

Impressions of Old Home Week to Durham of Old Home Week Visitors

Well it is all over! The tumult and the shouting dies and there remains but memories of Durham's "First Old Home Week."

The thrills of citizenship are being gathered up and we believe it is a little too soon as yet, to express a general opinion as representative of those who were most concerned in the event.

Each and every official worked with a will to put the event across big, and because the weather man sent rain on Tuesday, is no reason to feel down-hearted.

First and all in the gathering, was the great joy evidenced in friends meeting friends after many years of absence.

The community spirit is a grand thing to foster and never before perhaps in Durham's history, were the people as much a unit in furthering the success of the event.

Bill, Norma, Ted and Merle Bailey, Regina, Sask. H. G. Becker, Oakville, Ont.

Mr. Peter Morrison of Ludner, B. C., was a welcome visitor at home of Mr and Mrs A. C. Macdonald over the weekend.

Miss Margaret Lunney is a patient in the Durham hospital this week. Glad to know her operation was successful.
