A new industry here is supplying many truck loads of basket bottoms manufactured at the shingle mill of Mr. J. C. Harrison. They are shipped to Oakville. Last Friday, Mrs. Harrison and daughter, who went with the truck, had made some dress goods purchases which were put in the truck. When on the way home it was discovered they were on fire. The goods was totally destroyed, the truck, itself requiring two new sills. How it occurred is a mystery to Mr Ray McLean, driver and owner of the truck. Mr. Archie McArthur of the Glen after long months of suffering, passed away on Sunday evening about sunset in the sunset of his life, highly respected as a friend and neighbor. To the lonely widow, sons and daughter, Mrs. Wilfrid Watson, we extend our warmest sympathy. After a long acquaintance of some 64 years, we have always found the deceased of the same friendly disposition and kindly manner. Religious services have been held each alternate Sunday at the Ebenezer a ppointment by the Rev. J. W. Johnston. On Sunday Sept. 8th, it is purposed having a harvest home service of praise and thanksgiving there, as a closing sequel or tribute
