C. RAMAGE & SON, Editors and Proprietors TEACHERS AND SCHOOLS The anxieties and fears re securing a school for the coming year and the satisfaction and contentment over the fact that a contract has been secured with some school trustees, makes up an important part of a rural teacher's existence these days. The annual exchange in securing a competent teacher for the coming term is on, and those who are booked up, can enjoy their vacation ahead of time. The salary standard has been set by the Education Department at $500.00, which is no princely fee for the years that are spent in qualifying for a "school mistress". Many teachers find the teaching profession today offer little attraction for expansion, and are taking to nursing, a business course, or some other work to satisfy their ambition. On the other hand, the Government feels that perfectly good money spent for educational grants is wasted in many parts of Ontario. A news item tells of a school near Gananoque with one teacher and one pupil. It is not an isolated case. In 1933 there were six one-pupil schools in the province and forty-seven had three pupils or less. This condition of affairs makes educational costs in Ontario high and the government cannot be blamed if grants are closed in these isolated cases.

Miss M. L. Burgess' daughter of late School Inspector H. H. Burgess, of North Grey, has been appointed Juvenile Court Judge of Saskatchewan, by the Saskatchewan Gov't. Miss Burgess was the first woman admitted to the bar in that province, practising her profession in Regina for some years.

The two Conservative governments of Canada are going to the polls before the Dominion election: New Brunswick, on June 27 and Prince Edward Island on July 23. The Liberal government in Quebec and the Farmer government in Alberta will also take the plunge this summer. Canada will thus have four provincial and one federal contest in the next few months.

A motorist providing he keeps to his right side of the road and observes the speed limit is not liable for damage ensuing should he suddenly crash into a herd of cattle. There is no province in Canada or State in the United States that possesses such a modern and practicable system. There is less reason for a so-called hunger march today than there was at any time since the beginning of the depression. It speaks much for the unfortunate classes of the community that they have given valuable time to listen to the "demands" of these men who have styled themselves hunger marchers. No effort has been spared to lighten the burdens of those who can no longer fend for themselves. Hon. David Croll, Welfare Minister, has introduced the human element into relief administration. He has devoted his energy to saving the morale of those forced to accept government aid, and leaders in welfare work have hailed the results.

A TORY M.P.'S OPINION OF MISS A. MACPAIL

In a letter to the Toronto Globe, George Spotton, Conservative Federal member for North Huron, gives his frank opinion and pays a distinct compliment to the South-East Grey lady representative. To quote Mr. Spotton:—"Trusting you will give this as much prominence as you did your editorial, and thanking you for doing me the honor of coupling my name with the honorable lady member for Southeast Grey, who is one of nature's noblemen, and who has never been actuated with a desire to save or make money, but whose only desire has been to disseminate information which she deems is calculated to uplift the condition of agriculturists and laborers in this country." There is no doubt that hundreds of Conservatives in this riding will endorse this viewpoint and will vote for Miss Macpail in the next election as they have in the past. Miss Macpail is truly a national figure and the recent revelations of Kingston penitentiary conditions has gained her profound esteem for the lady member in all circles.

Hunger Marchers Have Little Excuse

BY THE WATCHMAN

Toronto, June 26: If some stranger who knew nothing of local events were to read in the press about the "hunger marchers" he would immediately conjure up a vision of gaunt, emaciated men, the look of semi-starvation in their faces, marching resolutely to seek redress at the hands of the government. This would be the kind of picture painted in the mind of one who did not know the real facts.

But the hunger marchers are not hungry, because there are none in Ontario who can truthfully claim to be without sufficient food. No one is likely to extol the benefits of being in relief as being the acme of comfort but at the same time it must not be forgotten that governments in Canada are spending millions in looking after the physical well-being of unfortunate men, women and children.

The operation of the relief system in Ontario today stands out as one of the most efficient and smooth-running pieces of government machinery in the whole continent. There is no province in Canada or State in the United States that possesses such a modern and practicable system. There is less reason for a so-called hunger march today than there was at any time since the beginning of the depression. It speaks much for the unfortunate classes of the community that they have given valuable time to listen to the "demands" of these men who have styled themselves hunger marchers. No effort has been spared to lighten the burdens of those who can no longer fend for themselves. Hon. David Croll, Welfare Minister, has introduced the human element into relief administration. He has devoted his energy to saving the morale of those forced to accept government aid, and leaders in welfare work have hailed the results.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: I saw by the Review where a Mr. Robertson of New York was visiting Durham after some 70 years absence. I don't suppose there are many, or any, who he can remember. I for one, can remember them, and his falling through a hole in the bridge on Durham road gully. I can remember, as my brother, the late Dr. Black was with him when up. Nell and Neil Wells picking him up. Nell Wells drove the stage from Owen Sound to Durham; Ben Male, from Durham to Mt. Forest; Billy Taylor, to Walkerton; Sandy Livingston to Flesherston and Ben Warner.

Mr. Robertson's Brewery was succeeded by a Law Office, Mr. McDonald, who was married to a Miss Davidson, a sister of Mr. Arch. Davidson. Duncan and Archie were sons of Lawyer Davidson, as he was called. He was quite a political speaker on the Liberal side. Charlie McKinnon was the next to occupy this place. I am now in Sarnia with my daughter Jessie for the meantime at 286 Durand St., Sarnia. J. A. Black.

A TRIBUTE TO THE LATE MRS. NICHOLAS MELOSH

How sweet her name will always sound To memory's listening ear. While roaming o'er familiar ground I fancy she is near. Her ever welcome smile I see Just as when first we met. The kindness she has shown to me I never will forget; The open door was standing wide And welcome met you there, And cheerfulness was just inside To hide from you her care; She never was too tired herself To help another's need, She was the kind of loving friend Who is a friend indeed. When others suffered grief and pain With hearts surcharged with fright, She would be there, though cold the rain, To help them through the night. Always watching, standing near Though tired she might be, With her kindly words of cheer, To comfort you and me. We all her praises do proclaim, And speak of her with pride, Kind neighbor, loving friend was she Until the day she died. 'Tis here I play my humble part, The best that I can do, She ever dwells within my heart, I'll hold her memory true. —Phoebe Hendry

THE FIRESIDE PHILOSOPHER

Those who say a lot don't always know a lot. Before taking offense, be sure that it was intended. A nation's true wealth lies in the character of its citizens. One needs a lot of strength to overcome his own weakness. Crime, the result of mental disorder, is rarely cured in prison. Man is about the only animal that tickles its palate with seasoned food.

WELBECK

The union picnic of the four S.S. of Latona, Welbeck, Dornoch and No. 4, Holland and Sullivan, held under auspices of the Dornoch W.I. on O'Mara's grove on Friday, was a happy occasion, the weather man smiling his approval on all, which added much to general enjoyment.

QUEEN ST. UNITED W. M. S.

The Senior Auxiliary of Queen St. W.M.S. gathered in the home of Mrs. Arthur McClocklin for their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, June 19th. Mrs. McClocklin presided for the opening exercises, and used the call to worship. Mrs. Ylira led in prayer. Minutes of previous meeting were given by sec'y, Mrs. Glass and treasurer's report by Mrs. Winter. Roll call was answered by a text on "Faith". Mrs. Ylira read the scripture lesson, par. 1 of the "Sermon on the Mount". Mrs. McClocklin read the devotional leaflet, "Gracious friends," which taught that Jesus would have us cultivate the beautiful, gentle and practical characteristics which were a part of His charm, so as to adorn the doctrine of God and our Saviour. Mrs. Ylira then introduced the 9th chapter of the "study book," "Builders of the Indian Church," and was assisted in discussion by Mrs. Glass, Mrs. Prue, Mrs. Winter and Miss Cousins, bringing out the facts, that in India for 1500 years; that it numbers six million in India and Burma; that it has more than doubled in numbers in the last thirty years; that the Christian community is growing faster than any other in India; that the Christians are considering their relation to national life; that the Christian churches have been making considerable progress in becoming independent but are comparatively poor, so cannot yet take over the work of the missions lacking workers and money, but still need the help both respects, but still need the help of the wisdom of the West, when they come as a friend to show the spirit of Christ. The church in India is looking toward and working for church union.

ROCKY SAUGEEN LADIES' AID

The Ladies' Aid of Burns' Presbyterian Church, Rocky Saugeen, met at the home of Miss McCracken on Tuesday, June 25th, with a splendid attendance. The scripture reading was given by Mrs. Malcolm McKeckel from psalm 119. Mrs. Vesale then led in prayer. The roll call was responded to in the form of a question box. Splendid papers were given by Mrs. Ewen on "Nothing good is ever lost" and by Miss C. Fletcher on "The ripening of character." Miss Glenna Lawrence gave a fine reading entitled "The heathen Sunday School." Miss McCracken and assistants served refreshments and a social meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Allan Boyd on July 24th.

ABERDEEN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Aberdeen branch of the Women's Institute were entertained at the home of Miss C. Fletcher Thursday afternoon, June 20. There were 16 members and 4 visitors present. The president opened the meeting with singing the ode, and Miss A. Smith read the scripture, psalm 77. Roll call was answered by helpful hints, many good suggestions being given. The treasurer and Sunshine com. gave their reports. A letter of appreciation was read from the secretary of No. 10 school board, Mr. Hugh McCormick, for the supplies for the First Aid kit in the school, also a letter from Miss McQuarrie and pupils of No. 6, Mulock school, for First Aid supplies. In memory of a highly respected departed resident of this community, Mrs. John D. Clark, the president asked all to rise and sing "Shall we gather at the river?" It was decided at this meeting that a "layette" be furnished for our local hospital. Miss C. McLean offered to take the scripture for the July meeting. Miss C. Fletcher then gave a splendid report of the District annual held in Hanover. Miss J. McDonald gave a demonstration on "packing a picnic lunch." When finished we were all wishing we could go with Jennie for a picnic. The National Anthem closed another helpful meeting. Misses Fletcher and assistants served a dainty lunch and a social half hour was spent. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss C. McLean on Thursday, July 18th.

VICKERS

Mr. H. W. Hunt had a number of men raising a new piece to his barn on Thursday of last week. Mr. Wm. McCulloch is remodeling his house. It looks as though the depression is over.

WELBECK

An excellent time was spent at the home of Mr and Mrs George Alexander on Friday evening last when the U.F.V.O. and their families gathered to shower, Mr and Mrs Wilfred Alexander, who were recently married. At an appropriate time two prettily decorated baskets were carried in by Marjorie Brown and Ada Reay, and many beautiful gifts were unwrapped by Miss Lenore Reay and Miss Christine McCulloch. An address from the club was read by Mr. John Coutts and presentation of a cheque made by Mr. Gordon Brown. The bride and groom fittingly responded and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in amusement to suit all present.

ROCKY SAUGEEN

Remember the garden party which is to be held on the church grounds here on Thursday evening of this week. Ball game, program and supper, all for 25c. Mr and Mrs Clarence Noble and family spent Sunday in Collingwood with her sister and family. Mrs. Neil Livingstone, Markdale, called on her sister Mrs. L. McLean while enroute to see her brother Mr. Duncan McQuarrie who is not enjoying good health at present.

HAMPDEN

The recent rains have given the root crop a good start, also the weeds. Nevertheless it was much appreciated as everything was benefited by the moisture. Mr. George Ball lost some six sheep killed by lightning during the heavy thunder storm of a week ago. Mr. Clayton Brigham and Co. have the contract of resheathing the church and the tap, tapping of the different hammers can be heard a distance. Mr and Mrs John Boddy and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boddy and daughter Jean, also Miss Isobel Wilton were recent visitors at Bonnie View farm with the Byers family. Miss Mae Fulton is assisting Mrs. Sam Patterson, Durham. Miss Audrey Byers who has been visiting with relatives at Blair and Ayr, returned home early in the week. A miscellaneous shower was given by Mr. Harold Breutigam and bride on Friday evening last at their new home, the Archibald farm of former years, by the community and a pleasant time was spent. Mrs. Noah Metzger was in Kitchener last Saturday. This week is the ending of the school term and the pupils will be trying their exams. We believe there are four pupils writing on the Entrance examinations from No. 8. Mr and Mrs Andrew Marshall and daughter Wilma are in Toronto over the weekend. Mr and Mrs Walter Little and Mr and Mrs Wm. Little of Blair, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Byers. The gravel trucks have been very busy the past week operating in Albert Kraft's pit. If you have something you are not using, why not sell it? A small ad let in the Review may find a buyer.
