JOSEPH A. ALLEN

A sad death occurred on Monday morning in Hanover hospital, when Josph Asket Allen, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs Charles Mortley of Durham, passed away from a brief illness as "Mission work in Bolivia" was read a result of blood poisoning. He was in his 42nd year.

Deceased had been working on Wm. McCaughy's farm, three miles south of Hanover and on July 4th, was engaged in moving a hay rack when a tween the ribs near the heart.
