sive nature, with a helping hand on all occasions, and to the children's love to her. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved.

On Thursday evening last a reception was held at the MacCaig home in honor of the bride and groom, Mr and Mrs Robt. Lawrence.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral services: Mrs A. J. Cairns, Meaford; Mr and Mrs W. G. Braiden and baby Eva, Misses Grace and Marion Braiden, Mr. Jno Braiden and sister.

Dear Mr and Mrs Lawrence: We, the former friends and neighbors of Mrs Lawrence, have gathered here to spend a social evening together.

Mr. McEeachie and boys visited recently with Mrs D. Scott, Preston. Mrs Mary Dezell with members of her family visited her sister Mrs McMurdo, Brantford.

Mr. Arch. Wilson's outfit has been threshing for several of the farmers west of the village the past week. The yield of grain is very good considering the dry season we have experienced in this district.

Mr. McEeachie then called upon Jno. Nichol, Findlay Clark, Mr. J. Nichol, Mrs Sutherland, who expressed their good wishes to Mr and Mrs Lawrence.

Mr and Mrs Alex. Darraeh of Harrison visited at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs W. Ramage Sunday last.

Recent visitors with Mrs McEeachie and Olive were: Mr and Mrs Martin Mephum and three sons of Windsor; Mrs Dr. Blake and two sons, Dick and Billie, and Miss Myrtle Blake of Hamilton.

Mr and Mrs Bill McKenzie of Dro more, Miss M. Cook of Toronto were recent guests at Ben McKenzie's.

Mr. Dave Hincks returned home Saturday from Durham hospital where he was a patient for a week.

HOPEVILLE

Mrs Will Riddell and boys visited recently with Mrs D. Scott, Preston. Mrs Mary Dezell with members of her family visited her sister Mrs McMurdo, Brantford.

We asked her if she was tired after the trip. She replied, "No, not a bit. I felt far better." Evidently you are just as old as you feel.

A Band of Gospel Crusaders from Toronto, who presented the gospel message in story, song and instrumental music, were much enjoyed at Bethany church, Sunday.

Mr and Mrs K. Clark and sons of Toronto spent over the weekend with their parents Mr and Mrs Dan McInnis.

On account of anniversary services at the sister churches of Proton and Innislogie, the services at Hopeville United will be cancelled, Sundays Sept. 22 and 29.

Mr. Arch. Wilson's outfit has been threshing for several of the farmers west of the village the past week. The yield of grain is very good considering the dry season we have experienced in this district.

Planned to hear Mrs. Edmund Scott has made such a good recovery from her recent operation in Orangeville hospital, to be able to return to the first of the week.

The young people of Bethany church, are having a corn and willow roast at the home of Mr. Will Dickie, Friday evening.

Miss Emma B. Dingwall, Cedarville, spent Sunday with friends in the village.

Mrs George Shand and infant son Donald George came home from Orangeville hospital Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs R. Bell and daughters of Toronto spent a few days with her parents, Mr and Mrs Walter Benham.

Mr. Lloyd Wiltshire was home from Orangeville Business College over the weekend.

Mrs Thos. Spence has not been so well the past few days. Dr. C. Middlebro of Owen Sound was called in consultation with Dr. Carter, Sunday.

A terrific storm of both cloudburst and cyclonic proportions passed over this vicinity late Saturday afternoon. It was the worst we ever want to witness.

We escaped the real violence which included about 20 roof strips, striking around Swinton Park where serious damage was reported; also several fine bush lots laid low.

It next twisted over to Mr. Arch. Ferguson's on Con. 14. Mr and Mrs Ferguson were in London at the time, attending the funeral of their nephew Alex Ferguson and their homecoming was a hard one, to see windows in their home blown in; barn and driving shed all torn to pieces.

The barn was completely demolished. Mr. A. McKinnon's buildings were also torn some; then over to Wm. Scott's where the whole roof, with the exception of three rafters, was carried off his fine bank barn.

This is a serious calamity at this time of year with all the crop in the barns and those suffering from the effects of the first, and we hope the last cyclone ever to visit this district, have the sympathy of everyone.

ZION

Zion W. I. met last Thursday at home of Mrs. W. J. Ritchie with 35 present. The grandmothers of the Institute were being entertained by other members.

Invitations had been sent to 22 grandmothers but only 12 were able to be present. Mrs H. McArthur took charge of the meeting. After business was finished Miss Sarah McLean gave reading on "Passing of a pioneer"; read by Messrs Arthur Robinson and Jim Peart.

Miss Mary Allen dressed as a pioneer re-cited the "Dionne Quintuplets". Mrs Ralph Staples who had recently enjoyed a trip north told of calling at Callander and seeing the five babies. Miss M. McGillivray a very interesting address on "Jacques Cartier".

Mrs H. Allen, pres., gave address of welcome to grandmothers and stated in her address that they were not only honoring the grandmothers of today, but the pioneer grandmothers also. Mrs W. J. Greenwood replied. Lunch was served by Mrs Ritchie and assistants.

Mr. R. T. Cook accompanied by Mrs H. McArthur, spent weekend in Toronto. Mrs R. T. Cook, who had been visiting there for some time, returned with them.
