OLD HOME WEEK JOTTINGS

BY OLD-TIMER

Old Timer had an opportunity of having a look over the historical booklet of early Durham that Mack Saunders and his committee are getting into shape. This book is now in the printer's hands and will soon be offered for sale, and when it is, "it will sell like hot cakes", to use the words of one who looked it over. The edition is going to be limited, and in order to give those out of town an opportunity to procure their share, they should send in their orders right away. The booklet is being offered for 25c and 5c extra for postage and mailing.

Take a tip from Old Timer, you out-of-town Old Boys and Girls, and send in your thirty cents for each copy wanted and the committee will see you get yours, if somebody else has to go short. Only act now, before they are offered locally, or your opportunity may be gone. Send in your remittance to B. H. Willis, the Secretary, and get your copies.

Mentioning the secretary's name reminds me that he has already sent out over 2700 invitations. Have you sent your list of old timers you want to meet next August? If you have not, send them in. And how the replies are coming back! Here are some of them:

M. J. and Mrs McLean of McMahon Sask., write: "We must acknowledge and thank you for your kind invitation to Old Home Week in Durham. One is reminded of the lines, "Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who never to himself hath said, 'This is my own, my native land' etc. In notes of Old Home Week we need one enquiring for pupils of old No. 10, Bentinck. We too, would like to renew old times with them, also No. 6, Bentinck. With the optimism of this 'next year country', you can't keep us from anticipating. Hoping no one will send in the name of 'old man depression'." Glad to hear from you, Mr and Mrs McLean, and we are already anticipating the happy times you will have renewing old acquaintances and talking over old times. As for old man Depression, Chief Scott has orders to lock him up if he shows his face at our old time gathering."

Mr and Mrs Louis Schildroth, of Cheesley, want to meet Mrs. Angus McKinnon, Lillie Walker, Reta McComb, Addie Collinson, and Cassie Wilkie when they come.

Mrs C. H. Young, Owen Sound, is coming, and wants to meet James McLarty, Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. Jos. Hendry, Vancouver; Mrs. Harry Davis, Zenith, Washington State; Norman Jennings, Toronto. These invitations have gone forward. Mrs. Young, and we hope they will all be present.

Mrs Albert Read, Shaw St., Toronto, wants to see invitations sent to Mrs H. Copeland and Mrs T. Urrhart of Toronto.

Mrs. Margaret Hood, Washington, Kansas, says: "I'll be there."

Mrs R. Ferguson, R. R. 1, Ferguson, says she is coming.

Mrs Mary Vollet, Toronto, says she wants to meet everybody when she comes.

Mrs Roseanna Wall, Kitchener, is coming sure, and wants to meet Mrs M. Murdoch and Elizabeth, of Avon, and Mrs Orloff Eddy and Mrs Sidney Carey, Toronto when she comes.

Miss Greta Nichol of London, Ont., says: "Count on me, I'll be there," and asks that an invitation be sent to Mr and Mrs W. A. Leggett, and family, Buffalo, N. Y. This communication from Miss Nichol was of especial interest, as it enclosed a cheque for three dollars to help the Committee meet expenses of this big gathering. The Committee appreciate this very much. Miss Nichol, and are sending you a membership ticket in the Old Boys' and Girls' Association, and will see that you get one of the first history books printed.

Archie A. Duffield, Paradise Hill, Sask., writes he is coming and wants an invitation sent to Wm. Seth, at Stettler, Alberta.

A. J. McMillan, Sarnia, Ontario, wants to meet "my old school teachers, Alex. Firth", also Thos. and May Arnett, J. Davis of Sarnia, and W. Davis of Toronto.

LIVE STOCK MARKET REPT

BY DUNN & LEVACK, Toronto

The cattle trade has been slow under a liberal run of almost 4000 cattle for Monday's market, there being only a little over half of the offerings sold at the close of the day. On Tuesday, with another 1000 fresh arrivals, the trade continued much the same as on Monday, and a fair clearance was made at prices from quarter to half lower. Similar conditions are experienced on American markets, thus having a definite influence on the local market.

Choice heavy steers sold at from 7 to 7 1/2, fair to good from 6 1/2 to 6 3/4, common and medium from 5 1/2 to 6 cents. In the butcher sections, some preference was shown for choice light heifers, choice kind sold at from 6 1/2 to 6 3/4; fair to good 5 1/2 to 6 cents, common and medium 4 1/2 to 5 1/4. Baby heaves were in good demand, choice from 7 to 7 1/2; fair to good from 5 1/2 to 6 1/4. There was a good enquiry for grass cattle at steady prices. The cow market was inclined to weaken following last week's active market. Best cows made from 4 1/2 to 4 3/4; fair to good from 3 1/2 to 4 cents, common and medium from 2 1/2 to 3 1/4; canners & cutters 1 1/2 to 2 1/4. The bull trade was active and strong, choice light butcher bulls making from 4 to 4.65 choice heavies 4 to 4 1/4; bolognas 3 1/2 to 3 3/4.

Further advances have been secured in lamb prices, choice feed-lot lambs being in strong demand at 8 1/2 cents a half higher than last week's close. Local spring lambs made from 86 to 87 each. The sheep trade was steady at from 3 to 4 cents.

The calf market opened active and strong, choice veal selling at from 7 to 7 1/2, fair to good 6 to 6 1/2; medium 5 to 5 1/2; common 4 to 5c. The activity of American buyers for calves was of considerable help to the trade.

Hogs opened lower on Monday, but recovered somewhat today, Tuesday, sales being made 8.50 to 8.65 f.o.b. and off trucks at 9 cts. The general feeling is that hog prices will hold on a steady level.

NORTH EGREMONT

Your scribe tried for one of those big prizes in the Toronto Daily Star Proverb contest, and had only 24 correct; same old luck. The only money we get is by the sweat of our brow, and more sweat than money, we think. We had a talk with a lady who was also in the contest, and she said she was glad it was over. Had it lasted much longer, she would have went bugs over it.

Reeve Hunter made a business trip to Owen Sound the first of the week.

Mrs Vic Noble of Durham visited at Mr. David McKelvie's, the first of the week.

This community was very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Lorne G. Ries. He taught at S.S. No. 13, for two years, was always kind to the scholars and had a treat for them often. We extend sympathy from S. S. No. 13, to all the bereaved.

REV. DOUGLAS KENDALL GOING TO BOND HEAD

Rev. Douglas Kendall, M.A., B.D., who has charge of the United Mission at Hillside and who announced his retirement some time ago, has accepted a unanimous call to the Bondhead United Church. Bondhead is located about 35 miles north of Toronto on the new Toronto-Allandale highway. It is reckoned to be one of the best rural charges in Ontario. Rev. Mr and Mrs. Kendall will leave for their new charge late in June. Their going will be regretted, not only by the missions at Hillside, Dwight and Portage which they have served so faithfully, but by many warm personal friends in and about Huntsville, where they have enjoyed well-deserved popularity. Rev. Mr. Kendall is a member of the Huntsville Rotary Club and has taken an active interest in the work of this organization. His necessitated withdrawal will leave many regrets among his fellow Rotarians.—Huntsville Forester.

NEW GOV'T TAX

Hard on Sporting Events

MANY TOWNS ARE WORKED UP OVER INCREASED LEVY

That the new Provincial Amusement Tax, which comes into effect on June 1st and which applies to all admissions, however small, that may be charged for baseball and other outdoor games, as well as to theatres, movies, dances and numerous other forms of amusements, will have the effect of killing off sport in Walkerton was the startling announcement that Lawyer Chas. M. McNab, municipal clerk and treasurer in Walkerton, made to the Town Council last Monday night after he had perused the new measure and learned the broad coverage and drastic provisions it contained.

Where heretofore no tax had been levied on admissions of 25c and under and which consequently exempted baseball and other sports which levied prices that would escape the impost, they will by the provisions of the new ordinance, require to pay tax if they pass the hat at any game or proceed to make a charge of even a nominal sum to help out in the financing. Even on complimentary tickets, tax must be collected and if a person walked into the grounds to see a game 2 minutes before the close of the performance and the management failed to collect admission and enforce the tax, the official of the municipality responsible for the supervision and collecting of this impost would, according to Mr. McNab, be liable to a $500 fine for such a delinquency upon conviction.

IN MEMORIAM

DINGWALL—In loving memory of my dear sister, Pearl Elena Dingwall, who passed away, May 25th, 1934.

Sadly missed by sister Edith.

DRUNKEN DRIVERS RECEIVE NO MERCY!

THE man who takes a drink when he knows he is going to drive a car is deliberately asking for trouble.

It is time for strict discipline on this... on mad speed... on all forms of road selfishness that lead to accidents.

Persons convicted of being intoxicated while in charge of a motor vehicle will receive no mercy. It is better to drive carefully than to lose your driver's license... perhaps permanently... in addition to receiving a severe court sentence.

IT IS BETTER TO BE SAFE... THAN SORRY!

LILAC

By Molly Bevan
The Blue Bell
Poetess

Of all the lovely gifts the Spring bestows
I think that lilac is the loveliest;
In garden path and rugged hedge it grows,
Its fragrant clouds of gold and sunlight
Lifting an incense indistinguishable
To the clear senses of May's sunny days,
Which, as they wane to sunset colored,
Linger in the light of evening days.
White blossomed lilac's youth's optimism;
With purple plumage a prince's plumes
Regal, yet covers with all simplicity,
The very essence of the gossamer bloom.
So much for earth's beauty—all in vain
I strive to tell of lilac in the rain!
