Two Tragic Deaths in Georgian Bay

MISS MARY DAVEY, OF OWEN SOUND AND CHAS. MCKIM, OF MEAFORD, ARE VICTIMS TO ITS WATERS ON SUNDAY LAST

Owen Sound and Meaford are mourning the death of their residents which took place under tragic and very unusual conditions late Saturday night and Sunday morning respectively. Miss Mary Davey, aged 24, of Owen Sound, had attended a dance Saturday evening and with another girl friend was being taken home late Saturday evening, by Clark Boyd and Albert Porter of Meaford, when the terrible fatality occurred. The girl friend, Miss Marjory Rayner was first taken home and the boys were turning the car as they thought on to 2nd Ave East. Clark Boyd, who of establishing their own terms unwas driving soon knew he was in der which products can be grown and Lake Trout season, like the Bennett business and sportsmen of the town but still thought he had plenty of vestigate price spreads and to con- Give Aberhart time.
