

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

Misses Ena, Greta and Rebecca Nichol of London, Rev. Walter Nichol of Plymouth, Mich., Mr and Mrs. Will Legate and daughter Christina of Buffalo, are holidaying with the Nichol families—Thos. Jno. and David Mr John McFarlane, Toronto, spent the weekend with friends here. Mrs Alex. Knox, Mrs Harry Pedlar and son, returned to Toronto Monday after spending the past week here. Mrs A. B. McDonald of O. Sound, Mr and Mrs H. Richardson and family, spent the weekend at Mrs D. G. McLean's. Mr and Mrs Stanley Harrison and daughter Beth of Dromore, visited Sunday at A. L. Hincks'. Mr Clifford Hincks has accepted a school at Hudson, up in the North country. Misses Eleanor Mather and Kate Morrison of Maxwell, spent a few days visiting with the Hincks' girls. Dr and Mrs J. E. Milne and family are spending two weeks' holidays at Sauble Beach. Congratulations to Mr I. B. Whitaker and Miss Kew, who were married Saturday at Wingham. The Priceville W.I. met at the home of Mrs W. Watson. After singing the Ode, the Lord's Prayer was read and adopted. Miss E. Froom gave a very interesting paper on 'Every day life in Japan. Miss Weir gave a splendid paper on Negro Spirituals and sang two of the Negro songs. Next meeting will be held at Mrs Gordon Kirktown's. Lunch, Miss Lizzie Mather and Alice Reiley. Mr and Mrs Russel McGibbon of Hamilton are at present pleasing visitors at home of Mr and Mrs A. J. McVicar. Mrs Carter of Owen Sound is on a visit to her sister Mrs E. Sullivan and brothers Alfred and John O'Neill. Mr Walter Aldern was taken to the Red Cross Hospital in Durham on Sunday and operated upon for appendicitis and is progressing favorably the latest reports state. Mr and Mrs Shackleton and his helper from Arthur, returned there Tuesday after cutting a supply of wood for winter to the Misses James and himself. Fortunately there were no seriously casualties in the falling of the trees, though near it. Great traffic passing through daily, of crushed gravel for the improving of the Provincial Highway from Durham here. Mr John Schutz is in charge. Miss Eleanor Mather has been engaged as teacher in the lower school recently taken by Miss J. Nichol, resigned. Meantime school bells are silent! But not so others. Mr and Mrs Joseph Black and son together with an aunt of A. J. McVicar, (Mrs. Wilson) and father McKinnon all of Toronto, were visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs McVicar last week. Through a misunderstanding and desire to hear the 8th Highlanders on Monday, Rev. N. McDonald decided to be in his own church on the 4th, though Rev. Johnston had made arrangements to preach there, declaring his pulpit vacant for the day.

HOPEVILLE

Successful anniversary services were held Sunday at United church. The attendance was large and splendid music by the visiting choirs much appreciated. The play Monday evening also drew a full house. Maxwell presented the play 'The Glow Lights of San Pey'. This play was different than usual, and well staged it held the interest throughout. Containing so many good morals, it met with much approval. A ball game earlier in the evening between Dundak and Proton Centre resulted in a score of 5-1 in favor of Proton. Mrs J. Sinclair and sons attended a Binn'e family reunion near Durham Sunday. The regular meeting of W. Institute will be held Aug. 14 at the home of Mrs. M. Paxman. Grandmothers' day. Roll call: 'Something our grandmothers didn't have': 'Social life 50 years ago' by Mrs Jas. Mitchell; Recitation by Mrs Fred Sarsaman; Cookie recipe and old-time song by grandmothers; Paper: 'Since I first came to Proton' by Mrs Wm. Jack; Exhibit—a relic of by-gone days. Mr and Mrs Bert Gillies and children were holiday guests with her parents, Mr and Mrs Jas. Mitchell. Mr and Mrs Will Philp, Dromore, attended anniversary services Sunday and visited at the home of Mr D. S. McDonald. The United Mission Band will meet Thursday at the home of Miss Janet Scott.

McDonald got the second from about ten feet out, receiving a rick end pass from 'Pete Jamieson. The lads from Dufferin commenced putting on the pressure and on one of their forays, made the red light blink for them. The period ended 2-1 for Durham. Penalties in this frame were flished out to Bolger for tripping and to Jamieson and an Orangeville man for roughing it. Dean got Durham's third tally in the second period, from close in grabbing hold of the loose ball, which Wilson had carried down through a melee of players and lost. McEachnie was at his best the next five or six six minutes, repeatedly blocking the ball, sometimes miraculously. Orval McDonald made it four for Durham Bolger getting an assist on play. The third round was all Orangeville's, the team in green sweaters—not orange as you might think—marking up three counters to make the count 5-4 in the visitors' favor when the session ended. In the 4th and last period set-to play was about even but Durham managed to slap two to Orangeville's singleton and hold the game to a tie 6-6. 'Red' Rone, on Dean's barage, to make Dundak half-way brought in another a-ham fight hard for the equalizer let alone the winning one. However this they succeeded in doing when Bolger and Murdoch got sampling each other's fists before they were parted. The line-ups were: Durham: Goals: McEachnie. Defense: O. McDonald, Ken. Wilson, Red Rowe, Bowman Jamieson, Royer. E. McDonald; Forwards: Murdoch, Dean, Bolger. Orangeville: Goal: Allen, Fyfe; Defense: Bryan Courtney and Crowe; Rover: Simpson; Forwards: Wilson, L. Irwin, J. Irwin, Whalley, Hewson. Referee: Hawkins, Orangeville.

Partial List of Saturday's Registrations

Just as a start to show who registered for the Durham Old Home Week the "Review" publishes the names of some of the persons who signed the 'books' on Saturday. Fine Organ Recital

Continued from page 1 of those familiar with the operas. In introducing the artist, Rev. Mr. Smith stated that his personal knowledge of Kathleen Stokes in his former pastorate at Thorold, was that with all her musical successes, she remained an unspoiled girl, willing to aid every worthy cause. This was still evident when she consented to come to her birthplace, to please the visitors of "Old Home Week." "The essential marks of a Christian" was the topic of the inspiring discourse by Rev. John Bell, who took for his text Paul's message in 2 Corinthians 5: 17: "All things are become new." This newness, the speaker said, was not in the world without but in the world within, developing his theme to show that with this acquisition, a Christian has a new attitude towards God, Christ, men and self. Entrance to this new life was secured by surrendering the will to Christ and cultivating His friendship. At same service, Mr. J. S. Drysdale of Hamilton, an old favorite of Knox congregation, regered a delightful solo.

Among the audience that witnessed the parade in Durham Monday morning, were two aged ladies from Flesherton locality, Mrs Chas. McKinnon, and Mrs McKee. They were brought to town by Mr and Mrs C. G. Watson of London, and they enjoyed every minute of the doings. Mrs McKinnon is in her 97th year, and Mrs. McKee is some ten years younger.

BOX LACROSSE GAME RESULTS IN THE SCORE, 6-6

To the list of sporting joys which Old Home Week "boys and girls" were entertained with, must be included the box lacrosse game in the rink on Tuesday night between the Orangeville players and Durham exponents of the gutted stick. Featured as an exhibition game (which fact is sometimes prone to a let-up of real "form" activity), the customers numbering about three hundred, were treated to an exciting match. Neither team showed much superiority at any time during the game, with the exception of a brief "flare-up" during the final few minutes between Murdoch of Durham and Nell Crowe of the visitors, the affair was generally free of use of hickory or "lunch-hook" exercise. The game ended in a 6-6 tie but the Durhamsites who were in the lead for half the game, had to come from behind to notch the necessary counters to make the even count. McEachnie, in goal for the locals, was one of the "stand-outs", creating the impression of being a better net guardian than either of the two the visitors displayed. The two McDonalds, Ernie and Orval, also played a "bang-up" game along with Bowman Jamieson and Ken Wilson. Three of the locals' six markers were nabbed by the opportunist Mr. Dean, who received material help on two of his counters from Ken Wilson and Fred Bolger. SCORE BY PERIODS: Durham counted twice in the first period before Orangeville sank one into the twine. Five minutes had barely elapsed before Dean nabbed the first on a pretty solo effort. Er-
