DOWN TOPICS

Next Sunday August 18, the Baptist and Presbyterians will conclude their union services. Sunday school will meet at 10, and morning worship at eleven in the Baptist church, and at seven in the evening at the Presbyterian church. Rev. J. T. Priest will preach at both services and at Glenelg Centre at 1.30 p.m. and at the Rocky at 3 p.m. The Sunday following, Rev. Mr. Keir of Hanover will preach at the Presbyterian church.

Dead in North Dakota.
The death of Geo. W. Stone took place at his home in McKenzie Co., North Dakota, last month, at the age of 62 years. He was married to Miss Flora McArthur in 1911, daughter of the late John and Mrs. McArthur of the 4th con., Glenelg, who survives him with two sons, Harold and Hugh. Deceased was raised at Yates City, Ill., coming to N. Dakota in 1905. He farmed at Bottineau 3 years and in 1909 came to McKenzie Co., and homesteaded on the farm where he and his family have since resided.

How One Old Boy Couldn't Come.
Mr. John Legate of town expected his brother, Rev. Thos., pastor of Forest Glen Cong. church, Chicago, here for the Reunion and was disappointed over his non-arrival. Saturday last Mr. Legate received a letter from him, explaining it. While motoring to his S.S. picnic, Rev. Mr. Legate's car was struck broadside by a fast driver while crossing a highway, the car was smashed, he was knocked unconscious and two ladies in his car were taken to hospital with pelvic fractures. Rev. Thos. was considerably bruised on right side, and is still shot nervously.

Durham Hydro System

Now out of Debt
(By E. George Smith)
Durham's total of Hydro reserves and surplus is now $69,030, its reserve for equity in the Hydro system $19,769, and there are now 544 Durham Hydro consumers.
With local liquid assets in excess of liabilities, Durham has joined the growing list of Hydro municipalities which are considered "out of debt."
This total of $69,030 in reserves and surplus, which compares with a reserve and surplus total of but $353 in 1916, the second year of Hydro operation in Durham, is itemized as follows in Hydro accounts:
Reserves for equity in Hydro system $19,769; depreciation on local plant $11,342; debentures paid $23,931 and operating surplus $13,987.
Durham's total of 544 Hydro consumers constitutes a growth from 222 in 1916; horsepower used in 1934, according to the latest report statistics was 356 as contrasted with 63 in 1916. Total revenues last year were $19,765 as against $3,644 in 1916; domestic and commercial revenues last year were $10,926 as compared with $2,576 in 1916; kilowatt hours sold for lighting were 429,596 as compared with 31,040 in 1916; and plant capital is now valued at $41,509 as compared with but $18,079 in 1916.
With domestic and commercial lighting rates last year of 2.4 and 2.8 cents per kilowatt hour respectively Durham enjoyed the low average cost to lighting consumers of 2.54 cents per kilowatt hour.
The rate is less than half the average rates prevailing in even larger United States cities. It has been calculated that the application to Ontario of United States private power rates would add over $40,000,000 annually to Ontario's electricity bills.
In its efforts to extend throughout all Ontario the advantages of cheap publicly owned power, the Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission last year instituted special rate inducements, including "free power" on certain electrical conveniences, to rural Ontario.
As a result, rural Ontario is becoming "hitched to Hydro" with increased rapidity. An estimated 470 miles of new rural power line is to be built this year; about 900 miles of this total already has been designated and approved. At this time last year, only 190 miles of new rural line had been sanctioned.
About 4,000 rural customers in all are being added to Hydro service in 1935.

THE ROLL CALL

WILLIAM WHITMORE
Many Durham residents will learn with regret of the death in Hespler, of William Whitmore, on Wednesday last. Deceased had been ill but a short time.

Mr. Whitmore was a son of the late William and Mrs. Whitmore, and was born at Merrickville. When a tiny child his mother died, and his father brought the five children to Durham. Mr. Whitmore followed the trade of blacksmithing in Durham, and was respected by all. Fifteen years ago, with his family, they removed to Hespler.
He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Mary Calvert, of Bentinck, and three children: Arthur of Hespler; Gladys (Mrs. Chester Rife) and Ethel (Mrs. E. Beer), Clearview. One sister, Mrs. Quinn, Chicago, survives and one brother John, Rainy River District. There are seven grandchildren. Interment was made in Hespler cemetery, Friday last, under Anglican church auspices.

MRS. ELLEN MCINTOSH

There passed away at her home at Bestville, Sask., on Wednesday, July 31, Mrs. Ellen McIntosh at the age of 78 years, 4 months and 27 days. She had been ill since March, at which time she contracted a bad case of the flu from which she never recovered, and on July 7, was taken seriously ill. In hopes of helping her she was taken to Cabri Hospital for a week, but when she didn't improve she was brought home to be with her loved ones. The cause of her death was kidney trouble.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Ellen McDonald was the eldest of the McDonald family at Aberdeen. Her brother John passed away in 1925 and her youngest brother Jim died at Disley, Sask., in 1933. In the year 1876 she married Wm. McIntosh who predeceased her in 1910. In 1912 she moved west with the family who are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother. The family are as follows: Will of Barrie; Fred, Swift Current, Sask.; Jas. Alex, Jack and Margaret (Mrs. Grant) of Bestville, Sask.; three sisters, Jennie (Mrs. Crockett) and Lizzie of Langton, N.D.; and Annie (Mrs. Ross) of Dallas, Oregon, and one brother, Alex of Langton, N.D. She also leaves a step-son Peter at Sarles, N.D. twenty-two grandchildren and five great grandchildren.
The deceased had twice visited the scenes of her old home, once in 1916 accompanied by her son John and again in 1933 accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Grant and little granddaughter Eileen.
The remains were laid to rest among many tokens of love and respect in Bestville cemetery near her home on the following Friday. She being a member of the church of the Nazarene, her pastor, Rev. Mr. Buffham, had charge of the services. Her own favorite hymns were sung at the house and again at the grave.

ANGUS CAMERON

On Saturday, August 3rd there passed away at his home in Sahara, Montana, Angus, son of the late Duncan and Mary Cameron. He was born in Welbeck on the farm now occupied by Mr. Wade, when a lad, the family moved to Egremont where he grew to manhood. About 50 years ago he went to Wyoming, and was married to Flora McKechnie a native of Bruce Co. They moved to Montana, where they settled on a ranch. Four children were born to them, a son and three daughters. Two daughters survive. Mrs. Cameron died when the children were quite young. He was the last of a family of nine children: Mrs. McQueen (Flora) of Egremont; Mrs. Wm. Savelle (Mary) of Glenelg; Mrs. D. McDonald (Anne), Wyoming; Mrs. A. Stewart (Janie), Bentinck; Mrs. D. Galvin (Catherine), Hamilton; Mrs. Holcomb (Margaret) Snohomish, Wash.; Neil and Hugh in Egremont.
Mr. Cameron is survived by a large number of cousins, nieces and nephews in Bentinck, Glenelg and Egremont, who mourn his passing.

Rev. W. H. Hill in Knox Pulpit.

Knox United church congregation were pleased to hear once again Rev. W. H. Hill of Dundee, Illinois, on his annual visit to Durham. His text was, "He that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches." It was a fine topic for the present day and the speaker made the most of it, contributing many new thoughts and stressing the duty of the church, of taking a very definite stand for world peace.

Diamond Jubilee Services at Mulock

Sixtieth anniversary services of Bentinck Baptist church last Sunday were marked by beautiful weather, splendid audiences and excellent sermons. The guest preacher for the morning and evening services was Rev. J. Galloway, beloved former pastor. The sermon of the morning was based on 2nd Corinthians 2:14, "Thanks be unto God who always causeth us to triumph in Christ." The secret of Paul's triumphant Christian life was that he was sure of certain things. To be triumphant Christians we must be sure of the forgiveness of God, of God's daily care for His own, of immortality. The evening sermon was based on Paul's words, "The Jews require a sign, the Greeks seek after wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified."
The afternoon service was taken by Pastor A. Homer, subject being "God's infinite care." "Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings and not one of them is forgotten before God, but even the very hairs of your head are numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows."
Special music was given at all services by Rev. and Mrs. Galloway and Pastor and Mrs. Homer.
The floral decorations played a large part in the aesthetic end of the anniversary and the artistic arrangements were much admired.
On the Monday evening, following the anniversary supper and concert was held when the following program was enthusiastically received. Pastor A. Homer gave the opening address followed by duet by Pastor and Mrs. Homer; reading by Mrs. Edgar Boyce; instrumental on organ by Miss Jean Priest; duet by Rev. and Mrs. Galloway. The address of the evening was given by Rev. H. Crickington, a former pastor, who laboured faithfully among us for five years, followed by a vocal solo by Miss Jean Priest; addresses were given by Pastor J. T. Priest Durham, Mr. A. C. McDonald and Mr. D. J. Macdonald.
Of course the supper was all that could be desired and the social hour was brought to a close, Pastor A. Homer was the chairman of the gathering.

Many regretted that Mr. A. MacGillivray was unable to be present at the sixtieth anniversary services on account of illness he being the only charter member living in this part. A letter was received from another charter member in the person of Mrs. Kate Macdonald of Westhope, N. D. extending greetings and her regrets at not being present.

25 Years Wedded

Mr and Mrs Robert Whitmore have commenced on the second twenty-five year span of their married life together, and their friends hope at the close of the second twenty-five, to find them enjoying as wholesome an outlook on life in general, and as good health accordingly as they have today. To mark the first twenty-four years, they were at home to their friends. The official Board of Queen St. Church recognized the event with a beautiful basket of gladioli.
A daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Jas. Hopkins, Glenelg, the bride has with her husband, spent the intervening years in Durham, and the groom enjoys the confidence of the public in his business.
A two storey wedding cake graced the centre of the table, at which tea was poured by Mrs. G. Moore, Mrs. A. E. Hiffe of Vancouver, Mrs. Charles Moore and Miss Thomas Whitmore. Mrs. C. W. Arnett and Mrs. J. W. Jenkins cut the ices. Mrs. N. Whitmore and Mrs. G. Whitmore were in charge of the serving and Misses L. Jenkins, Inez Swanley, Elsie Goodchild and Bernice White served. Mr. Lawrence Whitmore opened the door and Mr and Mrs Whitmore received the guests.

Lucky Number Owner Comes for his Car

On Friday night last the Old Home Week Committee staged another street dance before the lights and decorations were removed, also to help out finances which fell short on the wet Tuesday. The Walkerton orchestra were on hand, as well as a goodly crowd, when the gentle rain again descended. At least it was gentle enough to send the crowd scurrying under cover. The dancers finished their evening's sport in the town hall. Previous to the rainfall, an interesting little ceremony was carried out, when the possessor of the lucky number drawn by Col. F. Hunter on Wednesday last was present to receive the fine award of this year's model Ford V 8 car. The Board of Trade sponsored the selling of some thousand tickets, as an object of making funds for a tourist camp. While the selling was hard going at last, because of the flood of similar schemes in other towns. Mr. W. Ray of Westmoreland St., Toronto, who carried the lucky number, was on hand Friday night last with his wife. In a short speech, he expressed his great pleasure in this handsome car coming his way, all

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr and Mrs J. H. Gibson and daughter Coretta and son Master Jimmie of Erin; Mr and Mrs Geo. Finney of Acton; Mr and Mrs John A. McLellan, daughter and son-in-law, Mr and Mrs Alex. Ditta of Cleveland, Ohio, were guests of Mr and Mrs A. B. McLellan during Old Home Week.

Reunion Notes

Though arrangements to appear on the Reunion program were of an eleven-hour nature, Alie Phillips, British Empire diving champion, attracted a considerable crowd to John McGowan's dam on Wednesday to witness aquatic stunts for which he is noted. Added interest was taken in his exhibition upon learning that he was born in town about thirty years ago when his father was engaged in the butcher business here. His first demonstration of diving was at eleven o'clock in the morning when the Owen Sound Boys Band led a large procession to the scene while he again appeared at seven p.m. From a specially constructed diving board Alie showed why he represented Canada twice at Olympic games as he performed such dives as the swan, jackknife, back one and a half somersault, running full twist, one and a half front somersault and a triple somersault.

If there was one part of the entertainment program that was enjoyed more than another by many of the younger folks, it was the street dancing. Evernight, hundreds gathered on Lambton street and "tripped the light fantastic" to either round or square dance accompaniment. The pavement was treated so that it was equal to a dance floor and altogether it was no wonder the orchestras kept playing until the wee sma' hours. There was a crowd down town Wednesday night, which was variously estimated at from three to four thousand, and of this number, a large percentage found their way to the dance enclosures.

Residents are still talking about the Parade on the morning of Civic Holiday and for years to come, it will be set up as a standard for all calithumpion parades. The various floats, decorated cars, clowns and what have you, assembled at the wee sma' corner at north end of town and upon the arrival of the 48th Highlanders' Pipe and Brass Band from Toronto shortly after 10.30, the parade started off. The line of procession was along Main street to the foot of the hill, then westward along George to Bruce south to Lambton, east to Albert, south to South St., returning to main street and back up to the Town Hall.

The prize for the best historic float was awarded to the Durham Furniture Co. for their "Covered Wagon." Drawn by two teams of horses, this replica of the pioneer prairie schooner appeared complete in every detail and was loudly acclaimed. Second prize in this class went to a "Home, Sweet Home" float, peopled by a number of Durham ladies, including Mrs. R. Moorhead, Mrs. Tippett, etc. The best decorated car award went to Durham Girls' Softball team in their portrayal of the famous quintuplets with their nurses, parents and Dr. Dafoe. Second prize went to Annie Campbell and Beth Burnett.

For the best comic vehicle, Morris Smith picked up a topless Model T of ancient vintage and toted a group of the teaching profession a la 1890 costumes, namely Misses Agnes Petty, Anne Russell, Le Aljoe, Edna Browning and Beth Burnett. John Kinne's old-time gig and horse with two ladies in charge, drew second prize. The best walking comic was an unknown Mickey Mouse, second went to "Sadie and Sandy" and third to M. Little. Jean Town had the best decorated bicycle, second went to Alex. Allan, Dundak. A special prize by judges went to Ogle Cluchey for dog and wagon.

Among the personages in town on Monday was Reeve W. Riley of Meaford, Warden of Grey County. At the Civic reception at noon, when Mayor Kress gave his address of welcome and Reeve Hunter threw out a number of representative "keys" to the town, Mr. Riley welcomed all the visitors to Grey County, "the banner County" in the banner Province of Canada.

HYMENEAL LAWSON—LOGAN

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr and Mrs R. A. Lawson, Durham, on Thursday, Aug. 8th, at 3 o'clock when their eldest daughter, Mary Irene was married to William Seeley Logan, C. E. son of Mr and Mrs Wm. Logan, Arlington New Jersey. The marriage was performed by the Rev. John E. Thompson, Rector of Trinity Church, Durham.

Into the living room beautiful with a profusion of summer flowers, the bride entered on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by her sister, Isabel. The bride wore a fitted gown of ivory lace and carried an old fashioned nosegay. Only the immediate members of the family and Agnes Macphail, M.P. witnessed the ceremony. Following a buffet luncheon, Mr and Mrs Logan left by motor for New York.

TESSIER—LAWSON
