sent their invitations, Mrs. Watson, and no doubt they will be here.

"Would like to meet all our good Durham friends some time between Aug. 3 and 7" writes S. F. and Mrs. Robins of Lindsay.

"Old Timer" got quite a thrill when he chanced to run across the following from Rod McFarlane, one of his boyhood friends. Rod says in part: "I will be there and want to see you all, both young and old. I have never forgotten any of you, or the old town. Thanks for the invitation: it makes me feel as if you haven't forgotten me." Just as if we could ever forget you, old pal! I'll bet you will have the time of your life meeting old friends and recalling old times and visiting old haunts. You won't have a dull moment from the time your feet first hit the sidewalks of the old town, until the sound of the last street dance dies away. We'll be seeing ya, Rod!

"Adopt a Child" Week.

By The Watchman

Toronto, May 8.—When the Dionne Quintuplets celebrate the first anniversary of their birth on May 28, the Ontario Department of Welfare will seek to focus attention on children much less fortunate than the famous babies of Callander, the children who have to spend their childhood in Ontario's Children's Shelters.

Hon. David Croll, Minister of Public Welfare is not forgetful of these children and the week in which falls May 28th will be known as "Adopt a Child Week." In the midst of the celebration which will mark the first birthday of the quintuplets, Mr. Croll will urge childless couples and those whose children have grown up, to adopt a child.

There are nearly 1,000 children in the province who lack the love of a father and mother. While they are given excellent treatment in the institutions, they are not living normal, natural lives, and it is the wish of the Minister of Welfare that they be given an opportunity to develop mentally and physically in the proper environment. "Adopt a Child Week" is a unique experiment and it is hoped the results will be gratifying.

"What these children need are mothers and fathers," said Mr. Croll in discussing the problem. "There are plenty of childless couples who could supply this need. The birth of the Dionne Quintuplets brought world-wide attention on these babies who are growing into healthy, beautiful children. That interest is greater than ever today, but we must not forget the children whose pictures have never appeared in the newspapers, whose everyday life is not recorded minutely in the press. Those children should be given a chance. Let us try to take those children out of the shelters and make them sons and daughters instead of wards of the Government."

Plans for the birthday party of the quintuplets are approaching completion. A radio broadcast throughout Canada in which the babies themselves will take part, has been arranged. In the opinion of Mr. Croll no better time could be found to interest the public in the homeless children than when the five babies of Northern Ontario are recording the first anniversary of their extraordinary birth.

Henry Ford and his wife celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary and rated 12 lines in a Border paper. Rumors of a divorce between the John Barrymores took considerably more space. That's the way people look at these things—you can not altogether blame the newspaper.—Northern News.

OLD HOME WEEK JOTTINGS
BY OLD-TIMER

On May 6th our beloved sovereign King George V.—God bless him—celebrated the 25th year of his reign. Throughout this Jubilee year the thoughts of all loyal British citizens everywhere will constantly turn to that little light isle across the sea which we call our Motherland, and everywhere throughout our wide Empire the prayer of all will be "God save the King."

In like manner the old boys and girls of Durham are thinking of their old home town this year as they never thought before. This is manifest by the number of replies which Secy Willis has received. From far and near they come, and here are a few: Wm. Black of R.R. 6, St. Marys, writes to say "Count on me."

From far off Sask., Mrs H. C. Hansen writes: "Make room for seven: we are taking a carload, our minister and wife and son and four of us. Thanks for your invitation."

Bill Lavelle writes "I am coming." Bring your lacrosse stick, Bill. Old Timer would go a long way to see you and your old teammates, Alie McIntyre, Mack Saunders, Doug Munro, Pete Matheson, Mulvey Cowan, and the rest, show them how it used to be done.

MULOCK

Over 75 friends and neighbors were most hospitably entertained last Wednesday night at home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. MacDonald at a reception in honor of their son John and his bride who were married Saturday, April 27th in the Baptist church Durham. During the evening short addresses were given by Messrs D. J. McDonald, who acted as chairman, Dan MacLean, Jas. McDougall, A. C. MacDonald, Alex. McDonald, Rev. J. T. Priest and Pastor Homer. Piano solos by Miss Jean Priest and Miss Florence McDonald; readings by Catherine MacLean, Hugh McLean and Mrs. Edgar Boyce; monologue by Mrs. J. T. Priest, Lolita Mighton and Alma Anderson; duets by Nancy and Thompson Boyd, and Florence MacDonald. John and his bride expressed their appreciation for the many kind words spoken and beautiful gifts. The evening was happily spent by all. At the conclusion the hostess served a delicious luncheon.

A number of our young people attended the devotional meeting held at the parsonage on Tuesday night, April 30, in charge of Hugh McLean. After hymn and prayer by Mr. Homer, the scripture from Acts 16: 25, was read by Erma Mighton. Minutes were read by Gordon McLean and adopted. A poem "regret", was read by John McLean, followed by a bible contest; a reading "unquestionable obedience" by Florence McLean; a poem "Homeward", by Mrs. Homer. Mr. Homer gave some bible questions and the Lord's Prayer in unison closed the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lamb, Aberdeen spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Torry. Pleased that Mr. Thos. Torry, who has been under the doctor's care, is some better.

The Baptist church here was filled on Sunday morning when Mr. F. Norman Barrington, baritone soloist of Toronto and Mr. Roy Pitts of Hamilton, came to sing and play. Mr. Barrington has a remarkable voice, and is one of the few men who use it in God's service. He was suffering from a bad cold but even with this handicap, brought messages in song that it did not surprise us to see a great number present. At an evening service of music and song, Mr. Barrington gave a talk on hymns and his writers. With his knowledge of hymns and his ability to sing them, a helpful and enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. Barrington is known in many places in Ontario, New Brunswick and U.S.A. Mr. Pitts has marked ability as a musician. He plays the xylophone piano, accordion, flute and piano. Some one said that his playing was wonderful. This is a modest means of description. He has written words and music to a number of choruses which he taught us. His messages in music and testimony will long be remembered and we wait patiently for a return visit from these two men. Mr. Stephens, a deacon of Temple Baptist Church in Toronto, also sang at the evening service, his solo being "He is not a disappointment."

Mrs. Wm. Fulton received the sad news Monday morning of the death of her niece, Miss Willa Patterson, of Markdale.

HAMPDEN

The little more winter last week had a chilly feeling but the grass seems to have taken on a much more green appearance and nothing seems to have suffered from the effects.

Sunday School began with the first Sunday in May.

The W.M.S. held their monthly meeting last Thursday and the usual number of ladies attended.

Monday being Jubilee Day there was no mail service. No doubt we are a day late with our budget.

Miss Evelyn Henderson is in Durham this week.

Miss Marjory Keonig has been assisting Mrs. Thos. Ritchie, near Durham, Saturday afternoon, April 27th at 4 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. A. N. Cooper, officiating. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony the bridal party left by motor for the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Garner, at Walkerton, where a sumptuous wedding luncheon was served, and where an enjoyable evening was spent. Later they returned to Hanover, where Mr. and Mrs. Ball will reside, the groom being manager of the Ball Furniture Manufacturing Co. of Hanover. The bride, who was formerly ledger-keeper in the old Merchants Bank, Walkerton, has for the past 7 years been making her home with her parents in Walkerton. She has been active in church and community work here, being treasurer of St. Paul's United Church S. S. for the past four years, and secretary of the W.I. for several years. Their many friends will wish Mr. and Mrs. Ball a long and happy matrimonial career. — Walkerton Times.

VICKERS

May is here and still the weather keeps cool with snow last week end.

Mother's Day is drawing near, and if you have a grey-haired mother, in the old home far away. Sit you down and write the letter. You put off from day to day. Don't wait until her weary steps Reach Heaven's pearly gate; But show her that you think of her, Before it is too late.

The U.F.W.O. met Friday afternoon at home of Mrs. B. Coult's, with the president, Mrs. McCulloch in the chair. Roll call was answered by a 'mother' verse to which every member fittingly responded; minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. An invitation was accepted from Mrs. James Turnbull, Durham, to spend an evening in her home on 17th. A short program followed, consisting of community singing and a reading by Mrs. George Reay. Miss Agnes Macphail was then called upon, and some very interesting discussions on farm problems were given. She gave an excellent talk on Mother's Day, which was enjoyed very much. Then a talk on her trip down south, followed, which was so clearly delivered, we imagined we were down in Louisiana ourselves and as she talked on her trip, about the strawberries, it made our mouths water. Some very amusing stories were listened to of Senator Huey P. Long, with his effective tone of voice. The club certainly appreciated Miss Macphail's talk and only wish she could be with us more at our meetings. A hearty vote of thanks was given our honorable member and then the crowd retired to the dining room where forty in all sat down to a well laden table prepared by the ladies. Prizes of a pound of tea and a pound of coffee were given by Miss Macphail, Mrs. Geo. Alexander drawing the lucky ticket for the tea and Miss Jean Reay for the coffee. The birthday cake was sold at five cents a piece, which realized the sum of $2.05. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Mighton on June 7th. The roll call will be answered by exchange of flower slips. Mrs. Geo. Reay and Mrs. Joe Porter will provide cake. Mrs. G. Mighton Jr. acted as organist and also provided music on the violin.
