The Presbyterians of this part held anniversary services on Sunday last July 7th, at which a large concourse of people turned out to hear Rev. R. G. Stewart, pastor here four years ago, now of Merriton and St. David's.

The congregations were swelled by United Church members, whose services were cancelled for the day, and others. The minister and his estimable wife met with a warm, friendly reception.

At the beginning of his remarks, he expressed his pleasure in being, since he now looked upon Priceville as his home, with all its pleasant memories.

His addresses dealt largely with the wonderful gift of faith. To have faith in God, and in our home above. In our walk through the wilderness, walk towards the light; the shadow, will fall behind. Strive to go forward, when one shall reap if they faint not. The choir rendered three anthems and a hymn at the two services, led by W. W. Ramage, with Miss Jessie Nichol, pianist.

We were pleased to meet there Mr Melness, one-time popular station agent here, now of Coldwater, with his wife and grown-up family; Mr and Mrs Stanley Williams from near Holstein; Mr Neil and Miss Jennie Calder, Mrs Geo. Swanson and daughter Estelle from near Fairbairn; Mrs. Malby (nee Jean Buchan), and Miss Della McPhail, Toronto; Mr and Mrs N. Norman, Dundak; Mr. McDonald of Edge Hill. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, gorgeous and blooming.

Rev. N. McDonald, resident minister, assisted in reading and announcements. A garden party and announcements Monday evening following, at the Show grounds, with supper served in the hall, where a bounteous repast was partaken of varying viands, with lots to spare. Then the hall was put in readiness for a play given by the Feversham Dramatic Club, entitled "Nancy Anna Brown's folk." Rev. N. McDonald opened the meeting with a few explanatory remarks, and called on a Mr Clifton, who gave a short sketch and cast of the play, which was very well acted. The husband "hen-pecker" was our favorite, while Nancy herself was fine and attractive looking. Enunciation was fairly good, only in one case below par. Between first and second acts, Rev. R. G. Stewart was called on, who expressed his pleasure in being present and in finding such agreeable harmony existing in the midst. The pleasure was equally shared by his wife, who he found had many genuine friends here. A fine address, fluently delivered. Mr. Clifton also expressed his and the company's thanks for the appreciation shown throughout. Taken all in all, the play was fairly well done, and realized $78 on a 35c admission fee.

Mr Arthur Hutton, teacher at Parry Sound, is holidaying with his mother and aunt Mima.

Mr and Mrs Barter and daughter, Detroit, visited Mrs. McKinnon, south line, also Mrs. McKee and mother at Mrs. Buchan's.

Miss Evelyn McFavah is a pleasing visitor at the home of Mr and Mrs H. Karstedt.

A matter of satisfaction to all besides her parents is the passing in her Primary examination in Music, with honors at Owen Sound, of Miss Jane Karstedt, just seven years of age. All honor to her teacher, Miss Lucas, Markdale, to the little girl herself, and to her parents, Mr and Mrs. Fred Karstedt.

(Intended for last week)

It is something unusual, almost mystifying, to be introduced to one of one's own name. It seemed like a mistake or joke on the part of the part of the introducer. But such was the case last week when one of the name, six years out from Pile-shire, was, along with his young bride, escorted hither by Mr. Robt. Campbell of Hopeville, for a survey of probable relationship. I don't think it will be necessary to go back as far as the 42nd cousin at that. He and his amiable spouse (nee Annie Robinson from the same shire) just recently married, maintain they resemble his uncle very much, and a lady here says she resembles one of the Review staff, "So there you be."

A large family gathering of the Watson relationship, (I don't like "clan") gathered at Owen Sound, from Saturday to Monday. With representatives from various parts of the States as well as Canada, an enjoyable time was had at their banquet, and other social events. Stationary and moving pictures of the group were taken. Last year's reunion was held in the States at Dunkirk. W. G. Watson is presently in charge of the tree.

A similar event was held at Eugenia where the Henrys, Bowes, James and others, met and celebrated the Dominion's holiday, with a large family gathering.

The St. Andrews Presbyterian choir have been busy practising something good for the return of their olden time well beloved pastor and his wife Rev. Mr and Mrs R. G. Stewart.

Visitors from Toronto were Mrs J. MacFarlane, from Friday to Tuesday with her parents Mr and Mrs C. A. McLean, and Mrs Malby with her mother on Tuesday for a few days.

Rev. J. W. Johnston, wife and family left last Wednesday on his holidays. Sunday services were cancelled on 7th. St. Andrews Anniversary services were same day.

On 14th, service will be held at St. Columbia, Salem and Ebenezer.

On the 21st, service will be conducted by Rev. N. McDonald in St. Columbia and Salem, and on the 28th he will preach in Gaelic in his own church, St. Andrews Presbyterian.

SWINTON PARK

We are having an abundance of rain. Along with the very warm weather of last week, there is splendid growth, everything promising a good crop.

The First of July celebration at Black's beach was enjoyed by a bumper crowd. Also a large picnic came from No 10 Highway and east, last Friday to the beach.

Mrs Nell McMillan spent a few days last week at Wasaga Beach with her sister, Mrs. McLeod.

Mrs Tressider and daughters enjoyed a motor trip to Sudbury last week, calling at North Bay, Callender, and the Dionne home and hospital. They had a good look at those wonderful quintuplets. They also got a glimpse of the girls, they found Dr. Dufoe, standing by his home. They drove 635 miles, and enjoyed the scenery of the North country.

Mr and Mrs Ed. Heard and Mr and Mrs Jno Alcorn attended the Brown reunion at Fordwich on July 1st.

Mr and Mrs Dick Hardy motored to Toronto Saturday to a picnic of their old acquaintance.

Mrs. Palmer Phillips (nee Mary Kennel) spent last week at the Kinnett and Ed. Haw homes.

Mr and Mrs Wm. Leek and daughter of Detroit, were guests of Mr and Mrs Howard Watson last week.

Mr and Mrs Geo. Montgomery and grandson of Toronto, are also at Watson's.

Miss McLeod is on duty at Durham hospital at present.

Mrs Heard Sr., who has spent two months at Allandale, returned home Sunday last. Dick Heard of Bank of Commerce, Flesherton, visited the old home at Salem on Sunday.

George Porter of Ventry is building stone work for Clarence Harrison. The heavy showers are trying on fresh mortar, George, but you have Scotch perseverance.

The M.S. are meeting at the home of Mrs Ed. Haw Wednesday of this week.

Tuesday next, July 16, a garden party will be held on Mr. Knox's grounds in the Park. Tea served from 8 to 8 p.m. A football match, Priceville vs. Swinton Park, and other sports, followed by a play by Ventry young people. The weather will be cleared up after the 12th and we will welcome you all there with the good old Scotch grip.

Many of us older folk were disappointed on Sunday as we had expected Rev. Mr Stewart out to church yet we may meet Mr and Mrs Stewart and renew old acquaintances.

OLD HOMEWEEK JOTTINGS BY OLD-TIMER To all those who are planning to attend the Durham and vicinity Old Home Re-union next month, we herewith present an outline of the program which is being prepared for your entertainment. Since issuing the invitations last January, many replies have been received by the Committee, and that hundreds of former citizens are returning to take part in the re-union is already evident. To all those who intend motoring, we wish to state that ample provision has been made for camping and parking space. Arrangements are already made with the Railway Companies for cheap rates for those travelling by train. The Railway representatives have been frequent visitors to Secy. Willis' office checking over the names of all who said they were coming and they have or will write them individually. But whether you come by motor or train, come early and stay long—and remember, the old town belongs to you.

SATURDAY, AUG. 3rd, should see a great many arrive. This is Registration Day. So be sure to register at the Town Hall as soon as you arrive. No matter what day it is, register and get your badge with your name on it. It will identify you when you get out in the crowds. If we can not remember your face, we will see your name and we will know your right away. So don't forget your badge; they cost only 25c and will be a souvenir of one of the happiest times of your life.

SUNDAY, AUG. 4th, will see special services in local churches. At 3:30 p.m. on Chester St. East, there will be the dedication of the cairn to be the founder of our town. This cairn will be in the form of a wigwag representing the one our pioneer settler found on his arrival and in which he passed his first night. An appropriate service is being planned and Durham Band will be in attendance. Then at 8:30 the Rebekah and Odd-fellows lodges will hold their annual Decoration Service in Durham cemetery, which all are invited to attend.

MONDAY, AUG. 5th (Civic Holiday), has something doing every minute. No time will be lost in getting under way for at 12:30 a.m. the midnight frolic and midway attractions start things off with a bang. At 9:30 a.m. the 48th Highlanders Band will arrive by special bus from Toronto. There will be 23 men in the Brass band including Col. Slater as leader. The Pipe Band, led by Major Fraser, will also be with us, and O boy! "Old Timer" can hardly write this thinking of the gran time and the stirr'n music we'll be hearin'. Can ye no see them swingin' doon the street? The 48th is said to be the best band in Canada. The Committee have here, but the best is none too good for Durham & vicinity. At 10 a.m. the Calithump's Parade headed by Highlanders' Bands. This feature is under the special care of Art McGowan, who with his committee is working hard to give us something worth while. The parade will start from the High School grounds, and prizes will be given for best decorated cars or trucks, best comical vehicle, best decorated bicycle, best individual comic. At 12 noon at the corner of Lamb-er and Garrafra, the Mayor will officially welcome visitors to town. At 1:30, led by the bands, the parade will leave for the Fair ground. Everybody will be there, so here is the place to meet your friends and at the same time view the biggest day of sports the old town has seen for years. To see the Highlanders in action will be worth the price of admission itself. It sure will be one grand afternoon. In the evening the 48th Highlanders will give a band concert. Box lacrosse is in the rink between two good teams, probably Elora and Durham. At the rear of the Ford garage, Cotton's Midway will be in full swing; the ferris wheels, merry-go-rounds, and many other shows and rides will be going night and day. Early in the evening the street dance will start and old timers, and others not so old, will trip the light fantastic till the "wee sma' hours". This will be the end of a perfect day. TUESDAY, AUG. 6th, is Veterans' Day. 9 a.m.—Old-time Public school Let's all go. 10 a.m.—Bowling tournament and Tennis tournament. 10:30 a.m.—St. Mary's Band, Lamb-er St. 1:30 p.m.—Veterans' parade to Fair grounds where a sham battle will take place. 2:00 p.m.—Girls' Softball. 3:00 p.m.—Tag of War. 3:30 p.m.—Olde Tyme Fiddlers' and Dancing Contest. 5:00—Midway attractions down town. 6:30 p.m.—Tennis and Bowling finals. 7:00 p.m.—Boxing and Wrestling at Rink. 8:00 p.m.—Street dancing and Cotton's Midway WEDNESDAY, AUG. 7th—Space will not permit mention of all the attractions, but Horse racing has been the centre of the stage. The track has been put in good shape and some of the best horses in the country are expected. $600 are offered in prizes. There will be kept contests in the 2:28, 2:22, and the 2:18 classes. All lovers of horse racing should be well satisfied with the bill of fare offered on this, the last day of Durham and vicinity Old Home Week.

THE DURHAM AND VICINITY OLD HOME WEEK COMMITTEE.

COMING BACK

Back to the rippling and flashing, Old River Saugeen. With its banks cool and shaded with cedars so green, and wildwood;

In one of those valleys, I spent my own childhood. No work on the farm e'er made us to squirm.

If repaid in the eve by a trip in to Durham; Instead of a car, we took Dobbin or Bill.

And made it "on high" up Vinegar Hill. Down the second we'd go at a pace that was neat

And turn at the corner onto Lembon Street; Past cedars again, then in by the mill.

We'd see the sun set out o'er Hut-ton Hill. Then into the town and our friends we would meet,

And stroll up and down on that old front street; 'Tis the same to this day, But we're farther away.

Though fading our youth and with cares bowing down; They're friendly still in the old home town:

They'll welcome us back with a pi-broch and hand, A kindly smile and an outstretched hand.

So we'll go home to Durham in August this year And renew many friendships the past holds dear;

Some may not be there since far they did roam, And others we'll meet at a 'Green'er At Home'.

—Mrs. Ed. Lee, East Linton, Ont.
