We were pleased to meet at church Wm. Leith and family of North Egremont, also George Leith of Guelph who is enjoying his 81st summer in good health and spirits. We talked over old times. He recalled a day in winter when he drove a yoke of steers to Durham fair, and asked forty dollars for them, but could not sell them. His father was along and traded them for a two-year-old colt. put the bag on colt's back and started him for home. He did not ride far until he was nearly frozen. He had to get off and lead the colt. He got hungry by the way, called in at Wm. Wilder's and asked for a lunch.
