Durham's Gala Event A Short Distance Away

"For the lan' sakes"
"Do you remember the time...?"
"Betcha don't know me."
"How long is it since you went away?"

The above brief excerpts of conversation will doubtless be re-echoed hundreds of times in Durham during the great Old Boys' Reunion celebration from August 3rd to 7th next. Already the influx of visitors has commenced to arrive in town and vicinity and by the time that Saturday, August 3rd is reached and the registration books opened, the population of the town will be increased to new high levels. Plans for the greatest celebration in the history of the town are about complete and no detail has apparently been overlooked in the entertainment of the visiting Old Boys and Girls who are coming from every province of Canada and from practically all of the states in the Union to the south.

And how is the old enthusiasm in town? Each succeeding day seems to add a new interest to the coming proceedings and by the time the opening day of the big event is to hand, the enthusiasm port will be boiling over with hospitality and conviviality. There was a fair attendance of boosters at another of the periodical meetings held under the banner of the Old Home Week Committee, on Friday evening last and several reports indicated that various committee chairmen had their respective programs well in hand. A personal of the advertisement in this week's issue gives one a bird's eye view, so to speak, of the good entertainment bill-of-fare, or rather the highlights of it. There are numerous lesser items which of necessity could not be listed, all of which will make sure beyond a shadow of doubt, that every visitor will have a good time.

Thanks to the Decoration Committee and its helpers, the home town populace is becoming quite reunion-minded. Welcome banners now greet the visitor no matter by what road he may enter the town and at least twenty-five strings of colored electric lights have been strung across the streets, not to say anything of the dozens of strings of gaily colored pennants, flags and bunting that give a gala appearance to the old home town. The paint brush is being wielded to good effect on many business blocks and residences and with Nature doing its best to keep the lawns, flowers and hedges in glorious style, it remains for the citizens in general to see that their properties are attractively decorated for the Reunion. Several merchants are selling decorative material at cost prices, so that all will be able to do their utmost to dress in best holiday attire.

Agnes Macphail to Stay with the U.F.O.

Following deliberations of the board of her riding association over the weekend, Agnes Macphail, M.P., for South-east Grey, announced that she will not run as a candidate for the Reconstruction party, but will continue to run as a U.F.O.-Labor candidate.

She stated she was already in a position to render every possible assistance to Mr Stevens and, because she was occupying an independent position in the House of Commons, could support any legislation in which she believed, regardless of who introduces it.

The league for national government had not asked her to express her views of their objective, Miss Macphail added. "I have my answer ready for the league when they decide to question me," she pointed out. "If they propose an affiliation of the Conservative and Liberal parties then I am entirely opposed to it, because I feel that this would merely mean a solidification of the mere interests. But if, on the other hand, they are fighting for a people's government, then that is entirely a different proposition."

Miss Ethel Derby who spent the winter in Toronto, returned home last week.

CAR COLLISION AT WASAGA BEACH

On Saturday evening last, at Wasaga Beach, a head-on collision occurred, between Ford cars owned by Peter Ramage of town and a V8 owned by Mr. McLaren, lawyer, of Barrie, driven by Warren Wilgar.

The traffic was quite heavy this night. The Durham car, containing Mr Peter Ramage, sister Miss Alice, and Mr and Mrs Bert Stonehouse were returning from the main section of of the beach to the former's cottage at Springhurst sub-division. Mr Ramage noted the Barrie car coming straight for him in the traffic lane, and swerved to the right to avoid collision. The other driver coming east, turned to his left in attempting to dodge, and the impact ensued.

Were it not for the fact that both cars were travelling at a low rate of speed, injuries would have been more severe. Both cars are badly damaged. The chauffeur of the Durham car had a couple of ribs fractured, cartilage of nose broken and knee strained. Mr. Stonehouse had a couple of cuts on his forehead and Mrs Stonehouse a bruise on her leg. Miss Alice Ramage was little hurt, and the nerve shock was her worst trouble.

Three of the six passengers in the Barrie car required medical attention also. The Durham party were taken home Sunday evening.

HYMENEAL SHARPE—HELWIG

At four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon the wedding took place in the Hanover Baptist church of Verna Evelyn, only daughter of Mrs Albert Helwig and the late Mr. Helwig, to Mr. Irvin Sharpe, B.A., youngest son of Mr and Mrs Benjamin Sharpe, of Durham. The church was decorated with summer flowers, palms and ferns and Rev. T. E. Richards pastor of the church performed the ceremony. The bride entering the church with her uncle, Mr Fred Brock was given in marriage by her mother and chose a floor-length gown of white silk net over crepe with ruffled hemline and an elbow length cape. She wore with it, her mother's veil, also of silk net, held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet consisted of pale pink rosebuds sweet peas and baby's breath. With falling sandals completed her costume. Her cousin, Miss Sylvia Brock, attended as maid of honor and wore a gown of pale pink mousseline de soie with blue eyelet embroidery, and with it a large picture hat of pale pink coarse straw and pink fallade sandals. She carried pastel blue asters and baby's breath. Little Miss Ruth Code, cousin of the bride made a sweet flower girl in a ruffled frock of yellow organdy, with a bandeau of tiny flowers in her hair and carried a basket of yellow and bronze snapdragons and fern. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Alfred Sharpe as best man. Messrs Lloyd Code and Harold Brown acted as ushers. Mrs. Harold Brown presided at the organ throughout the ceremony. The organist played "Libertine, Dream of Love," by Liza.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, where Mrs Helwig, attired in a hand-forgotten gown of robin's egg blue crepe with large white crepe hat and white accessories, received the guests. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas and fern. With her was the groom's mother, who wore black crepe with touches of white, black and white hat to match and a corsage of mauve cornflowers and fern. A buffet luncheon was served by a number of girl friends of the bride, Mesdames Theo. Gruetzner and Alvin Kurtz assisting. The table was centred with the four storey wedding cake, which was baked by the bride's grandmother, Mrs C. Helwig.

Later in the evening the bride and groom left for Owen Sound, where they will board the S.S. Caribou for a week's cruise of the Great Lakes. For travelling the bride chose a three-piece wool suit of dawn blue with plaid organdy blouse and grey accessories. On their return, the couple will reside in Durham, where the groom is a member of the High School staff.

Mrs. Nevin Feted

Mrs A. Nevin, one of Durham's hard working women who has an unselfish heart and a neighborly spirit received a delightful surprise on Wednesday last. Her nearest neighbor asked her to accompany her to the house of Mrs. J. F. Giles.

Here she found all the rest of her neighbors each one wishing her a happy birthday. Presently a table was placed before on which was a birthday cake in honor of her 82nd birthday. A bouquet of flowers was presented to her and several other gifts appeared, some from those who had heard of the event, but were not present. Pictures were taken of the guest of honor and all present, and an abundance of refreshments were served.

Mrs Nevin was born in England on July 17, 1853 and has been a resident in Durham for many years. Her husband died some years ago and she has no relatives in this community.

On Thursday last, Misses Annie and Julia Weir had the pleasure of entertaining their cousin, Mr. Lachlan McKinnon of Calgary, also his wife, son Fred and daughter Freda. Accompanying them were his mother Mrs Effie McKinnon and her daughter Mrs. Jos. McKeen, from near Priceville. Mr. McKinnon and family have come East to participate in Durham's Old Home Week, but are first taking a boat trip to Montreal. The Review was glad to have the annual visit from Mr. McKinnon, and to learn that his step mother at the age of 97 years, can still enjoy company and converse with remarkable fluency.

Rocky Gaigen U.F.W.O.

The monthly meeting of Rocky U.F.W.O. Club was held on July 19 at Mrs Thos. Milligan's, with a full attendance of members and visitors. Mrs R. Lawson gave a well prepared paper on "being a good housewife". Rev. D. Gowdy had been invited to address the ladies and chose as his topic "The Pauses in Life." In his usual sincere manner he pointed out the deep significance of the pauses, sickness, misfortune and death have in the human life. Mrs Gowdy favored the audience with several instrumental numbers: Mrs E. S. McArthur gave one of Nina Moore Jamieson's interesting stories. The Club decided to make a canning exhibit at Durham Fall Fair. Next meeting will be held at home of Mrs John Heift on August 14th.

Special Event on Saturday's Program

Every town and village in this part of Ontario have a "Saturday Night" when the whole neighborhood turns out to shop and exchange pleasantries with one another. This Saturday night, crowd is an interesting assemblage, and a transient to town another day of the week would find it difficult to recognize the same streets. Saturday night last on Durham's main highway, a stirring scene was enacted, when we hear two young matrons of town, told each other in no uncertain tones what their opinion was regarding each other. We understand the two ladies by chance, rubbed shoulders in passing, and one of them simply could not resist giving her friend (?) a passing jesk. It "took" and soon they were throwing bouquets of potatoes at each other. A daughter of one of the ladies came to her mother's rescue and much choice language was heard for the benefit of the onlookers. When the next boxing fry will be arranged, has not as yet been announced, but their next appearance will likely be in August before a legal cad.
